TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A–1158 Part II]

PART 324—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT No. 14

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Findings of fact, conclusions of law, memorandum opinion and order in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 14 for establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Prairie Creek Coal Company No. 1 Mine (Mine Index No. 540) and for the coals of the New Blue Valley Coal Company, Blue Valley Mine (Mine Index No. 562), pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on November 10, 1941, by District Board No. 14 pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. In its petition the District Board requested establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for all shipments except truck and for truck shipments for certain mines in District No. 14, among them the mines of the Prairie Creek Coal Company (Mine Index No. 540) and the Blue Valley Coal Company (Mine Index No. 562).

For the mines of the Prairie Creek Coal Company the District Board proposed classification "C", in Size Group 3 for rail shipments and a price of $3.85 per ton for truck shipments, and a classification of "O" in Size Group 18 with a price of $3.15 per ton for truck shipments.

In the case of the New Blue Valley Coal Company, the District Board proposed the following classification when for rail shipments: "J", in Size Group 4, "K", in Size Groups 6, 7, and 8, "B", in Size Groups 14, 15, and 16, and "Q", in Size Group 18. For truck shipment, the District Board proposed a price of $4.05 in Size Groups 4, 6, 7, and 8, $1.35 in Size Group 14, $1.15 in Size Group 15, $1.05 in Size Group 16, and $3.15 in Size Group 18.

On November 24, 1941, the Prairie Creek Coal Company filed a petition of intervention requesting that the price classifications and minimum prices proposed by the District Board, for Size Groups 3 and 18 coal produced by the Prairie Creek Coal Company at its No. 1 Mine be denied and in their place that the Division establish a classification of "E" in Size Group 3 for rail shipment with a price of $3.55 for truck shipment, and a classification of "Q" in Size Group 18 for rail shipment, with $2.70 per ton for truck shipment.

On November 27, 1941, the New Blue Valley Coal Company filed a petition of intervention requesting that the Division establish the following prices for coal produced at its Blue Valley Mine:

Size group	Rail shipments (shown in letter symbols)	Truck shipments
4	L	$3.85
6	N	3.85
7	N	3.85
8	N	3.85
14	B	1.35
15	B	1.15
18	O	3.15

On December 16, 1941, the Acting Director issued an Order separating from Docket No. A–1158[1] and designating as Docket A–1158 Part II that portion of the former docket relating to the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals produced by the Prairie Creek Coal Company (Mine Index No. 540) and the New Blue Valley Coal Company, (Mine Index No. 562). Temporary price classifications and minimum prices were established for these mines by the Order of the Acting Director, dated December 16, 1941.

Pursuant to appropriate orders of the Acting Director and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing was held before Scott A. Dahlquist, a duly designated examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof, at Fort Smith, Arkansas. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. The petitioner, District Board 14, and the intervenors, Prairie Creek Coal Company and New Blue Valley Coal Company appeared. Preparation and filing of a report by the examiner were waived, and the record was thereupon submitted to the undersigned.

At the hearing a witness for the District Board testified that after the petitions of intervention were filed in this case, the Board conducted an investigation to determine whether or not the prices proposed for these mines, as compared with prices previously established for coals of other mines, properly reflected the value of all coal produced within District No. 14. As a result of such investigation it was stated that the District Board was of the opinion that the prices of coals produced by certain mines comparable to those produced by Prairie Creek Coal Company and New Blue Valley Coal Company should be increased and that a petition to that effect would be filed by the District Board in the immediate future.

As a result of this decision by the District Board, both the New Blue Valley Coal Company and the Prairie Creek Coal Company expressed themselves as satisfied with the prices proposed for them by the District Board and withdrew their petitions of intervention in which they had requested the establishment of other prices for their coals.

In its original petition the District Board had, at the request of the Prairie Creek Coal Company, proposed that the Division establish Excelsior, Arkansas, and Midland, Arkansas, as loading points for coals of that producer. In his Order dated December 16, 1941, the Acting Director called attention to the fact that in order to load at Excelsior the coal from the Prairie Creek Coal Company would have to be moved through or around Midland, and since no reason for such an arrangement had been shown, the classifications and minimum price for such coals, for rail shipment, are applicable only to loadings at Midland, Arkansas. At the hearing the testimony showed that Midland is on the St. Louis-San Francisco Railway Co. and Excelsior is on the Midland Valley Railroad. Midland is also on the Midland Valley Railroad. It appears that the reason for requesting the loading point at Midland is in order to take advantage of a train load rate of $2.00 per ton on coal to St. Louis. It further appears that the loading point at Excelsior would be used by the producer on shipments to points other than St. Louis, for which the loading point at Excelsior might be more advantageous in reaching other markets. However, at the present time the producer appears to be shipping most of its coal into the St. Louis market. No objection was made by the Prairie Creek Coal Company either to the District Board or to the Division because of the failure to obtain the two loading points, and as a matter of fact, in its petition of intervention, producer definitely stated that its loading point was Midland, Arkansas.

In the case of the New Blue Valley Coal Company, the District Board in proposing prices requested the establishment of loading points at both Hartman and Coal Hill, Arkansas. In its Order of December 16, 1941, the Division pointed out that Coal Hill is not on any railroad and accordingly established a loading point for the New Blue Valley Coal Company at Hartman, Arkansas only. At the hearing, the witness for the District Board testied that the establishment of Hartman as a single loading point was correct and agreeable to the producer.

On June 9, 1942, the District Board filed its petition proposing increases in prices and changes in price classification for certain mines. No hearing on this petition has as yet been held, however, and it therefore devolves upon the undersigned to grant relief in the premises without regard to the fact that intervenors have withdrawn their petitions, inasmuch as said petitions were withdrawn upon the representation that such a petition would be filed by the District Board in sufficient time to be considered in disposing of this matter. It would appear inequitable to withhold relief until that petition can be disposed of by appropriate hearing. In the event the relief requested by this later petition is granted, appropriate adjustments in the prices of the mines here involved can, if necessary, then be made.

It appears from the record that the coals of the New Blue Valley Coal Company are comparable and compete with those not only of the Acme Coal Company (Mine Index No. 148), but also those of the Liberty Coal Company (Mine Index No. 66), and the Kelly Coal Company, (Mine Index No. 528). The Acme Coal Company, however, uses a different method of mining, known as the solid shot system, while the New Blue Valley Coal Company, the Liberty Coal Company and the Kelly Coal Company all machine mine their coal. It appears appropriate, therefore, to establish prices and classifications for the coals of the New Blue Valley Coal Company, which are in line with those of the mines using the same method of operation. The prices proposed by the District Board and temporarily established by the Order dated December 16, 1941, for the New Blue Valley Coal Company are similar to those of mines using the same method of operation and should be established permanently.

In the case of the Prairie Creek Coal Company, the intervenor states that the coals of its mine are more nearly comparable to those of the Bull Moose Coal Company (Mine Index No. 158), A. M. Hobbs Coal Company (Mine Index No. 205), Bonanza Smokeless Coal Company (Mine Index No. 547), and Vandermillion Coal Company (Mine Index No. 341).

[1] As to the mines not severed, temporary and conditionally final minimum prices were established.

porarily established by the Order dated December 16, 1941, for the Prairie Creek Coal Company are in line with prices and classifications of other mines in the district and should be established permanently.

I can find no evidence in the record which supports a need for dual loading points at this time on the part of the Prairie Creek Coal Company nor have they signified any objection to the Order of December 16, 1941, in which this request was denied. In the case of the New Blue Valley Coal Company, the request for dual loading points has in effect been withdrawn.

For the foregoing reasons and based upon the findings of fact set forth above, I conclude that the price classifications and minimum prices proposed by the District Board and temporarily established by the Order of the Division dated December 16, 1941, for the New Blue Valley Coal Company (Mine Index No. 562), and the Prairie Creek Coal Company (Mine Index No. 540), are proper and will effectuate the purposes of sections 4 II (a) and 4 II (b) of the Act and will comply with all the standards thereof.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That § 334.5 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R and § 334.24 (General prices for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.[1]

Dated: July 23, 1942.

DAN H. WHEELER,
Acting Director.

[SEAL]

[1] These prices, of course, are subject to the temporary increases established in Docket No. A-1360, effective May 13, 1942.

At the hearing the District Board withdrew this request. However, on May 27, 1942, the District Board filed a petition requesting the amendment of Price Exception No. 5 to read as follows:

While no analyses were filed to support this claim, there is some indication in the record to support the position that stained coal from this mine should be priced the same as Size Group 3 coal produced by these mines. However, the record indicates that the lower portion of the seam, which is approximately three feet in thickness, is of a very firm structure, and comparable to coals priced at $4.15 per ton. Further, the witness for the District Board stated that in its proposed petition it would request an increase for Mine Index Nos. 158, 205 and 517 in this size group from $3.55 to $3.70. In its original petition the District Board requested that a permissible reduction of 15 cents on account of stained coal be granted the Prairie Creek Coal Company.

Prices listed herein for all code members in all production groups may be reduced a maximum of 15 cents per net ton for stained off-grade coal, in Size Groups 1 through 8, inclusive, and Size Group 18: Provided, That the District Board, with the approval of the Bituminous Coal Division, upon petition of the producer, or upon its own motion, determines that such coal is stained off-grade coal. All orders, acknowledgments, and invoices shall contain a complete description of such stained off-grade coal.

The Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief was issued on July 10, 1942 in Docket No. A-1479.

It appears, therefore, that the prices proposed by the District Board and temporarily established by the Order of the Division dated December 16, 1941, are proper and will effectuate the purposes of sections 4 II (a) and 4 II (b) of the Act and will comply with all the standards thereof.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That § 334.5 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R and § 334.24 (General prices for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.[1]

Dated: July 23, 1942.

PART 323—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 3

[Docket No. A-1324]

ORDER MAKING RELIEF PERMANENT

Findings of fact, conclusions of law, memorandum opinion, and order in the matter of the petition of Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 3 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 3.

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division (the "Division") on February 17, 1942, by District Board 3, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the "Act"), requesting the establishment for all shipments except truck of the price classification "F" for a mixture of the coals of the Emily Mine (Mine Index No. 54) and the Emily #2 Mine (Mine Index No. 1241) of the Monongahela Rail and River Coal Corporation ("Monongahela").

On March 7, 1942, 7 F.R. 2147, the Acting Director issued an order consolidating the above-entitled matter with Docket No. A-1327 and granting temporary and conditionally final relief by appending to the District No. 3 schedule for all shipments except truck a note reading:

If coals from Mine Index 54 and 1241 are loaded into the same car, the minimum price that shall apply to the mixture shall be the price which is listed for the coal in the mixture which has the highest price classification. (Classification "F" in Size Groups 1 to 10, inclusive).

On April 21, 1942, the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel ("Consumers' Counsel") filed an answer[1] opposing the temporary and conditionally final relief on the ground that the price classifications and minimum prices temporarily established for such mixture were predicated solely upon the allegation that the producer asked for the establishment for the mixture of the same classification as that of the coal in the mixture having the highest price classification, and on the further grounds that such price classifications and minimum prices for the mixture do not give due consideration to the interests of the consuming public and do not reflect the quality and the relative market value of the coal. The answer prayed for the termination of the temporary and conditionally final relief or its modification so that the applicable minimum prices be determined in accordance with the proportions of the different coals going into the mixture, for a severance of this Docket from Docket No. A-1327, and for a public hearing to be held.

By Order dated May 23, 1942, 7 F.R. 3947, Docket No. A-1324 was severed from Docket No. A-1327, and the temporary relief granted in the Order of March 7, 1942, as to Mine Index Nos. 54 and 1241 was continued in effect until otherwise ordered.

Pursuant to order of the Acting Director, a hearing in this matter was held on June 25, 1942, before Examiner Charles S. Mitchell, at a hearing room of the Division in Washington, D. C. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present and participate fully in the hearing. Petitioner and Consumers' Counsel appeared. Daniel P. Buckley, Chairman of District Board 3, was the only witness.

The openings of Mine Index Nos. 54 and 1241 are approximately 400 yards apart. Both mines are in Freight Origin Group No. 52 and have Maidsville, West Virginia, as their shipping point over the Monongahela Railway. Both mines are served by the same tipple, which is located closer to Mine Index No. 54. On trips to the tipple over a tramroad, cars from both mines are run at the same time, the tonnage from each mine being too small to justify the coals of Mine Index No. 54 and of Mine Index No. 1241 being picked up separately. To construct a separate tipple for each mine would be impractical, not only because of the small tonnage involved, but also because Mine Index No. 1241 produces coal from the Redstone Seam, which is 30 feet higher than the Pittsburgh Seam from which Mine Index No. 54 produces. It was testified that if a tipple were to be erected at Mine Index No. 1241 it would be necessary to float the cars down as the mine is on the side of a hill; this is said to be impractical. The petition averred that it would be difficult to operate the tipple without in some degree mixing the coals from the two mines prepared there. The uncontroverted evidence was to the effect that it would be impossible to prepare the coals of the two mines from the same tipple without mixing them, and that Mine Index No. 1241 would be forced to shut down if the privilege of mixing were denied.

The coals of Mine Index No. 54 are classified "F" and those of Mine Index No. 1241 are classified "J" (15 cents less per ton) in Size Groups 1 to 10, inclusive, which are the only Size Groups in which these coals are classified. The coals of both mines are priced identically for truck shipments, except that those of Mine Index No. 54 are priced 10 cents higher in Size Group No. 5 (run of mine).

The coals of these two mines are sold in normal times principally for railroad locomotive fuel use, but substantial amounts are also sold for cement burning purposes. Under present conditions some sales are made to war industries, but few sales are ever made for domestic use.

The coals produced at Mine Index Nos. 54 and 1241 are similar in character to those of the majority of the Pittsburgh Seam (except the low-sulphur coals) and the Redstone Seam coals, respectively.

The physical characteristics of the coals of these two mines are about the same except that Mine Index No. 1241 coals have a slight stain, giving them a reddish color in the domestic sizes and in mine run, which is not noticeable in the screenings. This discoloration in the mine run is not objectionable when the coal is used for railroad locomotive fuel. The analyses of the coals of the two mines indicate that the mixture of the coals of the two mines contains less ash than the coals of Mine Index No. 1241 and that the ash fusion temperature is decreased below that of those coals. The sulphur content of the mixture is lower than that of Mine Index No. 54, and, it was testified, would be preferable to some customers. The average percentage run over the tipple is 75 percent of Mine Index No. 54 coals and 25 percent of Mine Index No. 1241 coals. Evidence was presented that, if the ratio of coals from these two mines in the mixture were changed to 50 percent each, giving the lower price of Mine Index No. 1241 coals to the mixture would result in an advantage to Monongahela over its competitors, especially in a normal market. No opposition to the requested relief was raised by operators in District No. 3 or other districts.

Accordingly, I find that a mixture of coals produced at Mine Index Nos. 54 and 1241 is proper, in view of the method of preparation of the coals at the same tipple. I further find that such mixture should take the minimum price of the higher-priced coal in the mixture, in view of the physical and analytical characteristics of the coals, their markets, and their uses, and in order to maintain the proper coordination of the prices of these mixed coals and the prices of competing coals, and to effectuate the purposes of sections 4 II (a) and 4 II (b) of the Act and to comply in all respects with the standards thereof.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the temporary relief continued in effect by the Order of May 23, 1942, severing this Docket from Docket No. A-1327, be and it hereby is made permanent, so that § 323.6 (Alphabetical list of code members) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 3 for All Shipments Except Truck be and it hereby is supplemented by including therein a note reading as follows:

If coals from Mine Index Nos. 54 and 1241 are loaded into the same car, the minimum price that shall apply to the mixture shall be the price which is listed for the coal in the mixture which has the highest price classification. (Classification "F" in Size Groups 1 to 10, inclusive.)

Chapter IX—War Production Board

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

NORTHUMBERLAND CORPORATION OF NEW YORK

Northumberland Corporation of New York, New York, is a former silk converter. It owns the Wyoming Textile Company, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, a former silk weaver. After restrictions were placed on the use of silk, the Northumberland Corporation applied for and received allocations of reserved rayon yarn pursuant to the provisions of Supplementary Order M–37–a.[1] The company knew that Supplementary Order M–37–a prohibited the unauthorized delivery of reserved rayon yarn. Nevertheless, during the months of January, February, and March, 1942, the company, without authorization delivered to various companies for commission knitting reserved rayon yarn which had been allocated to it for weaving by Wyoming Textile Company. During April, 1942, the company violated Supplementary Order M–37–c[2] by making similar deliveries of reserved rayon yarn without authorization. Deliveries in violation of Supplementary Orders M–37–a and M–37–c amounted to a total of 23,523 pounds.

These violations of Supplementary Orders M–37–a and M–37–c, dealing with the supply and distribution of rayon yarn, have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States by diverting reserved rayon yarn to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing,

It is hereby ordered:

§ 1010.69 Suspension Order No. 69. (a) Deliveries of material to Northumberland Corporation, or Wyoming Textile Company, its wholly owned subsidiary, their successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of Preference Rating Certificates, Preference Rating Orders, General Preference Orders or any other orders or regulations of the Director-General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to Northumberland Corporation, or Wyoming Textile Company, its wholly owned subsidiary, their successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Northumberland Corporation, or Wyoming Textile Company, its wholly owned subsidiary, their successors and assigns, shall not order or accept the delivery of reserved rayon yarn, as the same is defined in Supplementary Order M–37–c, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(d) Nothing contained in this Order shall be deemed to relieve Northumberland Corporation, or Wyoming Textile Company, its wholly owned subsidiary, their successors and assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations, or the Director General for Operations, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) This Order shall take effect on August 1, 1942, and shall expire on November 1, 1942, at which time the restrictions contained in this Order shall be of no further effect. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–70]

ALUMINUM PRODUCTS COMPANY

Aluminum Products Company, LaGrange, Illinois, is a manufacturer of aluminum kitchen utensils and various aluminum specialties. In connection with such manufacture, the company maintains a rolling mill and fabricating division. During the period of June 1 to December 31, 1941, the company, in wilful disregard of General Preference Order M–1[1] and Supplementary Order M–1–a[2] delivered aluminum to its fabricating division for use in the manufacture of aluminum utensils and various specialties, despite the fact that no authorization therefor had been obtained from the Director of Industry Operations. From June 1, 1941, through April 9, 1942, the company manufactured such articles, having a total value in excess of $265,000. During October 1941, the company delivered aluminum and manufactured therefrom milking machine pails of a total value of approximately $26,000 despite the fact that it had requested authorization for such delivery and manufacture and authorization had been specifically denied. Furthermore, in using aluminum in the manufacture of such articles as pots and vacuum cleaners after January 23, 1942, the company wilfully violated Supplementary Order M–1–e [2] which prohibits the use of aluminum in the manufacture of all but certain specified essential items.

These violations of General Preference Order M–1 and Supplementary Orders M–1–a and M–1–e have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States by diverting aluminum to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing,

It is hereby ordered:

§ 1010.70 Suspension Order No. 70. (a) Aluminum Products Company, its successors and assigns, shall accept no deliveries from any source of primary aluminum, secondary aluminum, aluminum scrap, or alloys of which aluminum constitutes the major part for a period of six months from the effective date of this Order, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) Aluminum Products Company, its sucessors and assigns, shall not process, fabricate, assemble or in any way use any primary aluminum, secondary aluminum, aluminum scrap, or alloys of which aluminum constitutes the major part for a period of six months from the effective date of this Order, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Aluminum Products Company, its successors and assigns, shall not transfer or deliver any articles, heretofore produced by it which contain aluminum, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations: Provided, however, That it may deliver or transfer any such articles for the purpose of storing the same for its own account.

(d) Nothing contained in this Order shall be deemed to relieve Aluminum Products Company, its successors and assigns, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Direction of Industry Operations, or the Director General for Operations, except insofar as the same may be inconsistent herewith.

(e) This Order shall take effect on August 1, 1942, and shall remain in effect until revoked. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. The term does not include electric power meters for use on direct current or on polyphase circuits, maximum demand meters, or integrating meters, calibrated in terms other than electric power (i. e. meters integrating weight, pressure, etc.)

[1] 7 F.R. 5272.

(3) "Manufacture" means the production, fabrication or assembly of any domestic watthour meters.

(b) Prohibition of production. On and after September 26, 1942, regardless of the terms of any order, contract of sale, or purchase, or other commitment, or of any preference rating certificate, or blanket preference rating order, no person shall manufacture any domestic watthour meters or accept delivery of any raw material, semi-fabricated or fabricated parts for incorporation into any domestic watthour meters.

(c) Restrictions on production until the date of prohibition. During the period beginning on the date of issuance of this order and ending September 25, 1942, no person shall manufacture a number of domestic watthour meters in excess of 2½ percent of the aggregate number of domestic watthour meters manufactured by such person during the calendar year 1941.

(i) The names of the purchaser and seller,

(ii) The purchaser's inventory of domestic watthour meters

(iii) The number of units for which authorization is requested,

(iv) The purpose for which the meters are to be used by the purchaser and their relation to military needs, war production, public health and safety.

Authorization will, if advisable, be granted on Form PD–423, which form shall be retained by the manufacturer.

(e) Parts for repairs and maintenance. The provisions of this order restricting or prohibiting the manufacture, delivery or acquisition of domestic watthour meters shall not apply to the manufacture, delivery or acquisition of parts for repair or maintenance of domestic watthour meters: Provided, however, That no person shall manufacture repair or maintenance parts to the extent that such production will result in such person acquiring an inventory of such parts in excess of his average monthly inventory thereof during the calendar year of 1941.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Records and reports. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years, accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board, such reports and questionnaires as the War Production Board shall from time to time require. Not later than 15 days after the date of issuance of this order, and thereafter on the tenth day of each succeeding calendar month, each manufacturer shall file a report, in quadruplicate, in letter form showing:

(iii) His unfilled orders, scheduled for delivery during the current and succeeding months;

Provided, however, That no such report need be made of deliveries of or unfilled orders for maintenance and repair parts.

(2) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order, or who wilfully furnishes false information to the Director General for Operations in connection with this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director General for Operations.

(3) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the Director General for Operations, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(4) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board Washington, D. A new section, § 1340.247a, is added to read as set forth below:

§ 1340.247a Petitions for adjustment. (a) The Office of Price Administration, or any duly authorized officer thereof, may by order adjust the maximum prices established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 121 for any seller of miscellaneous solid fuels in any case in which such seller shows:

(1) That such maximum price causes him substantial hardship and is abnormally low in relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of miscellaneous solid fuels; and

(2) That establishing for him a maximum price, bearing a normal relationship to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of miscellaneous solid fuels, will not cause or threaten to cause an increase in the level of retail prices of miscellaneous solid fuels.

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

[Amendment 1 to Maximum Rent Regulation 33 [1]]

Maximum Rent Regulation No. 33 for housing accommodations other than hotels and rooming houses in the Petersburg Defense-Rental Area.

In the judgment of the Administrator, rents for housing accommodations within the Petersburg Defense-Rental Area, as designated in the Designation and Rent Declaration issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended on May 30, 1942, have not been reduced and stabilized by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations set forth in the said Designation and Rent Declaration.

The Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within the Petersburg Defense-Rental Area on or about April 1, 1941. It is his judgment that defense activities had not resulted in increases in rents for such housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 prior to April 1, 1941, but did result in such increases commencing on or about that date. The Administrator has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability in respect of such housing accommodations, including increases or decreases in property taxes and other costs.

In the judgment of the Administrator, the maximum rents established by this Maximum Rent Regulation for housing accommodations within the Petersburg Defense-Rental Area will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by the Act, this Maximum Rent Regulation is hereby issued.

§ 1388.2051 Scope of regulation. (a) This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 33 applies to all housing accommodations within the Petersburg Defense-Rental Area, as designated in the Designation and Rent Declaration (§§ 1388.1101 to 1388.1105,[2] inclusive) issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended on May 30, 1942 (consisting of the Independent Cities of Hopewell and Petersburg, the Counties of Dinwiddie and Prince George, and in the County of Chesterfield the Magisterial District of Matoaca, in the State of Virginia), except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

The title, preamble and § 1388.3001 (a) of Maximum Rent Regulation No. 34A are hereby amended to read as follows:

Maximum Rent Regulation No. 34A for hotels and rooming houses in the Petersburg Defense-Rental Area.

In the judgment of the Administrator, rents for housing accommodations within the Petersburg Defense-Rental Area, as designated in the Designation and Rent Declaration issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended on May 30, 1942, have not been reduced and stabilized by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations set forth in the said Designation and Rent Declaration.

The Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within the Petersburg Defense-Rental Area on or about April 1, 1941. It is his judgment that defense activities had not resulted in increases in rents for such housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 prior to April 1, 1941, but did result in such increases commencing on or about that date. The Administrator has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability in respect of such housing accommodations, including increases or decreases in property taxes and other costs.

In the judgment of the Administrator, the maximum rents established by this Maximum Rent Regulation for rooms in hotels and rooming houses within the Petersburg Defense-Rental Area will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by the Act, this Maximum Rent Regulation is hereby issued.

§ 1388.3001 Scope of regulation. (a) This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 34A applies to all rooms in hotels and rooming houses within the Petersburg Defense-Rental Area, as designated in the Designation and Rent Declaration (§§ 1388.1101 to 1388.1105,[2] inclusive) issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended on May 30, 1942 (consisting of the Independent Cities of Hopewell and Petersburg, the Counties of Dinwiddie and Prince George, and in the County of Chesterfield the Magisterial District of Matoaca, in the State of Virginia), except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

PART 1393—ICE

[Amendment 1 to Maximum Price Regulation 154 as Amended[1]]

APPLICATIONS FOR ADJUSTMENT

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

In § 1393.8, the headnote and paragraphs (b) and (c) are amended, and a new paragraph (d) is added, as set forth below:

§ 1393.8 Applications for adjustment. * * *

(b) In making application for adjustment under paragraph (a) of this section, any manufacturer of ice who sells ice at retail and also sells ice to distributors and peddlers for resale at retail may make application for adjustment on behalf of those distributors and peddlers who customarily purchase ice from him. If an adjustment of the manufacturer's maximum price is granted upon such application, a like adjustment of the maximum prices of the distributors and peddlers included in the application may be granted. In any such case the manufacturer's prices to such distributors and peddlers may be, but are not required to be, increased by an amount not in excess of the adjustment granted with respect to retail prices. In the event any such manufacturer raised his retail prices during April 1942, so that it is unnecessary for him to make an application under paragraph (a) of this section, but some or all of the distributors and peddlers who customarily purchase ice from him did not raise their prices during April 1942, such manufacturer may make application for adjustment on behalf of such distributors and peddlers. In such case an adjustment of the maximum prices of the distributors and peddlers included in the application may be granted which shall not exceed the increase in retail prices effected by the manufacturer during April 1942.

(c) The Office of Price Administration, or any duly authorized officer thereof, may by Order adjust the maximum prices established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 154 As Amended, for any seller of ice other than a seller at retail in any case in which such seller shows:

(1) That such maximum price cause him substantial hardship and is abnormally low in relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of ice; and

(2) That establishing for him a maximum price bearing a normal relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of ice will not cause or threaten to cause an increase in the level of retail prices.

Applications for adjustment under this paragraph (c) shall be filed in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1.[2]

(d) Any person seeking relief, for which no provision is made in the foregoing paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section, from a maximum price established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 154 as amended may present the special circumstances of his case in an application for an order of adjustment. Such an application shall be filed in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1 and shall set forth the facts relating to the hardship to which such maximum price subjects the applicant together with a statement of the reasons why he believes that the granting of relief in his case and in all like cases will not defeat or impair the policy of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 154 as amended, to eliminate the danger of inflation.

(c) Amendment No. 1 (§ 1393.8) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 154, as amended, shall become effective August 5, 1942.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 31st day of July 1942.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Marketing Administration.

CINCINNATI, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF REPORT AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT, AND TO A PROPOSED MARKETING ORDER, REGULATING HANDLING OF MILK, PREPARED BY THE ADMINISTRATOR OF THE AGRICULTURAL MARKETING ADMINISTRATION

Pursuant to § 900.12 (a)[1] of the General Regulations, as amended, of the Agricultural Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, governing proceedings to formulate marketing orders and marketing agreements, notice is hereby given of the filing with the hearing clerk of this report of the Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Administration, with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and to a proposed marketing order regulating the handling of milk in the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area. Interested parties may file exceptions to the report with the Hearing Clerk, Room 0312, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 7th day after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary Statement

The proceedings were initiated by the Agricultural Marketing Administration upon receipt of a petition dated March 9, 1942, from the Cincinnati Sales Association, Cincinnati, Ohio, for a public hearing on a marketing agreement and marketing order program which it proposed. Following this request a number of proposed provisions were received from other interested parties. After consideration of all the proposals received, notice of the hearing was issued on April 16, 1942, and the hearing was convened on May 5, 1942. The time for filing briefs was set at the close of the hearing, to expire at midnight May 16, 1942.

The underlying issue in this proceeding is whether or not the Secretary shall issue a marketing order. It is concluded from the record that an order should be issued and that a marketing agreement should be offered to the handlers who regularly sell milk in the prescribed marketing area to be known as the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area, irrespective of the original source of the milk sold. By this means orderly marketing conditions will be promoted and preserved and the policy of the act will be effectuated.

From the conclusion on the underlying issue, several principal issues pertaining to certain features of the proposed program assume prominence from the record, as follows:

1. What constitutes the most practical marketing area, and what constitutes its supply of milk which should be regulated?

2. At what level shall the minimum class prices be fixed?

3. By what method shall the proceeds of these minimum prices be distributed to producers?

On these issues, it is concluded that:

1. The marketing area should include the city of Cincinnati, Ohio, and the territory within the boundary lines of Hamilton County, Ohio.

2. Parity prices calculated from the period August 1919–July 1929 are unreasonable in view of present conditions and that the prices fixed will reflect the price of feeds, the available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect the market supply and demand for milk produced for sale in the marketing area, will insure a sufficient supply of pure and wholesome milk for such area, and will be in the public interest.

3. The reserve supplies of milk of the fluid milk plants serving the marketing area are not proportionately distributed among the handlers of milk, and in order that equity as among producers and as among handlers may be achieved, payment should be made to all producers delivering milk to all handlers of uniform prices for all milk so delivered, irrespective of the uses made of such milk by the individual handler to whom it is delivered.

4. The purchasing power of milk in the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area, specified in sections 2 and 8e of the act cannot be determined satisfactorily from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the period August 1909–July 1914, but can be determined satisfactorily from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the post-war period August 1919–July 1929, and that the post-war period should be the base period to be used in determining the purchasing power of milk sold in the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area.

The following proposed marketing order and proposed marketing agreement prepared pursuant to § 900.12 (a) of the General Regulations, As Amended, Agricultural Marketing Administration, are recommended as the detailed means by which these conclusions may be carried out.

This report filed at Washington, D. C., the 30th day of July 1942.

[SEAL] ROY F. HENDRICKSON, Administrator.

PROPOSED MARKETING ORDER, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE CINCINNATI, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

It is found upon the evidence introduced at the public hearing held in Cincinnati, Ohio, May 5 and 6, 1942:

Findings

1. That prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8e (50 Stat. 246; 7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 602, 608e), are not reasonable in view of the available supplies of feeds, the price of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the supply of and demand for such milk and that the minimum prices set forth in this order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and that the fixing of such prices does not have for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers above the levels which are declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish;

2. That all handling of milk sold or disposed of by handlers as defined in section 1 (a) (5) of this order is in the current of interstate commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in milk or its products, and that handlers so defined are engaged in the handling of milk which is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in milk or its products;

3. That the order regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to handlers defined in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

4. That a prorata assessment on handlers as provided by section 9 of this order at a rate not to exceed 2 cents per hundredweight on all milk received from producers, or produced by them, during each delivery period will provide funds necessary to pay such expenses as necessarily will be incurred by the market administrator under such order for the maintenance and proper functioning of his office; and

5. That orderly conditions for milk flowing into the Cincinnati, Ohio, marketing area are so disrupted as to result in the impairment of the purchasing power of such milk, and that the issuance of this order and all of its terms and conditions, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) Reports to a cooperative association. In the event a handler receives milk during the delivery period from a cooperative association, either directly or from producers who have authorized such cooperative association to receive payments for them under section 8 (b), such handler shall submit to such cooperative association, on or before the 10th day after the end of the delivery period, a report of the utilization of such milk determined pursuant to section 4. For the purpose of this report the milk so received shall be prorated to each class in the proportions that the total receipts of milk from producers by such handler were used in each class.

(c) Verification of reports. Each handler shall make available to the market administrator or his agent, or to such other person as the Secretary may designate, (1) those records which are necessary for the verification of the information contained in the reports submitted in accordance with this section, and (2) those facilities which are necessary for the sampling and for weighing of the milk of each producer.

SEC. 4. Classification of milk—(a) Basis of classification. Milk handled by a cooperative association under the conditions set forth in section 1 (a) (5) and milk received by each handler, including milk produced by him, shall be classified by the market administrator in the classes set forth in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Classes of utilization. The classes of utilization of milk shall be as follows:

(1) Class I milk shall be all milk and skim milk disposed of in the form of milk, buttermilk, and milk drinks, whether plain or flavored, and all milk not accounted for as Class II milk or Class III milk.

(2) Class II milk shall be all milk used to produce cream (for consumption as cream) and creamed cottage cheese.

(3) Class III milk shall be all milk accounted for (i) as actual plant shrinkage but not to exceed 2½ percent of total receipts of milk from producers (including the handler's own production) and (ii) as used to produce a milk product other than those specified in Class II milk.

(c) Interhandler and nonhandler sales. Milk or skim milk disposed of by a handler to another handler or to a person who is not a handler but who distributes milk or manufactures milk products, shall be Class I milk: Provided, That if the selling handler on or before the 10th day after the end of the delivery period furnishes to the market administrator a statement, which is signed by the buyer and the seller, that such milk or skim milk was used as Class II milk or Class III milk, such milk or skim milk shall be classified accordingly, subject to verification by the market administrator.

(d) Computation of milk in each class. For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute for each handler the amount of milk in each class, as defined in paragraph (b) of this section, as follows:

(1) Determine the total pounds of milk (i) received from producers, including milk of the handler's own production, (ii) received from other handlers, (iii) received as emergency milk, (iv) received as milk or cream (converted to 4.0 percent milk equivalent) from any other source, and (v) add together the resulting amounts.

(2) Determine the total pounds of butterfat received as follows: (i) multiply the weight of the milk received from producers, including the handler's own production, by its average butterfat test; (ii) multiply the weight of milk received from other handlers by its average butterfat test; (iii) multiply the weight of emergency milk by its average butterfat test; (iv) multiply the weight of milk and cream received from any other source by its average butterfat test; and (v) add together the resulting amounts.

(3) Determine the total pounds of milk in Class I as follows: (i) convert to half pints the quantity of milk and skim milk disposed of in the form of milk, buttermilk, and milk drinks, whether plain or flavored, and multiply by 0.5375; (ii) multiply the result by the average butterfat test of such milk; and (iii) if the quantity of butterfat so computed, when added to the pounds of butterfat in Class II milk and Class III milk computed pursuant to subparagraphs (4) (ii) and (5) (iv) of this paragraph, is less than the total pounds of butterfat received, computed in accordance with subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, an amount equal to the difference shall be divided by 4.0 percent and the resulting amount shall be added to the quantity of milk determined pursuant to (i) of this subparagraph.

(4) Determine the total pounds of milk in Class II as follows: (i) multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class II milk by its average butterfat test; (ii) add together the resulting amounts; and (iii) divide the result obtained in (ii) of this subparagraph by 4.0 percent.

(5) Determine the total pounds of milk in Class III as follows: (i) multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class III milk by its average butterfat test (ii) add together the resulting amounts; (iii) subtract the total pounds of butterfat in Class I milk and Class II milk, computed pursuant to subparagraphs (3) (ii) and (4) (ii) of this paragraph, and the total pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to (i) of this subparagraph, from the total pounds of butterfat computed pursuant to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, which resulting quantity shall be allowed as plant shrinkage for the purposes of this paragraph (but in no event shall such plant shrinkage allowance exceed 2½ percent of the total receipts of butterfat from producers by the handler); (iv) add together the results obtained in (ii) and (iii) of this subparagraph; and (v) divide the sum obtained in (iv) of this subparagraph by 4.0 percent.

(6) Determine the classification of milk received from producers, as follows: (i) subtract from the total pounds of milk in each class the total pounds of milk which were received from other handlers and used in such class; (ii) subtract pro rata out of the remaining milk in each class the total pounds of emergency milk; and (iii) subtract from the remaining milk in each class the total pounds of milk (and milk equivalent of cream converted to 4.0 percent milk), except emergency milk, received from sources other than producers or handlers and used in such class.

(e) Reconciliation of utilization of milk by classes with receipts of milk from producers. (1) If the total utilization of milk in the various classes for any handler, as computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section, is less than the receipts of milk from producers, the market administrator shall increase the total pounds of milk in Class III for such handler by an amount equal to the difference between the receipts of milk from producers and the total utilization of milk by classes for such handler.

(2) If the total utilization of milk in the various classes for any handler, as computed pursuant to paragraph (d) of this section, is greater than the receipts of milk from producers, the market administrator shall decrease the total pounds of milk in Class III for such handler by an amount equal to the difference between the receipts of milk from producers and the total utilization of milk by classes for such handler.

SEC. 5. Prices—(a) Class prices. Except as set forth in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section each handler shall pay at the time and in the manner set forth in section 7 not less than the following prices per hundredweight for milk received at such handler's plant, on the basis of milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content, as follows:

(1) Class I milk, $3.55.

(2) Class II milk, $2.65.

(3) Class III milk, the price resulting from the following computation by the market administrator: determine the arithmetical average of the basic, or field, prices per hundredweight ascertained to have been paid for milk of 4.0 percent butterfat content received during the delivery period at the following plants:

Concern and location of plants

M. & R. Dietetic Laboratories, Inc., Chillicothe, Ohio.
Carnation Milk Co., Hillsboro, Ohio.
Nestle's Milk Products, Inc., Greenville, Ohio.
Osgood Milk Co., Osgood, Ind.
Carnation Milk Co., Maysville, Ky.

Provided, That if the price so determined is less than the price computed by the market administrator in accordance with the following formula, such formula price shall be the price for Class III milk for the delivery period: multiply by 4 the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received, and add 20 percent: Provided, That such price shall be subject to the following adjustments: (i) add 3½ cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of dry skim milk for human consumption is above 5½ cents per pound, or (ii) subtract 3½ cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of such dry skim milk is below 5½ cents per pound. For purposes of determining these adjustments the price per pound of dry skim milk to be used shall be the average of the carlot prices for dry skim milk for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plant, as published by the United States Department of Agriculture for a Chicago area during the delivery period, including in such average the quotations published for any fractional part of the previous delivery period which were not published and available for the price determination of such dry skim milk for the previous delivery period. In the event the United States Department of Agriculture does not publish carlot prices for dry skim milk for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plant, the average of the carlot prices for dry skim milk for human consumption, delivered at Chicago, shall be used, and the following adjustments shall be made in lieu of the adjustments set forth above: add 3½ cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of dry skim milk for human consumption, delivered at Chicago, is above 7½ cents per pound, or subtract 3½ cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that such price of dry skim milk at Chicago is below 7½ cents per pound.

(b) Price of Class I milk disposed of outside the marketing area. (1) The price to be paid by such handler for Class I milk disposed of outside the marketing area, in lieu of the price otherwise applicable pursuant to this section and except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, shall be, as ascertained by the market administrator, such price as is being paid to farmers for milk of equivalent use in the market where such milk is disposed of, subject to a reasonable adjustment on account of transportation with respect to Class I milk moved from the handler's plant in the marketing area to the plant outside the marketing area where such milk was loaded on wholesale and retail routes: Provided, That such Class I price minus the adjustment for transportation shall not be lower than the price for Class I milk determined pursuant to paragraph (a) (1) of this section, less 20 cents.

(2) The price to be paid by such handler for Class I milk disposed of outside the marketing area for which no price can be ascertained on the basis provided for in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, including Class I milk disposed of to Government institutions and establishments, shall be the price for Class I milk determined pursuant to paragraph (a) (1) of this section.

(c) Price of Class I milk disposed of for relief distribution. The price to be paid by such handler for Class I milk disposed of through a recognized relief agency or under a program approved by the Secretary for the sale or disposition of milk to low-income consumers, including persons on relief, shall be the price for Class I milk determined under paragraph (a) (1) of this section, less 46 cents.

(d) Computation of value of milk for each handler. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute the value of milk which each handler has received from producers (including milk of his own production), as follows:

(1) Multiply the hundredweight of milk in each class, computed in accordance with section 4 (d) and (e) by the respective class prices for 4 percent milk: Provided, That if the butterfat content of milk received by such handler from producers (including milk of his own production) is other than 4 percent, there shall be added, for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content above 4 percent, or there shall be subtracted, for each one-tenth of 1 percent of average butterfat content below 4 percent, an amount computed as follows: to the average price per pound of 92-score butter at wholesale in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received, add 20 percent thereof, and divide the result by 10.

If such handler has received milk (or cream), except emergency milk, from sources other than producers or handlers as referred to in section 4 (d) (6) (iii), and has disposed of such milk (or cream) other than as Class III milk, there shall be added to the value of milk thus far determined an additional amount computed as follows: multiply the hundredweight of such milk (or milk equivalent of cream) by the difference between the Class III price and the price applicable to the class in which it was disposed.

For the hundredweight of milk involved in any adjustment made pursuant to section 4 (e) the handler shall be debited or credited, as the case may be, at the Class III price.

(2) Add together the resulting amounts.

(3) If, in the verification of reports submitted by the handler, the market administrator discovers errors in such reports which result in payments due the producer-settlement fund or the handler for any previous delivery period, there shall be added or subtracted, as the case may be, the amount necessary to correct such errors.

(e) Notification to each handler of value of milk. On or before the 13th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall bill each handler for the value of milk computed in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section.

SEC. 6. Computation and announcement of uniform price. For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute and announce the uniform price, as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(a) Computation of uniform price. The market administrator shall compute the uniform price per hundredweight of milk received by handlers during each delivery period as follows:

(1) Add together the values of milk as computed in section 5 (d) for each handler who made the payments to the producer-settlement fund as required by section 7 (b).

(2) Subtract, if the average butterfat test of all such milk is greater than 4.0 percent, or add, if the average butterfat test of such milk is less than 4.0 percent, an amount computed as follows: multiply the hundredweight of milk by the variance of such average butterfat test from 4.0 percent, and multiply the resulting amount by $0.50 if the average price of butter sold at wholesale in the Chicago market during the delivery period, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture, was more than 40 cents; by $0.40 if such average price of butter was more than 30 cents; or by $0.30 if such average price of butter was 30 cents or less.

(3) Add the cash balance in the producer-settlement fund.

(4) Divide by the total hundredweight of milk received.

(5) Subtract from the figure obtained in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight for the purpose of retaining a cash balance to provide against errors in reports and in payments by handlers. The result shall be known as the uniform price per hundredweight for such delivery period for milk of producers which contains 4.0 percent butterfat.

(b) Announcement of prices and transportation rates. On or before the beginning of the following delivery period, the market administrator shall notify each handler of the uniform price for milk, and of the price for Class III milk, and shall make public announcement of the uniform price computation. From time to time, the market administrator shall also publicly announce the amounts per hundredweight deducted by each handler from the payments made to producers pursuant to section 8, and the amounts actually paid to handlers, for the transportation of milk from the farms of producers to such handler's plant or plants, as ascertained from reports submitted pursuant to section 3 (a) (3).

SEC. 7. Payment for milk—(a) Payment to producers. On or before the 5th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay, with respect to all milk received during the delivery period, $1 per hundredweight of milk to each producer: Provided, That in the event the total amount of the deductions and charges authorized by any producer against payments due such producer for the delivery period next preceding is greater than the payment computed for such producer pursuant to section 8 (a) with respect to milk received from such producer during such preceding delivery period, the handler may deduct from the payment required by this paragraph a sum equal to the difference between such amounts.

(b) Payment to producer-settlement fund. On or before the 17th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay to the market administrator the amount of money which represents the value of milk billed to him for such delivery period, pursuant to section 5 (d), less the amount paid out to each producer in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section, and less the amount of the deductions and charges authorized by such producer which are itemized on the handler's producer pay roll: Provided, That in the calculation of the total amount of such deductions and charges to be subtracted, the deductions and charges to be considered with respect to each individual producer shall not be greater than an amount which, when added to the payment made to such producer in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section (inclusive of the deductions and charges authorized by paragraph (a) of this section), will not exceed the total value of the milk received from such producer. The market administrator shall maintain a separate fund, known as the producer-settlement fund, in which he shall deposit all payments of handlers received pursuant to this paragraph.

SEC. 8. Payments from producer-settlement fund—(a) Calculation of payments for each producer. For each delivery period, the market administrator shall calculate the payment due each producer from whom milk was received during such delivery period by a handler who paid into the producer-settlement fund in accordance with section 7, as follows:

(1) Multiply the hundredweight of milk received from each producer by the uniform price computed in accordance with section 6 (a): Provided, That if the milk of such producer was of an average butterfat content other than 4.0 percent, there shall be added or subtracted for each one-tenth of 1 percent variance above or below 4 percent, 5 cents if the average price of butter described in section 6 (a) (2) was more than 40 cents, 4 cents if such average price of butter was more than 30 cents, or 3 cents if such average price of butter was 30 cents or less.

(2) Subtract the amount of the payment made pursuant to section 7 (a), and the charges and the deductions, if any, which are made pursuant to section 7 (b).

(b) Payments. On or before the 20th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall pay, subject to the provisions of section 10, to each cooperative association authorized to receive payments due producers who market their milk through such cooperative association, the aggregate of payments calculated pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, for all producers certified to the market administrator by such cooperative association as having authorized such cooperative association to receive such payments, and shall pay direct to each producer, who has not been certified as having authorized such cooperative association to receive such payments, the amount of the payments calculated pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section.

CONSOLIDATED ELECTRIC AND GAS CO., ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on the 30th day of July, A. D. 1942.

In the matter of Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, Baraga County Light and Power Company, Central Indiana Gas Company, Citizens Gas Company, Florida Public Utilities Company, Hoosier Gas Corporation, Houghton County Electric Light Company, Lynchburg Gas Company, and Maine Public Service Company.

Notice is hereby given that declarations or applications (or both) have been filed with this Commission by Consolidated Electric and Gas Company, a registered holding company, and its subsidiary companies, Baraga County Light and Power Company, Central Indiana Gas Company, Citizens Gas Company, Florida Public Utilities Company, Hoosier Gas Corporation, Houghton County Electric Light Company, Lynchburg Gas Company, and Maine Public Service Company, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly sections 6, 7, 9, 10, and 12 thereof and Rules U-42, U-43, U-44, U-45 and U-50 of the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. All interested persons are referred to said declarations or applications, which are on file in the office of said Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

Consolidated Gas and Electric Company (hereinafter referred to as Consolidated) proposes to redeem and retire Central Gas and Electric Company First Lien Collateral Trust Sinking Fund Bonds (hereinafter referred to as Cengas Bonds) in the principal amount of $7,490,600, heretofore assumed by Consolidated. Pledged as collateral under the Cengas Bonds are certain securities of Central Indiana Gas Company (hereinafter referred to as Indiana), Florida Public Utilities Company (hereinafter referred to as Florida), Hoosier Gas Corporation (hereinafter referred to as Hoosier), Houghton County Electric Light and Power Company (hereinafter referred to as Houghton), Lynchburg Gas Company (hereinafter referred to as Lynchburg) and Maine Public Service Company (hereinafter referred to as Maine). Central, Florida, Hoosier, Houghton, Lynchburg and Maine, severally, propose to issue and sell first mortgage bonds and to use the proceeds in part to retire the securities owned by Consolidated and pledged under the Cengas Bonds. Preliminary thereto Baraga is to be merged into Houghton and Consolidated is to sell Maine and New Brunswick Electrical Power Company, Limited, to Maine.

The plan submitted is to be effected by the following proposed transactions:

(1) Consolidated will sell to Houghton all of Baraga's outstanding common stock for approximately $300,000 which will be paid for with a promissory note of Houghton in the face amount of $210,000 and the issuance of additional shares of the common stock of Houghton at their par value. This note and common stock of Houghton will be pledged by Consolidated under the Cengas indenture.

Baraga will then be liquidated and Houghton will acquire its assets and either assume or pay its outstanding 4% bonds in the amount of $290,000 held by an insurance company.

(2) Houghton proposes to issue and sell $1,300,000 first mortgage bonds and to apply the proceeds (a) to redeem and retire the $290,000 Baraga bonds and (b) to pay Consolidated $1,010,000 to retire $800,000 face amount of Houghton 6% notes, presently owned by Consolidated, and the $210,000 Houghton note, above mentioned.

In case the $290,000 of assumed bonds of Baraga cannot be redeemed, they will remain outstanding and the amount of new bonds to be issued will be reduced to $1,000,000.

(3) Consolidated, which owns all the outstanding securities of Maine and New Brunswick Electrical Power Company, Limited, with the exception of $7,900 of 6% Perpetual Debenture Stock, proposes to sell these securities (which are pledged under the Cengas Indenture), to Maine for approximately $1,400,000. Maine proposes, in exchange for the securities so to be transferred to it, to issue and deliver to Consolidated a promissory note in the principal amount of $507,200.39, and additional shares of common stock of an aggregate par value equivalent to the balance of the purchase price, which securities will be pledged under the Cengas Indenture.

(4) Maine proposes to issue and sell $2,000,000 principal amount of first mortgage bonds and to apply the proceeds in payment of its 5% and 6% notes in the aggregate face amount of $1,492,799.61 and the $507,200.39 note described above, both notes being held and pledged by Consolidated under the Cengas Indenture.

(5) Indiana proposes to issue and sell $3,750,000 principal amount of first mortgage bonds and to apply the proceeds upon its present obligations as follows: (a) to redeem $1,281,000 principal amount of publicly held Series A Bonds at 103, (b) to redeem 1,881 publicly held shares of 6½% Cumulative Preferred Stock (par $100) at 105, (c) to pay $1,675,000 principal amount of Series B Bonds at par (owned and pledged by Consolidated under the Cengas Indenture), (d) to pay $558,065 on acount of 5% note in the face amount of $1,625,000 (owned and pledged by Consolidated under the Cengas Indenture).

The unpaid balance of the 5% note and 3,119 shares of 6½% Cumulative Preferred Stock (owned and pledged by Consolidated under the Cengas Indenture) will be surrendered by Consolidated as a capital contribution.

(6) Citizen proposes to issue and sell $100,000 principal amount of first mortgage bonds and to apply the proceeds in part payment of its First Mortgage 5½% Bonds in the principal amount of $209,000 owned by Consolidated and pledged under the Cengas Indenture. The unpaid balance of the bonds will be discharged by the issue of additional shares of common stock, at stated value, which will then be pledged by Consolidated under the Cengas Indenture.

(7) Florida proposes to issue and sell $1,400,000 principal amount of first mortgage bonds and to apply the proceeds in part payment of its 6% notes in the aggregate face amount of $2,100,500 owned by Consolidated and pledged under the Cengas Indenture. The unpaid balance of the notes will be discharged by the issuance of additional common stock which will be pledged under the Cengas Indenture.

(8) Hoosier proposes to issue and sell $350,000 principal amount of first mortgage bonds and to apply the proceeds (a) to redeem and retire at par a Newton Pipe Line Company Bond (heretofore assumed by it) in the principal amount of $36,500, (b) to retire at par its First Mortgage 6% Bonds in the principal amount of $87,500 owned and pledged by Consolidated under the Cengas Indenture, and (c) to apply $224,000 to its 6% Ten Year Subordinated Income Notes, owned and pledged by Consolidated under the Cengas Indenture. The unpaid balance of the notes is to be discharged at par by the issuance of additional shares of common stock, at stated value of $25 per share, which will be pledged by Consolidated under the Cengas Indenture.

(9) Lynchburg proposes to issue and sell $500,000 principal amount of first mortgage bonds and to apply the proceeds in partial payment of its 6% note in the face amount of $889,800 which is owned and pledged by Consolidated under the Cengas Indenture. The unpaid balance of the note will be discharged at par by the issuance of additional common stock at a stated value of $50 per share, which will be pledged under the Cengas Indenture.

(10) Consolidated will received from its subsidiary companies approximately $7,554,565, all of which will be deposited with the trustee of the Cengas Indenture. The funds so deposited will be applied to the redemption of all the 6% Series of the Cengas Bonds at 102 and of all the 5½% Series of the Cengas Bonds at 102¼. Consolidated will supply whatever remaining cash will be needed to consummate the proposed redemptions.

Indiana, Florida, Houghton and Maine request exemption from the competitive bidding requirements of paragraphs (b) and (c) of Rule U-50, pursuant to paragraph (a) (5) of Rule U-50, with respect to the issuance and sale of bonds by Indiana, Florida, Houghton and Maine.

Additional information concerning the proposed transactions is to be filed by amendment.

It is ordered, That a hearing on such matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and rules of the Commission thereunder be held on August 18, 1942, at 10:00 o'clock a. m., E. W. T., at the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in the room designated on said day by the hearing-room clerk in Room 318. Notice is hereby given of said hearing to the above-named declarants or applicants and to all interested persons, said notice to be given to said declarants or applicants by registered mail and to all other persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That Charles S. Lobinger or another officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said application and declaration, particular attention will be directed at said hearing to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the issue and sale by each of the said subsidiary companies of their own securities, for which exemption is sought from section 6 (a) of the above-cited Act, are solely for the purpose of financing the business of such respective subsidiary companies and have been expressly authorized by the State commissions of the States in which such subsidiary companies are respectively organized and doing business.

(2) Whether the common stock and bonds to be issued and sold by Florida are reasonably adapted to the security structure and earning power of Florida and other companies in the holding company system of which it is a part; whether the issue and sale are necessary or appropriate to the economical and efficient operation of a business in which Florida is lawfully engaged or has an interest; whether the terms and conditions of the issue and sale are detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers; whether there has been compliance with applicable state laws with respect to the issue and sale.

(3) Whether the acquisition of securities by Consolidated or any of its subsidiary companies (a) will tend toward interlocking relations or the concentration of control of public utility companies, of a kind or to an extent detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers; (b) will unduly complicate the capital structure of the holding-company system or will be detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers or the proper functioning of the holding-company system; (c) is detrimental to the carrying out of the provisions of section 11; aid (d) will tend toward the economical and efficient development of an integrated public-utility system.

(4) Whether there has been compliance with applicable state laws in respect to each of the several transactions proposed.

(5) Whether the issuance and sale of bonds by Indiana, Florida, Houghton and Maine should be exempted in accordance with Rule U-50 (a) (5) from the competitive bidding requirements of paragraphs (b) and (c) of Rule U-50.

(6) What, if any, terms and conditions should be imposed, pursuant to the applicable statutory provisions, by any order, or orders, if such should be entered, approving the said several proposed transactions, or any one or more of them, as necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers.

(7) Generally, whether all actions proposed to be taken, comply with the requirements of such Act and rules, regulations, or orders promulgated thereunder.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 30th day of July, A. D. 1942.

Notice is hereby given that a declaration or application (or both) has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by the above named parties; and Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than August 12, 1942 at 5:30 P. M., E. W. T., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the reasons for such request and the nature of his interest, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time thereafter such declaration or application, as filed or as amended, may become effective or may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the Rules and Regulations promulgated pursuant to said Act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Philadelphia, Pa.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration or application, which is on file in the office of said Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized below:

The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Transport Company, a nonutility subsidiary of The North American Company, a registered holding company, proposes (1) to redeem on September 1, 1942, at par plus accumulated interest $250,000 principal amount of its First Mortgage 4% Bonds, such bonds being outstanding in the aggregate principal amount of $9,200,000 and being pledged under the mortgage of Wisconsin Electric Power Company, a public utility subsidiary of The North American Company and the parent of The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Transport Company; (2) to purchase, retire, and cancel, and Wisconsin Electric Power Company proposes to sell, at par, 5,000 shares of The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Transport Company's common capital stock, par value $100 per share, from Wisconsin Electric Power Company, the owner of all the outstanding securities of The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Transport Company.

The application or declaration states that Wisconsin Electric Power Company will obtain the release of the required amount of bonds from its mortgage by certifying to the trustee thereof a sufficient amount of net bondable property additions, and will reinvest the funds to be received by it from the proposed redemption and sale to meet, in part, capital expenditures required to be made by it in the completion of its current construction program.

It is further stated that The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Transport Company has accumulated cash substantially in excess of its requirements and desires to reduce its capital obligations insofar as surplus capital funds are available for such purposes and that the expenditure of $750,000 by The Milwaukee Electric Railway & Transport Company will not impair its ability adequately to meet its increased demands for transportation service in and around the City of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

It is further stated that the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin has no jurisdiction over the proposed redemption of bonds but that it has jurisdiction over the proposed sale by Wisconsin Electric Power Company of said 5,000 shares of stock, and Wisconsin Electric Power Company in its application to the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin has offered to accept a condition to the effect that the company will deduct $500,000 in addition to all other required deductions from net bondable property additions certified to the trustee under its mortgage; and further, that there are no underwriters or persons to whom fees, commissions, or other remuneration are to be paid other than a nominal fee to be paid to said trustee by Wisconsin Electric Power Company in connection with the release from the trust estate of the bonds to be redeemed.

By the Commission.

§ 729.104 Instructions and forms. The Administrator of the Agricultural Conservation and Adjustment Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture shall cause to be prepared and issued, with his approval, such instructions and forms as may be required to carry out the regulations in this part.

Section 729.105 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 729.105 Normal yield. The county committee, with the assistance of the other local committees established in the county, shall determine the normal yield per acre of peanuts for each farm on which a farm acreage allotment is established. The normal yield for peanuts for any farm for which a farm acreage allotment is determined shall be the average yield per acre of peanuts for the farm, adjusted for type of soil, production practices, general fertility of the land, and abnormal conditions, during the years 1936–1940, inclusive, except that for any county in which the years 1935–1939, inclusive, are equally as representative, such period may be used in determining normal yields for farms in the county.

The following sections are added:

FARM MARKETING QUOTAS

§ 729.108 Peanuts subject to marketing quotas. Peanuts planted during the calendar year 1942 shall be subject to the marketing quotas applicable to the 1942 crop of peanuts whether marketed in 1942 or later.

§ 729.109 Farm marketing quota—(a) Amount of farm marketing quota. The farm marketing quota for any farm shall be the number of pounds of peanuts equal to the amount of the normal production or the actual production, whichever is the larger, of the farm acreage allotment.

(b) Initial farm marketing quota. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the amount of the normal production of the farm acreage allotment shall be the farm marketing quota for any farm unless and until it is determined by the county committee that the actual production of the farm acreage allotment therefor is in excess of the normal production thereof. If measurements for any farm are prevented by the producer, the farm marketing quota therefor shall be the normal production of the farm acreage allotment.

(c) Farm marketing quotas based on actual production. When the actual production of the farm acreage allotment for any farm is found by the county committee to be in excess of the normal production of the farm acreage allotment, the farm marketing quota for the farm shall be adjusted upward by the amount by which the actual production of the farm acreage allotment exceeds the normal production thereof. Such adjustments shall be made as soon as practicable after the acreage of peanuts on the farm has been determined and the total production of peanuts on the farm is established from satisfactory records of the actual production presented to the county committee: Provided, That an intermediate adjustment for any farm may be made earlier upon the request of any producer on the farm to whom a marketing card is issued if it is determined by the county committee that the actual production of the acreage of peanuts harvested at the time of the request exceeds the normal production of the farm acreage allotment.

§ 729.110 Notice of farm marketing quota. Written notice of the farm acreage allotment and normal yield and farm marketing quota established for a farm shall be mailed or delivered to the operator of the farm or other producer on the farm. Notice given pursuant to this section shall constitute notice to each producer having an interest in the 1942 peanut crop produced on the farm. Each notice shall contain a brief statement of the procedure whereby application for a review of the farm marketing quota may be had in accordance with section 363 of the Act.

§ 729.111 Review of quotas—(a) Right to review by review committee. Any producer who is dissatisfied with the farm acreage allotment, normal yield, or the farm marketing quota, or other determination for his farm in connection with marketing quotas, may, within 15 calendar days after notice thereof was mailed or delivered to him, apply in writing for a review by a review committee of such acreage allotment, normal yield, farm marketing quota, or other determination in connection therewith. Unless application for review is made within such period, the acreage allotment, the normal yield, the farm marketing quota, or the determination, as the case may be, shall be final as to the producers on the farm. Application for review and the review committee proceedings shall be in accordance with the review regulations (38–AAA–2) as issued and revised by the Secretary.

(b) Court review. If the producer is dissatisfied with the determination of the review committee, he may, within 15 days after notice of such determination is mailed to him by registered mail, institute proceedings against the review committee to have the determination of the review committee reviewed by a court in accordance with section 365 of the Act.

§ 729.112 Successors-in-interest. Any person who succeeds in whole or in part to the interest of a producer in a farm, or in the peanuts produced thereon, shall, to the same extent as his predecessor, be entitled to all the rights and privileges incident to the marketing quota established for the farm and be subject to the same restrictions on the marketing of peanuts.

§ 729.113 Marketing quotas not transferable. The farm marketing quota may not be assigned or otherwise transferred in whole or in part to any other farm and no peanuts shall be marketed under the quota for any farm other than peanuts actually produced on the farm.

IDENTIFICATION AND MEASUREMENT OF FARMS

§ 729.114 Identification of farms. Each farm as operated for the 1942 crop of peanuts shall be identified by a farm serial number, assigned by the county committee.

§ 729.115 Measurement of farms. The county committee shall provide for measuring each peanut farm in the county in accordance with the procedure approved for use by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency.

MARKETING CARDS

§ 729.116 Issuance of marketing cards—(a) Farms to receive marketing cards. One or more marketing cards (form PN–611) shall be issued for each farm from which peanuts of the 1942 crop will be marketed regardless of whether a peanut acreage allotment has been determined for the farm for 1942.

(b) Persons eligible to receive marketing cards. A marketing card shall be issued to the operator of the farm and, if the county committee finds it will serve a useful purpose, to other producers on the farm.

(c) Authorized quota sales to be shown on the card. Each marketing card issued for a farm shall show a number of pounds of peanuts which may be marketed thereunder as authorized quota sales. The amount of such peanuts shall be determined as follows:

(1) If only one marketing card is issued for the farm, the authorized quota sales shall be:

(i) For a farm on which the acreage of peanuts picked or threshed is one acre or less, the acreage of peanuts on the farm times the estimated yield per acre determined for the farm by the county committee or the actual yield per acre for the farm, if known.

(ii) For a farm for which a peanut acreage allotment has been established other than a publicly-owned experiment station, the amount of the farm marketing quota.

(iii) For a publicly-owned experiment station farm, the larger of the amount determined pursuant to subdivision (ii) or the amount obtained by multiplying the acreage of peanuts grown for experimental purposes only by the estimated yield per acre determined for the farm by the county committee or the actual yield per acre for the farm, if known.

(iv) For any other farm, no amount of peanuts to be marketed as quota sales shall be shown.

(2) Where more than one marketing card is issued for the farm, the sum of the number of pounds of peanuts to be shown on the several cards as authorized quota sales shall not exceed the amount which would be shown if only one marketing card were issued for the farm under subparagraph (1) above. The amount of peanuts to be shown as authorized quota sales on a marketing card issued to any producer other than the operator shall be such producer's share of the amount which would be shown if only one marketing card were issued for the farm under subparagraph (1) above. The shares of the producers shall be determined by the county committee in accordance with the following:

(i) Upon the basis of an agreement signed by the several producers on the farm, setting forth their respective shares (either in pounds or percentages) in the amount of peanuts which may be marketed from the farm as quota peanuts. Such agreement shall not be acceptable if the share of the quota claimed by any producer exceeds the result obtained by multiplying the larger of the normal yield or the actual yield, for the farm, by his share of the acreage of peanuts.

(ii) In the event the producers fail or refuse to submit an acceptable agreement, the shares of the respective producers shall be determined by the county committee in accordance with one of the following:

(a) Evidence presented by the producers tending to show an understanding as to a division of the peanut acreage allotment or farm marketing quota, taking into account, among other pertinent factors, the purpose for which seed peanuts were purchased by the several producers, whether for planting peanuts for oil or for planting quota peanuts.

(b) The past history of the production of peanuts on the farm, that is, the number of acres grown in prior years by the producers having an interest in the peanuts on the farm or the acreage shares of the same producers in the farm peanut acreage allotment for the preceding year.

(c) The proportionate shares of the several producers in the acreage of peanuts planted in 1942, excluding from each producer's share of the acreage planted the number of acres which the committee finds, from evidence presented to it, will be hogged off or harvested for hay.

(d) Issuance of marketing cards. The county committee shall designate one person employed in its office as issuing officer to issue and sign marketing cards for farms in the county, but such person may, subject to the approval of the committee, designate not more than three persons in the office of the county committee to sign his name in issuing marketing cards, provided that any person designated by the issuing officer shall place his initials immediately beneath the name of the issuing officer as written by him on the card. The issuing officer shall cause to be entered on each marketing card the number of pounds of authorized quota sales and on the summary of memoranda of sales and each memorandum of sale contained therein (1) the farm serial number and (2) the name and address of the county association.

§ 729.117 Invalid marketing cards—(a) Cards which are invalid. A marketing card shall be invalid under any of the following conditions:

(1) If it is not issued in the form and in the manner prescribed.

(2) If it is lost, destroyed, or stolen, mutilated, or becomes illegible.

(3) If any entry thereon or on the summary of memoranda of sales has been erased or has been altered and has not been properly initialed, in the case of the marketing card, by the issuing officer, or, in the case of the summary of memoranda of sales, by the buyer making such erasure or alteration.

(4) If the summary of memoranda of sales has been detached therefrom.

(b) Return of invalid cards and the replacement thereof. Any marketing card which is invalid shall be returned to the office of the issuing officer by the producer or person having possession of the card. Upon the return of the card the issuing officer shall, upon request, issue and deliver a valid card in accordance with the provisions of §729.116. In case any marketing card is lost, destroyed, or stolen, the producer to whom the card was issued or any other person having knowledge of such loss, destruction, or theft shall give written notice to the county office from which the card was issued. If the county committee, on the basis of its investigation, finds that such marketing card was in fact lost, destroyed, or stolen, it shall cancel such marketing card by giving written notice to the producer to whom the card was issued (and to all buyers who serve the county or vicinity, if it was lost or stolen), and if it finds that there has been no collusion or connivance on the part of the producer to whom the card was issued in connection with such loss, destruction, or theft, the issuing officer shall, upon the request of the producer, issue a valid card. A marketing card issued under this section shall have entered thereon as authorized quota sales the amount which should have been shown on the marketing card which is replaced less the amount of peanuts determined to have been marketed as quota peanuts before such replaced card was lost, destroyed, or stolen. Otherwise, the marketing card shall be prepared and issued as provided in § 729.116.

(c) Cards erroneously issued. Any marketing card erroneously issued shall, immediately upon discovery of the error, be canceled by the county committee. The producer to whom such card is issued, if such card was delivered, shall be notified in writing that the card is invalid and of no effect and that it shall be returned. Upon return of such card, another card may be issued as provided in paragraph (b) of this section. In the event that the erroneously issued marketing card is not returned promptly, the county committee shall notify all buyers who serve the county, or the vicinity, that the marketing card is canceled.

§ 729.118 Report of possible misuse of marketing card. Any person having information which causes him to believe that any marketing card is being, has been, or is likely to be used in identifying peanuts produced on a farm other than the farm for which it was issued, or that peanuts are being marketed from any farm without the use of a marketing card, shall report such information immediately to the county State office.

IDENTIFICATION OF PEANUTS

§ 729.119 Identification of peanuts—(a) Time and manner of identification. Each marketing of peanuts from the crop produced on each farm shall be identified by a valid memorandum of sale from a valid marketing card issued to the producer on the farm. The marketing card shall be presented to the buyer at the time of each marketing of peanuts from the farm by the producer on the farm to whom the marketing card was issued or his representative. Each memorandum of sale shall be executed to show, on the basis of information shown on the marketing card, the amount of peanuts identified thereby which are (1) marketed as quota peanuts; (2) marketed as excess peanuts to a designated agency or a sub-agent thereof for oil; and (3) marketed as excess peanuts subject to the penalty of 3 cents per pound. A memorandum of sale shall be valid only when presented with the marketing card and only when all entries required thereon and on the marketing card have been made correctly. The marketing of any peanuts not separated from the vines at the time of such marketing nevertheless shall be identified as provided in these regulations and the amount of peanuts marketed shall be the estimated or known weight of the peanuts exclusive of the weight of the vines. If shelled peanuts are marketed, the poundage thereof shall be converted to the weight of unshelled peanuts by multiplying the number of pounds of shelled peanuts by 1.5 and the result shall be the number of pounds considered as marketed under the regulations in this part.

(b) Extent to which peanuts are identified as quota peanuts and as excess peanuts. The amount of peanuts identified by a valid memorandum of sale from a valid marketing card as quota peanuts and as excess peanuts shall be determined in accordance with the following rules:

(1) If no peanuts are authorized to be marketed under the marketing card as quota sales, the entire amount of each lot of peanuts marketed shall be identified as excess peanuts.

(2) If peanuts are authorized to be marketed under the marketing card as quota sales, the quantity of peanuts which may be identified and marketed as quota peanuts shall not exceed the number of pounds authorized to be marketed as quota sales, as shown on the marketing card, less the total number of pounds of peanuts previously marketed as quota sales and recorded on the summary of memoranda of sales contained in the marketing card. All other peanuts marketed shall be identified as excess peanuts. Any peanuts which are not identified by a valid memorandum of sale from a valid marketing card shall be identified as excess peanuts by a form PN–613 executed by the buyer and the producer.

(c) Excess peanuts subject to penalty. The marketing of any peanuts which are identified in accordance with this section as excess peanuts shall, if the peanuts are marketed to a person other than a designated agency or sub-agent thereof, be subject to the penalty.

(d) Excess peanuts not subject to penalty. The marketing of any peanuts which are identified in accordance with this section as excess peanuts shall not be subject to the penalty if delivered to and marketed through a designated agency or sub-agent thereof; provided the producer is paid for such peanuts the market value thereof for crushing for oil, as of the date of delivery, less the estimated cost of storing, handling, and selling such peanuts as determined by the Secretary.

(e) Peanuts not identified. All peanuts marketed by a producer which are not identified in accordance with the regulations in this part shall be subject to penalty.

PENALTY

§ 729.120 Penalties for marketing excess peanuts—(a) Amount of penalties and time when due. The rate of the penalty for the marketing of excess peanuts shall be 3 cents per pound, except that the collection and payment of the penalty will not be required if the peanuts are delivered to and marketed through a designated agency or sub-agent thereof as provided in § 729.119 (d). The penalty shall be due at the time the peanuts are marketed.

(b) Payment of penalties. The penalty shall be paid by the buyer acquiring the excess peanuts from the producer not later than one week after the date the peanuts were marketed to such buyer by remitting the amount thereof to the State office of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency. The buyer may collect the penalty by deducting the amount thereof from the purchase price paid the producer. If the buyer fails to collect the penalty, the buyer and the producer(s) having a share in the peanuts produced on the farm shall be jointly and severally liable for the amount of the penalty.

(c) Form of remittance. The penalties shall be remitted to the State committee by check, draft, or money order drawn payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States. All checks and drafts will be received subject to collection and payment at par.

§ 729.121 Deposit of funds. All funds received by any State office in connection with the marketing of peanuts shall be deposited to the credit of a special deposit account with the Treasurer of the United States in the name of the Chief Disbursing Officer of the Treasury Department (hereinafter referred to as "special deposit account").

§ 729.122 Refunds and transfers of money in excess of the penalty. As soon as practicable the county committee shall, for each farm for which penalties have been paid, determine (1) the total amount paid in excess of the penalties actually due with respect to marketings from the farm, if any; (2) the producers who bore the burden of the payment of the excess amount; and (3) the amount thereof due each such producer as a refund. The county committee or its representative shall certify its findings to the State committee or the authorized official of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, who shall review each case and cause to be certified for payment to the producer(s) the amount approved as a refund. The State committee shall cause to be scheduled for transfer from the special deposit account and covered into the general fund of the Treasury the amount of the penalties as finally determined.

§ 729.123 Quota peanuts marketed and identified as excess peanuts. If any peanuts which are in fact quota peanuts are marketed and identified in accordance with the regulations in this part as excess peanuts, when delivered to or marketed through a designated agency or sub-agent thereof, the county committee or its representative shall issue a certificate identifying such peanuts as quota peanuts. The designated agency shall pay to the producer in connection with such peanuts, upon the presentation of such certificate, an amount equivalent to that by which the prices for such quota peanuts approved by the Secretary exceeds the prices for excess peanuts for oil determined by the Secretary or his authorized representative, in effect on the date the peanuts were delivered to the agency. Any certificate issued pursuant to this section shall be void if not presented to a designated agency on or before June 16, 1943.

§ 729.124 Excess peanuts marketed and identified as quota peanuts—(a) Through or to a designated agency. If any peanuts which are in fact excess peanuts are marketed and identified in accordance with these regulations as quota peanuts, when delivered to or marketed through a designated agency or sub-agent thereof, the producer(s) on the farm shall, upon receipt of notice from the county committee of his correct marketing quota, refund to the designated agency, with respect to such peanuts, an amount equivalent to that by which the prices for quota peanuts approved by the Secretary exceed the prices for excess peanuts for oil determined by the Secretary or his authorized representative, in effect on the day such peanuts were so delivered and marketed.

The county committee shall certify to the designated agency the amount of refund due and upon collection of the amount due shall transmit the check in payment thereof to the designated agency.

(b) Through or to a buyer other than a designated agency. If any peanuts which are in fact excess peanuts are marketed and identified in accordance with these regulations as quota peanuts, when delivered to or marketed through a buyer other than a designated agency, the producer(s) on the farm, upon establishing to the satisfaction of the county committee the type, grade, class, price received, and date of marketing of such peanuts may, in lieu of paying the penalty of 3 cents per pound, pay to the Treasurer of the United States through the office of the county committee or the office of the State committee, with respect to such peanuts, an amount equivalent to that by which the price received for such peanuts exceeds the price for excess peanuts for oil determined by the Secretary or his authorized representative, in effect on the date such peanuts were so delivered and marketed, had such peanuts been delivered to or marketed through a designated agency as excess peanuts. If the producer fails to remit such amount within 60 calendar days after the date of a notice of penalty due, then the marketing of such peanuts will be subject to the penalty, which shall be paid by the producer.

Each producer on the farm who markets peanuts shall, at the time the report required by this paragraph is to be made, surrender to the farm operator or to the county committee the marketing card issued to him, if any, and all copies of form(s) PN–613, showing the above information with respect to peanuts produced by him which were marketed by him and which were otherwise disposed of or retained by him. If such producer's marketing card and copies of PN–613 are surrendered to the county committee either by the producer or by the operator, they shall be considered as a part of the operator's report.

(d) Additional reports. The county committee shall require, and the operator or producer shall furnish, such additional reports as may be necessary to obtain complete information with respect to the marketing of peanuts from the farm and with respect to peanuts produced on the farm but not marketed therefrom.

MISCELLANEOUS

§ 729.136 Penalty for false identification or failure to account for the disposition of any peanuts. If, in the course of marketing, any peanuts produced on one farm are falsely identified by a representation that such peanuts were produced on another farm, or if there is a failure to make a report of the disposition of peanuts available for marketing from any farm, each person participating in the false identification of the peanuts or failing to make a report of the disposition of such peanuts, as required by the regulations in this part, shall be subject to a penalty of $25 for each acre, or fraction thereof, of peanuts in excess of the farm acreage allotment for the farm on which such peanuts were produced, and this penalty shall be in addition to any other penalty due. The term "peanuts available for marketing from any farm" as used in this section means the entire quantity of peanuts picked or threshed from the 1942 crop produced on the farm.

§ 729.137 Data to be kept confidential. Except as otherwise provided herein, all data reported to or acquired pursuant to the provisions of these regulations shall be kept confidential by all officers and employees of the United States Department of Agriculture and by all members, officers, and employees of State and county committees and only such data so reported or acquired as the Secretary deems relevant shall be disclosed by them and then only in a suit or administrative hearing under Title III of the Act.

§ 729.138 Enforcement. It shall be the duty of the county committee to report in writing to the State committee each case of failure or refusal to make any report or keep any record as required by these regulations in this part, or to pay or remit any penalty incurred under these regulations in this part, or any other violation of these regulations. It shall be the duty of the State committee to report in writing to the United States Department of Agriculture each such violation with a view to the institution of proceedings by the United States Attorney for the appropriate district, under the direction of the Attorney General of the United States, to enforce the provisions of Title III of the Act.

§ 729.139 Inspection of unmarketed peanuts. If the State committee or county committee has reason to believe that any peanuts reported by any operator or producer to be unmarketed have in fact been marketed, or if the committee has reason to believe that the records cannot be properly completed otherwise, the committee shall provide for the inspection of the peanuts or of documents evidencing title thereto, by one or more of its members or one of its officers or employees or any person duly designated as a representative of the Secretary. If, upon the basis of such inspection, the committee finds that all or part of the peanuts reported as unmarketed are not in the actual or constructive possession of the operator or other producer, or if the operator or producer fails or refuses to permit the inspection of the peanuts or of documents evidencing title thereto, the quantity of peanuts which the committee finds the producer has not reported as having been marketed, less the amount which the committee finds to be in the actual or constructive possession of such operator or producer, shall be taken to have been marketed.

GENERAL NOTES: (1) The Proclaimed List is divided into two parts: part I relates to listings in the American republics; part II relates to listings outside the American republics.

(2) In part I titles are listed in their letter-address form, word for word as written in that form, with the following exceptions:

If the title includes a full personal name, that is, a given name or initial and surname, the title is listed under the surname.

Personal-name prefixes such as de, la, von, etc., are considered as part of the surname and are the basis for listing.

The listing is made under the next word of the title when the initial word or phrase, or abbreviation thereof, is one of the following Spanish forms or similar equivalent forms in any other language:

Compañía; Cía.; Comp.
Compañía Anónima; C. A.; Comp. Anón.

See 31 Op. Atty. Gen. 463, 466; 38 Op. Atty. Gen. 534, 536.

§ 251.1 Scope and purpose of the regulations in this part. In order to protect the public interest and to prevent any undesirable exploitation of the method and means of extinguishing magnesium-containing bombs covered by an application for United States Letters Patent, rights to which have been acquired by the United States Government, as represented for that purpose by the Secretary of the Interior, by assignment duly executed and recorded, it is the policy of the Department of the Interior to make said method and means available by license to any commercial concern or individual qualifying under and complying with the regulations in this part.

§ 251.2 Preliminary considerations to the issuance of licenses. As it will be necessary, to enable prompt disposition of applications for licenses, to rely largely on the representations made by the applicants, the application papers must be sworn to (or affirmed) before a notary public or other officer authorized to administer oaths. Great care should be taken to insure that every statement and representation made in the papers is exactly true, since any material false representation or statement in the application papers may not only warrant revocation of the license subsequent to its issuance but, if issued in reliance thereon, may also subject the applicant to criminal liability if perjurous.

(a) Style of application. The application papers should be addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, Washington, D. C., in duplicate, and should commence in the form:

Application for License Under Patent No. ------ (Magnesium Incendiary Bomb Extinguisher)

The undersigned hereby applies for issuance to ---------- (here write the name of the individual or corporation desiring the license) of a nonexclusive, nontransferable license under such terms and conditions as are prescribed by the Secretary of the Interior for the granting of such license in the public interest, and for the purpose of inducing the issuance of such license makes the following representations to the Secretary of the Interior:

(b) Substantive information contained in application. The application should disclose in numbered paragraphs the following information:

(1) The name and business address of the applicant. If the applicant is an individual, a statement as to whether he is a citizen of the United States; if the applicant is a corporation, a statement as to whether a majority of its stockholders are citizens of the United States.

(2) The nature of the applicant's profession or business.

(3) References to reputable banks or other institutions through which statements may be verified as to the applicant's professional or business reputation and standing, together with a competent financial statement.

(4) The applicant's contemplated field of operations, with an adequate description of the geographic area in which it is proposed to distribute or market magnesium bomb extinguisher material subject to the regulations in this part.

(5) The type of material of which the applicant proposes to make magnesium bomb extinguishers subject to licensing under the regulations in this part for distribution or marketing, together with an unground sample, weighing not less than one pound, that is representative of the material which is to constitute the magnesium bomb extinguisher proposed for distribution or marketing.

(6) If other than the applicant, the name and address of the association, partnership, person, corporation, or other business entity that will supply the applicant the material which is to comprise the magnesium bomb extinguisher, together with an adequate geographic description of the location of the source of said material: Provided, That if the applicant owns the source of the material, that fact must be so stated, with an adequate geographic description of its location.

(7) The manner in which the applicant proposes to distribute or market the magnesium bomb extinguisher, whether wholesale (specify in bulk or otherwise) or retail as an individual home unit, or both, or in any other manner as shown in the application: Provided, That if said extinguisher is intended for distribution or marketing in individual home units, a satisfactory description or sample of the container must be furnished.

(8) A sample of the label to be used on the magnesium bomb extinguisher container in distributing or marketing the said extinguisher, which shall be subject to the limitations and restrictions of, and be in conformity with the regulations in this part.

(9) The trade-mark or name proposed to be used in distributing or marketing said extinguisher, with a statement whether such trade-mark or name is registered or unregistered; if registered, the registration number must be supplied with the application or, if registration is pending, as soon as registration has been effected.

(10) The price, at wholesale or retail, or both, for which the applicant proposes to market the extinguisher material licensed under the regulations in this part, disclosing the price for wholesale lots (specifying the quantity in bulk or, if in units, the number by consignment) or, if at retail, the price per individual home unit, and whether such price is delivered or f.o.b.: Provided, That the Secretary of the Interior may, in his discretion, reject any application proposing a price or prices deemed by him to be unwarranted: Provided further, That the granting of a license pursuant to these regulations shall not be construed as an approval of any price proposed in the applicant's showing and such price or prices shall be subject to any maximum price or prices established by the Price Administrator pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(11) An itemized statement, showing how the proposed price was arrived at, which shall include such factors as the cost of material, transportation, packaging, labor, delivery, overhead, and profit. This statement must be supported by written quotations on the cost of all items proposed to be used in marketing the material to be licensed. The Secretary of the Interior may require any additional information respecting costs, and to this end, if he deems it necessary, and after notice to the licensee, may instruct employees of the Department to enter the premises of the licensee and investigate the licensee's books and plant facilities. Any information so obtained may be submitted by the Secretary to the Office of Price Administration to be used by that office in determining prices which may be charged.

(12) Any other pertinent factors that the applicant deems will warrant the issuance of a license pursuant to the regulations in this part.

§ 251.3 Materials subject to licensing as magnesium bomb extinguishers. The materials subject to licensing under the regulations in this part as magnesium bomb extinguishers, and as defined in this section, shall consist of feldspar, and rocks composed largely of feldspar: Provided, That such rocks do not contain, upon examination, quantities of quartz, mica, or other inert or undesirable constituents deemed by the Geological Survey, United States Department of the Interior to render the material composing the extinguisher proposed for license unsuitable for the extinguishing of magnesium bombs. The restrictions on iron oxide content of the extinguisher material proposed for licensing, commonly imposed on feldspar intended for use in the ceramic industry, shall not be applicable under the regulations in this part.

§ 251.4 Specifications of extinguishing materials subject to licensing. Extinguishing materials consisting in excessive degree of matter that will not pass a 10-mesh, and be retained by a 200-mesh screen, or which will, for other good and sufficient reasons, be deemed unsatisfactory upon examination thereof by the Geological Survey, United States Department of the Interior, shall not be licensed for distribution or marketing under the regulations in this part, unless it can be demonstrated by actual test that the material proposed is capable of extinguishing molten magnesium within one minute after its application to the burning metal.

§ 251.5 Containers. Where it is proposed to distribute or market the material subject to license in individual home units, it may be packaged in a pail made of fiber or other nonmetal; a bag or sack made of paper, paper-lined burlap, or paper-lined cloth; or a tube made of cardboard or fiber. The packaging must be of sufficiently stable material to withstand moderately rough handling when filled with the licensed extinguishing material and must have a capacity when filled of not less than thirty-five pounds of approved material.

§ 251.6 Labels. Labels used on extinguishers must not include any misleading matter or extravagant claims; must state the name and address of the distributor or marketer; must state in large and readily discernible type that the extinguisher material is feldspar, or feldspar-containing rocks, as the case may be; must state the weight of the extinguisher material in the container; and, if uniform standards can be maintained, may carry the following notation, "The contents of this container are composed of not less than ------ percent vitrescible material"; and, in addition to the foregoing, must contain in easily legible type the following instructions for applying the contents of the container in order to insure the effective extinguishment of ignited magnesium incendiary bombs:

INSTRUCTIONS

Do not approach the bomb until the violent sputtering has ceased (about one minute after the bomb lands). Gently shovel or pour the entire contents of the package (35 lbs.) over the burning magnesium. Do not uncover for at least ten minutes. This material is abrasive and should not be used around machinery.

§ 251.7 Advertising. All advertising matter including, but not limited to, matter which is intended for publication in newspapers, magazines, journals, or as posters, which describes the extinguisher or seeks to induce purchases thereof, or both, must be submitted in advance of publication for approval or disapproval by the Director of the Geological Survey, with a statement disclosing the name and address of the newspaper, magazine, journal, or other publication in which said matter is to be published and the date fixed for publication.

§ 251.8 Licenses to be granted royalty free. Licenses under the regulations in this part will be granted royalty free to qualified licensees, but the license shall be subject to stringent provisions which will be strictly enforced, and shall be subject to an indemnification bond as described in § 251.12 to insure compliance with the terms of said license.

§ 251.9 Form of license. If the applicant shall meet all the requirements of the regulations in this part, a license substantially in the form set forth in the appendix to the regulations in this part will be granted: Provided, That this form may be modified, in the discretion of the Secretary, as circumstances in each case may warrant.

§ 251.10 Licenses to be nonexclusive and nontransferable. Every license granted pursuant to these regulations shall be nonexclusive and nontransferable, and shall so provide in express terms.

§ 251.11 Licenses to be revocable. Every license granted pursuant to the regulations in this part shall be revocable, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to the licensee to present his views, upon a violation of any of its provisions, or upon a finding by the Secretary of the Interior that any of the provisions of the regulations in this part or subsequent amendments and modifications thereof or supplements thereto have been violated, or that the licensee has indulged in practices that are deemed to be inimical to the public interest: Provided, That at the licensee's request such license may be terminated and the bond required pursuant to § 251.12 may be discharged if the licensee shall have complied with the terms of the license and with the regulations in this part.

§ 251.12 Bond requirements. Prior to the issuance of a license under the regulations in this part, the applicant must furnish a general license bond in the sum of not less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) conditioned upon compliance with all license terms and with the regulations in this part. Such bonds in every instance shall be either corporate-surety bonds or individual bonds accompanied, in the latter instance, by a deposit of negotiable Federal securities in a sum equal at their par value to the amount of the bond and by a proper conveyance to the Secretary of full authority to sell such securities in case of a violation of any of the provisions of the license or of the regulations in this part. Approved bond forms are set out in the appendix to the regulations in this part.

§ 251.13 Licensees will not be defended by the United States. The United States will not undertake to defend any licensee holding a license granted pursuant to the regulations in this part against any suit that may be brought against such licensee for the infringement of any other patent or because of any operations such licensee may conduct under the license, nor to indemnify or hold harmless against any recovery of damages, costs, penalties, or other accounting resulting from such suit.

§ 251.14 Quarterly reports. Quarterly reports of operations under the license shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Interior not later than January 15, April 15, July 15, and October 15, of each year. These reports must show the amount or number of units of extinguisher material distributed or marketed and the principal places of such distribution or marketing; the returns received on sales; the gross and net profits realized therefrom; the efforts made to cooperate with civilian defense organizations in a constructive manner for the protection of the general public; and any other matters deemed pertinent. A ground sample representative of the product marketed during the period covered by the report should also be furnished.

§ 251.15 Infringement of Government-controlled patent or patents. The Secretary of the Interior reserves the right to take appropriate steps to prosecute or enjoin any infringement of the patent or patents controlled by the Government as described in § 251.1 upon notice that such patent or patents are being infringed.

§ 251.16 Enforcement. Full advantage will be taken of the cooperation of the various political subdivisions of State, county, and local governments, and of concerns or individuals (including licensees under the regulations in this part) in reporting to the Secretary of the Interior violations of the regulations in this part or such failure to comply with the terms of licenses granted hereunder as may be regarded as grounds for the revocation thereof.

Director of the Geological Survey.

APPENDIX A

License Agreement Between The Department of the Interior and ----------

I. PARTIES

This license agreement by and between the United States Department of the Interior, acting through the ---------- Secretary of the Interior, hereinafter referred to as the "Licensor", and ----------, hereinafter referred to as the "Licensee",

Witnesseth that:

II. RECITALS

Whereas the Licensor has, for the period of the continuation of hostilities in the present wars and six months thereafter, the full and entire right, title and interest in and throughout the United States of America and its territories, possessions and protectorates in and to an invention for a method and manufacture employing vitrescible extinguisher materials for extinguishing magnesium incendiary bombs, (said invention being described and claimed in an application for Letters Patent filed by Joseph J. Fahey, Michael Fleischer, and William W. Rubey on May 2, 1942, Serial No. 441,539), together with the right to grant licenses thereunder for the aforesaid period;

Whereas it is the policy of the Licensor to encourage arrangements which are deemed to be in the public interest and which will make said method and manufacture available to the general public, at reasonable prices, and with due regard to the maintenance of the quality of the extinguisher materials employed and the prevention of extravagant and misleading advertising with respect thereto;

Whereas the Licensee is desirous of securing a limited license under patent rights held by the Licensor in order to distribute and market said method and manufacture for use by the ultimate consumer, and has been found qualified under the regulations governing the granting of such licenses; and

Whereas it has been determined by the Licensor that the granting of a license to the Licensee under the terms and conditions hereinafter provided will further a public interest:

Now, therefore, in consideration of the covenants hereinafter provided and agreed to be observed and respected by the Licensee, the Licensor, by these presents, agrees to grant, grants, and gives to the Licensee, a nonexclusive, revocable, and nontransferable license under Licensor's patent rights as hereinafter defined to make, distribute, and market, for use by the ultimate consumer, a method and manufacture for extinguishing ignited magnesium incendiary bombs employing vitrescible extinguisher materials under and subject to the following express terms and conditions:

III. DEFINITIONS

Whenever used in this agreement, the following terms shall have the following meanings respectively:

(a) The term "vitrescible extinguisher materials" shall mean comminuted noncombustible inorganic vitrescible materials including, but not limited to, feldspar and rocks largely composed of feldspar.

(b) The term "patent rights" shall mean all such, but only such claims of patents of the United States, and transferable rights thereunder, as cover a method and manufacture employing vitrescible extinguisher materials in extinguishing ignited magnesium incendiary bombs and are based upon inventions made prior to the expiration of this agreement including, but not limited to, the invention described and claimed in the aforesaid application Serial No. 441,539 and any Letters Patent that may issue on the said application or any divisions, extensions, continuations, or renewals thereof. The patent rights of the Licensor shall mean those patent rights as defined in the preceding sentence of which the Licensor now has, or shall have prior to the expiration of this agreement, the ownership or control in the sense of having the power to dispose of them or grant licenses thereunder, insofar as Licensor is not bound to account to others for so doing.

IV. COVENANTS

1. The Licensee agrees to abide by and conform to the regulations attached hereto and by reference made a part hereof, and any and all subsequent amendments and modifications thereof or supplements thereto of which Licensee shall have actual notice by service or constructive notice by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

2. It is understood and agreed by and between the Licensor and Licensee that Licensee, if not a direct retail marketer, shall sell or dispose of the vitrescible extinguisher materials and method of use thereof licensed under Licensor's patent rights at reasonable prices, and, within limitations of production capacity, to all reputable jobbers, wholesalers, or retailers who seek to purchase such materials from Licensee: Provided, That Licensee, if not a direct retail marketer, shall provide in express terms in all agreements, contracts, or other arrangements made with jobbers, wholesalers, or retailers that such agreements, contracts, or other arrangements are subject to cancelation upon a determination by the Licensee (to be reported promptly to the Licensor) or by the Licensor of the existence of any combination of such jobbers, wholesalers, and/or retailers resulting, or tending to result in monopolistic or unfair trade practices, and Licensee agrees upon such determination to cancel said agreements, contracts, or other arrangements. A failure to comply with these covenants shall be grounds for the revocation of this license.

3. The Licensor does not undertake to defend the Licensee hereunder against any suit that may be brought against said Licensee for the infringement of any other patent or because of any operations said Licensee may conduct under this license, nor to indemnify or hold harmless against any recovery of damages, costs, penalties, or other accounting resulting from such suit; nor does the Licensor undertake to defend any interest of the Licensee against competition by infringers, but the Licensor reserves complete discretion in determining whether or not to bring suit against any possible infringer and reserves complete discretion with respect to the prosecution of any suit if brought.

4. The Licensee agrees that this license shall not be construed as obligating the United States or any of its officers or employees in any manner whatsoever by virtue of the granting of this license, either during or after the termination thereof, and the Licensee hereby expressly waives any and all claim or claims against the United States and its officers and employees, of any manner whatsoever, including any losses which may accrue to the Licensee by virtue of the continuance or discontinuance of his business (in whole or in part) resulting from this license, or from its automatic or discretionary termination.

5. The Licensee agrees that this license shall not be construed as, or be represented to be, a governmental approval of any particular articles of manufacture or trade. The making of any such representation may be deemed by the Licensor to be a sufficient cause for revocation of the license.

6. It is agreed by the Licensee that this instrument is an ordinary patent license, and shall not be construed as in any manner curtailing the rights and powers of the Federal Government under general laws of the United States, administered by any of its departments, independent establishments, and corporate or other agencies (for example, the Federal Trade Commission) in the event occasion should arise for the exercise of said rights and powers.

7. The containers of the extinguishing materials licensed hereunder, of whatever nature, or the labels thereon shall bear a patent notice, as follows:

"Licensed under Patent No. ———, for sale as a magnesium bomb extinguisher and for use for such purpose subject to applicable Federal, State, and local laws."; or such other patent notice as Licensor shall from time to time in a written notice to Licensee direct. Such containers and labels shall also meet the requirements with respect to containers and labels set forth in sections 251.5 and 251.6, respectively, of the regulations attached hereto.

8. Inasmuch as damages for a violation of this license agreement would be difficult or impracticable of precise ascertainment, and in order to insure partial compensation of the public for damages resulting to morale, agreed hereunder to be inimical to the public interest whenever caused by a breach of faith under this instrument, the Licensee agrees upon execution and submission of said instrument, and prior to its execution by the Licensor and return of the original thereof to the Licensee, to furnish a general license bond in the sum of not less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), conditioned upon compliance with all the terms of this license and the regulations attached hereto in a form as prescribed by said regulations.

9. This license agreement, unless sooner terminated by the Licensor, as provided in section 251.11 of the regulations attached hereto and in said license agreement, shall terminate six months after the expiration of the present wars.

(1) Orders specifying delivery to or for the account of the United States agencies and the countries named in § 944.1, paragraphs (b) (1) and (2), of Priorities Regulation No. 1;

(2) Orders placed by any person for uses limited to those enumerated in paragraph (c) hereof to satisfy orders by or in behalf of the agencies and countries named in § 944.1, paragraph (b) (1) and (2) of Priorities Regulation No. 1;

(3) Plywood and parts for aircraft to the extent that balsa is specifically permitted by the controlling specifications.

(4) Marine buoys, including but not limited to submarine rescue buoys, dan buoys, seaplane mooring buoys, seadrome contact light buoys, mine buoys, and anti-aircraft practice balloon buoys.

(2) Notwithstanding the restrictions in this order, any balsa actually in transit on the date of issuance of this order may be delivered to its immediate destination.

(e) Applicability of Priorities Regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(f) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be disproportionate compared with the amount of war-use balsa conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board, Washington, D. C., Ref: M–177, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(g) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to the War Production Board, Lumber and Lumber Products Branch, Washington, D. C., Ref: M–177.

PART 1341—CANNED AND PRESERVED FOODS

[Maximum Price Regulation 197]

CANNED FRUITS AND CANNED BERRIES AT WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the determination of maximum prices for canners of fruits and berries under Maximum Price Regulation No. 185[1] will result in maximum prices which will not be generally fair and equitable to wholesalers and retailers as applied to the 1942 pack and which will seriously impair the distribution of such commodities. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of canned fruits and canned berries prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as is practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation for the sale of canned fruits and canned berries at wholesale and retail are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.

The maximum prices established herein are not below prices which will reflect to the producers of the raw agricultural commodities from which canned fruits and canned berries are manufactured, prices for their commodities equal to the highest of any of the following prices therefor determined and published by the Secretary of Agriculture: (1) 110 per centum of the parity price for each such commodity, adjusted by the Secretary of Agriculture for grade, location and seasonal differentials; (2) the market prices prevailing for each such commodity on October 1, 1941; (3) the market prices prevailing for each such commodity on December 15, 1941; or (4) the average prices for such commodity during the period July 1, 1919 to June 30, 1929.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] Maximum Price Regulation No. 197 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1341.151 to 1341.171 inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

If at the time of computing his maximum price for any kind, grade, brand and container size of such canned fruits or canned berries, the wholesaler has purchased or contracted to purchase the same kind, grade, brand and container size from two or more canners, he shall use as the amount to be added pursuant to paragraph (a) (2) of this section the amount reported as the permitted increase by the canner from whom the largest amount of such kind, grade, brand and container size was purchased.

§ 1341.155 Maximum prices for canned Cuban pineapple and canned Cuban pineapple juice. (a) The maximum price of an importer of canned Cuban pineapple or canned Cuban pineapple juice, who sells to industrial, institutional or commercial users, for each grade, brand and container size, shall be:

(1) The highest selling price of such importer during the month of November 1941; plus

(2) The amount of the difference between the highest cost of such importer, ex dock, in November 1941, and the highest cost to such importer, ex dock, in March 1942.

(3) The highest selling price during the month of November 1941, shall be the highest price charged by such importer for the same grade, brand and container size delivered during November 1941, or, if he made no such delivery, the highest price at which he offered such grade and container size for delivery during November 1941 to a purchaser of the same class.

(b) The maximum price of a wholesaler or retailer of canned Cuban pineapple or canned Cuban pineapple juice, for each grade and container size, shall be:

(1) The price which bears the same proportionate relationship to his maximum price established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197 for the same grade and container size of canned Hawaiian pineapple or canned Hawaiian pineapple juice, as the highest price charged by him in 1941, prior to December 1, for such grade and container size of canned Cuban pineapple or canned Cuban pineapple juice bore to the highest price charged by him during the same period for the same grade and container size of canned Hawaiian pineapple or canned Hawaiian pineapple juice.

(c) In the event that such wholesaler or retailer cannot determine such proportionate relationship for any grade and container size pursuant to paragraph (b) (1) of this section, he shall use the maximum price of his most closely competitive seller for such grade and container size. His most closely competitive seller shall be deemed to be a seller who deals in the same commodities, sells to the same class of purchasers and is located nearest to such wholesaler or retailer.

(d) In no event shall the maximum price of a wholesaler or retailer for any grade and container size of canned Cuban pineapple or canned Cuban pineapple juice exceed his maximum price for the same grade and container size of canned Hawaiian pineapple or canned Hawaiian pineapple juice. In the event that a wholesaler or retailer has not established a maximum price under the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197 for any grade and container size of canned Hawaiian pineapple or canned Hawaiian pineapple juice, his maximum price for the same grade and container size of canned Cuban pineapple or canned Cuban pineapple juice shall in no event exceed the maximum price for the same grade and container size of canned Hawaiian pineapple or canned Hawaiian pineapple juice established by his most closely competitive seller as defined in paragraph (c) of this section.

§ 1341.156 Information to purchasers from wholesalers. (a) Within ten days after establishing his maximum price per dozen for any kind, grade, brand and container size of canned fruits or canned berries, except canned Cuban pineapple and canned Cuban pineapple juice, under the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197, each wholesaler shall (1) prepare and supply to each retailer to whom he sells, contracts to sell or quotes prices on such kind, grade, brand and container size, a statement in writing showing his maximum price for the month of February 1942, which shall be designated as the "base price", his maximum price as computed under the provisions of this regulation, which shall be designated as the "maximum price" and the amount of the difference between such prices, which shall be designated as the "permitted increase" and (2) file a copy of each such statement with the nearest Regional, State, District or Field Office of the Office of Price Administration.

(b) The statement to be supplied by the wholesaler to the retailer under paragraph (a) of this section, shall contain the following notice:

Maximum Price Regulation No. 197, issued by the Office of Price Administration on July 31, 1942, has adjusted the retailer's maximum price on the kinds, grades, brands and container sizes of canned fruits and berries for which permitted increases are indicated in this Statement. The retailer's adjusted maximum price provided by Maximum Price Regulation No. 197 shall be computed by the retailer by adding to his maximum price per can or container for each kind, grade, brand and container size as determined under the General Maximum Price Regulation one-twelfth of the permitted increase reported by the supplier from whom the retailer received his first delivery after August 5, 1942, of such kind, grade, brand and container size. Such adjusted maximum price shall remain the retailer's maximum price on all sales of such kind, grade, brand and container size of canned fruits or berries, regardless of whether the particular stock was acquired by the retailer from the same or a different supplier or had been acquired by the retailer prior to August 5, 1942. In computing the maximum price, any fraction of less than one-half cent shall be adjusted to the nearest lower cent, and any fraction of more than one-half cent shall be adjusted to the nearest higher cent. Each retailer shall post his ceiling price of canned peaches, pears, pineapple, and pineapple juice in accordance with the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation. The retailer should direct any question he may have to his nearest OPA office.

§ 1341.157 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1341.158 Customary allowances or discounts. No wholesaler or retailer shall change his customary allowances or discounts unless such change results in the same or lower prices.

§ 1341.159 Transfer of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of a wholesaler or retailer are sold or otherwise transferred on or after the effective date of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197, and the transferee carries on the business, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over to the transferee, all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions contained in this regulation.

§ 1341.160 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to canned fruits or canned berries, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of any commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1341.161 Enforcement. Persons violating any provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197, are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

§ 1341.162 Records and reports. Every person who makes sales of canned fruits or canned berries at wholesale or retail after August 5, 1942, shall (a) preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration for a period of two years all his existing records which were the basis for the computations required by §§ 1341.152, 1341.153, 1341.154, and 1341.155, and (b) preserve for the same period all records of the same kind as he has customarily kept, relating to the prices which he charged for canned fruits and canned berries sold on and after August 5, 1942, and (c) preserve for the same period all existing records showing, as precisely as possible, the basis upon which he determined his maximum prices for each kind, grade, brand and container size of canned fruits and canned berries, and (d) preserve for the same period a true copy of each statement filed with the Office of Price Administration pursuant to the provisions of § 1341.156.

§ 1341.163 Licensing; applicability of the registration and licensing provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation. The registration and licensing provisions of §§ 1499.15 and 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation are applicable to every person selling at wholesale or retail any canned fruits or canned berries covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197. When used in this section the terms "selling at wholesale" and "selling at retail" have the definitions given to them by §§ 1499.20 (p) and 1499.20 (o) respectively of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

§ 1341.164 Marking and posting by retailers; applicability of the marking and posting provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation. The marking and posting provisions of § 1499.13 of the General Maximum Price Regulation are applicable to every person selling at retail any canned fruits referred to in that section or in Appendix B of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

§ 1341.165 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking a modification of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197 may file a petition therefor in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1341.166 Applications for adjustment. (a) The Office of Price Administration, or any duly authorized officer thereof, may by order adjust the maximum price established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197 for any seller at retail in any case in which such seller shows:

(1) That such maximum price is abnormally low in relation to the maximum prices of the same or similar commodities established for other sellers at retail; and

(2) That this abnormality subjects him to substantial hardship.

Applications for adjustment under this paragraph (a) shall be filed in accordance with Temporary Procedural Regulation No. 2.*

(b) The Office of Price Administration, or any duly authorized officer thereof, may by order adjust the maximum price established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197 for any seller at wholesale in any case in which such seller shows:

(1) That such maximum price causes him substantial hardship and is abnormally low in relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of the same or similar commodities; and

(2) That establishing for him a maximum price, bearing a normal relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of the same or similar commodities, will not cause or threaten to cause an increase in the level of retail prices.

Applications for adjustment under this paragraph (b) shall be filed in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1.

(c) Any person seeking relief, for which no provision is made in the foregoing paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, from a maximum price established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197 may present the special circumstances of his case in an application for an order of adjustment. Such an application shall be filed in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1 and shall set forth the facts relating to the hardship to which such maximum price subjects the applicant together with a statement of the reasons why he believes that the granting of relief in his case and in all like cases will not defeat or impair the policy of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197 to eliminate the danger of inflation.

§ 1341.167 Applicability. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197 shall be applicable to the United States, its territories and possessions, and the District of Columbia.

§ 1341.168 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation. (a) The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries of canned fruits and canned berries at wholesale and retail for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197, except as provided in §§ 1341.163 and 1341.164 hereof, and except insofar as the provisions of §§ 1341.152, 1341.153 and 1341.154, direct that the methods of determining maximum prices set forth in §§ 1499.2 and 1499.3 of the General Maximum Price Regulation, be used herein.

(b) The provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to all sales and deliveries of any kind, grade, brand and container size of canned fruits and canned berries of the 1941 pack, or any earlier pack, until the wholesaler or retailer has established a maximum price for such kind, grade, brand and container size under the provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 197.

§ 1341.169 Sales for export. The maximum prices at which a person may export canned fruits and canned berries shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation* issued by the Office of Price Administration.

[Maximum Rent Regulation 43]

HOUSING ACCOMMODATIONS OTHER THAN HOTELS AND ROOMING HOUSES

In the judgment of the Administrator, rents for housing accommodations within each of the Defense-Rental Areas set out in § 1388.7051 (a) of this Maximum Rent Regulation, as designated in the Designation and Rent Declaration issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended on May 22, 1942, and on May 30, 1942, have not been reduced and stabilized by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations set forth in the said Designation and Rent Declaration.

It is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area on or about March 1, 1942. The Administrator has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability in respect of such housing accommodations, including increases or decreases in property taxes and other costs.

In the judgment of the Administrator, the maximum rents established by this Maximum Rent Regulation for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by the Act, this Maximum Rent Regulation is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1388.7051 to 1388.7064, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

§ 1388.7051 Scope of regulation. (a) This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 43 applies to all housing accommodations within each of the following Defense-Rental Areas (each of which is referred to hereinafter in this Maximum Rent Regulation as the "Defense-Rental Area"), as designated in the Designation and Rent Declaration (§§ 1388.1201 to 1388.1205, inclusive) issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended on May 22, 1942, and on May 30, 1942, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section:

(1) The Charleston, South Carolina Defense-Rental Area, consisting of the counties of Charleston and Dorchester, in the State of South Carolina.

(2) The Amarillo Defense-Rental Area, consisting of the Counties of Potter and Randall, in the State of Texas.

(b) This Maximum Rent Regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Housing accommodations situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon;

(2) Dwelling space occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the space is provided as part of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the dwelling space is a part;

(3) Rooms or other housing accommodations within hotels or rooming houses, or housing accommodations which have been, with the consent of the Administrator, brought under the control of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Hotels and Rooming Houses pursuant to the provisions of that regulation: Provided, That this Maximum Rent Regulation does apply to entire structures or premises though used as hotels or rooming houses.

(c) The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(d) An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this Maximum Rent Regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.7052 Prohibition against higher than maximum rents. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand or receive any rent for use or occupancy on and after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation of any housing accommodations within the Defense-Rental Area higher than the maximum rents provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. Lower rents than those provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation may be demanded or received.

§ 1388.7053 Minimum services. The maximum rents provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 43 are for housing accommodations including, as a minimum, services of the same type, quantity, and quality as those provided on the date determining the maximum rent. If, on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, the services provided for housing accommodations are less than such minimum services the landlord shall either restore and maintain the minimum services or, within 30 days after such effective date, file a petition pursuant to § 1388.7055 (b) for approval of the decreased services. In all other cases, except as provided in § 1388.7055 (b), the landlord shall provide the minimum services unless and until an order is entered pursuant to that section approving a decrease of such services.

§ 1388.7054 Maximum rents. Maximum rents (unless and until changed by the Administrator as provided in §1388.7055) shall be: (a) For housing accommodations rented on March 1, 1942, the rent for such accommodations on that date.

(b) For housing accommodations not rented on March 1, 1942, but rented at any time during the two months ending on that date, the last rent for such accommodations during that two month period.

(c) For housing accommodations not rented on March 1, 1942 nor during the two months ending on that date, but rented prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 43, the first rent for such accommodations after March 1, 1942. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.7055 (c).

(d) For (1) newly constructed housing accommodations without priority rating first rented after March 1, 1942 and before the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, or (2) housing accommodations changed between those dates so as to result in an increase or decrease of the number of dwelling units in such housing accommodations, or (3) housing accommodations changed between those dates from unfurnished to fully furnished, or from fully furnished to unfurnished, or (4) housing accommodations substantially changed between those dates by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, the first rent for such accommodations after such construction or change: Provided, however, That, where such first rent was fixed by a lease which was in force at the time of a major capital improvement, the maximum rent shall be the first rent after termination of such lease. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.7055 (c).

(e) For (1) newly constructed housing accommodations without priority rating first rented on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 43, or (2) housing accommodations changed on or after such effective date so as to result in an increase or decrease of the number of dwelling units in such housing accommodations, or (3) housing accommodations not rented at any time between January 1, 1942 and such effective date, the rent fixed by the Administrator. The landlord shall, prior to renting and in time to allow 15 days for action thereon, file a petition requesting the Administrator to enter an order fixing the maximum rent therefor. Such order shall be entered on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942. In cases involving construction due consideration shall be given to increased costs of construction, if any, since March 1, 1942.

If no order is entered on such petition within 15 days after filing, the landlord may rent such accommodations and the first rent therefor shall be the maximum rent. Within 5 days after so renting, the landlord shall report the maximum rent. The Administrator may order a decrease in such maximum rent as provided in § 1388.7055 (c).

(f) For housing accommodations constructed with priority rating from the United States or any agency thereof for which the rent has been heretofore or is hereafter approved by the United States or any agency thereof, the rent so approved, but in no event more than the rent on March 1, 1942 or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, more than the first rent after that date.

(g) For housing accommodations constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942, as determined by the owner of such accommodations: Provided, however, That any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States within the meaning of this paragraph. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.7055 (c).

(h) For housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department, the rents established on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 43 by such rent schedule. The Administrator may order an increase in such rents, if he finds that such increase is not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.7055 Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Administrator may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum services required. In those cases involving a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in the furniture, furnishings or equipment, an increase or decrease of services, or a deterioration, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be the amount the Administrator finds would have been on March 1, 1942 the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change. In all other cases, except those under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (6) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942. In cases involving construction due consideration shall be given to increased costs of construction, if any, since March 1, 1942. In cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (6) of this section the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations during the year ending on March 1, 1942.

(a) Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) There has been on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 43 a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) There was, prior to March 1, 1942 and within the six months ending on that date, a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, and the rent on March 1, 1942 was fixed by a lease which was in force at the time of such change.

(3) There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the housing accommodations since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(5) There was in force on March 1, 1942 a written lease, which had been in force for more than one year on that date, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942; or the housing accommodations were not rented on March 1, 1942, but were rented during the two months ending on that date, and the last rent for such accommodations during that two-month period was fixed by a written lease, which was in force more than one year prior to March 1, 1942, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(6) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially lower than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such housing accommodations: In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(b) If, on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation the services provided for housing accommodations are less than those provided on the date determining the maximum rent, the landlord shall either restore the services to those provided on the date determining the maximum rent and maintain such services or, within 30 days after such effective date file a petition requesting approval of the decreased services. Except as above provided, the landlord shall maintain the minimum services unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease services and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon; however, if it is impossible to provide the minimum services, he shall file a petition within five days after the change of services occurs. The order on any petition under this paragraph may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent.

(c) The Administrator at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) The maximum rent for housing accommodations under paragraphs (c), (d), or (g) of § 1388.7054 is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942; or the maximum rent for housing accommodations under paragraph (e) of § 1388.7054 for which the rent was not fixed by the Administrator is higher than such generally prevailing rent.

(2) There has been a substantial deterioration of the housing accommodations other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(3) There has been a substantial decrease in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the housing accommodations since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant and as a result was substantially higher than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(5) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially lower rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(6) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(d) If the rent on the date determining the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Administrator on petition of the landlord filed within 30 days after the effective date of this maximum Rent Regulation, or at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact; or if the Administrator is unable to ascertain such fact he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(e) Where, at the expiration or other termination of an underlying lease or other rental agreement, housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant, the landlord may rent the entire premises for use by similar occupancy for a rent not in excess of the aggregate maximum rents of the separate dwelling units, or may rent the separate dwelling units for rents not in excess of the maximum rents applicable to such units.

Where housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant, the tenant may petition the Administrator for leave to exercise any right he would have except for this Maximum Rent Regulation to sell his underlying lease or other rental agreement. The Administrator may grant such petition if he finds that the sale will not result, and that sales of such character would not be likely to result, in the circumvention or evasion of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation. He may require that the sale be made on such terms as he deems necessary to prevent such circumvention or evasion.

§ 1388.7056 Restrictions on removal of tenant. (a) So long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which the landlord is entitled, no tenant shall be removed from any housing accommodations, by action to evict or to recover possession, by exclusion from possession, or otherwise, nor shall any person attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that such tenant has no lease or that his lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, unless:

(1) The tenant, who had a written lease or other written rental agreement, has refused upon demand of the landlord to execute a written extension or renewal thereof for a further term of like duration but not in excess of one year but otherwise on the same terms and conditions as the previous lease or agreement except insofar as such terms and conditions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 43; or

(2) The tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the housing accommodations for the purpose of inspection or of showing the accommodations to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee or prospective mortgagee, or other person having a legitimate interest therein: Provided, however, That such refusal shall not be ground for removal or eviction if such inspection or showing of the accommodations is contrary to the provisions of the tenant's lease or other rental agreement; or (3) The tenant (i) has violated a substantial obligation of his tenancy, other than an obligation to pay rent, and has continued, or failed to cure, such violation after written notice by the landlord that the violation cease, or (ii) is committing or permitting a nuisance or is using or permitting a use of the housing accommodations for an immoral or illegal purpose; or

(4) The tenant's lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, and at the time of termination the housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant; or

(5) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession for the immediate purpose of demolishing the housing accommodations or of substantially altering or remodeling it in a manner which cannot practicably be done with the tenant in occupancy and the plans for such alteration or remodeling have been approved by the proper authorities, if such approval is required by local law; or

(6) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of the housing accommodations for immediate use and occupancy as a dwelling by himself, his family or dependents; or he has in good faith contracted in writing to sell the accommodations for immediate use and occupancy by a purchaser, who in good faith has represented in writing that he will use the accommodations as a dwelling for himself, his family or dependents; or the landlord seeks in good faith not to offer the housing accommodations for rent. If a tenant has been removed or evicted under this paragraph (a) (6) from housing accommodations, such accommodations shall not be rented for a period of six months after such removal or eviction without permission of the Administrator. The landlord may petition the Administrator for permission to rent the accommodations during such six month period, and the Administrator shall grant such permission if he finds that the action was in good faith and not for the purpose of evading any provision of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(b) No tenant shall be removed or evicted on grounds other than those stated above unless, on petition of the landlord, the Administrator certifies that the landlord may pursue his remedies in accordance with the requirements of the local law. The Administrator shall so certify if the landlord establishes that removals or evictions of the character proposed are not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 43 and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(c) The provisions of this section do not apply to a subtenant or other person who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant, where removal or eviction of the subtenant or other such occupant is sought by the landlord of the tenant, unless under the local law there is a tenancy relationship between the landlord and the subtenant or other such occupant.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Departments.

(d) At the time of commencing any action to remove or evict a tenant (except an action based on non-payment of a rent not in excess of the maximum rent) the landlord shall give written notice thereof to the Area Rent Office stating the title and number of the case, the court in which it is filed, the name and address of the tenant and the grounds on which eviction is sought.

(e) No provision of this section shall be construed to authorize the removal of a tenant unless such removal is authorized under the local law.

§ 1388.7057 Registration. Within 45 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 43, or within 30 days after the property is first rented, whichever date is the later, every landlord of housing accommodations rented or offered for rent shall file in triplicate a written statement on the form provided therefor to be known as a registration statement. The statement shall identify each dwelling unit and specify the maximum rent provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation for such dwelling unit and shall contain such other information as the Administrator shall require. The original shall remain on file with the Administrator and he shall cause one copy to be delivered to the tenant and one copy, stamped to indicate that it is a correct copy of the original, to be returned to the landlord. In any subsequent change of tenancy the landlord shall exhibit to the new tenant his stamped copy of the registration statement, and shall obtain the tenant's signature and the date thereof on the back of such statement. Within five days after renting to a new tenant, the landlord shall file a notice on the form provided therefor, on which he shall obtain the tenant's signature, stating that there has been a change in tenancy, that the stamped copy of the registration statement has been exhibited to the new tenant and that the rent for such accommodations is in conformity therewith.

No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

When the maximum rent is changed by order of the Administrator the landlord shall deliver his stamped copy of the registration statement to the Area Rent Office for appropriate action reflecting such change.

The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations under § 1388.7054 (g). The owner of such housing accommodations shall file a schedule or schedules, setting out the maximum rents for all such accommodations in the Defense-Rental Area and containing such other information as the Administrator shall require. A copy of such schedule or schedules shall be posted by the owner in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such housing accommodations.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

§ 1388.7058 Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of housing accommodations and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the accommodations by the Administrator as he may, from time to time, require.

§ 1388.7059 Evasion. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 43 shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly, in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of housing accommodations, by way of absolute or conditional sale, sale with purchase money or other form of mortgage, or sale with option to repurchase, or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges, or by modification of the services furnished with housing accommodations, or otherwise.

§ 1388.7060 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 43 are subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages as provided for by the Act.

§ 1388.7061 Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 43 shall be filed with the Area Rent Office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).

§ 1388.7062 Petitions for Amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation, No. 43 may file petitions therefor in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

[Maximum Rent Regulation 44A]

HOTELS AND ROOMING HOUSES

In the judgment of the Administrator, rents for housing accommodations within each of the Defense-Rental Areas set out in § 1388.8001 (a) of this Maximum Rent Regulation, as designated in the Designation and Rent Declaration issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended on May 22, 1942, and on May 30, 1942, have not been reduced and stabilized by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations set forth in the said Designation and Rent Declaration.

It is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area on or about March 1, 1942. The Administrator has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability in respect of such housing accommodations, including increases or decreases in property taxes and other costs.

In the judgment of the Administrator, the maximum rents established by this Maximum Rent Regulation for rooms in hotels and rooming houses within each such Defense-Rental Area will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by the Act, this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 44A is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1388.8001 to 1388.8014, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

§ 1388.8001 Scope of regulation. (a) This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 44A applies to all rooms in hotels and rooming houses within each of the following Defense-Rental Areas (each of which is referred to hereinafter in this Maximum Rent Regulation as the "Defense-Rental Area"), as designated in the Designation and Rent Declaration (§§ 1388.1201 to 1388.1205, inclusive) issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended on May 22, 1942, and on May 30, 1942, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section:

(1) The Charleston, South Carolina Defense-Rental Area, consisting of the Counties of Charleston and Dorchester, in the State of South Carolina.

(2) The Amarillo Defense-Rental Area, consisting of the Counties of Potter and Randall, in the State of Texas.

(b) This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 44A does not apply to the following:

(1) Rooms situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon;

(2) Rooms occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the rooms are provided as part of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the rooms are a part;

(3) Rooms in hospitals, or rooms of charitable or educational institutions used in carrying out their charitable or educational purposes;

(4) Entire structures or premises used as hotels or rooming houses, as distinguished from the rooms within such hotels or rooming houses.

(c) The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(d) An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 44A is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this Maximum Rent Regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(e) Where a building or establishment which does not come within the definitions of a hotel or rooming house contains one or more furnished rooms or other furnished housing accommodations rented on a daily, weekly or monthly basis, the landlord may, with the consent of the Administrator, elect to bring all housing accommodations within such building or establishment under the control of this Maximum Rent Regulation. A landlord who so elects shall file a registration statement under this Maximum Rent Regulation for all such housing accommodations, accompanied by a written request to the Administrator to consent to such election.

If the Administrator finds that the provisions of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 44A establishing maximum rents are better adapted to the rental practices for such building or establishment than the provisions of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations other than Hotels and Rooming Houses, he shall consent to the landlord's election. Upon such consent, all housing accommodations within such building or establishment which are or hereafter may be rented or offered for rent shall become subject to the provisions of this Maximum Rent Regulation, and shall be considered rooms within a rooming house for the purposes of the provisions relating to eviction.

The landlord may at any time, with the consent of the Administrator, revoke his election, and thereby bring under the control of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations other than Hotels and Rooming Houses all housing accommodations previously brought under this Maximum Rent Regulation by such election. He shall make such revocation by filing a registration statement or statements under the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations other than Hotels and Rooming Houses, including in such registration statement or statements all housing accommodations brought under this Maximum Rent Regulation by such election. Such registration statement or statements shall be accompanied by a written request to the Administrator to consent t such revocation. The Administrator may defer action on such request if he has taken or is about to take action o decrease the maximum rents of any housing accommodations within such building or establishment. If the Administrator finds that the revocation so requested will not result in substantial increases in the maximum rents of housing accommodations affected by such revocation, he shall give such consent. Upon such consent, all housing accommodations affected by such revocation shall become subject to the provisions of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations other than Hotels and Rooming Houses.

§ 1388.8002 Prohibitions. (a) Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand or receive any rent for use or occupancy on and after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 44A of any room in a hotel or rooming house within the Defense-Rental Area higher than the maximum rents provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. Lower rents than those provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation may be demanded or received.

(b) No tenant shall be required to change his term of occupancy if that will result in the payment of a higher amount per day than the maximum rent established for his present term of occupancy. Where, on June 15, 1942, or between that date and the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 44A, a room was regularly rented or offered for rent for a weekly or monthly term of occupancy, the landlord shall continue to offer the room for rent for that term of occupancy, unless he offers another term of occupancy for a rent which results in the payment of an amount no higher per day.

§ 1388.8003 Minimum services. The maximum rents provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 44A are for rooms including, as a minimum, services of the same type, quantity, and quality as those provided on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent. If, on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, the services provided for rooms are less than such minimum services, the landlord shall either restore and maintain the minimum services, or within 30 days after such effective date, file a petition pursuant to § 1388.8005 (b) for approval of the decreased services. In all other cases, except as provided in § 1388.8005 (b), the landlord shall provide the minimum services unless and until an order is entered pursuant to that section approving a decrease of such services.

§ 1388.8004 Maximum rents. This section establishes separate maximum rents for different terms of occupancy (daily, weekly or monthly) and numbers of occupants of a particular room. Maximum rents for rooms in a hotel or rooming house (unless and until changed by the Administrator as provided in § 1388.8005) shall be:

(a) For a room rented or regularly offered for rent during the thirty days ending on March 1, 1942, the highest rent for each term or number of occupants for which the room was rented during that thirty-day period, or, if the room was not rented or was not rented for a particular term or number of occupants during that period, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it was regularly offered during such period.

(b) For a room neither rented nor regularly offered for rent during the thirty days ending on March 1, 1942, the highest rent for each term or number of occupants for which the room was rented during the thirty days commencing wher it was first offered for rent after March 1, 1942; or, if the room was not rented or was not rented for a particular term or number of occupants during that period, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it was regularly offered during such period.

(c) For a room rented for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent is established under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section, the first rent for the room after March 1, 1942 for that term and number of occupants, but not more than the maximum rent for similar rooms for the same term and number of occupants in the same hotel or rooming house.

(d) For a room constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942, as determined by the owner of such rooms: Provided, however, That any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States within the meaning of this paragraph. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.8005 (c) (1).

(e) For a room with which meals were provided during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent without separate charge therefor, the rent apportioned by the landlord from the total charge for the room and meals. The landlord's apportionment shall be fair and reasonable and shall be reported in the registration statement for such room. The Administrator at any time on his own initiative or on application of the tenant may by order decrease the maximum rent established by such apportionment if he finds that the apportionment was unfair or unreasonable.

Every landlord who provides meals with accommodations shall make separate charges for the two. No landlord shall require the taking of meals as a condition of renting any room unless the room was rented or offered for rent on that basis on June 15, 1942.

(f) For a room rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department, the rents established on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 44A by such rent schedule. The Administrator may order an increase in such rents, if he finds that such increase is not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.8005 Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Administrator may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum services required. Except in cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (4) of this section, every adjustment of a maximum rent shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942; Provided, however, That no maximum rent shall be increased because of a major capital improvement or an increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, by more than the amount which the Administrator finds would have been on March 1, 1942, the difference in the rental value of the accommodations by reason of such improvement or increase. In cases involving construction due consideration shall be given to increased costs of construction, if any, since March 1, 1942. In cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (4) of this section the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms during the year ending on March 1, 1942.

(a) Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) There has been, since the thirty-day period or the order determining the maximum rent for the room, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) There was, on or prior to March 1, 1942 and within the six months ending on that date, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, and the rent during the thirty-day period ending on March 1, 1942 was fixed by a lease which was in force at the time of such change.

(3) There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the room since the thirty-day period or the order determining its maximum rent.

(4) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant, or by an allowance or discount to a tenant of a class of persons to whom the landlord regularly offered such an allowance or discount, and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942.

(5) There was in force on March 1, 1942 a written lease, which had been in force more than one year on that date, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942.

(6) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent for the room was substantially lower than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(b) If on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 44A, the services provided for a room are less than those provided on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent, the landlord shall either restore the services to those provided on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent and maintain such services or, within 30 days after such effective date, file a petition requesting approval of the decreased services. Except as above provided, the landlord shall maintain the minimum services unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease services and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon; however, if it is impossible to provide the minimum services, he shall file a petition within five days after the change of services occurs. The order on any petition under this paragraph may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent.

(c) The Administrator at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) The maximum rent for the room is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942.

(2) There has been a substantial deterioration of the room other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(3) There has been a substantial decrease in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the room since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent for the room was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(d) If the rent on the date determining the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Administrator on petition of the landlord filed within 30 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 44A, or at any time on his own intiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact; or if the Administrator is unable to ascertain such fact he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942.

§ 1388.8006 Restrictions on removal of tenant. (a) So long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which the landlord is entitled, no tenant of a room within a hotel or rooming house shall be removed from such room, by action to evict or to recover possession, by exclusion from possession, or otherwise, nor shall any person attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that such tenant has no lease or that his lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, unless:

(1) The tenant, who had a written lease or other written rental agreement, has refused upon demand of the landlord to execute a written extension or renewal thereof for a further term of like duration but not in excess of one year but otherwise on the same terms and conditions as the previous lease or agreement except insofar as such terms and conditions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 44A; or

(2) The tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the room for the purpose of inspection or of showing the room to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee or prospective mortgagee, or other person having a legitimate interest therein; Provided, however, That such refusal shall not be ground for removal or eviction if such inspection or showing of the room is contrary to the provisions of the tenant's lease or other rental agreement, or

(3) The tenant (i) has violated a substantial obligation of his tenancy, other than an obligation to pay rent, and has continued, or failed to cure, such violation after written notice by the landlord that the violation cease, or (ii) is committing or permitting a nuisance or is using or permitting a use of the room for an immoral or illegal purpose; or

(4) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession for the immediate purpose of demolishing the room or of substantially altering or remodeling it in a manner which cannot practicably be done with the tenant in occupancy and the plans for such alteration or remodeling have been approved by the proper authorities, if such approval is required by local law; or

(5) The landlord seeks in good faith not to offer the room for rent. If a tenant has been removed or evicted from a room under this paragraph (a) (5), such room shall not be rented for a period of six months after such removal or eviction without permission of the Administrator. The landlord may petition the Administrator for permission to rent the room during such six month period, and the Administrator shall grant such permission if he finds that the action was in good faith and not for the purpose of evading any provision of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(b) No tenant shall be removed or evicted on grounds other than those stated above unless, on petition of the landlord, the Administrator certifies that the landlord may pursue his remedies in accordance with the requirements of the local law. The Administrator shall so certify if the landlord establishes that removals or evictions of the character proposed are not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(c) At the time of commencing any action to remove or evict a tenant (except an action based on non-payment of a rent not in excess of the maximum rent) the landlord shall give written notice thereof to the Area Rent Office stating the title and number of the case, the court in which it is filed, the name and address of the tenant and the grounds on which eviction is sought.

(d) The provisions of this section do not apply to:

(1) A subtenant or other person who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant, where removal or eviction of the subtenant or other such occupant is sought by the landlord of the tenant, unless under the local law there is a tenancy relationship between the landlord and the subtenant or other such occupant; or

(2) A tenant occupying a room within a hotel on a daily or weekly basis; or a tenant occupying on a daily basis a room within a rooming house which has heretofore usually been rented on a daily basis.

(3) Rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

No provision of this section shall be construed to authorize the removal of a tenant unless such removal is authorized under the local law.

§ 1388.8007 Registration. (a) Within 45 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 44A, every landlord of a room rented or offered for rent shall file a written statement on the form provided therefor, containing such information as the Administrator shall require, to be known as a registration statement. Any maximum rent established after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation under paragraphs (b) or (c) of § 1388.8004 shall be reported either on the first registration statement or on a statement filed within 5 days after such rent is established.

(b) Every landlord shall conspicuously display in each room rented or offered for rent a card or sign plainly stating the maximum rent or rents for all terms of occupancy and for all numbers of occupants for which the room is rented or offered for rent. Where the taking of meals by the tenant or prospective tenant is a condition of renting such room, the card or sign shall so state. Should the maximum rent or rents for the room be changed by order of the Administrator, the landlord shall alter the card or sign so that it states the changed rent or rents.

The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to rooms under § 1388.8004 (d). The owner of such rooms shall post a copy of the registration statement in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such rooms.

(c) No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not apply to rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

§ 1388.8008 Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of a room and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the room by the Administrator as he may, from time to time, require.

§ 1388.8009 Evasion. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 44A shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly, in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of a room, by requiring the tenant to pay or obligate himself for membership or other fees, or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges, or by modification of the services furnished with the room, or otherwise.

§ 1388.8010 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 44A are subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages as provided for by the Act.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1364.151 to 1364.165, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Congress.

§ 1364.151 Prohibition against dealing in lamb at prices above the maximum. From August 10, 1942, to October 8, 1942, inclusive, regardless of any contract, agreement, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver any lamb carcass or wholesale cut or retail cut of lamb, and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any lamb carcass or wholesale cut or retail cut of lamb at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by § 1364.152; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of lamb carcasses or wholesale cuts or retail cuts of lamb to a purchaser if, prior to August 10, 1942, such lamb carcasses or wholesale cuts or retail cuts of lamb have been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such purchaser.

§ 1364.152 Maximum prices for lamb. (a) The seller's maximum price for lamb carcasses and for any wholesale cut or retail cut of lamb shall be the highest price charged by the seller to a purchaser of the same class during the period July 27, 1942, to July 31, 1942, inclusive, for such lamb carcasses or for such wholesale cut or retail cut of lamb.

(b) Where a seller, during the period July 27, 1942 to July 31, 1942, inclusive, did not deal in lamb carcasses or in a wholesale cut or retail cut of lamb, the seller's maximum price for lamb carcasses or for such wholesale cut or retail cut of lamb shall be the highest price charged during the period July 27, 1942 to July 31, 1942, inclusive, by the most closely competitive seller to a purchaser of the same class for lamb carcasses or for such wholesale cut or retail cut of lamb.

§ 1364.153 Exempt sales. This Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 20 shall not apply to the following sales or deliveries:

(a) By a farmer, of carcasses or wholesale or retail cuts from lamb grown and processed on his farm, if the total of such sales or deliveries together with sales or deliveries of all other commodities so grown and processed does not exceed $75 in any one calendar month;

(b) By hotels, restaurants, cafes, or other similar establishments, of lamb prepared and sold for consumption on the premises;

(c) Deliveries to the armed forces of the United States, the Federal Surplus Commodities Corporation or any institution of any state or political subdivision thereof or of the United States under contracts entered into prior to August 3, 1942.

§ 1364.154 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in § 1364.152 may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

§ 1364.156 Conditional agreements. No seller of lamb shall enter into an agreement permitting the adjustment of the prices to prices which may be higher than the maximum prices provided by § 1364.152, in the event that this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 20 is amended or is determined by a court to be invalid or upon any other contingency: Provided, That if a petition for amendment has been duly filed, and such petition requires extensive consideration, the Administrator may grant an exception from the provisions of this section permitting the making of contracts adjustable upon the granting of the petition for amendment. Requests for such an exception may be included in the aforesaid petition for amendment.

§ 1364.157 Sales for export. The maximum price at which a person may export lamb shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1364.158 Records and reports. (a) As to all sales not specifically exempted by other sections of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 20 every person selling lamb carcasses or wholesale or retail cuts of lamb shall preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration all his existing records relating to the prices which he charged for lamb carcasses or such wholesale cuts or retail cuts of lamb as he delivered or supplied during the period July 27, 1942 to July 31, 1942, inclusive, and his offering prices for delivery or supply of lamb carcasses and wholesale cuts or retail cuts of lamb during such period; and shall prepare, on or before August 10, 1942, on the basis of all available information and records, and thereafter keep for examination by any person during ordinary business hours, a statement showing (1) the highest prices charged for lamb carcasses and for such wholesale cuts or retail cuts of lamb as he delivered or supplied during the period July 27, 1942 to July 31, 1942, inclusive, and his offering prices for delivery or supply of lamb carcasses and of wholesale cuts or retail cuts of lamb during such period together with an appropriate identification of each such wholesale cut or retail cut of lamb; and (2) all his customary allowances, discounts, and other price differentials.

(b) Every person selling lamb carcasses or wholesale cuts or retail cuts of lamb, as to all sales not specifically exempted by other sections of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 20, shall keep and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, records of the same kind as he has customarily kept, relating to the prices which he charged for lamb carcasses and wholesale cuts or retail cuts of lamb during the period August 10, 1942 to October 8, 1942, inclusive; and, in addition, records showing, as precisely as possible, the basis upon which he determined maximum prices.

(c) Such persons shall submit such reports to the Office of Price Administration and keep such other records in addition to or in place of the records required in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require.

§ 1364.159 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 20 are subject to the criminal penalties and civil enforcement actions provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 20 or of any price schedule, regulation, or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state, field or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. No seller shall require any purchaser, and no purchaser shall be permitted, to pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery or supply of any commodity or service than the seller required purchasers of the same class to pay during the period July 27, 1942, to July 31, 1942, inclusive, on deliveries of lamb.

§ 1364.162 Notification to retailers of maximum prices. Whenever any person sells any lamb carcass or wholesale cut or retail cut of lamb to any person engaged in selling lamb at retail the seller shall deliver to the purchaser, together with the invoice, sales slip, or other memorandum of the sale, or, if there be no such memorandum, together with the meat, a written or printed statement in the following form and words:

NOTICE TO RETAILERS OF MAXIMUM PRICE FOR LAMB

Pursuant to the provisions of Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 20, issued by the Office of Price Administration, it is unlawful for any person to charge or receive for any cut of lamb a price higher than the highest price at which that person sold the same kind of cut to a purchaser of the same class, during the period July 27 to July 31, 1942, inclusive.

Provided, That if a seller has delivered the foregoing statement to the same retailer in connection with two separate and distinct sales, the seller shall not be required to furnish the statement in connection with any subsequent sales to the same purchaser.

§ 1364.163 Standard of interpretation. Every provision of this Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 20 is to be understood and will be interpreted consistently with the provisions of the regulation as a whole, and, unless the context otherwise requires, with the corresponding and related provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation and in such a manner as to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

§ 1364.164 Revocation or replacement of regulation. This Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 20 may be revoked or replaced by a permanent Maximum Price Regulation or order issued under the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

§ 1364.165 Effective period. This Temporary Maximum Price Regulation No. 20 (§§ 1364.151 to 1364.165, inclusive) shall become effective on August 10, 1942, and shall, unless earlier revoked or replaced, expire at 12 o'clock midnight, October 8, 1942.

PART 1420—BREWERY AND DISTILLERY PRODUCTS

[Maximum Price Regulation 193]

DOMESTIC DISTILLED SPIRITS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary to establish maximum prices for the sale of domestic distilled spirits because (a) under War Production Board Orders M-30 and M-69 all neutral spirits have been allocated to war industries so that gin manufacturers and blenders of other liquors are forced to use higher priced "high wines", (b) the enforced use of "high wines" has made gin manufacturers subject to the Federal Rectification Tax of 30 cents per gallon to which they were not previously subject, and (c) it is proposed to increase the Federal excise tax on distilled spirits. The maximum prices established by the Regulation are, in the judgment of the Price Administrator, generally fair and equitable, and in conformity with the general level of prices established by the General Maximum Price Regulation.[1]

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of Maximum Price Regulation No. 193, issued simultaneously herewith, has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 193, is hereby issued.

Sec.
1420.1 Maximum prices for domestic distilled spirits.
1420.2 Less than maximum prices.

1420.10 Definitions.
1420.11 Geographical applicability.
1420.12 Effective date.
1420.13 Appendix A: Maximum prices for domestic distilled spirits.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1420.1 to 1420.13 inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

§ 1420.1 Maximum prices for domestic distilled spirits. On and after August 5, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver domestic distilled spirits and no person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive domestic distilled spirits at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A hereof, incorporated herein as § 1420.13; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the foregoing.

§ 1420.2 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in Appendix A (§ 1420.13) may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1420.3 Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to or at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. (1) Manufacturers may add: (i) The difference between the weighted average cost to the manufacturer at his plant during the period from April 1, 1942 through June 30, 1942 of a quantity of high wines equal to the quantity of high wines used in the manufacture of the domestic distilled spirits to be priced and the weighted average cost to such manufacturer at his plant during the period from January 1, 1942 through March 31, 1942 of the same quantity of neutral spirits: Provided, That if the manufacturer increased his price during March 1942, the amount of such increase shall be subtracted from the adjustment permitted hereunder unless the manufacturer files with the Office of Price Administration a statement in affidavit form setting forth facts showing that such increase was not made to offset the increased cost of using high wines: Provided further, That the amount of such increase shall be subtracted from the adjustment permitted hereunder regardless of the filing of any such statement if, within 15 days of the receipt thereof, the Price Administrator shall so notify the manufacturer in writing.

(2) Sellers, other than manufacturers, may add: (i) The difference between the maximum price established for the seller's supplier under the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to the domestic distilled spirits to be priced and the maximum price established for the seller's supplier under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 193 with respect to such domestic distilled spirits.

(ii) The amount of any new tax or any increase in an existing tax imposed upon the seller after March 31, 1942, with respect to the domestic distilled spirits to be priced by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any State or sub-division thereof: Provided, That such amount has been paid directly by the seller.

In establishing their maximum prices hereunder, sellers at retail may round such prices to the nearest full cent.

(3) Notification: On or before August 16, 1942, every seller, other than sellers at retail, shall notify each of its customers in writing of the difference between such seller's maximum price under the General Maximum Price Regulation and such seller's maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 193 for each item of domestic distilled spirits ordinarily sold by such seller to such customer.

(b) Determination of maximum prices by reference to maximum prices of most closely competitive seller. If the seller's maximum price for the domestic distilled spirits to be priced cannot be determined under paragraph (a) of this section, the seller's maximum price for such domestic distilled spirits shall be the maximum price established under paragraph (a) of this section for the most closely competitive seller of the same class for such domestic distilled spirits or for the similar commodity most nearly like it (as such term is defined in § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation) for sales to a purchaser of the same class.

Vessels complying with the above regulations and displaying the flag may be permitted to enter the canal at the discretion of the United States Coast Guard. The Coast Guard has authority to board vessels at any time for the purpose of making investigations or examinations. Vessels not displaying the flag will be detained for inspection by the Coast Guard prior to entering the canal. Vessels displaying the flag may be boarded by the Coast Guard for the purpose of check inspection or for examination of the log.

Vessels shall also indicate compliance with the foregoing regulation by signaling with one long, one short, and one long blast of the whistle. This signal shall be given following the signal for passage through the canal.

Barges in tow and the towing tug shall be construed as individual vessels and each subject to this inspection.

(k) Rate of speed. No vessel or boat shall navigate the Black Rock Canal at a rate of speed greater than six statute miles per hour or less than three statute miles per hour.

PART 302—CONTRACTS WITH VESSEL OWNERS

SMALLCRAFT BAREBOAT REQUISITION CHARTER "WARSHIPTOW"

Whereas, an unlimited national emergency was proclaimed by the President of the United States on May 27, 1941; and

Whereas, by Executive Order No. 9054, dated February 7, 1942, the President of the United States conferred upon the War Shipping Administration the functions, duties, and powers with respect to the provisions of section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, to requisition or charter the use of any vessel or other watercraft owned by citizens of the United States or under construction within the United States, for any period during such emergency; and

Whereas, vessels in addition to these otherwise available are and will be necessary for transportation of foreign commerce of the United States or of commodities essential to the national defense and to the prosecution of the war; and

Whereas, the inauguration of barge service between Florida and Cuban ports has become necessary by reason of the aforesaid lack of available vessels for the transportation of foreign commerce of the United States or of commodities essential to the national defense and to the prosecution of the war;

Whereas, it will be necessary from time to time to inaugurate new or expand existing barge services for the transportation of foreign or domestic commerce; and

Whereas, pursuant to the aforesaid Proclamation and Executive Order of the President and the provisions of section 902 of the Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, has requisitioned and will from time to time requisition the use on a bareboat charter basis of vessels owned by citizens of the United States or under construction within the United States for such services.

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 302.5 Smallcraft bareboat requisition charter "Warshiptow". (a) The attached form of bareboat charter identified as Form No. 109, Warshiptow, 8/1/42, to be entered into by the United States of America, acting by and through the Administrator, War Shipping Administration is approved and adopted for the requisitioned use on a bareboat basis of tugs, barges and other vessels whether or not self-propelled used in or in conjunction with barge services in or between such port or ports as the Administrator shall from time to time determine.

(b) Appropriate special provisions shall be inserted, either by addendum or by insertion, as the owner and the War Shipping Administration shall agree. (E.O. 9054, 7 F.R. 837)

Form No. 109

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

SMALL CRAFT BAREBOAT REQUISITION CHARTER "WARSHIPTOW"

This charter made and concluded upon in the District of Columbia the _____ day of _____, 19__, between the United States of America, acting through the War Shipping Administrator (hereinafter called the "Charterer"), and _____ (hereinafter called the "Owner"), owner of the _____ Vessel _____ (hereinafter called the "Vessel"), of _____ _____, Official No. _____, of _____ tons gross register and _____ tons net register.

Witnesseth: That

Whereas, by Proclamation of May 27, 1941, the President declared an unlimited national emergency, and the security of the national defense made it advisable for the Charterer to requisition and charter the use of vessels and other water craft owned by citizens of the United States; and

Whereas, pursuant to the aforesaid Proclamation of the President and the provisions of Section 902, Merchant Marine Act, 1936, as amended, the Charterer has requisitioned the use of the Vessel by Small Craft Requisition No. _____ approved on _____, 19__; and

Whereas, this Charter sets forth the terms which, in the Charterer's judgment, should govern the relations between the United States and the Owner and a statement of the rate of hire which, in the Charterer's judgment, will be just compensation for the use of the Vessel and for the services required under the terms of this Charter;

Now, therefore, it is agreed as follows:

ARTICLE 1. Charter period. The Owner agrees to let and the Charterer agrees to hire the Vessel for a period (subject to sooner termination by the Charterer upon fifteen days' written notice to the Owner) beginning with the time of the Vessel's delivery hereunder until the termination of the emergency proclaimed by the President on May 27, 1941, and such additional time needed for (a) the Vessel to complete her current voyage at either the end of said emergency period or at the end of said fifteen days' notice period, as the case may be, and, (b) the Charterer to place the Vessel in the condition required on redelivery under the terms of this Charter.

ART. 2. Delivery and redelivery of vessel. The Vessel shall be delivered as of _____ o'clock _____ Time, on 19____, at the Port of _____, as evidenced by the delivery receipt, and there redelivered after being restored to her condition on delivery as hereinafter provided, unless actually or constructively lost, at such safe place or pier to be designated by the Owner, unless otherwise mutually arranged.

ART. 3. Charter hire. The Charterer shall pay the Owner hire in the amount of $_____ _____, for each day of twenty-four hours, and pro rata for any part of a day, from the time of acceptance, until the time of redelivery, or, if the Vessel is sooner lost, until the time of her loss (if the time of such loss is uncertain, then until the time last heard from), or if the Vessel is a declared constructive total loss as hereinafter provided, to the time of such declaration by the Charterer.

Such hire shall be due and payable on the first day of each calendar month during the period of this Charter, for the preceding month or portion thereof.

ART. 4. Condition of vessel on delivery and redelivery. Subject to the provisions of the second and third paragraphs of Article 5, the Charterer shall accept the Vessel "as is", in whatever condition it may be at the time of acceptance thereof, without any agreement representation or warranty, expressed or implied, by the Owner as to its physical condition, equipment, seaworthiness, or fitness for any purposes whatsoever, or against any defects, except as to latent defects, against all of which the Owner warrants the Vessel.

The Charterer shall be at liberty to install any equipment and make alterations and additions to quarters and equipment incident to the service in which the Vessel is to be used, and to install any additional gear or equipment for loading, carrying or discharging cargo or for towing or other services beyond that on board at the beginning of this Charter. Such equipment, materials, and gear so fitted are to be considered Charterer's property and; the Charterer shall remove the same at its expense before redelivery, and shall restore the Vessel to her condition prior to such changes (ordinary wear and tear excepted).

Unless actually or constructively lost, the Vessel on redelivery shall, at the cost of the Charterer, be restored to the Owner in a condition at least as good as when accepted hereunder, less ordinary wear and tear, or in lieu of making such repairs, the Charterer (at its option) shall pay the Owner an amount to place the Vessel in such condition, which payment shall include: (a) an amount (payable month by month) equal to the hire herein fixed for use of the Vessel for the period of time necessary, the utmost diligence and despatch being used, for such repairing; and (b) any such further amount necessarily expended or to be expended by the Owner for insurance, wages and subsistence of master and members of the crew and other vessel expenses incurred during the period of time necessary, such diligence and despatch being used, for repairing the damage.

ART. 5. Maintenance. The Charterer shall, at its own expense, maintain the Vessel, so far as possible, in at least as good condition, working order and repair as said Vessel was in at the time of her acceptance to the Charterer hereunder, ordinary wear and tear excepted.

The Vessel shall be drydocked and surveyed before acceptance and on redelivery to determine her condition under the terms of this Charter. The cost of drydocking or acceptance shall be paid for by the Charterer, and the cost of drydocking or redelivery shall be paid for by the Owner. Should the Charterer elect to waive drydocking on acceptance, any damage to the Vessel's bottom found on redelivery shall be presumed, in the absence of proof to the contrary, to have occurred subsequent to the date of acceptance, and all expenses in repairing such damage shall be for account of the Charterer.

If, at the time of delivery hereunder, the Vessel has outstanding classification requirements or has sustained unrepaired damage of an insurable nature, the cost of repairing such unrepaired damage or of satisfying the outstanding classification requirements shall be for the Owner's account and, if the Charterer is not reimbursed for such cost by the Owner, such cost shall be deducted by the Charterer from the charter hire due hereunder and, in either event, during the time required for such repairs, the Vessel shall be off-hire.

Decay or corrosion from natural causes which require the entire replacement of frame, deck beams, deck housing, planking and side or bottom plates other than that caused by collision or other accidents shall be for the Owner's account as will natural deterioration of boilers, pump condensers and main engines. If, during the term of this Charter excessive repairs are necessary in the way of replacement of machinery or to hull and such repairs shall be considered as renewing or adding to the value of the Vessel, such repairs may be made by the Charterer and shall be for the Owner's account, provided, however, that if caused by collision or other accident it shall be for the Charterer's account.

ART. 6. Fuel and stores on board vessel at delivery and redelivery. The Charterer shall accept and pay for all unbroached consumable stores, fuel oil and fresh water on board at the time of delivery, in good order and condition and not in excess of vessel's normal requirements, and the Owner shall accept and pay for all unbroached consumable stores, fuel oil and fresh water on board on redelivery, in good order and condition and not in excess of vessel's normal requirements, at the current market prices at the port of delivery and of redelivery, respectively, on the respective dates of the inventories thereof. "Consumable stores" within the meaning of this paragraph are all consumable and subsistence stores (but not radio supplies, expendable equipment, scrap and junk) listed in United States Maritime Commission Voyage Stores Reports, Forms 7915A, 7916A, 7918A, and 7919A (Revised Forms 1939).

ART. 7. Inventories. A complete inventory of the Vessel's entire outfit, equipment, furniture, furnishings, appliances, spare and replacement parts and of all consumable stores, fuel oil and fresh water on board as of the time of the Vessel's delivery shall be jointly taken by representatives of the Charterer and the Owner, and mutually agreed upon by them both as to items and price at such time or as soon thereafter as may be possible, and a similar inventory shall be so jointly taken and mutually agreed upon immediately after redelivery. Items other than fuel, water and consumable stores included in the redelivery inventory, however, shall not be repriced on redelivery.

ART. 8. Use of equipment. The Charterer shall have the use of all outfit, equipment, furniture, furnishings, appliances, spare and replacement parts on board the Vessel from the time of delivery without extra cost (with the exception of the leased equipment), and the same or their substantial equivalent shall be returned to the Owner on redelivery in the same good order and condition as when received, and any such items lost, destroyed, damaged, or so worn in service as to be unfit for use to be replaced or made good by the Charterer in kind before redelivery or in value at the time of redelivery. The Charterer shall also have the benefit of all apparatus and appliances and spare repair replacement parts on shore, at prices to be mutually agreed upon between the parties, and the Owner shall furnish the Charterer forthwith a list of such parts and equipments.

ART. 9. Leased equipment. The Charterer may assume the obligations of the Owner under any contracts in connection with leased equipment on board and all expenses connected therewith after delivery, either by direct payment to the lessor thereof or by reimbursing the Owner for the rental and any other expenses under the Owner's contracts for such equipment during the period of this Charter, at the Owner's option, except that the Charterer, at the beginning of the charter period may substitute any other form of agreement as to such services mutually satisfactory to the Charterer and these contractors.

ART. 10. Charterer to man, victual and navigate. During the period hereof, the Charterer shall at its own expense, or by its own procurement, man, victual, navigate, operate, supply, fuel, and repair the Vessel and pay all charges and expenses of every kind and nature whatsoever incident thereto.

ART. 11. Marine and war risk. The Charterer shall, effective with the time of delivery of the Vessel under this Charter, assume war, marine and all other risks or liabilities of whatsoever nature or kind, against the Owner or Vessel including all risks or liabilities for breach of statute or for damage caused to other vessels, persons or property, and shall indemnify and save harmless the Owner and the Vessel against and from any and all loss, liability, damage, injury (including death claims), and expense (including costs of court and reasonable attorneys' fees) on account of such risks or liabilities arising out of any matter occurring during the currency of this Charter.

ART. 12. Loss of vessel. In the event the Vessel is actually lost or is declared to be a constructive total loss or is an arranged total loss, the Charterer shall pay to the Owner as soon as practicable $_____ for the Vessel, including interest at the rate of three per centum (3%) per annum calculated in the case of actual total loss beginning 90 days from the date of loss, if known, otherwise beginning 90 days from the date the Vessel was last heard from; in the case of declared constructive total loss beginning on the date such declaration is made; and in the case of an arranged total loss beginning on the date the loss is agreed upon.

If the Vessel sustains serious damage or injury arising during the period of this Charter, to such extent that the Charterer shall consider her to be a constructive total loss, the Charterer shall have the option (to be exercised as promptly as possible, but in no event later than 90 days from the date of the casualty), of declaring the Vessel to be a constructive total loss as of the date of such declaration and of taking over or selling her, and the Owner shall be paid the amount provided above.

If the Vessel is a total loss (actual or constructive) or is purchased or title thereto is requisitioned by the Charterer, the Owner agrees to allow the Charterer a deduction of one-third of the total hire paid or accrued hereunder to the time of such loss or the date of delivery under such purchase or requisition, from the sum stipulated as payable by the Charterer to the Owner under the provisions of this Article in the event of total loss, and the payment of such stipulated sum, less such deduction, shall constitute just compensation and full satisfaction for such loss, purchase or taking.

ART. 13. Indemnification. The Owner shall forever indemnify and hold harmless the Charterer against any liens of whatsoever nature upon the vessel at the time of its delivery hereunder and the Charterer shall forever indemnify, hold harmless, and defend the Owner against any liens of whatsoever nature upon the Vessel at the time of its redelivery hereunder, by whomsoever asserted, and against any claim of lien (including costs and reasonable attorneys' fees paid or incurred in defending any such claim, whether or not the claim be found to be valid) whenever and by whomsoever asserted, arising out of any matter occurring during the period of this Charter or out of the use or operation of the Vessel by the Charterer or any subcharterer or out of any act or neglect of the Charterer or any subcharterer in relation to the Vessel or out of any obligation or liability incurred by the Charterer or any subcharterer. The Charterer shall also indemnify, hold harmless and defend the Owner against any claims, demands, or liabilities against the Owner (including costs and reasonable attorney's fees in defending such claims or demand, whether or not the claim or demand be found to be valid) arising out of the use of operation of the Vessel by the Charterer or any subcharterer, or out of any act or neglect of the Charterer or any subcharterer in relation to the Vessel, or out of any obligation or liability incurred by the Charterer or any subcharterer.

ART. 14. Subcharter. The Charterer shall at all times have the right to subcharter the Vessel, but the Charterer shall always remain responsible for the due fulfillment of this Charter in all its terms and conditions.

ART. 15. Payments. All payments to be made by the Charterer to the Owner and all payments to be made by the Owner to the Charterer, under the terms of this Charter, shall be made in the District of Columbia by or to the Charterer.

In consideration of the compensation provided and the other obligations assumed by the Charterer hereunder, the Owner accepts this Charter in full satisfaction of any and all claims he has or may have against the United States of America arising out of the requisition of the Vessel and accepts the compensation herein provided for as the compensation required by law.

ART. 16. Officials not to benefit. No member of or delegate to Congress, nor Resident Commissioner, shall be admitted to any share or part of this Charter or to any benefit that may arise therefrom, except as provided in Section 116 of the Act, approved March 4, 1909 (35 Stat. 1109). No member of or Delegate to Congress, nor Resident Commissioner, shall be employed by the Owner either with or without compensation as an attorney, agent, officer or director.

B/L No. _____

1. This bill of lading shall have effect subject to the provisions of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act of the United States of America, approved April 16, 1936, which shall be deemed to be incorporated herein, and nothing herein contained shall be deemed a surrender by the Carrier of any of its rights or immunities or an increase of any of its responsibilities or liabilities under said Act. The provisions stated in said Act (except as may be otherwise specifically provided herein) shall govern before the goods are loaded on and after they are discharged from the vessel and throughout the entire time the goods are in the custody of the Carrier. The Carrier shall not be liable in any capacity whatsoever from any delay, non-delivery or misdelivery, or loss of or damage to the goods occurring while the goods are not in the actual custody of the Carrier.

(a) The Carrier shall be entitled to the full benefit of, and right to, all limitations of, or exemptions from, liability authorized by any provisions of Section 4281 to 4286 of the Revised Statutes of the United States and amendments thereto and of any other provisions of the laws of the United States or of any other country whose laws shall apply.

2. The contract voyage contemplates carriage of the goods herein described by barge, lighter or other craft, whether or not self propelled and in this bill of lading the word "vessel" shall include any substituted vessel, and any craft, lighter or other means of conveyance owned, chartered or operated by the Carrier used in the performance of this contract; the word "Carrier" shall include the vessel, the tug or other towing vessel used thereby, her owner, master, operator, demise charterer, and if bound hereby any time charterer, and any substituted carrier, whether the owner, operator, charterer, or master shall be acting as carrier or bailee; the word "shipper" shall include the person named as such in this bill of lading and the person for whose account the goods are shipped; the word "consignee" shall include the holder of the bill of lading, properly endorsed, and the receiver and the owner of the goods; the word "charges" shall include freight and all expenses and money obligations incurred and payable by the goods, shipper, consignee, or any of them.

3. The scope of voyage herein contracted for shall include usual or customary or advertised ports of call whether named in this contract or not; also ports in or out of the advertised, geographical, usual or ordinary route or order, even though in proceeding thereto the vessel may sail or be towed beyond the port of discharge or in a direction contrary thereto or return to the original port, or depart from the direct or customary route, and includes all canals, straits and other waters. The vessel may call at any port for the purposes of the current voyage or of a prior or subsequent voyage. The vessel may omit calling at any port or ports whether scheduled or not, and may call at the same port more than once; may for matters occurring before loading the goods, known or unknown at the time of such loading and matters occurring after such loading, either with or without the goods or passengers on board, and before or after proceeding toward the port of discharge, adjust compasses, dry dock, with or without cargo aboard go on ways or to repair yards, shift berths, make trial trips or tests, take fuel or stores, remain in port, sail with or without pilots, tow and be towed, and save or attempt to save life or property; and all of the foregoing are included in the contract voyage.

4. In any situation whatsoever and wheresoever occurring and whether existing or anticipated before commencement of or during the voyage, which in the judgment of the Carrier or the Master is likely to give rise to risk of capture, seizure, detention, damage, delay or disadvantage to or loss of the vessel or any part of her cargo, to make it unsafe, imprudent, or unlawful for any reason to commence or proceed on or continue the voyage or to enter or discharge the goods at the port of discharge, or to give rise to delay or difficulty in arriving, discharging at or leaving the port of discharge or the usual or agreed place of discharge in such port, the Carrier may before loading or before the commencement of the voyage, require the shipper or other person entitled thereto to take delivery of the goods at port of shipment and upon failure to do so, may warehouse the goods at the risk and expense of the goods; or the Carrier or the Master, whether or not proceeding toward or entering or attempting to enter the port of discharge or reaching or attempting to reach the usual place of discharge therein or attempting to discharge the goods there, may discharge the goods into depot, lazaretto, craft, or other place; or the vessel may proceed or return, directly or indirectly, to or stop at any port or place whatsoever as the Master or the Carrier may consider safe or advisable under the circumstances, and discharge the goods, or any part thereof, at any such port or place; or the Carrier or the Master may retain the cargo on board until the return trip or until such time as the Carrier or the Master thinks advisable and discharge the goods at any place whatsoever as herein provided; or the Carrier or the Master may discharge and forward the goods by any means, rail, water, land, or air at the risk and expense of the goods. The Carrier or the Master is not required to give notice of discharge of the goods or the forwarding thereof as herein provided. When the goods are discharged from the vessel, as herein provided, they shall be at their own risk and expense; such discharge shall constitute complete delivery and performance under this contract and the Carrier shall be freed from any further responsibility. For any services rendered to the goods as hereinabove provided, the Carrier shall be entitled to a reasonable extra compensation.

5. The Carrier, Master and vessel shall have liberty to comply with any orders or directions as to loading, departure, arrival, routes, ports of call, stoppages, discharges, destination, delivery or otherwise howsoever given by the government of any nation or department thereof or any person acting or purporting to act with the authority of such governments or of any department thereof, or by any committee or person having, under the terms of the war risk insurance on the vessel, the right to give such orders or directions. Delivery or other disposition of the goods in accordance with such orders or directions shall be a fulfillment of the contract voyage. The vessel may carry contraband, explosives, munitions, warlike stores, hazardous cargo, and may sail armed or unarmed and with or without convoy.

In addition to all other liberties herein the Carrier shall have the right to withhold delivery of, reship to, deposit or discharge the goods at any place whatsoever, surrender or dispose of the goods in accordance with any direction, condition or agreement imposed upon or exacted from the Carrier by any government or department thereof or any person purporting to act with the authority of either of them. In any of the above circumstances the goods shall be solely at their risk and expense and charges so incurred shall be payable by the owner or consignee thereof and shall be a lien on the goods.

6. Unless otherwise stated herein, the description of the goods and the particulars of the packages mentioned herein are those furnished in writing by the shipper and the Carrier shall not be concluded as to the correctness of marks, number, quantity, weight, gauge, measurement, contents, nature, quality or value. Single pieces or packages exceeding 4480 lbs. in weight shall be liable to pay extra charges in accordance with tariff rates or terminal charges in effect at time of shipment for loading, handling, transshipping or discharging and the weight of each such piece or package shall be declared in writing by the shipper on shipment and clearly and durably marked on the outside of the piece or package. The shipper and the goods shall also be liable for, and shall indemnify the Carrier in respect of any injury, loss or damage arising from shipper's failure to declare and mark the weight of any such piece or package or from inadequate or improper description of the goods or from the incorrect weight of any such piece or package having been declared or marked thereon, or from failure to disclose fully the nature and character of the goods.

7. In respect of goods carried on deck all risks of loss or damage by perils inherent in such carriage shall be borne by the shipper or the consignee but in all other respects the custody and carriage of such goods shall be governed by the terms of this bill of lading and the provisions stated in said carriage of Goods by Sea Act notwithstanding Sec. 1 (c) thereof.

Due to existing war conditions and to consequent lack of tonnage it is agreed that the goods herein described may be transported by a vessel not licensed, constructed or equipped for the contract voyage and all risks of loss or damage by perils inherent in such carriage shall be borne by the shipper or consignee.

8. If the vessel comes into collision with another vessel as a result of the negligence of the other vessel and any act, neglect or default of the Master, mariner, pilot or the servants of the Carrier in the navigation or in the management of the vessel, the owners of the goods carried hereunder will indemnify the Carrier against all loss or liability to the other or non-carrying vessel of her owners in so far as such loss or liability represents loss of, or damage to, or any claim whatsoever of the owners of said goods, paid or payable by the other or non-carrying vessel or her owners to the owners of said goods and set-off, recouped or recovered by the other or non-carrying vessel or her owners as part of their claim against the carrying vessel or Carrier.

The foregoing provisions shall also apply where the owners, operators or those in charge of any vessel or vessels or objects other than, or in addition to, the colliding vessels or objects are at fault in respect of a collision or contact.

9. General Average shall be adjusted, stated and settled, according to Rules 1 to 15 inclusive, 17 to 22 inclusive, and Rule F of York-Antwerp Rules 1924, at such port or place in the United States as may be selected by the Carrier, and as to matters not provided for by these rules, according to the laws and usages at the port of New York. In such adjustment disbursements in foreign currencies shall be exchanged into United States money at the rate prevailing on the dates made and allowances for damage to cargo claimed in foreign currency shall be converted at the rate prevailing on the last day of discharge at the port or place of final discharge of such damaged cargo from the ship. Average agreement or bond and such additional security, as may be required by the Carrier, must be furnished before delivery of the goods. Such cash deposit as the Carrier or his agents may deem sufficient as additional security for the contribution of the goods and for any salvage and special charges thereon, shall, if required, be made by the goods, shippers, consignees or owners of the goods to the Carrier before delivery. Such deposit shall, at the option of the Carrier, be payable in United States money and be remitted to the adjuster. When so remitted the deposit shall be held in a special account at the place of adjustment in the name of the adjuster pending settlement of the General Average and refunds or credit balances, if any, shall be paid in United States money.

In the event of accident, danger, damage, or disaster, before or after commencement of the voyage resulting from any cause whatsoever, whether due to negligence or not, for which, or for the consequence of which, the Carrier is not responsible, by statute, contract, or otherwise, the goods, the shipper and the consignee, jointly and severally, shall contribute with the Carrier in general average to the payment of any sacrifices, losses, or expenses of a general average nature that may be made or incurred, and shall pay salvage and special charges incurred in respect of the goods. If a salving vessel is owned or operated by the Carrier, salvage shall be paid for as fully and in the same manner as if such salving vessel or vessels belonged to strangers.

10. Whenever the Carrier or the Master may deem it advisable or in any case where the goods are consigned to a point where the vessel does not expect to discharge, the Carrier or Master may, without notice, forward the whole or any part of the goods before or after loading at the original port of shipment, or any other place or places even though outside the scope of the voyage of the route to or beyond the port of discharge or the destination of the goods, by any vessel, vessels or other means of transportation by water or by land or by air or by any such means, whether operated by the Carrier or by others and whether departing or arriving or scheduled to depart or arrive before or after the vessel expected to be used for the transportation of the goods. This Carrier, in making arrangements for any transhipping or forwarding vessel or means of transportation not operated by this Carrier shall be considered solely the forwarding agent of the shipper and without any other responsibility whatsoever.

The carriage by any transhipping or forwarding carrier and all transhipment or forwarding shall be subject to all the terms whatsoever in the regular form of bill of lading, freight note, contract or other shipping document used at the time by such carrier, whether issued for the goods or not, and even though such terms may be less favorable to the shipper or consignee than the terms of this bill of lading and may contain more stringent requirements as to notice of claim or commencement of suit and may exempt the on-carrier from liability for negligence. The shipper expressly authorizes the Carrier to arrange with any such transhipping or forwarding carrier that the lowest valuation of the goods or limitation of liability contained in the bill of lading or shipping document of such carrier shall apply even though lower than the valuation or limitation herein, provided that the shipper shall not be compelled to pay a rate higher than that applicable to the valuation contained in such bill of lading. Pending or during transhipment the goods may be stored ashore or afloat at their risk and expense and the Carrier shall not be liable for detention.

11. The port authorities are hereby authorized to grant a general order for discharging immediately upon arrival of the vessel and the Carrier without giving notice either of arrival or discharge, may discharge the goods directly they come to hand, at or onto any wharf, craft or place that the Carrier may select, and continuously Sundays and holidays included, at all such hours by day or by night as the Carrier may determine no matter what the state of the weather or custom of the port may be. The carrier shall not be liable in any respect whatsoever if heat or refrigeration or special cooling facilities shall not be furnished during loading or discharge or any part of the time that the goods are upon the wharf, craft, or other loading or discharging place. All lighterage and use of craft in receiving or discharging shall be at the risk and expense of the goods. Landing and delivery charges and pier dues shall be at the expense of the goods unless included in the freight herein provided for. If the goods are not taken away by the consignee by the expiration of the next working day after the goods are at his disposal, the goods may at Carrier's option and subject to Carrier's lien, be sent to store or warehouse or be permitted to lie where landed, but always at the expense and risk of the goods. The responsibility of the Carrier in any capacity shall altogether cease and the goods shall be considered to be delivered and at their own risk and expense in every respect when taken into the custody of customs or other authorities. The Carrier shall not be required to give any notification or disposition of the goods.

The cargo or cargoes shall be delivered and received alongside the Vessel, where she can load and discharge always safely afloat, and proceed and return always safely afloat, within reach of her tackles; and lighterage and also extra lighterage, if any, shall be at the risk and expense of the cargo.

12. The Carrier shall not be liable for failure to deliver in accordance with marks unless such marks shall have been clearly and durably stamped or marked by the shipper before shipment upon the goods or packages, in letters and numbers not less than two inches high, together with name of the port of discharge. Goods that cannot be identified as to marks or numbers, cargo sweepings, liquid residue and any unclaimed goods not otherwise accounted for shall be allocated for completing delivery to the various consignees of goods of like character, in proportion to any apparent shortage, loss of weight or damage. Loss or damage to goods in bulk stowed without separation from other goods in bulk of like quality, shipped by either the same or another shipper, shall be divided in proportion among the several shipments.

13. The goods shall be liable for all expense of mending, cooperage, baling or reconditioning of the goods or packages and gathering of loose contents of packages; also for any payment, expense, fine, dues, duty, tax, impost, loss, damage or detention sustained or incurred by or levied upon the Carrier or the ship in connection with the goods, howsoever caused, including any action or requirement of any government or governmental authority or person purporting to act under the authority thereof, seizure under legal process or attempted seizure, incorrect or insufficient marking, numbering or addressing of packages or description of the contents, failure of the shipper to procure consular, Board of Health or other certificates to accompany the goods or to comply with laws or regulations of any kind imposed with respect to the goods by the authorities at any port or place or any act or omission of the shipper or consignee.

14. Freight shall be payable on actual gross intake weight or measurement or, at Carrier's option, on actual gross discharged weight or measurement. Freight may be calculated on the basis of the particulars of the goods furnished by the shipper herein but the Carrier may at any time open the packages and examine, weigh, measure and value the goods. In case shipper's particulars are found to be erroneous and additional freight is payable, the goods shall be liable for any expense incurred for examining, weighing, measuring, and valuing the goods. Full freight shall be paid on damaged or unsound goods. Freight on sugar shall be payable as follows: Eighty-five per cent (85%) of freight payable in cash on the basis of gross bill of lading weight on arrival of Vessel at discharging berth to the order of Vessel, Owner, Operator or Agent, and on final discharge of cargo any over or short payment to be adjusted on the gross landed weight as determined by Public Weighers' returns, free of discount or interest. Full freight hereunder to port of discharge named herein shall be considered completely earned on shipment whether the freight be stated or intended to be prepaid or to be collected at destination; and the Carrier shall be entitled to all freight and charges due hereunder, whether actually paid or not, and to receive and retain them irrevocably under all circumstances whatsoever vessel and/or cargo lost or not lost or the voyage broken up or abandoned. If there shall be forced interruption or abandonment of the voyage at the port of shipment or elsewhere any forwarding of the goods or any part thereof shall be at the risk and expense of the goods. All unpaid charges shall be paid in full and without any offset, counterclaim or deduction in the currency of the port of shipment, or, at Carrier's option, in the currency of the port of discharge, at the demand rate of New York exchange as quoted on the day of the vessel's entry at the Custom House of her port of discharge. The Carrier shall have a lien on the goods, which shall survive delivery, for all charges due hereunder and may enforce this lien by public or private sale and without notice. The shipper and the consignee shall be jointly and severally liable to the Carrier for the payment of all charges and for the performance of the obligation of each of them hereunder.

15. Neither the Carrier nor any corporation owned by, subsidiary to or associated or affiliated with the Carrier shall be liable to answer for or make good any loss or damage to the goods occurring at any time and even though before loading on or after discharge from the vessel, by reason or by means of any fire whatsoever, unless such fire shall be caused by its design or neglect.

16. In case of any loss or damage to or in connection with goods exceeding in actual value $500 lawful money of the United States, per package, or, in case of goods not shipped in packages, per customary freight unit, the value of the goods shall be deemed to be $500 per package or per unit, on which basis the freight is adjusted and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall be determined on the basis of a value of $500 per package or per customary freight unit, or pro rata in case of partial loss or damage, unless the nature of the goods and a valuation higher than $500 shall have been declared in writing by the shipper upon delivery to the Carrier and inserted in this bill of lading and extra freight paid if required and in such case if the actual value of the goods per package or per customary freight unit shall exceed such declared value, the value shall nevertheless be deemed to be the declared value and the Carrier's liability, if any, shall not exceed the declared value and any partial loss or damage shall be adjusted pro rata on the basis of such declared value.

Whenever the value of goods is less than $500 per package or other freight unit, their value in the calculation and adjustment of claims for which the Carrier may be liable shall for the purpose of avoiding uncertainties and difficulties in fixing value be deemed to be the invoice value, plus freight and insurance if paid, irrespective of whether any other value is greater or less.

17. Unless notice of loss or damage and the general nature of such loss or damage be given in writing to the Carrier or his agent at the port of discharge before or at the time of the removal of the goods into the custody of the person entitled to delivery thereof under the contract of carriage, such removal shall be prima facie evidence of the delivery by the Carrier of the goods as described in the bill of lading. If the loss or damage is not apparent the notice must be given within three days of the delivery. The Carrier shall not be liable upon any claim for loss or damage unless written particulars of such claim shall be received by the Carrier within thirty days after receipt of the notice provided for.

18. In any event the Carrier and the ship shall be discharged from all liability in respect of loss or damage unless suit is brought within one year after the delivery of the goods or the date when the goods should have been delivered. Suit shall not be deemed brought until jurisdiction shall have been obtained over Carrier and/or the ship by service of process or by an agreement to appear.

19. To avoid or alleviate preventiona or delays in prosecution or completion of the voyage incident to the existence of hostilities, the Carrier has liberty and is authorized by the shipper and the owner of the goods to agree with the representatives of any government to submit the goods to examination at any place or places whatsoever and to delay delivery of the same until any restriction asserted by any governmental authority shall have been removed. The Carrier may put the goods in store ashore or afloat at the risk and expense of the owner of the same pending examination; and thereupon the Carrier's responsibility shall end. Any damage or deterioration occasioned by such examination or by delay and other risks of whatsoever nature shall be solely for account of the owner of the goods. All expenses incurred by the Carrier in relation to such detention of the goods shall be paid by the shipper or consignee or owner of the goods.

20. This Bill of Lading shall be construed and the rights of the parties thereunder determined according to the law of the United States.

21. Cargo skids and labor on quay are to be provided by vessel's agent for account of consignee at current rate, and any cargo which may be ordered for delivery into fiscal deposits, must be taken by an official cartman appointed by the agent of the vessel, at current rates for account and risk of consignee.

22. If any bagged or baled goods are landed slack or torn, receiver and/or consignee shall accept its proportion of the sweepings. Ship not responsible for loss of weight in bags or bales torn, mended or with sample holes.

23. The carriage herein contemplated is upon a multiple tow basis, any custom or practice of the trade to the contrary notwithstanding; and it shall not be deviation or a violation of this contract for the carrier to proceed to other point or points whether or not within the same port for the purpose of making tow and whether or not such other point or points are in or out of the advertised, geographical, usual or ordinary route or order.

24. All agreements or freight engagements for the shipment of the goods are superseded by this bill of lading, and all its terms, whether written, typed, stamped, or printed, are accepted and agreed by the shipper to be binding as fully as if signed by the shipper, any local customs or privileges to the contrary notwithstanding. Nothing in this bill of lading shall operate to limit or deprive the Carrier of any statutory protection or exemption from or limitation of liability. 2½ PERCENT TREASURY BONDS OF 1962-67

ADDITIONAL ISSUE

[1942, Dept. Circ. No. 692]

AUGUST 3, 1942.

I. Offering of Bonds

1. The Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to the authority of the Second Liberty Bond Act, as amended, invites subscriptions, at par and accrued interest, from the people of the United States for bonds of the United States, designated 2½ percent Treasury Bonds of 1962-67. These bonds will not be available for subscription, for their own account, by commercial banks which accept demand deposits. The amount of the offering is not specifically limited.

II. Description of Bonds

1. The bonds now offered will be an addition to and will form a part of the series of 2½ percent Treasury Bonds of 1962-67 issued pursuant to Department Circular No. 685, dated May 4, 1942, will be freely interchangeable therewith, and are identical in all respects therewith.

2. The bonds will be dated May 5, 1942, and will bear interest from that date at the rate of 2½ percent per annum, payable on a semiannual basis on June 15 and December 15 in each year until the principal amount becomes payable, the first payment being made December 15, 1942. They will mature June 15, 1967, but may be redeemed at the option of the United States on and after June 15, 1962, in whole or in part, at par and accrued interest, on any interest day or days, on 4 months' notice of redemption given in such manner as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe. In case of partial redemption the bonds to be redeemed will be determined by such method as may be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury. From the date of redemption designated in any such notice, interest on the bonds called for redemption shall cease.

3. The income derived from the bonds shall be subject to all Federal taxes, now or hereafter imposed. The bonds shall be subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but shall be exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

4. The bonds will not be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys before May 5, 1952, they will not bear the circulation privilege, and they will not be entitled to any privilege of conversion.

5. Bonds registered as to principal and interest will be issued in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000 and $100,000. The bonds will not be issued in coupon form prior to May 5, 1952, but will be available in coupon form after that date, in the same denominations as, and freely interchangeable with, the registered bonds of this issue. Under rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, provision will be made for the transfer of the bonds, other than to commercial banks which accept demand deposits, and for exchanges of denominations. They will not be eligible for transfer to commercial banks which accept demand deposits before May 5, 1952. However, the bonds may be pledged as collateral for loans, including loans by commercial banks which accept demand deposits, but any such bank acquiring such bonds before May 5, 1952, because of the failure of such loans to be paid at maturity will be required to dispose of them in the same manner as they dispose of other assets not eligible to be owned by banks.

6. Any bonds issued hereunder, or under the provisions of Department Circular No. 685, dated May 4, 1942, which upon the death of the owner constitute part of his estate, will be redeemed at the option of the duly constituted representatives of the deceased owner's estate, at par and accrued interest to date of payment [1]: Provided,

(a) That the bonds were actually owned by the decedent at the time of his death; and

(b) That the Secretary of the Treasury be authorized to apply the entire proceeds of redemption to the payment of Federal estate taxes.

Registered bonds submitted for redemption hereunder must be duly assigned to "The Secretary of the Treasury for redemption, the proceeds to be paid to the Collector of Internal Revenue at _____ _____ for credit on Federal estate taxes due from estate of _____ _____." Owing to the periodic closing of the transfer books and the impossibility of stopping payment of interest to the registered owner during the closed period, registered bonds received after the closing of the books for payment during such closed period will be paid only at par with a deduction of interest from the date of payment to the next interest payment date; [2] bonds received during the closed period for payment at a date after the books reopen will be paid at par plus accrued interest from the reopening of the books to the date of payment. In either case checks for the full six months interest due on the last day of the closed period will be forwarded to the owner in due course. All bonds submitted must be accompanied by Form PD 1782,[3] properly completed, signed and sworn to, and by a certificate of the appointment of the personal representatives, under seal of the court, dated not more than 6 months prior to the submission of the bonds, which shall show that at the date thereof the appointment was still in force and effect. Upon payment of the bonds appropriate memorandum receipt will be forwarded to the representatives, which will be followed in due course by formal receipt from the Collector of Internal Revenue.

7. Except as provided in the preceding paragraphs, the bonds will be subject to the general regulations of the Treasury Department, now or hereafter prescribed, governing United States bonds.

III. Subscription and Allotment

1. Subscriptions will be received at the Federal Reserve Banks and Branches and at the Treasury Department, Washington. Banking institutions and security dealers generally may submit subscriptions for account of customers, but only the Federal Reserve Banks and the Treasury Department are authorized to act as official agencies. Subscriptions must be accompanied by payment in full for the amount of bonds applied for.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury reserves the right to reject any subscription, in whole or in part, to allot less than the amount of bonds applied for, and to close the books as to any or all subscriptions at any time without notice; and any action he may take in these respects shall be final. Subject to these reservations, all subscriptions will be allotted in full. Allotment notices will be sent out promptly upon allotment.

IV. Payment

1. Payment at par and accrued interest from May 5, 1942, for bonds allotted hereunder must be made on August 3, 1942, or on later allotment. Accrued interest from May 5, 1942 to August 3, 1942, inclusive is $6.16293 per $1,000. Each day's accrued interest thereafter is $0.0683 per $1,000. Any qualified depositary will be permitted to make payment by credit for bonds allotted to its customers up to any amount for which it shall be qualified in excess of existing deposits, when so notified by the Federal Reserve Bank of its district.

V. General Provisions

1. As fiscal agents of the United States, Federal Reserve Banks are authorized and requested to receive subscriptions, to make allotments up to the amounts indicated by the Secretary of the Treasury to the Federal Reserve Banks of the respective districts, to issue allotment notices, to receive payment for bonds allotted, to make delivery of bonds on full-paid subscriptions allotted, and they may issue interim receipts pending delivery of the definitive bonds.

2. The Secretary of the Treasury may at any time, or from time to time, prescribe supplemental or amendatory rules and regulations governing the offering, which will be communicated promptly to the Federal Reserve Banks.

[SEAL] HENRY MORGENTHAU, JR.,
Secretary of the Treasury.

[1] An exact half-year's interest is computed for each full half-year period irrespective of the actual number of days in the half year. For a fractional part of any half year, computation is on the basis of the actual number of days in such half year.

Bituminous Coal Division.

[Docket No. 1708-FD]

SHEBAN MINING COMPANY, CODE MEMBER

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION

A complaint, pursuant to sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the "Act"), having been filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on June 11, 1941, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 4, alleging that Karam Sheban (Sheban Mining Company) a code member in District No. 4, had wilfully violated the provisions of the Bituminous Coal Code (the "Code") or rules and regulations thereunder, and praying that the Division either cancel and revoke Karam Sheban's code membership or, in its discretion, direct him to cease and desist from violation of the Code and the rules and regulations thereunder;

A hearing having been held before Examiner C. R. Larrabee at a hearing room of the Division in Youngstown, Ohio, on April 8, 1942, all interested persons being afforded an opportunity to be present thereat and participate fully therein, and code member having appeared and participated in said hearing;

The Examiner having made and entered his Report on June 10, 1942, in which it was found that code member had wilfully violated the provisions of sections 4 II (e) and 4 II (g) of the Act, the Code, and the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 4 for Truck Shipments, and in which it was recommended that an order be entered cancelling and revoking his code membership;

An opportunity having been afforded to all parties to file exceptions thereto and supporting briefs, and no such exceptions or briefs having been filed;

The undersigned, on June 17, 1942, having entered an Order approving and adopting the proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law of the Examiner and revoking and cancelling Karam Sheban's code membership and ordering him, prior to reinstatement to membership in the Code, to pay to the United States a tax in the amount of $3,505.08;

Code member, on July 28, 1942, having filed a petition for reconsideration of said order on the grounds that some of the provisions of the Act were unconstitutional, the character of code member's business was intrastate; the nature of code member's coal was not as was comprehended by the Act, and the undersigned's findings were not supported by the evidence; and

The undersigned having reviewed the record in this proceeding and having found that code member already has been afforded a full hearing in this matter, and that the questions of the constitutionality of the Act, the character of code member's business, and the nature of the coal produced by him have already been adequately considered, and that the findings of the undersigned herein on July 17, 1942, are amply supported by substantial evidence and comply with the requirements of the Act;

The undersigned therefore concludes that the order issued herein on July 17, 1942, is proper and should remain unchanged, and that the petition of code member for reconsideration of said order should be denied.

It is accordingly ordered, That the petition for reconsideration filed herein by Karam Sheban (Sheban Mining Company) on July 28, 1942, be and it hereby is in all respects denied.

Dated: July 31, 1942.

NOTICE OF AND ORDER FOR HEARING

In the matter of the application of Public Service Company of Indiana, Inc., for exemption pursuant to Section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

An application for a determination of the status of coal produced at the Edwardsport Mine of Public Service Company of Indiana, Inc., in District No. 11 having been filed on June 30, 1942 by the above-named applicant pursuant to the second paragraph of section 4-A of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937;

It is ordered that a hearing in the above-entitled matter under the applicable provisions of said Act and the rules of the Division be held on August 31, 1942 at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that date at a hearing room of the Bituminous Coal Division, 734 Fifteenth Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. On such day the Chief of the Records Section in Room 502 will advise as to the room where such hearing will be held.

It is further ordered that Charles O. Fowler or any other officer or officers of the Division duly designated for that purpose shall preside at the hearing in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at such hearing is hereby authorized to conduct such hearing, to administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses, take evidence, to continue said hearing from time to time, and to such places as he may direct by announcement at said hearing or any adjourned hearing or by subsequent notice, and to prepare and submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions and the recommendation of an appropriate order in the premises, and to perform all other duties in connection therewith authorized by law.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to said applicant and to all other parties herein and to all persons and entities having an interest in these proceedings and eligible to become a party herein. Any person or entity eligible under section VII (i) of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division may file a petition for intervention not later than fifteen (15) days after the date of the issuance of this Notice of and Order for Hearing.

Notice is hereby given that:

(1) Within fifteen (15) days from the date of the issuance of this Notice of and Order for Hearing, the applicant and each interested party shall file with the Division a concise statement in writing of the facts expected to be proved by such person at the hearing. Interested parties shall also file a written intervention in compliance with Rule VIII of the aforesaid Rules of Practice and Procedure. The statements of facts shall be considered as pleadings and not as evidence of the facts therein stated. The affirmative evidence offered by a party at the hearing shall be limited to the said statement of facts filed by such party.

(2) If no written statement of the facts expected to be proved at the hearing is filed by the applicant within the 15-day period, in the absence of extenuating circumstances, the application shall be deemed to have been withdrawn on the expiration of said period in accordance with the provisions of Rule VII (g) of the aforesaid Rules of Practice and Procedure.

(3) If the applicant does not appear and offer evidence in support of its statement of facts, in the absence of extenuating circumstances the application shall be deemed to have been withdrawn in accordance with the provisions of section VII (g) of the aforesaid Rules of Practice and Procedure.

(4) The burden of proof in this proceeding shall be on the applicant.

All persons are hereby notified that the hearing in the above-entitled matter and any orders entered therein may concern in addition to the matters specifically alleged in the petition, other matters necessarily incidental and related thereto, which may be raised by amendment to the application, petitions of intervenors or otherwise, or which may be necessary corollaries to the relief if any granted on the basis of this application.

The matter concerned herewith is in regard to the application of Public Service Company of Indiana, Inc., for a determination of the status of coal produced at its Edwardsport Mine in District No. 11. The said application alleges that such coal is exempt from section 4 of the Act because it is coal produced, transported and consumed by the applicant within the meaning of section 4 II (1) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. The application further alleges that transactions in the coal produced at the said mine are in intrastate commerce and do not, as between persons and localities in such commerce on the one hand and interstate commerce in coal on the other hand, result in any undue, unreasonable or unjust discrimination against interstate commerce in coal or in any manner directly affect interstate commerce in coal, pursuant to section 4-A of the Act.

COMPLAINT AND NOTICE OF HEARING

In the matter of Joe H. Britt, and S. J. McKinney, partners, doing business as Britt-McKinney Company, and Britt & Company.

Complaint

The Federal Trade Commission, having reason to believe that the parties respondents named in the caption hereof and hereinafter more particularly designated and described since June 19, 1936, have violated and are now violating the provisions of subsection (c) of section 2 of the Clayton Act (U. S. C. Title 15, Sec. 13), as amended by the Robinson-Patman Act, approved June 19, 1936, hereby issues its complaint, stating its charges with respect thereto as follows:

PARAGRAPH ONE. Respondents Joe H. Britt and S. J. McKinney are partners doing business under the name and style of Britt-McKinney Company, having their principal office and place of business located at 301 West Washington Street, Greenville, South Carolina, and having a branch office and warehouse operated under the name and style of Britt & Company located in the Piedmont and Northern Building, Spartanburg, South Carolina.

PAR. TWO. The respondents are now and for many years prior hereto have been engaged in business as brokers of canned foods and fruits and other miscellaneous merchandise.

PAR. THREE. The respondents are now and for many years prior hereto have also been engaged in business as jobbers, buying and selling for their own account, canned foods and fruits, and other miscellaneous merchandise. This business has also been carried on under the firm name and style of Britt-McKinney Company and Britt & Company.

PAR. FOUR. The respondents since June 19, 1936, have made many purchases of canned foods and fruits and other miscellaneous merchandise for their own account for resale from sellers located in states other than the State of South Carolina, pursuant to which purchases such commodities have been shipped and transported by the respective sellers thereof from the states in which they are located across state lines either to the respondents or pursuant to respondents' instructions to purchasers to whom such commodities have been resold by said respondents.

PAR. FIVE. In the course and conduct of their business of buying canned foods and fruits and other miscellaneous merchandise for their own account in commerce as aforesaid, the respondents, trading under the firm name and style of Britt-McKinney Company and Britt & Company, have been and are now receiving and accepting from numerous sellers of canned foods and fruits and other miscellaneous merchandise so purchased, brokerage fees or allowances or discounts in lieu thereof, on purchases of said commodities for their own account.

PAR. SIX. The aforesaid acts of the respondents constitute a violation of subsection (c) of section 2 of the Clayton Act, as amended by the Robinson-Patman Act, approved June 19, 1936.

Wherefore, the premises considered, the Federal Trade Commission on this 31st day of July, A. D., 1942, issues its complaint against said respondents.

Notice is hereby given you, Joe H. Britt and S. J. McKinney, partners, doing business as Britt-McKinney Company and Britt & Company, respondents herein, that the 4th day of September, A. D., 1942, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, is hereby fixed as the time, and the offices of the Federal Trade Commission in the City of Washington, D. C., as the place, when and where a hearing will be had on the charges set forth in this complaint, at which time and place you will have the right, under said Act, to appear and show cause why an order should not be entered by said Commission requiring you to cease and desist from the violations of the law charged in the complaint.

You are notified and required, on or before the twentieth day after service upon you of this complaint, to file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. If answer is filed and if your appearance at the place and on the date above stated be not required, due notice to that effect will be given you. The Rules of Practice adopted by the Commission with respect to answers or failure to appear or answer (Rule IX) provide as follows:

In case of desire to contest the proceeding the respondent shall, within twenty (20) days from the service of the complaint, file with the Commission an answer to the complaint. Such answer shall contain a concise statement of the facts which constitute the ground of defense. Respondent shall specifically admit or deny or explain each of the facts alleged in the complaint, unless respondent is without knowledge, in which case respondent shall so state.

Failure of the respondent to file answer within the time above provided and failure to appear at the time and place fixed for hearing shall be deemed to authorize the Commission, without further notice to respondent, to proceed in regular course on the charges set forth in the complaint.

If respondent desires to waive hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in the complaint and not to contest the facts, the answer may consist of a statement that respondent admits all the material allegations of fact charged in the complaint to be true. Respondent by such answer shall be deemed to have waived a hearing on the allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and to have authorized the Commission, without further evidence, or other intervening procedure, to find such facts to be true.

Pursuant to such notice, the respondent may file a brief, directed solely to that question, in accordance with Rule XXIII.

In witness whereof, the Federal Trade Commission has caused this, its complaint, to be signed by its Secretary, and its official seal to be hereto affixed, at Washington, D. C., this 31st day of July, A. D. 1942.

NORTH AMERICAN LIGHT & POWER CO., ET AL.

MEMORANDUM FINDINGS, OPINION AND ORDER APPROVING APPLICATIONS NO. 3 AND NO. 4

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 31st day of July, A. D. 1942.

In the matter of North American Light & Power Company, File No. 54-50, North American Light & Power Company Holding-Company System and The North American Company, File No. 59-39, The North American Company, et al., File No. 59-10.

Pursuant to our order of December 30, 1941 in the matter entitled North American Light & Power Company Holding-Company System, and The North American Company, (Holding Company Act Release No. 3233), requiring the liquidation of North American Light & Power Company (Light & Power) and the termination of its existence, Light & Power, a registered holding company, and its wholly owned subsidiary, McPherson Oil & Gas Development Company (McPherson), a non-utility company engaged in the production of natural gas, and Kansas Power and Light Company (Kansas), a public utility company and a subsidiary of Light & Power, have jointly filed Application No. 3 and an amendment thereto, under sections 10, 11 and 12 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Rule U-42 thereunder. Said filing requests our approval of (a) the sale by McPherson to Kansas of all of its property, except cash, for a cash consideration of $38,394.83 less depletion on account of natural gas sold after March 31, 1942 to the date of transfer of said property at the rate of 3½ cents per Mcf, (b) the transfer to Light & Power of all the assets of McPherson after consummation of said sale, and (c) the dissolution of McPherson. In the past all of the natural gas produced by McPherson has been sold to Kansas and the properties of the former are located in the service area of, and are operated by, the latter company.

Light & Power and Kansas have also jointly filed Application No. 4 and an amendment thereto, under sections 10, 11 and 12 of said Act and Rules U-42 and U-43 thereunder, requesting our approval of the sale by Light & Power to Kansas of 1,250 shares, or 50% of the outstanding, no par capital stock (stated value $68 per share) of The Blue River Power Company (Blue River) for a cash consideration of $30,500. All the shares of Blue River not owned by Light & Power are owned by a nonaffiliated interest. Blue River is an electric utility company owning hydro electric generating facilities located in the area served by Kansas, and the latter purchases Blue River's entire output of electrical energy.

A public hearing has been held on said Applications after appropriate notice. Having examined the record, we find:

(1) With respect to Application No. 3 that no adverse findings are necessary under section 10 (b) (1), 10 (c) (1) and 12 (f) of said Act and Rule U-42 thereunder;

(2) With respect to Application No. 4 that no adverse findings are necessary under sections 12 (d) and 12 (f) of the Act, Rules U-43 and U-44 thereunder, or under section 10 (b) and 10 (c) (1) of said Act and that the transaction therein proposed has the tendency required by section 10 (c) (2) of said Act; and

(3) The transactions proposed in both Applications are necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of said Act and our order of December 30, 1941 and are fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby.

It is therefore ordered, That the transaction proposed in Application No. 3, as amended, be, and it hereby is, approved as submitted, subject, however, to the provisions of Rule U-24.

It is further ordered, That the transaction proposed in Application No. 4, as amended, be, and it hereby is, approved as submitted, subject, however, to the provisions of Rule U-24.

At a session of the Civil Aeronautics Board held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 17th day of July 1942.

The Civil Aeronautics Board finding that its action herein is necessary to the successful prosecution of the war effort and acting pursuant to the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, particularly sections 205 (a), 601 (a) and 604 thereof, hereby rescinds Regulation Serial Number 210 adopted March 14, 1942, and makes and promulgates the following special regulation:

[Docket No. A-1522]

PART 324—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 4

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 4 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 4.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 4; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 324.7 (Alphabetical list of code members), § 324.8 (Numerical list of mines), § 324.2 (Seasonal discounts), § 324.9 (Recapitulation of price classifications), § 324.11 (Special prices—(a) Railroad fuel prices for all movements exclusive of lake cargo railroad fuel), and § 324.24 (General prices in cents per net ton for shipment into all market areas) are amended by adding thereto Supplements R–I, R–II, R–III, R–IV, R–V, and T, respectively, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof; and Commencing forthwith, § 324.2 (Seasonal discounts), § 324.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) § 324.9 (Recapitulation of price classifications), and § 324.11 (Special prices—(a) Railroad fuel prices for all movements exclusive of lake cargo railroad fuel) are amended so that the shipping point for the coals of Mine Index No. 520, shall be Crescent, Ohio, on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad in Freight Origin Group No. 12, instead of Maynard, Ohio, on the Wheeling & Lake Erie Railroad in Freight Origin Group No. 18, and the price classifications and minimum prices of this mine established in Docket No. A–462 (6 F.R. 122) for the sale of railroad fuel to the Wheeling & Lake Erie Railroad shall be applicable for sale to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

No price classifications and minimum prices are granted herein for the coals of Thomas Lewis, since it appears from the records of the Division that this producer is inactive, and has no present intention of producing coal.

District Board No. 4 proposed the following minimum prices for the coals of the Landrum Mine (Mine Index No. 404) of P. R. Landrum for truck shipments in Size Groups 1–8, respectively: 280, 270, 260, 235, 230, 195, 175 and 165. It appears, however, that in order to relate these coals properly to analogous and comparable coals these prices should be as shown in "Supplement T," as follows, in Size Groups 1–8, respectively: 295, 285, 275, 250, 245, 195, 175 and 165.

In a letter dated July 1, 1942, petitioner requested the prices shown in "Supplement T" for Mine Index No. 404.

PART 334—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 14

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Order granting temporary relief and conditionally providing for final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 14 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for certain mines in District No. 14.

An original petition, pursuant to Section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, having been duly filed with this Division by the above-named party, requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 14 for all shipments except truck and for truck shipments; and

It appearing that a reasonable showing of necessity has been made for the granting of temporary relief in the manner hereinafter set forth; and

No petitions of intervention having been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter; and

The following action being deemed necessary in order to effectuate the purposes of the Act;

It is ordered, That, pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter, temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 334.5 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R, and § 334.24 (General prices for shipment into all market areas) is amended by adding thereto Supplement T, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

For the coals in Size Group No. 11 produced from the No. 2 Mine, Mine Index No. 604, operated by code member Ed Sweeney, in Production Group 7, petitioner proposes a classification of G for all shipments except truck and a minimum price of $3.35 per ton for truck shipments. It appears that the coals of Mine Index No. 604 are comparable in quality to those produced from the Sans Bois Mine, Mine Index No. 96, also located in Production Group 7, and that the coals of the Sans Bois Mine in Size Group No. 11 have an effective price classification of I for all shipments except truck and an effective minimum price of $3.15 per ton for truck shipments. Since the coals appear comparable, it is deemed advisable to establish the same classifications and prices for coals in Size Group No. 11 produced from Mine Index No. 604 as those currently in effect for the coals in the same size group produced from Mine Index No. 96. Accordingly, the price classifications and minimum prices set forth in the attached schedules marked "Supplement R" and "Supplement T" for the coals in Size Group No. 11 produced from the No. 2 Mine, Mine Index No. 604, of code member Ed Sweeney, correspond with the price classifications and minimum prices currently in effect for the coals of Mine Index No. 96 in that size group, both for all shipments except truck and for truck shipments.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: July 24, 1942.

Chapter IX—War Production Board

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

PAN-AMERICAN ENGINEERING COMPANY

Pan-American Engineering Company of Berkeley, California, is a partnership engaged in the manufacture of oil burners. Under Limitation Order L–74,[2] the Company was permitted to produce only 5 Class B oil burners during the months of April and May, 1942. Despite this limitation, the Company produced 227 Class B oil burners during that period. Furthermore, the Company continued to manufacture Class B oil burners after June 1, 1942, although such manufacture was prohibited by Limitation Order L–74.

These violations of Limitation Order L–74 have impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States by diverting scarce materials to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing facts,

It is hereby ordered That:

§ 1010.72 Suspension Order S–72. (a) Pan-American Engineering Company, its successors and assigns, shall not produce, fabricate or assemble any Class A or Class B oil burners as the same are defined in Limitation Order L–74, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve Pan-American Engineering Company from any restriction, prohibition or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(c) This order shall take effect on August 8, 1942, and shall expire on November 8, 1942. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 3d day of August 1942.

C. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(i) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who in connection with this order wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further delivery of, or from process or use of, material under priority control, and may be deprived of priorities assistance. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. PART 1225—CONSTRUCTION LUMBER

[Interpretation 1 of General Limitation Order L-121, as amended July 10, 1942]

Operations with respect to § 1225.1 General Limitation Order L–121, as amended July 10, 1942:[1]

1. Paragraph (a)(1)(i) of General Limitation Order L–121, as amended, was not intended to include specific high quality, thick stocks known in the trade as "Clears", "Thick Finish", etc. of any species of softwood lumber in sizes three inch and thicker. Therefore, this paragraph freezes No. 1 Common and all higher grades of lumber used structurally, including, but not limited to, Select Merchantable and the structural stress-grades of timbers, joists, planks, beams and stringers, but does not freeze the "Clear" and "Select" grades, inasmuch as these grades even in sizes three inches and thicker, are not generally considered as joists, planks, beams, stringers or timbers. The Clear, Select, or Finish Grades in 1 inch and 2 inch material are of course not frozen by the order.

2. Boards and dimension of the common grades specified in the order, which may also qualify as close grain or dense material, are also frozen by the order. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

Issued this 4th day of August 1942.

AMORY HOUGHTON,
Director General for Operations.

Paragraph (1) Grades is amended to read as follows:

(1) Grades. A, B, and C designate qualities of complete hand shovels, spades, scoops, or telegraph spoons; A designating the best quality. Grades SA, SB, and SC are defined in Simplified Practice Recommendation R76, Ash Handles, issued by the United States Department of Commerce, National Bureau of Standards.

Nothing in this provision shall be construed as prohibiting the substitution for ash of other suitable species of wood having characteristics as nearly comparable as possible to the respective grades of ash for which they are substituted; provided that the buyer consents, and all handles other than ash be marked with the name of the species of wood of which they were made.

(b) Paragraph (5) Handle finish is amended to read as follows:

(5) Handle finish. Neither long handles, nor the stems of D handles, shall be painted or otherwise finished than by sanding and waxing, except intrenching shovels, which are to be painted in accordance with the War Department's specification. Any metal used in the construction of D handles may be given a protective coating, or the entire D may be so coated, but only so far along the stem as is necessary to cover any metal used in the construction of the D.

(b) No war procurement agency, nor any contracting or paying finance officer thereof shall be subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195 or the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

§ 1377.102 Maximum prices; sales by any seller of an industrial wooden box with a published or confidential list price—(a) Prices. If any seller had a published or confidential price list or lists in effect on March 31 1942, covering sales of industrial wooden boxes, the maximum price to any purchaser for any box so listed shall be the net price which the seller would have received on that date from a purchaser of the same class. "Net price" means the amount paid by or charged to the purchaser, after adjustment for all applicable extra charges, discounts or other allowances in effect on March 31, 1942.

(b) Report. On or before September 1, 1942, every seller subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195 shall file with the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., all his published and confidential price lists and discount sheets in effect on March 31, 1942, for industrial wooden boxes. Any person who on March 31, 1942, sold industrial wooden boxes at prices based upon price sheets published by any other person subject hereto need not file such other person's published price sheets but shall file instead a statement identifying the particular price sheet used on that date, together with his own discount sheets, if any, and a statement of any prices which constitute exceptions to such practice.

(c) Specifications changes. If any substantial changes are made in any industrial wooden box for which the seller had a published or confidential list price in effect on March 31, 1942, the maximum price for such box may be determined pursuant to § 1377.103 or § 1377.105, whichever is applicable: Provided, That either before such change in price or within ten days after making such change in price a report shall be filed with the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing the description of the industrial wooden box in question and of the specification changes, and a statement of the former price and the proposed price. If it is desired to issue a new list price a report shall be filed pursuant to § 1377.105.

§ 1377.103 Maximum prices; sales by the manufacturer of industrial wooden boxes without list prices. If for any industrial wooden box the manufacturer had no published or confidential list price in effect March 31, 1942, the maximum price of such box in sales by the manufacturer to any purchaser shall be computed on the following basis:

(a) Price formula. (1) The manufacturer shall employ the price-determining method which was in use in the plant on March 31, 1942, applying each of the pricing factors reflected in the formula at the levels prevailing in the particular plant on March 31, 1942, including: direct labor costs (applied in accordance with paragraph (b) below); material costs (applied in accordance with paragraph (c) below); overhead (burden) rates; and/or other bases of computation as of March 31, 1942.

(2) To the extent that the price-determining method includes or is based upon prices paid for sub-contracted services, the manufacturer shall use actual prices paid or to be paid for sub-contracted services, not in excess of the maximum prices provided by the appropriate maximum price regulation.

(3) The price arrived at by use of the price-determining method shall be adjusted for all applicable extra charges, discounts, or other allowances in use in the particular plant on March 31, 1942 in sales to a purchaser of the same class.

(b) Labor rates. (1) "Direct labor costs" shall be based upon the labor rates prevailing in the plant on March 31, 1942 for each classification of labor. If on March 31, 1942 an average rate was used, an average rate may be applied: Provided, That the labor rates and the method of computing the average in effect on March 31, 1942 are used.

(2) The amount of overtime labor (direct or indirect) estimated to be required may be taken into account in estimating the cost of labor: Provided, That no mark-up, overhead or profit factors shall be based upon that part of the labor cost which is in excess of the straight-time cost.

(c) Material prices. (1) The term "material prices" includes the prices for raw materials, and for materials and products which have been processed or fabricated to any degree, including parts which can be assembled into the ultimate product without further processing.

(2) The manufacturers shall use a material cost not in excess of the lower of the following two prices:

(i) The actual price paid by the manufacturer for the material used in the production of the industrial wooden box being priced under this section.

(ii) The applicable maximum price for the material as established by the General Maximum Price Regulation or any other maximum price regulation.

(3) If there is more than one "actual price paid" or more than one "applicable maximum price" for the same item or material purchased by the manufacturer (as where the maximum price is on an f. o. b. mill basis and the material is bought on varying freight rates; or where different suppliers have different maximum prices as may be the case under the General Maximum Price Regulation), the "actual price paid" or the "applicable maximum price" shall mean the average of the actual prices paid or the average of the maximum purchase prices, as the case may be, for the material in the manufacturer's inventory at the time of the sales subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195. In computing the average actual price paid or the average maximum purchase price for his inventory the manufacturer shall weight the purchases on the basis of quantity and shall deduct for material taken out of inventory on the basis of the average actual purchase price or the average maximum purchase price, as the case may be, of the inventory at the time the material was removed from the inventory.

(d) Reports. When a manufacturer first computes a maximum price for a particular industrial box in accordance with the provisions of this section no report need be filed with the Office of Price Administration. However, if the manufacturer subsequently computes a higher maximum price for such box in accordance with the provisions of this section, unless the increase is definitely assignable to a change in specifications or a change in the conditions of delivery, the manufacturer thereof shall file a report with the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, containing:

(1) A description of the industrial wooden box;

(2) The maximum price prior to the price increase;

(3) The new maximum price;

(4) An explanation of the higher prices (in terms of the price-determining method and application of the appropriate price factors reflected in the formula): Provided, That if the price of an industrial wooden box previously has been reported pursuant to this paragraph without objection from the Office of Price Administration, the manufacturer shall not be required to report subsequent sales or deliveries at the same or a lower price.

§ 1377.104 Maximum prices; sales by the manufacturer of industrial wooden boxes which cannot be priced under § 1377.102 or § 1377.103. If the manufacturer is unable to determine the maximum price for an industrial wooden box pursuant to the provisions of § 1377.102 or § 1377.103, the maximum price shall be determined in accordance with this section.

(a) Prices. The maximum price for each sale of such industrial wooden box shall be a price determined by the seller and reported pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section: Provided, That the Office of Price Administration either approves such price in writing or fails to disapprove it within thirty days after receipt of the report. Within five days prior to filing such report and during such thirty day period, such manufacturer may contract, sell or deliver at the proposed price, but final settlement shall be made in accordance with the action of the Office of Price Administration on such report and, if required by the Office of Price Administration, refunds shall be made.

(b) Report. Within fifteen days of entering into a contract for the sale of an industrial wooden box the maximum price for which is computed in accordance with this section, the manufacturer thereof shall file a report with the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing:

(1) A description of the box;

(2) A summary of the price-determining method, if any, used in the plant on March 31, 1942, or if no method was in use on that date, a summary of the price-determining method which the manufacturer proposes to use;

(3) The maximum price computed by the manufacturer by applying the pricing factors in the manner set forth in § 1377.103; and

(4) An explanation and demonstration of the method employed in arriving at that maximum price.

§ 1377.105 Maximum prices; sales by sellers other than the manufacturer of industrial wooden boxes without list prices. (a) If for any industrial wooden boxes a seller other than the manufacturer thereof had no published or confidential list price in effect on March 31, 1942, the maximum price to any purchaser for such box shall be the net price determined by applying to the seller's net invoiced cost of such box, not to exceed the applicable maximum price, the average percentage mark-up, weighted by volume of sales, over net invoice cost realized during March 1942, for all industrial wooden boxes of the same class sold by such seller during March 1942, to purchasers of the same class.

(b) If for any industrial wooden box a seller other than the manufacturer thereof had no published or confidential list price in effect on March 31, 1942, and if such seller sold no industrial wooden box of the same class during March 1942, the maximum price shall be the maximum price computed under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195 for sales of the box by the most closely competitive seller of the same class.

(c) If for any industrial wooden box a seller other than the manufacturer thereof had no published or confidential list price in effect on March 31, 1942, and if such seller cannot compute a maximum price for such box in accordance with the provision of paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, the seller shall apply to the Office of Price Administration for authorization to establish a maximum price pursuant to a pricing method proposed in writing by the seller.

§ 1377.106 New list prices. (a) Any person who desires or is required in writing by the Office of Price Administration to establish a list price for any industrial wooden box shall file a report pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section containing a proposed price determined under § 1377.103, § 1377.104, or § 1377.105 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195, and such price thereafter shall be the maximum price: Provided, That the Office of Price Administration either approves such price in writing or fails to disapprove it within thirty days after receipt of the report.

(b) Under the circumstances set forth in paragraph (a) of this section a report shall be filed with the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing the proposed list price, the proposed effective date, the class or classes of purchasers to whom such price is to be quoted, all relevant data used in determining such price, and evidence that such price was determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195.

§ 1377.107 Report on cost-plus contracts. Any person who has agreed to sell or deliver any industrial wooden box pursuant to a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee or cost-plus-a-percentage-of-cost-contract, shall on or before September 1, 1942, or within ten days after entering into such contract file a report with the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing a copy or a summary of such contract.

§ 1377.108 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1377.109 Adjustable pricing. Nothing in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195 shall be construed to prohibit the making of a contract to sell industrial wooden boxes at a price not to exceed the maximum price at the time of delivery or supply. Where a petition for amendment or for adjustment or exception has been filed which requires extended consideration, the Price Administrator may, upon application, grant permission to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

§ 1377.110 Evasion. (a) The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to industrial wooden boxes, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding or otherwise.

(b) Specifically, but not exclusively, the following practices are prohibited:

(1) Making credit terms more onerous, either by decreasing the time allowed for payment or by decreasing the deductions allowed for prompt payment, than those in effect or available to the purchaser on March 31, 1942;

(2) Making charges for delivery which in effect require the purchaser to pay a larger proportion of the transportation cost than would have been the case in a similar sale on March 31, 1942.

§ 1377.111 Records and reports—(a) Records. Persons subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195 shall keep available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than two years records of the following:

(1) By the manufacturer. (i) Records of each sale or delivery of industrial wooden boxes after August 7, 1942, showing the name and address of the purchaser, the date of the sale, a description and identification of the box and the net price received.

(ii) A record showing the price-determining method employed in the plant on March 31, 1942, the labor rates in effect in the plant on March 31, 1942, the price paid for and a description of all material purchased after January 1, 1942, the system of computing overhead burden in effect in the plant on March 31, 1942, and the price or value of all other factors reflected in the price-determining method.

(iii) A record of all list prices and unsolicited trade quotations for industrial wooden boxes in effect on and after March 1, 1942.

(iv) A record of detailed cost-estimate sheets and other data showing the calculations of prices in sales covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195 for which there were no list prices or unsolicited trade quotations in effect on March 31, 1942, or for which no list price is hereafter established.

(2) By a seller other than the manufacturer. Records of the kind such seller has customarily kept, relating to the prices of industrial wooden boxes sold after August 7, 1942, and in addition, records showing as precisely as possible the basis upon which maximum prices for industrial wooden boxes have been and are determined.

(3) Persons making purchases subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 195. A record showing the name and address of the seller, the date of the purchase, a description of the box purchased, and the price paid.

(b) Additional or substituted records and reports. Every person subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195, shall keep such other records and submit such other reports, including periodic financial statements, as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require or permit, either in addition to or in substitution for records and reports required by this regulation.

§ 1377.112 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195 or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest Field, State, or Regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1377.113 Petition for amendment or adjustment—(a) Government contracts or subcontracts. Any person who has entered into or proposes to enter into a contract with the United States or any agency thereof, or with the Government of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to promote the defense of the United States", or any agency of any such Government, or a subcontract under any such contract, who believes that the maximum price impedes or threatens to impede production of an industrial wooden box which is essential to the war program and which is or will be the subject of such contract or subcontract, may file an application for adjustment of the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195 in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Adjustment of abnormally low maximum prices. The Office of Price Administration or any duly authorized officer thereof, may by order adjust the maximum prices established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195, for any seller of industrial wooden boxes in any case in which such seller shows:

(1) That such maximum price causes him substantial hardship and is abnormally low in relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of the same or similar commodities; and

(2) That establishing for him a maximum price, bearing a normal relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of the same or similar commodities, will not cause or threaten to cause an increase in the level of retail prices.

Applications for adjustment under this paragraph (b) shall be filed in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(c) Special relief. Any person seeking special relief for which no provision is made in the foregoing paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, from a maximum price established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195 may present the special circumstances of his case in an application for an order of adjustment. Such an application shall be filed in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration, and shall set forth the facts relating to the hardship to which such maximum price subjects the applicant, together with a statement of the reasons why he believes that the granting of relief in his case and in all like cases will not defeat or impair the policy of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195 to eliminate the danger of inflation.

(d) General amendments and adjustments. Persons seeking any general modification of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195 or any general adjustment or exception not provided for therein may file petitions for amendment in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1377.114 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195, the term:

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized groups of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the foregoing.

(2) "List price" or "unsolicited trade quotation" means an offering price which the seller communicates to a substantial number of potential customers. The term does not include a price which the seller quotes only to a single potential customer in response to a specific inquiry from that potential customer.

(3) "War procurement agency" includes the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission and the Lend-Lease Section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department or any agency of the foregoing.

(4) "Industrial wooden box" means any assembled or unassembled box, crate, case, carrier, or similar container made principally of wood, in the form of lumber, plywood or veneer, and used for packaging products other than perishable fruits and vegetables. The term includes any constituent wooden part of the foregoing, but does not include cooperage products or any used containers, or any wire-bound boxes.

(5) "Sub-contracted services" means services performed by an independent contractor outside of the manufacturer's own plant, but does not include "piecework" contracts.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1377.115 Exclusions. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 195 shall not apply to:

(a) Any sale or delivery at retail of an industrial wooden box. "Sale at retail" means any sale to an ultimate consumer other than an industrial, commercial or government user by a person other than the manufacturer of the box sold.

(b) Any sale or delivery of an industrial wooden box for which a maximum price is established by any other regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, except the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(c) Any sale or delivery of an industrial wooden box if prior to August 8, 1942, such product had been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to the purchaser.

§ 1377.116 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation. The provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall not, on and after August 8, 1942, apply to sales and deliveries of industrial wooden boxes subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 195.

§ 1377.117 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export industrial wooden boxes shall be determined in accordance with the methods provided in the Maximum Export Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration. An "export sale" is any sale between a seller in the continental United States and a purchaser outside thereof in which the commodity sold is transported from the continental United States to a point outside thereof and includes any sale of a commodity outside the continental United States by an agent of the exporter or by a corporation owned or controlled by the exporter within a period of two years after the date of shipment of the commodity from the continental United States.

Issued this 3d day of August 1942.

If the maximum price reported is incorrectly determined or otherwise unreasonable the seller will be required to determine a new maximum price and to file a new report.

The Office of Price Administration has the right at any time for cause to revise the price so reported.

Any seller who under § 1499.4a of the General Maximum Price Regulation has received authorization of the Retail Trade and Services Division to determine uniform maximum prices pursuant to § 1499.3 (a) for a group of stores under its control in which it has been the practice to charge uniform or substantially uniform prices, shall file his report or reports in accordance with and at the place or places designated in the Order issued by the Office of Price Administration authorizing uniform pricing.

Indicate how commodity for which price is reported differs from other commodities sold by the seller, or competitive sellers of the same class, during March, 1942. If the seller or competitive sellers sold similar, though not identical, items during March, 1942, maximum prices may not be established under § 1499.3 (a) but must be determined under § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

Item 3. (a) Insert general classification (food, hardware, men's clothing, etc.), in which the seller classes the commodity for which a maximum price is reported.

(b) Insert a brief description of comparable commodity in the same general classification and price range of which the seller delivered the largest number of units during March, 1942. The description should be as complete as under Item 1 above.

Item 4–A. Column 1. Name of comparable commodity.

Column 2. Insert unit of pricing, e. g., pound, quart, garment, dozen, gross, etc.

Column 3. Insert net replacement cost per unit. Net replacement cost shall be net price [1] per unit paid by the seller after May 18, 1942, or the net price which the seller would have to pay to replace the comparable commodity after such date. In no case shall this be higher than suppliers' maximum price.

Column 4. Insert the maximum price per unit established in accordance with § 1499.2 of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

Item 4–B. Insert net cost [1] per unit of commodity for which price is reported.

Item 4–C. Calculate maximum price reported per unit as follows: Multiply unit cost (4–B) by percentage (4–A, Column 5).

Item 5. Indicate whether the price reported in 4–C is a price for sale at wholesale or at retail as defined in § 1499.20, items (o) and (p) of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

Item 6. State the date on which the price was effective for sales to purchasers.

[P. & S. Docket No. 1506]

STATESBORO LIVE STOCK COMMISSION CO.

ORDER OF INQUIRY, ORDER OF SUSPENSION, AND NOTICE OF HEARING

In re F. C. Parker, Sr., and F. C. Parker, Jr., copartners, doing business as the Statesboro Live Stock Commission Co., respondent.

This proceeding is instituted pursuant to the provisions of Title III of the Packers and Stockyards Act, 1921, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 181), and the following allegations are made:

1. The respondents are engaged in the business of conducting or operating a stockyard at Statesboro, in the State of Georgia, which stockyard has been ascertained by the Secretary of Agriculture to be a "stockyard" within the definition of that term as used in the act, and which has been posted as such by the Secretary of Agriculture under the act.

2. The respondents, F. C. Parker, Sr. and F. C. Parker, Jr., doing business as the Statesboro Live Stock Commission Co., are registered as a market agency and dealer under the act and are engaged in the business of selling livestock, in commerce, on a commission basis.

3. In accordance with the requirements of the Packers and Stockyards Act, the respondents have heretofore filed and put into effect schedules of rates and charges for their services.

4. On or about July 11, 1942, the respondents made, filed, and published, effective on and after July 29, 1942, a new schedule of rates and charges, without designation by number, which said new schedule contains rates and charges, most of which are materially greater than those set forth in the schedule now on file.

5. Upon an examination of the records and other information in the possession of the Department of Agriculture, there is reason to believe that the increases proposed by such new schedule are not justified and that such increases are, in fact, unreasonable.

It is concluded that a proceeding under title III of the act should be had for the purpose of determining the reasonableness and lawfulness of the rates and charges proposed to be made by the respondents as set forth in the schedule submitted by the respondents and received in the Department on July 15, 1942, which they proposed to make effective July 29, 1942, and that, pending a hearing and decision in said proceeding, the operation of such tariff should be suspended and its use deferred.

It is further concluded that a hearing should be had for the purpose of determining the lawfulness of all rates and charges of the respondents and of any rule, regulation, or practice affecting such rates and charges, and whether any stockyard service is rendered by the respondents without making a lawful charge therefor.

It is therefore ordered, That the operation and use of the tariff filed by the respondents on July 15, 1942, to become effective on and after July 29, 1942, shall be suspended and the Secretary's telegram of July 28, which suspended the tariff and deferred its use until the expiration of thirty days beyond the time when such tariff would otherwise go into effect, is confirmed.

It is further ordered, That a hearing covering the allegations made herein shall be held before an examiner at a time and place of which the respondents will have at least ten days' notice. At such hearing, the respondents and all other interested persons will have a right to appear and present such evidence with respect to the matters and things alleged as may be relevant and material.

It is further ordered, That any and all interested persons who may wish to appear and present evidence relative to the issues in this proceeding shall give notice thereof by filing a statement to that effect with the Hearing Clerk, Office of the Solicitor, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., on or before the 15th day of August 1942.

It is further ordered, That a copy hereof be served upon the respondents by registered mail.

It is further ordered, That this order shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Done at Washington, D. C. this 3d day of August 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 9213

EXTENDING THE EXISTENCE OF THE QUETICO-SUPERIOR COMMITTEE

By virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States, I hereby extend the existence of the Quetico-Superior Committee, created by Executive Order No. 6783 of June 30, 1934, for a period of four years, from June 30, 1942, to June 30, 1946.

This order shall be effective as of June 30, 1942.

Regulations

TITLE 29—LABOR

Chapter IV—United States Children's Bureau

[Amendment to Child Labor Reg. 3]

PART 441—EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS BETWEEN 14 AND 16 YEARS OF AGE

EMPLOYMENT OF MINORS IN THE FRUIT-DRYING INDUSTRY

AUGUST 4, 1942.

Whereas, the Chief of the Children's Bureau, United States Department of Labor, issued Child Labor Regulation No. 3 (Part 441, Chapter IV, Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations), effective May 24, 1939, providing that the employment of minors between the ages of 14 and 16 years under specified conditions in all occupations other than those specifically excepted by such regulation shall not be deemed to constitute oppressive child labor, and

Whereas among the occupations excepted from the scope of Child Labor Regulation No. 3 are all processing occupations, including occupations requiring the performance of any duties in workrooms or workplaces where goods are processed, and

Whereas a petition was received from certain fruit dry yard operators and supporting organizations located in Lake County, California, requesting authority to employ minors under 16 years of age in a processing occupation, namely, the cutting of Bartlett pears, and

Whereas the question raised by said petition appeared to be a question of interest to the entire fruit-drying industry, and

Whereas after notice duly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, a public hearing was held on June 25, 1942, upon the issue "In what, if any, occupations in the fruit-drying industry and under what conditions will the employment of minors between the ages of 14 and 16 years not interfere with their schooling or with their health or well-being," and

Whereas the complete record of the proceedings before the presiding officer has been transmitted to and reviewed by the Chief of the Children's Bureau, and

Whereas it appears that shortages of labor are limiting production of dried fruit needed for war purposes and that such production will be aided by the employment of minors between the ages of 14 and 16 years in the cutting of pears, peaches and apricots in fruit dry yards.

Now, therefore, it is ordered that Part 441 of Chapter IV, Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations is hereby amended so as to include the following section, to be designated as § 441.8:

§ 441.8 Employment in fruit dry yards. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 441.2 hereof, during the continuance of the present war and for six months after the termination thereof, this regulation shall apply to the cutting of pears, peaches, and apricots in fruit dry yards when carried on under the following conditions:

(a) Such employment shall be confined to the periods prescribed in § 441.3 of this regulation.

(b) Such employment shall not be permitted on more than six days in any seven day period.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

PART 322—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 2

ORDER AMENDING RELIEF ORDER

Order amending order granting temporary relief in Docket No. A–1498 Part II and terminating the hearing in this matter, notice to be held on August 4, 1942, in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 2 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Wilson Mine, Mine Index No. 1428 of H. F. Wilson.

An order granting temporary relief and notice of and order for hearing to be held on August 4, 1942, was issued in the above-entitled matter on July 2, 1942, 7 F.R. 5093, temporarily establishing price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of the Wilson Mine, Mine Index No. 1428, of H. F. Wilson, from Somers, Pennsylvania, on the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Railroad for all shipments except truck. The petition proposed that price classifications and minimum prices be also made effective from Pricedale, Pennsylvania, on the Monessen Southwestern Railway. The original petition did not set forth sufficient facts, without a hearing, to warrant making such price classifications and minimum prices effective from Pricedale, Pennsylvania, on the Monessen Southwestern Railway for the coals of this mine for all shipments except truck.

The original petitioner in the above-entitled matter on July 20, 1942, filed a motion with the Division requesting that the original petition in this matter be amended by eliminating therefrom the proposal that price classifications and minimum prices be established for the coals of the Wilson Mine, Mine Index No. 1428, of H. F. Wilson, for rail shipment from Pricedale, Pennsylvania, on the Monessen Southwestern Railway, and further requesting that the hearing in this matter, noticed to be held on August 4, 1942, by Order of July 2, 1942, be terminated.

It appears that good cause has been shown for the granting of the motion in the manner hereinafter set forth, and that no pleadings in opposition to said motion have been filed with the Division in the above-entitled matter.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the said Order granting temporary relief, dated July 2, 1942, in the above-entitled matter be, and it hereby is, amended by making conditionally final the said temporary relief granted to the Wilson Mine, Mine Index No. 1428, of H. F. Wilson, and it is further ordered that the hearing in this matter, noticed to be held on August 4, 1942, be, and the same is hereby terminated.

It is further ordered, That commencing forthwith § 322.7 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–I, and § 322.9 (Special prices) (c) Railroad fuel) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–II, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That the motion filed with the Division by petitioner in this matter be, and it hereby is, granted, by eliminating therefrom the proposal that price classifications and minimum prices be established for the coal of the Wilson Mine, Mine Index No. 1428, of H. F. Wilson, for rail shipment from Pricedale, Pennsylvania, on the Monessen Southwestern Railway.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: July 31, 1942.

Acting Director.

PART 335—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 15

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF

Memorandum opinion and order modifying, approving and adopting as modified the proposed findings of fact, proposed conclusions of law, and recommendation of the Examiner, and granting relief in the matter of the petition of District Board 15, praying for changes in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District 15, for All Shipments Except Truck, by amending (1) Price Instruction 11 (d) and (2) the special price instruction appearing in the Schedule of Delivered Differentials, page 12 of the schedule and in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 15, requesting modification of the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 15, for All Shipments Except Truck, by amending the Effective Minimum Prices for code members in District No. 15 on shipments of off line railroad locomotive fuel to the Chicago and Great Western Railroad and Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad.

These proceedings were instituted upon petitions filed by District Board 15 with the Bituminous Coal Division, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937. Request is made in Docket No. A–56 for (1) the modification of Price Instruction 11 (d) appearing in § 335.1 (a) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 15 for All Shipments Except Truck; and (2) the modification of the special price instruction appearing in the Schedule of Delivered Differentials appearing in § 335.6 in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 15 for All Shipments Except Truck; in Docket No. A–59, request is made for (1) a modification of the effective minimum prices for mines in Production Groups 1, 2, 3, and 4 in District 15, which are applicable on shipments of locomotive fuel to the Chicago Great Western Railway ("Chicago Great Western") and (2) a modification of the effective minimum prices established for mines in Production Group 2 of District 15 applicable on shipments of locomotive fuel to the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company, ("Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific").

Petitions of intervention were filed in both dockets by District Board 10 and in Docket No. A–56 by Central State Collieries, Inc., et al.,[1] and a notice of appearance was filed in both dockets by the Consumers' Counsel Division.[2] Temporary relief was granted, with a limitation, however, on shipments to the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific to Mine Index Nos. 116 and 127.

After notice to all interested persons, a consolidated hearing in these matters was held October 30, 1940, through November 1, 1940, before W. A. Cuff, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard.[3] Appearances were entered by District Boards 10, 12, and 15, the intervening District 10 code members, the Hume-Sinclair Coal Mining Company and Crowe Coal Company, code members in District 15, the Chicago Great Western, the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific and the Consumers' Counsel Division. A brief was filed by the Consumers' Counsel.

[1] Central State Collieries, Inc., Little John Coal Company, Midland Electric Coal Corporation, Northern Illinois Coal Corporation, Osage Coal Company, Sahara Coal Company, Shuler Coal Mining Company, Southwestern Illinois Coal Corporation, Truax-Traer Coal Company, The United Electric Coal Companies, and Wilmington Coal Mines, Inc., code member producers in District 10.

[2] Now the Office of the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel.

[3] An Order of the Director dated October 5, 1940, consolidated Dockets Nos. A–56, A–59, and A–70 for the purpose of hearing. Docket No. A–70 is the subject of a separate Order.

On May 14, 1942, the Examiner submitted his Report, Proposed Findings of Fact, Proposed Conclusions of Law, and Recommendation ("Examiner's Report") in this matter, in which the Examiner found, in Docket No. A–56 that the price instructions there involved have caused confusion among District 15 code members, since the instructions might be read as authorizing an absorption to be made from the transportation charges rather than from the schedule prices, and that in order to preserve the basic principles upon which the effective minimum prices for rail shipment of District 15 coals were established and coordinated, such price instructions should be reworded so as clearly to give due adherence to such basic principles; and in Docket No. A–59, (1) that in order to preserve the existing fair competitive opportunities of the mines in Production Groups 1, 2, and 3 of District 15 it is necessary to allow them an absorption privilege of up to 60 cents per ton on shipments to the Chicago Great Western of locomotive fuel, the effective minimum price of which is $2.10 per ton but that no such relief should be granted mines in Production Group 4 since the evidence indicated that such mines had not in recent years shipped coals to the Chicago Great Western; and (2) that in order for Production Group 2 mines to maintain a flow of railroad fuel to the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, permission to absorb up to 60 cents per ton on shipments to the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific should be granted said mines, that since the evidence indicated that the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific bought only railroad locomotive fuel the effective minimum price of which is $2.10 per ton, such relief should be restricted to such railroad locomotive fuel and that such relief should be extended to all mines in Production Group 2.

The Examiner recommended that the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 15 for All Shipments Except Truck should be amended as follows:

(1) The Railroad Locomotive Fuel Schedule of § 335.8 (b) in said schedule should be modified by the following exception:

Exception: Mines located in Production Groups 1, 2, and 3 may absorb the actual published switching, division or local rate charge, not to exceed 60 cents per ton, on railroad locomotive fuel sold to the Chicago Great Western Railway: Provided, however, That such permissive absorption is limited to that railroad locomotive fuel of these Production Groups with an effective minimum price of $2.10 per ton.

(2) The Railroad Locomotive Fuel Schedule of § 335.8 (b) in said schedule should be further modified by adding the following exception:

Exception: Mines located in Production Group 2 may absorb the actual published switching, division or local rate charge not to exceed 60 cents per ton, on railroad locomotive fuel sold to the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company: Provided, however, That such permissive absorption is limited to that railroad locomotive fuel of Production Group 2 with an effective minimum price of $2.10 per ton.

(3) Price Instruction 11 (iv) § 335.1 (a) in said schedule should be modified to read as follows:

The maintenance of the delivered differentials as provided above shall be subject to the limitation that the maximum reduction of the schedule price shall not exceed 60 cents.

(4) The special price instruction in the schedule of delivered differentials, § 335.6 in said schedule should be modified to read as follows:

Schedule showing delivered differentials that may be maintained with base group coal by reducing the schedule of prices published herein, provided that the maximum reduction of the schedule prices shall not exceed 60 cents.

Thereafter on May 29, 1942, the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel filed exceptions to the Examiner's Report. Consumers' Counsel took exception to the findings and conclusions of the Examiner in Docket No. A–56, that the price instructions (Price Instruction 11 (iv) and the special price instruction in § 335.6 in the District 15 rail schedule) should be amended to permit a 60-cent maximum reduction of the schedule price because it stated, the Examiner had failed to find that this 60-cent maximum reduction should be permissible only where the freight differential does not exceed 60 cents. Although the Consumers' Counsel agrees with Examiner that a certain amount of confusion has arisen with the present price instructions, it states that any clarifying amendment thereof should show that the 60 cents maximum absorption permissible is the absolute aggregate limit on all the absorptions allowed a particular mine, including the absorptions within and between production groups. Consumers' Counsel states that the schedule price already reflects freight rate differentials to a certain extent so that the Examiner's recommendation, if adopted, would permit certain mines whose adverse freight rate differential exceeds 60 cents to attain a freight absorption in excess of 60 cents. Consumers' Counsel contends that since District No. 15 is cross-hauling territory any extension of absorption privileges would tend to increase wasteful cross-hauling.

Price Instruction 11 (iv) appearing in § 335.1 (a) in Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 15 for All Shipments Except Truck provides:

Price Instruction 11. Delivered Differentials:

(i) The f. o. b. mine prices listed herein may be adjusted in accordance with the Schedule of Delivered Differentials shown in § 335.6.

(ii) All delivered differentials shall be based upon the lowest freight origin group rate from the base production group, except that to destinations in the State of Missouri the lowest mileage, group or specific rate from a rail shipping mine, shall be used.

(iii) All similarly classified mines located in the same production group may effect equal delivered prices to all destinations.

(iv) The maintenance of the delivered differentials as provided above shall be subject to the limitation that the maximum difference in freight rates between the mine in the base production group having the lowest freight rate, and any other mine, shall not exceed 60 cents. [Italics supplied.]

The special price instruction appearing in the Schedule of Delivered Differentials appearing in § 235.6 in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 15 for All Shipments Except Truck provides:

Schedule of Delivered Differentials. Schedule showing delivered differentials that may be maintained with base group coals by reducing schedule prices published herein: Provided, That the maximum difference in freight rates between the mine in the base production group having the lowest freight rate, and any other mine, shall not exceed sixty cents.

The delivered differentials here involved reflect primarily the difference in quality between District No. 15 coals. They are set up to reflect the market value of the District 15 coals at destination. The amendments proposed by the Examiner seek to reflect the original basis upon which the delivered differentials were established: that the absorption privilege should be made from the schedule price rather than from the transportation charges. I find that the amendments proposed by the Examiner in Docket No. A–56 to the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 15 for All Shipments Except Truck reflect the basic principles upon which that schedule was established, and should be approved. I find further that such amendments clearly provide that the maximum reduction of the schedule price effected by the taking of delivered differentials shall not exceed 60 cents. Indeed, such reduction cannot amount to a freight absorption in excess of 60 cents since it reflects a difference in quality and not a difference in freight; in these circumstances a reduction of the 60 cents by some uncertain amount already thought to be reflected in the schedule price is inappropriate. Accordingly, I must deny Consumers' Counsel's exception to the Examiner's finding and recommendation concerning these amendments to the District 15 minimum price schedule.

In its brief before the Examiner, Consumers' Counsel suggested that the District 15 minimum price schedule be clarified or implemented to show definitely that only those mines having specific f. o. b. mine prices into a given market area in the price schedule be permitted to enjoy any absorption privilege. The witness Blucher stated at the hearing that District Board 15 had no objection to such a clarification. I find that the District 15 minimum price schedule should be further modified in line with the proposal of Consumers' Counsel.

Consumers' Counsel also excepts to the findings and conclusions of the Examiner in Docket A–59 that mines in Production Groups 1 to 3, inclusive, should be permitted a 60-cent maximum absorption on the sale of locomotive fuel priced $2.10 per ton to the Chicago Great Western Railroad, and that mines in Production Group 2 should be permitted a 60-cent maximum absorption on sale of locomotive fuel priced $2.10 per ton to the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway. Consumers' Counsel contends that there is no justification for special treatment to an off-line mine by granting it an absorption privilege which results in lower realization to producers and higher prices to the consuming public at large. Consumers' Counsel also points out that the Examiner's recommended extension of the off-line absorption privilege to mines in Production Groups 1 to 3, inclusive, included mines which had not sold coal to these railroads in recent years.

It is true that the absorption privilege to off-line mines is to be granted with extreme caution. However, the record shows that the Chicago Great Western Railroad, which has no District 15 on-line mines, has purchased substantial tonnages of railroad fuel in the past from off-line mines in Production Groups 1 to 3, inclusive. Where evidence shows that certain mines have been able fairly to create a market for railroad fuel by off-line shipment and that such existing fair competitive opportunities can only be preserved by an absorption privilege, such privilege should be granted.

The evidence shows further that Mine Index Nos. 116 and 127 in Production Group 2 had been able to establish a market for their railroad fuel priced $2.10 per ton in the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific because of the lack of sufficient supply from the District 15 mines on-line to that railroad. Since the evidence indicates that such markets can be preserved only by allowance of freight absorptions, I find that such freight absorptions should be granted. Although it is true that these markets had been created specifically by these two mines, I find that the absorption privilege should be allowed to all mines in the particular production group with an effective minimum price of $2.10 per ton as may find that they can sell railroad fuel to the particular railroad. The Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 does not recognize "existing fair competitive opportunities" as merely those marketing channels which have existed in the past. Where evidence indicates that a definite market of railroad fuel for certain off-line mines in a particular production group exists, there is no reason to restrict other mines in those production groups from taking the same privileges.

No other exceptions have been filed.

I have concluded that the proposed findings of fact and proposed conclusions of law of the Examiner, as modified should be approved and adopted as the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the undersigned and that the exceptions of the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel should be overruled.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the exceptions of the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel to the Examiner's Report be and they are hereby overruled.

It is further ordered, That the Proposed Findings of Fact and Proposed Conclusions of Law of the Examiner in this matter, as modified, be and the same hereby are approved and adopted as the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law of the undersigned;

It is further ordered, That § 335.8, (Special prices—(b) Railroad locomotive fuel), § 335.1 (Price instructions and exceptions—(a) Price instructions), and § 335.6 (Schedule of delivered differentials) in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 15 for All Shipments Except Truck be, and they hereby are amended as follows:

(1) The Railroad Locomotive Fuel Schedule of § 335.8 (b) in said schedule be, and it hereby is, modified by the following exception:

Exception: Mines located in Production Groups 1, 2, and 3 may absorb the actual published switching, division or local rate charge, not to exceed 60 cents per ton, on railroad locomotive fuel sold to the Chicago Great Western Railway: Provided, however, That such permissive absorption is limited to that railroad locomotive fuel of these Production Groups with an effective minimum price of $2.10 per ton.

(2) The Railroad Locomotive Fuel Schedule of § 335.8 (b) in said schedule be, and it hereby is, further modified by adding the following exception:

Exception: Mines located in Production Group 2 may absorb the actual published switching, division or local rate charge not to exceed 60 cents per ton, on railroad locomotive fuel sold to the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railway Company: Provided, however, That such permissive absorption is limited to that railroad locomotive fuel of Production Group 2 with an effective minimum price of $2.10 per ton.

(3) Price Instruction 11 (iv), § 335.1 (a) in said schedule be, and it hereby is, modified to read as follows:

The maintenance of the delivered differentials as provided above shall be subject to the limitation that the maximum reduction of the schedule price shall not exceed 60 cents, provided, that only those mines in the various production groups for which f. o. b. mine prices are listed into a given market area shall be permitted any absorption privileges. Those production groups not having listed f. o. b. mine prices into a specifically named market area shall be considered "unpriced coals".

(4) The special price instruction in the schedule of delivered differentials, § 335.6 in said schedule be, and it hereby is, modified to read as follows:

Schedule showing delivered differentials that may be maintained with base group coal by reducing the schedule of prices published herein, provided that the maximum reduction of the schedule prices shall not exceed 60 cents.

Subchapter B—Director General for Operations

PART 1112—OFFICE MACHINERY

[General Conversion Order L–54–a, as amended to August 4, 1942]

TYPEWRITERS

Section 1112.2 General Conversion Order L–54–a[2] is hereby amended to read as follows:

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of typewriters for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1112.2 Conversion Order L–54–a—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust,

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person manufacturing typewriters, to the extent that he is engaged in such manufacture, and shall include sales and distribution outlets controlled by said manufacturer.

(3) "Dealer" means any wholesaler, retailer or other distributor of typewriters, other than sales and distribution outlets controlled by a manufacturer.

(4) "Typewriter" unless expressly otherwise stated, means non-portable typewriters (including noiseless and electric types) and portable typewriters, and unless expressly otherwise stated, refers only to new typewriters. The term shall not include: billing machines, accounting principle, and collateral equipment; continuous forms handling machines, typewriter principle, having carbon paper handling devices constructed as an integral part of the machine; shorthand writing machines; telegraphically controlled typewriters; braille typewriters; toy typewriters; linotype machines or monotype machines. The term "new typewriter" means any typewriter which has not been delivered to any person acquiring it for use, but does not include rebuilt typewriters. The term "used typewriter" means any typewriter which at any time has been delivered to any person acquiring it for use, and includes rebuilt typewriters.

(5) "Sets of parts" means typewriter parts fabricated at plants in the United States and shipped to foreign countries for assembly into typewriters.

(b) General restrictions. (1) On and after November 1, 1942, no manufacturer shall manufacture any non-portable typewriters or parts therefor, or sets of parts for non-portable typewriters, except as otherwise specifically provided in paragraph (c) (4) herein.

(2) On and after August 1, 1942, no manufacturer shall manufacture any portable typewriters, or parts therefor, or sets of parts for portable typewriters.

(3) No person shall hereafter sell, deliver, purchase, or receive delivery of any new or used typewriters in any manner other than as specifically authorized herein or from time to time hereafter by the Director General for Operations, or by any governmental agency authorized by the Chairman of the War Production Board to regulate the distribution of new or used typewriters.

(c) Authorized production quotas—(1) Non-portable typewriters. During the period from July 1, 1942, to October 31, 1942, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (c) (4) below, no manufacturer shall manufacture a number of non-portable typewriters or parts therefor (not including sets of parts for export) in excess of: 12.25 percent of the aggregate number of non-portable typewriters (not including parts therefor or sets of parts for export) billed to customers by such manufacturer during the calendar year 1941; plus the number of non-portable typewriters by which such manufacturer's quota for non-portable typewriters in the period from March 15, 1942, to June 30, 1942, exceeded the production of non-portable typewriters by such manufacturer during that period; or less the number of non-portable typewriters produced by such manufacturer in the period from March 15, 1942 to June 30, 1942, in excess of his authorized quota during that period, whether or not such excess production resulted from the granting of appeals by the War Production Board.

(2) Portable typewriters. During the period from July 1, 1942, to July 31, 1942, no manufacturer shall manufacture quantities of portable typewriters or parts therefor (not including sets of parts for export) in excess of 11 percent of the average monthly number of portable typewriters (not including parts therefor or sets of parts for export) billed to customers by such manufacturer during the calendar year 1941.

(3) Sets of parts for export. (i) During the period from July 1, 1942, to October 31, 1942, no manufacturer shall manufacture for export a number of sets of parts for non-portable typewriters in excess of 12.25 percent of the aggregate number of such sets of parts shipped for export from the factories of such manufacturer during the calendar year 1941.

(ii) During the period from July 1, 1942, to July 31, 1942, no manufacturer shall manufacture for export a number of sets of parts for portable typewriters, in excess of 11 percent of the average monthly number of such sets of parts shipped for export from his factories during the calendar year 1941.

(iii) The right to produce and export any sets of parts mentioned in this paragraph (c) (3) shall not be construed to authorize the export of such sets unless export license can be secured. Any manufacturer who is unable to ascertain the physical quantity of sets of parts which he shipped from his factories during 1941 may produce for export: in the case of sets of parts for non-portable typewriters, a dollar value not in excess of 12.25 percent of the aggregate dollar value of such sets shipped for export from his factories during the calendar year 1941; and in the case of sets of parts for portable typewriters, a dollar value not in excess of 11 percent of the average monthly dollar value of such sets so shipped during 1941. The quantities of sets of parts for non-portable and portable typewriters so produced shall be over and above the production quotas for non-portable and portable typewriters. No manufacturer so producing and exporting sets of parts shall directly or indirectly import any typewriter into the United States.

(4) Special quota. Notwithstanding the restrictions on manufacture (but subject to the restrictions on delivery and distribution) imposed by this order, Woodstock Typewriter Company may manufacture, in the period from July 1, 1942, to June 30, 1944, not in excess of 22,701 non-portable typewriters, at a rate not in excess of 1,600 per month, or at such other rate as the Director General for Operations may prescribe from time to time. The Director General for Operations, may also direct, from time to time, the sizes, kinds, and types of non-portable typewriters which shall be produced by Woodstock Typewriter Company.

(5) Distribution among models and types. Except as otherwise provided by the Director General for Operations, no manufacturer shall produce a percentage of noiseless typewriters to total non-portable typewriter production in excess of the percentage which the quantity of noiseless typewriters billed to his customers in 1941 is of all non-portable typewriters billed to his customers in 1941. Manufacturers shall produce their production quotas of portable typewriters in accordance with specifications of the Army or Navy of the United States.

(d) Manufacture and distribution of replacement parts. The restrictions upon the production of portable and non-portable typewriters and parts therefor shall not be construed to limit the production of parts to be used to service and repair typewriters: Provided, however, That no manufacturer shall produce parts in excess of quantities required, under existing circumstances, to maintain a minimum practicable working inventory of such service and repair parts. No person servicing or repairing typewriters shall maintain a stock of such parts in excess of the minimum practicable working inventory, under existing circumstances.

(e) Revocation of General Limitation Order L–54.[1] General Limitation Order L–54, and all amendments thereto and interpretations thereof, are hereby revoked: Provided, however, That all deliveries expressly authorized thereunder by the Director of Industry Operations may be completed.

(f) Distribution of typewriters by manufacturers. Regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase or other commitment, or any preference rating certificate or blanket preference order, no manufacturer shall distribute his production and stock of typewriters except upon authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(g) Distribution of typewriters by persons other than manufacturers. In accordance with the terms of Supplementary Directive 1D, stocks of new non-portable and portable typewriters now in the hands of dealers, and all imports of new typewriters, are made available to the Office of Price Administration for rationing; and no dealer shall deliver any such typewriters except in accordance with such rules, regulations and authorizations as may be issued by the Office of Price Administration: Provided, however, That any dealer, other than a manufacturer, may deliver new typewriters in stock to any manufacturer willing to accept the same. Such typewriters shall, however, remain subject to rationing rules, regulations and authorizations of the Office of Price Administration.

(h) Persons entitled to receive new typewriters—(1) Persons other than United States agencies and exporters. In accordance with the terms of Supplementary Directive 1D, persons other than agencies of the United States and other than persons acquiring new typewriters for export may purchase, accept, or otherwise receive delivery of new typewriters only as authorized by the Office of Price Administration.

(2) Army and Navy. Typewriters shall be delivered to the Army or Navy of the United States, including the War and Navy Departments, only upon authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(3) Exporters—(i) Lend-lease. No agency of the United States Government shall purchase, accept delivery of, or otherwise acquire, new typewriters to be delivered to or for the account of the government of any country, pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act), except upon express authorization of the Director General for Operations. Manufacturers and dealers shall deliver new typewriters to any such agency upon the presentation of an authorization signed by the Director General for Operations. Any dealer may receive any new typewriter to fill any such order from any manufacturer producing such typewriters, and manfacturers shall deliver typewriters to such dealers upon the presentation of any such authorization.

(ii) Other than lend-lease. No governmental agency (other than as provided in paragraph (h) (3) (i) above) or other person shall purchase, accept delivery of, or otherwise receive new typewriters for export except upon express authorization of the Director General for Operations. Any such agency or person must first apply to the Office of Export Control, Board of Economic Warfare, Washington, D. C., for an Export License. If the Office of Export Control recommends that an Export License be issued to the applicant, the War Production Board will be notified, and an authorization, on Form PD–365, to acquire a new typewriter may be issued to the applicant or to a person designated by the Board of Economic Warfare for his account. Upon presentation of said Form PD–365, duly signed, any manufacturer or dealer is authorized to deliver a new typewriter. Any dealer may receive any typewriter to fill any such order from any manufacturer producing such typewriters and manufacturers shall deliver typewriters to dealers upon receipt of any such authorization on Form PD–365.

(4) Other Government agencies. Except as otherwise provided in subparagraphs (2) and (3) above, no agency of the United States, except the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, may purchase new typewriters. Once each month the Director General for Operations shall expressly authorize said Procurement Division to acquire specific quantities and brands of new typewriters, and said Procurement Division shall distribute such new typewriters to such agencies of the United States Government (other than the Army, the Navy, and agencies acquiring new typewriters for export) and in such quantities, and brands, as the Director General for Operations shall authorize. Any such agency which believes it will require such new typewriters during any month shall file, on or before the 25th day of the month preceding, Form PD–366 with the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, which shall forward all such forms to the Director General for Operations. The Director General for Operations shall thereupon authorize said Procurement Division to acquire and distribute such quantities of new typewriters as, in his opinion, shall be necessary or appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense. No such agency shall request a new typewriter unless, to the best of its knowledge, such typewriter and all other typewriters possessed by the agency will be actually employed during the succeeding month.

(k) Appeals. Any manufacturer affected by this order, who considers that compliance therewith would work an exception and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a serious problem of unemployment in his community, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may apply for relief by addressing a letter directed to the War Production Board setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(l) Records. All manufacturers and dealers affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventory, production, and sales of typewriters.

(m) Reports. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as the Board shall from time to time request.

(n) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board Services Branch, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L–54–a. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

[Suspension Order S–71]

INTERNATIONAL APPLIANCE CORPORATION

International Appliance Corporation of Brooklyn, New York, is a manufacturer of household appliances. During the period of April 1 through May 12, 1942, the company used approximately 85 pounds of nickel for plating in the production of electrical appliances for the purpose of filling orders which did not bear preference ratings of A–10 or higher. During this period the company knew that the provisions of General Limitation Order L–65[1] prohibited the use of nickel for this purpose. Furthermore, despite the fact that the company had been advised by representatives of the War Production Board of the prohibitions against nickel plating provided for by General Limitation Order L–65, it continued such nickel plating in wilful disregard of the Order.

This violation of General Limitation Order L–65 has impeded and hampered the war effort of the United States by diverting nickel to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing facts,

It is hereby ordered:

§ 1010.71 Suspension Order S–71. (a) Deliveries of material to International Appliance Corporation, its successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries by means of preference rating certificates, preference rating orders, general preference orders, and any other orders

(5) During the period from August 1, 1942, to September 30, 1942, inclusive:

(i) No manufacturer shall produce safety razors in an amount greater than 61 times 70% of the daily average of units of such razors produced by him during the base period;

(ii) No manufacturer shall produce razor blades in an amount greater than 61 times 100% of the daily average of units of such razor blades produced by him during the base period;

(iii) No manufacturer shall produce straight razors in an amount greater than 61 times 100% of the daily average of units of such straight razors produced by him during the base period. (P.D. or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations, or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to International Appliance Corporation, its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations, or the Director General for Operations, except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Nothing shall be deemed to relieve International Appliance Corporation, its successors and assigns, from any restriction, prohibition or provisions contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations, or the Director General for Operations.

(d) This order shall take effect on August 6, 1942, and expire on October 6, 1942, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect. (P.D. PART 940—RUBBER AND BALATA AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER OR BALATA IS A COMPONENT

[Amendment 12 to Supplementary Order M-15-b]

Section 940.3 Supplementary Order M-15-b[1] is hereby amended as follows:

1. By changing the period at the end of paragraph (a) (4) (ii) (a) thereof to a comma and inserting immediately thereafter the following:

* * * but not to or for the account of any post exchange, ship's store, commissary, officer's mess, officers', noncommissioned officers' or enlisted men's club, or any similar agency or organization.

2. By inserting in paragraph (a) thereof the following additional subparagraphs (9), (10), (11), (12), (13), (14), (15), (16) and (17).

(9) "Scrap rubber product" means any finished rubber product or part thereof, made in whole or in part from rubber, latex, synthetic rubber or reclaimed rubber, which through wear, deterioration or obsolescence has served its primary purpose in its present state, but does not include a repairable tire, treadable tire or any other manufactured product which is still usable for the primary purpose for which it was designed.

(10) "In-process scrap" means any material which is produced in the course of manufacture (including the repair, retreading or recapping of tires) and defective or factory rejected material or products containing any rubber, latex, synthetic rubber, or reclaimed rubber, including all types and grades of residues, such as cuttings, trimmings, tuber heads, flash, cut edgings, sweepings, dust, buffings, sawings, grindings, drippings and any other form of rubber whether vulcanized or unvulcanized, which results from or is incident to the processing of rubber, latex, synthetic rubber or reclaimed rubber in the manufacture or repair of any product, but does not include uncured friction scrap.

(11) "Uncured friction scrap" means in-process scrap which contains fabric and which is produced in the manufacture of tires, hose or belting before such products are finally vulcanized.

(12) "Scrap rubber" means and includes any scrap rubber product, in-process scrap or uncured friction scrap.

(13) "Reclaimed rubber" means any vulcanizable material derived from the processing or treatment of scrap rubber.

(14) "Repairable tire" means a pneumatic tire or tire casing which has sufficient tread design or under tread to warrant repair for use for the purpose for which it was primarily designed. For the purposes of this definition:

(i) "Repair" means a vulcanized sectional repair, or vulcanized reinforcement or vulcanized spot repair accomplished in accordance with recognized commercial practice and that can be reasonably expected to render satisfactory service under limited operating conditions (speed under 40 MPH and no overload) so that the tire when repaired will be in a safe condition for service.

(ii) The tread and sidewall must not be severely weather checked or cracked to the extent that the tire has more than two radial cracks that extend through the cord body.

(iii) The cord body:

(a) Must not have separation between plies.

(b) Must not be damaged by running flat to the extent that cords are pulled loose beyond the first inside ply.

(c) Must not have any fabric injuries that exceed one-half the cross-sectional diameter of the tire. Example—Injuries in 600/16 (6 inch) tires must not be more than three inches long on the inside of the tire; in 10.00/20 tires not more than five inches.

(d) Must not have or show evidence of having had more than three injuries requiring sectional repairs.

(e) Must not have injuries below the point where the top of the rim flange contacts the tire.

(f) Must not have or exhibit circumferential or flex breaks on the inside ply.

(g) Bead area must be sound with no broken wires.

(15) "Treadable tire" means a pneumatic tire or tire casing which warrants repair and retreading or recapping for the purpose for which it was primarily designed in accordance with recognized commercial practice, and which can reasonably be expected to render satisfactory service under limited operating conditions (speed under 40 MPH and no overload). For the purpose of this definition:

(i) The cord body:

(a) Must not be worn through more than one body ply for a total length of more than four inches on 4 ply tires.

(b) Must not be worn through more than two plies for more than four inches on tires of six plies or more.

(c) Must not have or show evidence of having had more than two injuries each not exceeding one-third the cross-sectional diameter of the tire. Example—Breaks in 600/16 (6 inch) tire must not be more than two (2) inches long on the inside of the tire; 900/20 (9 inch) tires not more than three (3) inches long.

(d) Must not have more than three (3) radial cracks of more than one inch in length extending to the cord body.

(ii) The tire must in all other respects than herein specified, conform to the requirements of a repairable tire.

(16) "Scrap consumer" means any person who consumes scrap rubber in the manufacture of any finished or partly finished product or material, and includes any person producing reclaimed rubber from scrap rubber, but does not include any person who separates scrap rubber or tears, splits or pulls scrap rubber apart (such as splitting tires) for the purpose of selling the component parts thereof to Rubber Reserve Company or to a scrap dealer.

(17) "Scrap dealer" means any person (other than a scrap consumer) buying, selling or collecting scrap rubber.

3. By changing paragraph (e) thereof to read as follows:

(e) General restriction on the sale of rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber and balata. No person shall sell, trade or transfer the ownership of any rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or balata, and no person shall accept any such sale, trade or transfer of ownership, except (1) as expressly permitted by regulations prescribed by Rubber Reserve Company, or (2) in those cases in which special authorizations may be issued by the Director General for Operations: Provided, That nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to prohibit the sale of unvulcanized rubber products or products made from balata which were in finished or marketable form on December 11, 1941, or which have become finished and marketable at any time after that date pursuant to processing not prohibited by any orders or other instructions issued by the Office of Production Management or the Director General for Operations.

4. By changing paragraph (n) thereof to read as follows:

(n) General limitations on the destruction of rubber articles. No person shall, unless expressly permitted by the Director General for Operations, destroy, damage, cut or tear apart any scrap rubber, whether by burning or any other means and whether for the purpose of making or repairing products or materials from all or any of its constituent parts, except in the following cases:

(1) The consumption of any such article in the manufacture of any product for which rubber, latex, reclaimed rubber or scrap rubber may be consumed under the provisions of this order or under special authorization of the Director General for Operations, but subject to such limitations as to quantities, specifications and other restrictions as may be imposed by this order or such special authorization.

(2) The consumption of any scrap rubber by any person producing reclaimed rubber as a necessary incident to such reclaiming operations.

(3) The destruction of any scrap rubber (without destroying the rubber therein) for the purpose of selling its component parts to a scrap dealer for resale by him either (i) to Rubber Reserve Company, or (ii) under rules or regulations prescribed from time to time by Rubber Reserve Company.

(4) The destruction of the following articles when through obsolescence, use or deterioration the article has entirely served its usefulness in its present state:

(i) Used battery containers and separators and parts thereof.

(ii) Rough bore (metal reinforced) oil suction and discharge hose and hose containing asbestos combined with rubber.

(iii) Wire cord generally classed as lamp cord and similar wire cords (but not other insulated wire or rubber covered cable).

(iv) That part of rubber bonded to metal which cannot be separated from the metal by mechanical means.

5. By inserting immediately after paragraph (q) thereof the following new paragraphs designated (r) and (s).

(r) General restrictions on regrooving tires. No person shall, without prior written authority from the Director General for Operations, regroove the tread or tread surface of any tire or tire casing, whether by cutting, scraping, grinding, burning, or any other means.

(s) General restrictions on the purchase and sale of rubber scrap. Except (i) as expressly permitted by regulations prescribed by Rubber Reserve Company, or (ii) in those cases in which specific authorizations may be issued by the Director General for Operations:

(1) No person other than Rubber Reserve Company shall sell, trade or transfer the ownership or possession of any scrap rubber to any scrap consumer.

(2) No scrap consumer shall purchase, receive or accept delivery of any scrap rubber, or the right to receive any scrap rubber, from any person other than Rubber Reserve Company.

(3) No scrap consumer shall sell, trade or transfer the ownership or possession of any scrap rubber to any person, including any scrap dealer.

Provided, That the prohibitions of this paragraph (s) shall not apply to any purchase or sale of scrap rubber by any corporation from or to another corporation which is its subsidiary or of which it is a subsidiary. For the purposes hereof a corporation shall be deemed to be a subsidiary of another corporation if all or substantially all of its voting stock is owned by such other corporation.

Section 1063.1 Conservation Order M-78[1] is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1063.1 Conservation Order M-78—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Mercury" means:

(i) Metallic mercury (quicksilver) of any quality and from whatever source derived, and

(ii) Any mercury-containing chemical compound, salt, or mixture.

(2) "Inventory" of a person includes the inventory of affiliates and subsidiaries of such person, and the inventory of others where such inventory is under the control of or under common control with or available for the use of such person.

(3) "Manufacture" means to amalgamate, assemble, mix, compound, redistill, or process in any other way, but does not include installation or sale of a completely finished product for the ultimate consumer.

(4) "Item" means any article or any component part thereof.

(5) "Use" means and includes (i) the act of amalgamating, mixing, compounding, redistilling, or processing mercury,

(ii) the act of putting mercury into any item, and

(iii) the act of manufacturing any item containing mercury,

(Where a person is limited to a percentage of mercury used in a base period, this limitation applies respectively to (i), (ii), and (iii) above. Each limitation must be applied separately.)

(6) "Base period" means at the option of the manufacturer either (i) the corresponding quarterly period in 1940, or (ii) the first calendar quarter in 1941, provided that the same option shall be used throughout the calendar year.

(b) Prohibition on use of mercury in items and processes appearing on List A. No mercury shall be used in the manufacture of any item or in any manufacturing process on List A.

(c) Restriction on use of mercury in items and processes on List B. Any person using mercury in the manufacture of any item or in any manufacturing process on List B shall limit his use of mercury in the manufacture of any such item or in any such manufacturing process during each calendar quarter to the percentage of such use in the base period indicated opposite such item or such manufacturing process on List B.

(d) Limitation on other uses of mercury. Any person using mercury in the manufacture of any item or in any manufacturing process not covered by paragraph (b), (c), or (e) of this order shall limit his use of mercury in the manufacture of any such item or in any such manufacturing process during each calendar quarter to 80 per cent of his use of mercury in the manufacture of such item or in such manufacturing process in the base period.

(e) General exception. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in paragraphs (b), (c), and (d) shall not apply to the use of mercury:

(1) In the manufacturing of any item for delivery under, or in any manufacturing process pursuant to, a specific contract or subcontract for the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, War Shipping Administration and its operating or general agents, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development, or for any foreign country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States," (Lend-Lease Act) if in any such case the use of mercury to the extent employed is required by the specifications of the prime contract; or

(2) To comply with Underwriters Regulations or Safety Regulations issued under governmental authority, provided that pertinent provisions of such regulations were, in either case, in effect both on December 1, 1941, and on the date of such use, and specifically and exclusively require the use of mercury to the extent employed; or

(3) In the manufacture of any item for delivery under, or in any manufacturing process pursuant to, an order bearing a preference rating of A-1-j or higher; or

(4) In the manufacture of marine anti-fouling paint for use on ships flying the flag of the other American Republics, or on ships flying the flag of any foreign country entitled to the benefits of the said Lend-Lease Act; or

(5) In the manufacture of any item for delivery to any laboratory provided that such item is to be used only for research, educational, analytical, or testing purposes; or

(6) In the maintenance and repair of industrial control equipment.

(f) Prohibitions against sales or deliveries. No person shall hereafter sell or deliver mercury to any person if he knows, or has reason to believe, such material is to be used in violation of the terms of this order.

(g) Limitation of inventories. No manufacturer shall receive delivery of mercury (including scrap) or products thereof, in the form of raw materials, semi-processed materials, finished parts, or sub-assemblies, nor shall he put into process any raw material, in quantities which in either case shall result in an inventory of such raw, semi-processed, or finished material in excess of a minimum practicable working inventory, taking into consideration the limitations placed upon the production of mercury products by this order.

(h) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(2) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of mercury conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense work to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board by letter or other written communication, in triplicate, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(3) Applicability of order. The prohibitions and restrictions contained in this order shall apply to the use of material in all items hereafter manufactured irrespective of whether such items are manufactured pursuant to a contract made prior or subsequent to the effective date hereof, or pursuant to a contract supported by a preference rating. Insofar as any other order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations may have the effect of limiting or curtailing to a greater extent than herein provided, the use of mercury in the production of any item, the limitations of such other order shall be observed.

(4) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Miscellaneous Minerals Branch, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M-78.

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance. (2) Nothing in this order shall prevent the use of rubber sealed closures in connection with the packing of any product listed upon Table I of this order provided that, on or before April 19, 1942, such closures were completely manufactured and in the hands of the user, and such user does not, in the ordinary course of his business, pack any products not listed on Table I of this order.

(3) Nothing in this order shall prevent the sale, delivery, purchase, acceptance of delivery or use of rubber sealed closures in connection with the packing of any product listed upon Table I of this order, provided that such closures were completely manufactured on or before April 19, 1942, and cannot be used for the packing of a product not listed on Table I of this order because of special formula or because lithographing or printing upon the closure would result in the misbranding of the product so packed.

(4) The provisions of subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph (c) shall apply with full force and effect to the use of rubber sealed closures in connection with the packing of home style processed pickles, except that the applicable date set forth in the said subparagraphs shall be the date of issuance of this amendment rather than April 19, 1942.

PART 3020—HEAT EXCHANGERS

[General Limitation Order L-172]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the production of heat exchangers for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

[1] 7 F.R. 5124, 5216.
[2] 7 F.R. 5219.
[3] 7 F.R. 5222.
[4] 7 F.R. 5217.

§ 3020.1 General Limitation Order L-172—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not, and includes the Army and Navy of the United States.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person who constructs or manufactures critical heat exchangers to the extent that he is engaged in such construction or manufacture, and shall include sales and distribution outlets and agencies controlled by said manufacturer.

(3) "Critical heat exchanger" means any new equipment or apparatus (or any important component part thereof), other than direct fired, or direct contact involving physical mixing of the fluids, designed for the transference or exchange of heat between two or more fluids (liquids, gases or vapors), of the following types, descriptions, or classifications:

(i) A bundle or nest of bare tubes (⅝ inch outside diameter or greater) installed in or designed for installation in a shell or pressure vessel having a nominal inside diameter of twelve inches or over.

(ii) A bundle or nest of bare tubes (any tube diameter) installed in or designed for installation in a new shell or pressure vessel which must be bored on the inside, and having a nominal inside shell diameter of twelve inches or over.

(iii) Any heat exchanger for the use of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration.

(iv) Any heat exchanger not described in (i), (ii) or (iii) for the use in conjunction with other equipment described in (i), (ii), or (iii) above.

(b) Restrictions upon placing of orders. No person shall place an order for the manufacture of a critical heat exchanger unless such order is accompanied by the authorization of the Director General for Operations on Form PD-615A. Orders so authorized shall be placed only with the supplier specified on the Form PD-615A. Any person desiring an authorization on Form PD-615A to enable him to purchase critical heat exchangers shall file an application therefor with the Director General for Operations on Form PD-615 in duplicate.

(c) Restrictions on acceptance of orders or delivery by manufacturers. (1) No manufacturer shall accept any order for a critical heat exchanger unless such order is accompanied by an authorization of the Director General for Operations on Form PD-615A, permitting the placing of such order with such manufacturer.

(2) Regardless of the terms of any preference rating certificate or blanket preference rating order, or of any rule or regulation applicable thereto, any manufacturer with whom an order is placed as authorized by the Director General for Operations on Form PD-615A must accept the same, unless the person seeking to place the order is unwilling or unable to meet regularly established prices and terms of sale or payment. No manufacturer shall discriminate against such orders in establishing such prices or terms.

(3) After 15 days following the day of issuance of this order, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase or other commitment, or of any preference rating certificate or blanket preference rating order, no manufacturer shall deliver, or otherwise transfer, any critical heat exchanger unless authorized by the Director General for Operations to make such delivery or transfer, as provided in paragraph (d) hereof.

(d) Filing by manufacturers of production and delivery schedules—Authorization for deliveries. (1) On or before 15 days following the date of issuance of this order, every manufacturer shall file a statement, in quadruplicate showing:

(i) All orders for critical heat exchangers on hand on the date of this order, together with a brief description (including square footage, dollar value, use, and extent of completion) of the critical heat exchangers covered by each order, and the proposed date of delivery of each such heat exchanger.

(ii) The names of the proposed purchasers of each such heat exchanger and the customer's and manufacturer's order numbers applicable thereto.

(iii) Preference rating certificate number and the rating assigned to each such order.

The delivery of all critical heat exchangers listed on such statement as scheduled for delivery on or before August 31, 1942, shall be deemed to be authorized upon receipt of such statement by the War Production Board, unless the Director General for Operations shall direct otherwise. The Director General for Operations may, at any time, revoke such delivery authorization as to any or all critical heat exchangers so listed, direct or change the schedule of deliveries or production, allocate any order so listed to any other manufacturer, or direct the delivery of any such heat exchanger to any other person, at the established price and terms. No manufacturer shall change the schedule of deliveries or production as shown on such statement or as directed or changed by the Director General for Operations, without specific authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(2) On or before August 25, 1942, and on or before the 25th day of each succeeding calendar month, every manufacturer shall file, in quadruplicate, a report on Form PD-615B showing his production and delivery schedule for the calendar month immediately following such filing. The delivery of all critical heat exchangers shown on such schedule as proposed to be made in the calendar month following the date of filing shall be deemed to be authorized by the Director General for Operations upon the receipt of such Form PD-615B by the War Production Board, unless the Director General for Operations shall otherwise direct. PART 3023—OIL AND GAS BURNING DOMESTIC SPACE HEATERS

[General Limitation Order L-173]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of metals for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3023.1 General Limitation Order L-173—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Domestic space heaters" means any device (except electric) for the direct heating of the space in and adjacent to that in which the device is located, designed for use without heat distribution pipes or ducts as integral parts of such heating devices, and includes but is not limited to circulating heaters, radiant heaters, direct fired gas unit heaters, floor furnaces and wall furnaces.

(2) "Fuel Oil" means any liquid petroleum classified as grade No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, or 6, including Bunker "C" fuel oil, kerosene, range oil, gas oils and any other liquid petroleum product used for the same purpose as the above designated grades.

(b) General restrictions. No person shall produce, fabricate or assemble any domestic space heaters using fuel oil or gas as fuel, except that subject to the provisions of Supplementary General Limitation Order L-23-c[1] and other applicable orders, any person may manufacture domestic space heaters using fuel oil or gas as fuel under contracts or orders placed for delivery to, or for the account of, the Army or Navy of the United States, the United States Coast Guard, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration.

(c) Replacement parts. Nothing in this order shall be construed to prohibit or limit the production, by any manufacturer, of replacement parts for domestic space heaters using fuel oil or gas as fuel.

(d) Violations and false statements. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(e) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a serious problem of unemployment in the community, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may apply for relief by addressing a letter to the War Production Board setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why such person considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(f) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(g) Applicability of other orders. Insofar as any other order issued by the Director General for Operations, or to be issued by him hereafter, limits the use of any material to a greater extent than the limits imposed by this order, the restrictions of such other order shall govern, unless otherwise specified therein.

(h) Routing of correspondence. Reports to be filed and other communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the War Production Board, Plumbing and Heating Branch, Washington, D. C., Ref: L–173. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

PART 1384—HARDWOOD LUMBER PRODUCTS

[Maximum Price Regulation 196]

TURNED OR SHAPED WOOD PRODUCTS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper to establish in a separate regulation the maximum price for the sale of turned or shaped wood products which, because of their special nature, cannot satisfactorily be priced on the basis of deliveries made in March 1942. The maximum prices established by this regulation are, in the judgment of the Price Administrator, generally fair and equitable, and in conformity with the general level of prices established by the General Maximum Price Regulation.[3] A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation is issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.[4]

Therefore, under the authority invested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[5] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 196 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1384.57 to 1384.69, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

§ 1384.51 Definition of "turned or shaped wood products." For the purposes of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196: (a) The term "turned wood product" means any softwood or hardwood lumber product which has been turned on a cutting machine. The term does not include:

(1) Rotary cut lumber;

(2) Finished products, substantially ready for ultimate use (rather than for incorporation in other products), consisting of an assembly of a turned wood product or products and other parts. Specifically, but not exclusively, the following products are not subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196: Furniture, brooms, mops, carpet sweepers, toys, and tools. However, the term "turned wood product" does include any part (other than rotary cut lumber) of such finished product which part has been turned on a cutting machine. Moreover, the term includes any finished or substantially finished product which consists solely of a turned wood product or turned wood parts.

(b) The term "shaped wood product" means any softwood or hardwood lumber product which has been shaped to pattern on a cutting machine. The term does not include:

(1) Moulding;

(2) Special millwork;

(3) Small dimension stock, either rough, semi-machined, or completely machined, and either glued or not glued.

(4) Doors, sash, windows and frames, or parts thereof.

(5) Finished products, substantially ready for ultimate use (rather than for incorporation in other products), consisting of an assembly of a shaped wood product or products and other parts. Specifically, but not exclusively, the following products are not subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196: Furniture, toys, and tools. However, the term "shaped wood product" does include any part (other than parts of doors, sash, windows and frames) of such finished product which part has been shaped to pattern on a cutting machine. Moreover, the term includes any finished or substantially finished product which consists solely of a shaped wood product or shaped wood parts.

(a) Any sale or delivery at retail of a turned or shaped wood product. "Sale at retail" means any sale to an ultimate consumer other than an industrial, commercial or government user by a person other than the manufacturer of the product sold.

(b) Any sale or delivery of a turned or shaped wood product for which a maximum price is established by any other regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration, except the General Maximum Price Regulation.

(c) Any sale or delivery of a turned or shaped wood product if prior to August 9, 1942, such product had been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to the purchaser.

(1) No person shall sell or deliver any turned or shaped wood product at a price higher than the maximum price established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196;

(2) No person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any turned or shaped wood product at a price higher than such maximum price: Provided, That if upon the purchase of any turned or shaped wood product, the purchaser shall receive from the seller or supplier a written affirmation that to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief the prices charged do not exceed the maximum price established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196, and if in such case the purchaser shall have no knowledge of the maximum price and no cause to doubt the accuracy of the affirmation, the purchaser shall be deemed to have complied with this section;

(3) No person shall agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to do any of the acts provided in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph (a).

(b) No War Procurement Agency, or any contracting or paying finance officer thereof, shall be subject to any liability, civil or criminal, imposed by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196 or the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Report. On or before September 1, 1942, every seller subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196 shall file with the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., all his published and confidential price lists and discount sheets in effect on March 31, 1942, for turned or shaped wood products. Any person who on March 31, 1942, sold turned or shaped wood products at prices based upon price sheets published by any other person subject hereto need not file such other person's published price sheets but shall file instead a statement identifying the particular price sheet used on that date, together with his own discount sheets, if any, and a statement of any prices which constitute exceptions to such practice.

(c) Specifications changes. If any substantial changes are made in any turned or shaped wood product for which the seller had a published or confidential list price in effect on March 31, 1942, the maximum price for such product may be determined pursuant to § 1384.55 or § 1384.57, whichever is applicable: Provided, That either before such change in price or within ten days after making such change in price a report shall be filed with the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing the description of the turned or shaped wood product in question and of the specification changes, and a statement of the former price and the proposed price. If it is desired to issue a new list price a report shall be filed pursuant to § 1384.58.

(a) Price formula. (1) The manufacturer shall employ the price-determining method which was in use in the plant on March 31, 1942, applying each of the pricing factors reflected in the formula at the levels prevailing in the particular plant on March 31, 1942, including: direct labor costs (applied in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section); material costs (applied in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section); overhead (burden) rates; and/or other bases of computation as of March 31, 1942.

(2) To the extent that the price-determining method includes or is based upon prices paid for sub-contracted services (such as painting or machining), the manufacturer shall use actual prices paid or to be paid for sub-contracted services, not in excess of the maximum prices provided by the appropriate maximum price regulation.

(3) The price arrived at by use of the price-determining method shall be adjusted for all applicable extra charges, discounts, or other allowances in use in the particular plant on March 31, 1942 in sales to a purchaser of the same class.

(b) Labor rates. (1) "Direct labor costs" shall be based upon the labor rates prevailing in the plant on March 31, 1942 for each classification of labor. If on March 31, 1942 an average rate was used, an average rate may be applied: Provided, That the labor rates and the method of computing the average in effect on March 31, 1942 are used.

(2) The amount of overtime labor (direct or indirect) estimated to be required may be taken into account in estimating the cost of labor: Provided, That no mark-up, overhead, or profit factors shall be based upon that part of the labor cost which is in excess of the straight-time cost.

(c) Material prices. (1) The term "material prices" includes the prices for raw materials, and for materials and products which have been processed or fabricated to any degree, including parts which can be assembled into the ultimate product without further processing.

(2) The manufacturers shall use a material cost not in excess of the lower of the following two prices:

(i) The actual price paid by the manufacturer for the material used in the production of the turned or shaped wood product being priced under this section.

(ii) The applicable maximum price for the material as established by the General Maximum Price Regulation or any other maximum price regulation.

(3) If there is more than one "actual price paid" or more than one "applicable maximum price" for the same item or material purchased by the manufacturer (as where the maximum price is on a f. o. b. mill basis and the material is bought on varying freight rates; or where different suppliers have different maximum prices as may be the case under the General Maximum Price Regulation), the "actual price paid" or the "applicable maximum price" shall mean the average of the actual prices paid or the average of the maximum purchase prices, as the case may be, for the material in the manufacturers' inventory at the time of the sales subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196. In computing the average actual price paid or the average maximum purchase price for his inventory the manufacturer shall weight the purchases on the basis of quantity and shall deduct for material taken out of inventory on the basis of the average actual purchase price or the average maximum purchase price, as the case may be, of the inventory at the time the material was removed from the inventory.

(d) Reports. When a manufacturer first computes a maximum price for a particular turned or shaped wood product in accordance with the provisions of this section no report need be filed with the Office of Price Administration. However, if the manufacturer subsequently computes a higher maximum price for such product in accordance with the provisions of this section, unless the increase is definitely assignable to a change in specifications or a change in the conditions of delivery, the manufacturer thereof shall file a report with the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing: (1) a description of the turned or shaped wood product; (2) the maximum price prior to the price increase; (3) the new maximum price; (4) an explanation of the higher prices (in terms of the price-determining method and application of the appropriate price factors reflected in the formula): Provided, That if the price of a turned or shaped wood product previously has been reported pursuant to this paragraph without objection from the Office of Price Administration, the manufacturer shall not be required to report subsequent sales or deliveries at the same or a lower price.

(a) Prices. The maximum price for each sale of such turned or shaped wood product shall be the price determined by the seller and reported pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section: Provided, That the Office of Price Administration either approves such price in writing or fails to disapprove it within thirty days after receipt of the report. Within five days prior to filing such report and during such thirty day period, such manufacturer may contract, sell or deliver at the proposed price, but final settlement shall be made in accordance with the action of the Office of Price Administration on such report and, if required by the Office of Price Administration, refunds shall be made.

(b) Report. Within fifteen days of entering into a contract for the sale of a turned or shaped wood product the maximum price for which is computed in accordance with this section, the manufacturer thereof shall file a report with the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing: (1) a description of the product; (2) a summary of the price-determining method, if any, used in the plant on March 31, 1942, or, if no method was in use on that date, a summary of the price-determining method which the manufacturer proposes to use; (3) the maximum price computed by the manufacturer by applying to such formula the pricing factors in the manner set forth in § 1384.55; and (4) an explanation and demonstration of the method employed in arriving at that maximum price.

product, not to exceed the applicable maximum price, the average percentage mark-up, weighted by volume of sales, over net invoice cost realized during March 1942, for all turned or shaped wood products of the same class sold by such seller during March 1942, to purchasers of the same class.

(b) If for any turned or shaped wood product a seller other than the manufacturer thereof had no published or confidential list price in effect on March 31, 1942, and if such seller sold no turned or shaped wood product of the same class during March 1942, the maximum price shall be the maximum price computed under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196 for sales of the product by the most closely competitive seller of the same class.

(c) If for any turned or shaped wood product a seller other than the manufacturer thereof had no published or confidential list price in effect on March 31, 1942, and if such seller cannot compute a maximum price for such product in accordance with the provision of paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, the seller shall apply to the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., for authorization to establish a maximum price pursuant to a pricing method proposed in writing by the seller.

(b) Under the circumstances set forth in paragraph (a) of this section a report shall be filed with the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D .C., containing the proposed list price, the proposed effective date, the class or classes of purchasers to whom such price is to be quoted, all relevant data used in determining such price, and evidence that such price was determined in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196.

§ 1384.59 Report on cost-plus contracts. Any person who has agreed to sell or deliver any turned or shaped wood product pursuant to a cost-plus-a-fixed fee or cost-plus-a-percentage-of-cost-contract, shall on or before September 1, 1942, or within ten days after entering into such contract, file a report with the Lumber Branch of the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., containing a copy or a summary of such contract.

§ 1384.60 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1384.62 Evasion. (a) The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to turned or shaped wood products, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

(b) Specifically, but not exclusively, the following practices are prohibited:

(1) Making credit terms more onerous, either by decreasing the time allowed for payment or by decreasing the deductions allowed for prompt payment, than those in effect or available to the purchaser on March 31, 1942;

(2) Changing the discounts or customary price differentials among classes of purchasers recognized by the seller on March 31, 1942;

(3) Requiring a customer to furnish material for processing where such procedure is not in accordance with previous practices;

(4) Making charges for delivery which in effect require the purchaser to pay a larger proportion of the transportation cost than would have been the case in a similar sale on March 31, 1942.

§ 1384.63 Records and reports—(a) Records. Persons subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196 shall keep available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration for a period of not less than two years records of the following:

(1) By the manufacturer. (i) Records of each sale or delivery of turned or shaped wood products after August 8, 1942, showing the name and address of the purchaser, the date of the sale, a description and identification of the product, and the net price received.

(ii) A record showing the price-determining method employed in the plant on March 31, 1942, the labor rates in effect in the plant on March 31, 1942, the price paid for and a description of all material purchased after January 1, 1942, the system of computing overhead burden in effect in the plant on March 31, 1942, and the price or value of all other factors reflected in the price-determining method.

(iii) A record of all list prices and unsolicited trade quotations for turned or shaped wood products in effect on and after March 1, 1942.

(iv) A record of detailed cost-estimate sheets and other data showing the calculations of prices in sales covered by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196 for which there was no list price or unsolicited trade quotations in effect on March 31, 1942, or for which no list price is hereafter established.

(2) By a seller other than the manufacturer. Records of the kind such seller has customarily kept, relating to the prices of turned or shaped wood products sold after August 8, 1942, and in addition, records showing precisely as possible the basis upon which maximum prices for turned or shaped wood products have been and are determined.

(3) By persons making purchases subject to Maximum Price Regulation No. 196. A record showing the name and address of the seller, the date of the purchase, a description of the product purchased, and the price paid.

(b) Additional or substituted records and reports. Every person subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196, shall keep such other records and submit such other reports, including periodic financial statements, as the Office of Price Administration may from time to time require or permit, either in addition to or in substitution for records and reports required by this Regulation.

§ 1384.65 Petition for amendment or adjustment—(a) Government contracts or subcontracts. Any person who has entered into or proposes to enter into a contract with the United States or any agency thereof, or with the Government of any country whose defense the President deems vital to the defense of the United States under the terms of the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to promote the defense of the United States", or any agency of any such Government, or a subcontract under any such contract, who believes that the maximum price impedes or threatens to impede production of a turned or shaped wood product which is essential to the war program and which is or will be the subject of such contract or subcontract, may file an application for adjustment of the maximum prices established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196 in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 6,[3] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Adjustment of abnormally low maximum prices. The Office of Price Administration, or any duly authorized officer thereof, may by order adjust the maximum prices established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196 for any seller of turned or shaped wood products in any case in which such seller shows:

(1) That such maximum price causes him substantial hardship and is abnormally low in relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of the same or similar commodities; and

(2) That establishing for him a maximum price, bearing a normal relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of the same or similar commodities, will not cause or threaten to cause an increase in the level of retail prices.

Application for adjustment under this paragraph (b) shall be filed in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(c) Special relief. Any person seeking special relief for which no provision is made in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, from a maximum price established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196, may present the special circumstances of his case in an application for an order of adjustment. Such an application shall be filed in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1, issued by the Office of Price Administration, and shall set forth the facts relating to the hardship to which such maximum price subjects the applicant together with a statement of the reasons why he believes that the granting of relief in his case and in all like cases will not defeat or impair the policy of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196 to eliminate the danger of inflation.

(d) General amendments and adjustments. Persons seeking any general modification of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196 or any general adjustment or exception not provided for therein may file petitions for amendment in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(1) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized groups of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the foregoing.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1384.67 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation. The provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall not, on and after August 9, 1942, apply to sales and deliveries of turned or shaped wood products subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 196.

PART 1387—SILVER

[Maximum Price Regulation 198]

IMPORTS OF SILVER BULLION

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary to establish maximum prices for the importation of silver bullion because the General Maximum Price Regulation[1] has only limited application to such importation and because the prices at which silver bullion is imported have risen and are threatening further to rise to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices at which silver bullion was imported between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustment for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as practicable the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

The maximum prices established by this regulation are in conformity with the general level of prices established by the General Maximum Price Regulation, and in the judgment of the Price Administrator are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation is issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 198 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1387.1 to 1387.9, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

§ 1387.1 Maximum prices at which silver bullion may be imported. (a) On and after August 10, 1942, regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation, no person in the course of trade or business shall import, or agree, offer, solicit, or attempt to import:

(1) Silver bullion in the form of standard commercial bars at a price higher than 35.375 cents per troy ounce, f. o. b. New York City or San Francisco; or, if such silver bullion is delivered to the importer at a point other than New York City or San Francisco, at a price higher than 35.375 cents per troy ounce, plus the transportation charges from the point of shipment to the point of destination, minus the transportation charges from the point of shipment to New York City or to San Francisco, whichever are lower.

(2) Silver bullion in any form other than standard commercial bars, or of a quality, grade, or degree of fineness different from that of standard commercial bars, at a price higher than that determined by the Office of Price Administration

(b) Every person seeking to import silver bullion in any form other than standard commercial bars, or of a quality, grade, or degree of fineness different from that of standard commercial bars, shall file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., an application for the determination of a maximum price for such silver bullion. The application shall be under oath and shall set forth:

(1) A detailed description of the silver bullion for which a maximum price is sought including the form and the quality grade or degree of fineness thereof, the quantity and the point to which delivery is to be made;

(2) The names and addresses of the applicant, the seller, and of any agent, broker, or other intermediary acting for either party to the transaction;

(3) The maximum price proposed by the applicant, together with a statement of any facts known to the applicant (which may be stated on information and belief) tending to show that such proposed price bears the same relationship to the maximum price herein established for silver bullion imported in the form of standard commercial bars as the price of the silver bullion sought to be imported bore to the price of silver bullion imported in the form of standard commercial bars during March 1942. After an application has been filed in accordance with the provisions hereof and pending determination of a maximum price by the Office of Price Administration, the applicant may enter into or offer to enter into contracts at the proposed price: Provided, That such contracts stipulate that the contract price shall be revised in accordance with the maximum price determined by the Office of Price Administration and that if payments are made at the proposed price, refunds shall be made of the excess, if any, over such maximum price.

(c) The maximum prices herein established shall include all brokerage fees, commissions, and other charges made by any agent, broker or other intermediary for arranging any purchase of silver bullion or for conducting negotiations between the buyer and seller relative thereto; and no person shall pay any such brokerage fee, commission, or other charge unless the aggregate price for such silver bullion, including such brokerage fees, commissions, and other charges, does not exceed the applicable maximum price herein established.

§ 1387.2 Applicability of the General Maximum Price Regulation. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 198 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to commodities, purchases and deliveries for which maximum prices are established by this regulation.

§ 1387.3 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in § 1387.1 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 198, may be paid or offered.

§ 1387.4 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 198 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with any offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, receipt or importation of or relating to silver bullion, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1387.5 Records and reports. (a) On and after August 10, 1942, every person importing silver bullion or acting as an agent, broker, or other intermediary in the importation of silver bullion shall keep for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for a period of not less than one year, complete and accurate records of each such importation, showing (1) the name and address of the other party or parties to the transaction, (2) a description of the silver bullion purchased, (3) the date of the purchase, (4) the quantity purchased, (5) the price, and (6) other terms of sale and shipment.

(b) Each such person shall keep and submit such other reports in addition to or in lieu of the records required by this section as the Office of Price Administration may, from time to time, require.

§ 1387.6 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 198 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 198 or any price schedule, regulation, or order, issued by the Office of Price Administration, or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation, are urged to communicate with the nearest District, State or Regional Office of the Office of Price Administration, or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1387.7 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking a modification of any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 198, or an adjustment or exception not provided for herein, may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1,[*] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1387.8 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 198, the term:

Preliminary Statement

The proceedings were initiated by the Agricultural Marketing Administration upon receipt of a petition dated May 11, 1942, from the Mid-South Milk Producers Association of Memphis, Tennessee, for a public hearing on a marketing agreement and marketing order program which it proposed. Following this request, and after consideration of the proposal, notice of the hearing was issued on May 27, 1942, and the hearing was convened on June 17, 1942. The time for filing briefs was set at the close of the hearing, to expire at midnight July 8, 1942.

The underlying issue in this proceeding is whether or not the Secretary shall issue a marketing order. It is concluded from the record that an order should be issued and that a marketing agreement should be offered to the handlers who regularly sell milk in the prescribed marketing area to be known as the Memphis, Tennessee, marketing area, irrespective of the original source of the milk sold. By this means orderly marketing conditions will be promoted and preserved and the policy of the act will be effectuated.

From the conclusion on the underlying issue, several principal issues pertaining to certain features of the proposed program assume prominence from the record, as follows:

1. What constitutes the most practical marketing area, and what constitutes its supply of milk which should be regulated?

2. At what level shall the minimum class prices be fixed?

3. By what method shall the proceeds of these minimum prices be distributed to producers?

On these issues, it is concluded that:

1. The marketing area should include the city of Memphis, Tennessee, and that the supply to be regulated should be that handled by plants from which fluid milk is regularly used as Class I milk in the marketing area.

2. Parity prices calculated from the period August 1919–July 1929 are unreasonable in view of present conditions and that it is necessary to fix prices, under section 8c (18) of the act, such that farmers will receive a price for milk produced for sale in the marketing area sufficient to maintain an adequate supply of pure and wholesome milk for such area and to be in the public interest.

3. Payment should be made to all producers delivering milk to all handlers of uniform prices for all milk so delievered, irrespective of the uses made of such milk by the individual handler to whom it is delivered; until January 1, 1943, such payments to be distributed to producers on the basis of individual handler payment plans in effect on July 1, 1942, and thereafter, such payments to be distributed to producers on the basis of their marketings of milk during September, October, and November, 1942.

4. The purchasing power of milk in the Memphis, Tennessee, marketing area specified in section 2 of the act cannot be determined satisfactorily from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the period August 1909–July 1941, but can be determined satisfactorily from available statistics of the Department of Agriculture for the post-war period August 1919–July 1929 and that the post-war period should be the base period to be used in determining the purchasing power of milk sold in the Memphis, Tennessee, marketing area.

The following proposed marketing order prepared by the Administrator pursuant to § 900.12 (a) of the General Regulations, as Amended, Agricultural Marketing Administration, is recommended as the detailed means by which these conclusions may be carried out. The proposed marketing agrement is not included in this report because the provisions thereof will be the same as the provisions of the proposed marketing order.

PROPOSED MARKETING ORDER, REGULATING THE HANDLING OF MILK IN THE MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE, MARKETING AREA

It is found upon the evidence introduced at the public hearing held in Memphis, Tennessee, June 17, 18, and 19, 1942:

Findings

1. That prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in said marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8e (50 Stat. 246; 7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 602, 608c), are not reasonable in view of the available supplies of feeds, the price of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the supply of and demand for such milk and that the minimum prices set forth in this order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and that the fixing of such prices does not have for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers above the levels which are declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish;

2. That all handling of milk sold or disposed of by handlers as defined in section 1 (a) (6) of this order is in the current of interstate commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in milk or its products, and that handlers so defined are engaged in the handling of milk which is in the current of interstate commerce or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in milk or its products;

3. That the order regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to handlers defined in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

4. That a pro rata assessment, on handlers receiving milk from producers, not to exceed 4 cents per hundredweight, as provided by section 10 of this order, on all milk received of producers or produced by such handlers, during each delivery period, will provide funds necessary to pay such expenses as necessarily will be incurred by the market administrator under such order for the maintenance and proper functioning of his office; and

5. That orderly conditions for milk flowing into the Memphis, Tennessee, marketing area are so disrupted as to result in the impairment of the purchasing power of such milk and that the issuance of this order and all of its terms and conditions, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(8) Promptly verify the information contained in the reports submitted by handlers.

SEC. 3. Classification of milk.—(a) Milk to be classified. Milk handled by a cooperative association under the conditions set forth in section 1 (a) (6), and all milk, skim milk, and cream handled by each handler in his fluid milk plant or plants or reported by him pursuant to section 5 (a) (1) (ix), shall be classified by the market administrator in the classes set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section.

(b) Classes of utilization. The classes of utilization of milk shall be as follows:

(1) Class I milk shall be all milk, skim milk, and cream disposed of in fluid form as milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, and cream (for consumption as cream), including any cream product disposed of in fluid form which contains a butterfat content of less than 18 percent and all milk not specifically accounted for as Class II milk.

(2) Class II milk shall be all milk specifically accounted for (i) as used to produce a milk product other than those specified in Class I milk and (ii) as actual plant shrinkage, which shall not exceed 2 percent of the total quantity of milk of producers including the handler's own production.

(c) Transfers of milk and cream. (1) Milk, skim milk, or cream shall be Class I milk when (i) moved from a handler's fluid milk plant to the fluid milk plant of another handler: Provided, That such milk shall be classified as Class I milk only to the extent of the total Class I milk of the second handler; (ii) moved from a handler's fluid milk plant to a handler who receives no milk from producers other than milk of his own production; (iii) without being first received in the handler's fluid milk plant for the primary processing steps of weighing (or measuring) or testing, is caused to be delivered by a handler to a person who is not subject to the provisions hereof but who is engaged in the business of distributing fluid milk, fluid skim milk, or fluid cream, if the handler has reported such milk as being a part of his regular supply of producer milk; (iv) moved from the fluid milk plant of a handler to a person who is not subject to the provisions hereof but who is engaged in the business of distributing fluid milk, fluid skim milk, or fluid cream on wholesale or retail routes; and (v) disposed of completely processed and bottled for distribution by a handler who handles no milk of producers to another handler who handles milk of producers: Provided, That the quantity of such milk so classified shall not exceed the amount of such milk, skim milk, or cream disposed of in the original package by the receiving handler.

(2) Milk, skim milk, and cream, except emergency milk, received at a fluid milk plant from sources other than producers or other fluid milk plants shall be Class II milk, except that any of this milk, skim milk, and cream in excess of the amount of Class II milk used by the handler shall be Class I milk.

(3) Milk of a producer transferred by a handler to another handler without being received by the first handler for the primary processing steps of weighing (or measuring) and testing, shall be considered as having been received by the second handler directly from the producer.

(4) Milk, skim milk, or cream moved by a handler to a plant not specified in paragraph (c) (1) of this section for the manufacture of nonfluid milk products shall be Class II milk.

(d) Computation of milk in each class. For each delivery period the market administrator shall compute for each handler the pounds of milk of producers allocated to each class as follows:

(1) Determine the pounds of milk, skim milk, and cream handled as follows: add into one sum (i) the pounds of milk of producers; (ii) the pounds of milk produced by such handler; (iii) the pounds of milk, skim milk, and cream received from other handlers; (iv) the pounds of emergency milk received; and (v) the pounds of milk, skim milk, and cream received from other sources.

(2) Determine the pounds of butterfat handled as follows: add into one sum (i) the pounds of butterfat in milk of producers; (ii) the pounds of butterfat in milk produced by such handler; (iii) the pounds of butterfat in milk received from other handlers; (iv) the pounds of butterfat in emergency milk; and (v) the pounds of butterfat in milk received from other sources.

(3) Determine the pounds of Class I milk as follows: convert to quarts the quantity of milk, skim milk, and cream disposed of in fluid form as milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks and cream, including any cream product disposed of in fluid form which contains a butterfat content of less than 18 percent, and multiply the sum by 2.15: Provided, That there shall be added any difference between the quantity of milk determined under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and the Class I milk thus far computed plus the pounds of Class II milk computed pursuant to subparagraph (4) of this paragraph:

(4) Determine the pounds of Class II milk as follows:

(i) Multiply the pounds of Class I milk computed prior to the proviso in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph by its average butterfat test;

(ii) Subtract the pounds of Class I butterfat computed pursuant to (i) of this subparagraph from the pounds of butterfat computed under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph;

(iii) Subtract the pounds of Class I milk, computed prior to the proviso in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, from the amount computed under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph;

(iv) Divide the quantity of butterfat computed under (ii) of this subparagraph by the pounds of milk computed under (iii) of this subparagraph;

(v) Multiply the actual weight of each of the several products of Class II milk by its average butterfat test, and add together the resulting amounts;

(vi) Add to the sum obtained in (v) of this subparagraph the amount which represents the butterfat loss by actual plant shrinkage, but in no event shall such plant shrinkage allowance exceed 2 percent of the total receipts of milk of producers (including the handlers' own production) multiplied by the average test of such milk; and

(vii) Divide the sum computed under (vi) of this subparagraph by the average test of Class II milk computed under (iv) of this subparagraph.

(5) Determine the classification of milk of producers as follows:

(i) Subtract from the pounds of milk in each class the pounds of milk, skim milk, and cream received from other handlers and apportioned to each class in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section;

(ii) Subtract from the remaining pounds of Class II milk the total pounds of milk, skim milk, and cream, except emergency milk, received from other sources: Provided, That if the quantity of such milk, skim milk, and cream received is greater than the total quantity of Class II milk of such handlers, an amount equal to such difference shall be subtracted from the remaining pounds of Class I milk;

(iii) Subtract pro rata out of the remaining pounds of milk in each class the quantity of emergency milk received by such handler.

SEC. 4. Minimum prices—(a) Class prices. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section, such handler who handles milk of producers shall pay producers, at the time and in the manner set forth in section 8, not less than the following prices per hundredweight for the respective quantities of milk in each class computed pursuant to section 3 (d) (5):

(1) Class I milk—$3.45, except for the months of May and June when the price shall be $3.25: Provided, That for Class I milk disposed of by such handler under a program approved by the Secretary for the sale or distribution of milk to low-income consumers, including persons on relief, the price shall be such Class I price less 46 cents.

(2) Class II milk—The price resulting from the following computation by the market administrator: multiply by 4 the average price of 92-score butter in the Chicago wholesale market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received, plus 20 percent thereof, plus 3½ cents for each full one-half cent that the price of dry skim milk for human consumption is above 5½ cents per pound. In this computation the price per pound of dry skim milk to be used shall be the average of the carlot prices for dry skim milk for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plant, as published by the United States Department of Agriculture for the Chicago area during the delivery period, including in such average the quotations published for any fractional part of the previous delivery period which were not published and available for the price determination of such dry skim milk for the previous delivery period. If carlot prices for dry skim milk for human consumption, f. o. b. manufacturing plant, are not so published, the average of the carlot prices for dry skim milk for human consumption, delivered at Chicago, shall be used. In the latter event the price for Class II milk shall be that resulting from the following computation by the market administrator: multiply by 4 the average price of 92-score butter in the Chicago wholesale market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received, plus 20 percent thereof, plus 3½ cents for each full one-half cent that the price of dry skim milk for human consumption, delivered at Chicago, is above 7½ cents per pound.

(b) Butterfat differential to handlers. (1) If any handler has disposed of milk of producers, as Class I milk of a weighted average butterfat test more or less than 4 percent, such handler shall add or deduct, as the case may be, to the Class I price 5.5 cents for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the butterfat content of such Class I milk varies above or below 4 percent.

(2) If any handler has disposed of milk of producers as Class II milk of a weighted average butterfat test more or less than 4 percent, such handler shall add or deduct, as the case may be, to the Class II price, for each one-tenth of 1 percent that the butterfat content of such Class II milk varies above or below 4 percent, an amount computed as follows: to the average price per pound of 92-score butter in the Chicago wholesale market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received, add 20 percent and divide the result obtained by 10.

SEC. 5. Reports of handlers—(a) Reports to market administrator. Each handler, under his own signature or under that of a person certified by such handler to the market administrator as being authorized to sign the reports required by this section, shall report to the market administrator in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator, as follows:

(1) On or before the 7th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler who handled milk of producers shall report the following information with respect to all milk, skim milk, and cream handled by him during such delivery period;

(i) The quantity of milk of each producer (including that of such handler's own production), the butterfat content thereof, and the number of days on which such milk was handled;

(ii) The quantity of delivered base milk and the quantity of excess milk of each producer;

(iii) The milk, skim milk, and cream, with its butterfat content, received from other handlers who handled milk of producers;

(iv) The milk, skim milk, and cream, with its butterfat content, received from any other source, including receipts of milk, skim milk, and cream completely processed and packaged for distribution to consumers received from handlers who handled no milk of producers;

(v) The utilization of all milk, skim milk, and cream handled.

(vi) The name and address of each producer whose milk had not been handled during the previous delivery period;

(vii) Such other information with respect to the above as the market administrator may request;

(viii) The emergency milk received, as follows: (a) the amount of such milk, (b) the date or dates upon which such milk was received during the delivery period, (c) the plant from which such milk was shipped, (d) the price paid, or to be paid, for such milk, (e) the utilization of such milk, and (f) such other information with respect thereto as the market administrator may request;

(ix) The name and address of each person who produces milk under a dairy farm inspection report issued by the proper health authorities and who is under contract with such handler, either individually or through a cooperative association, to have his milk paid for as part of the handler's supply of milk for fluid milk use, but whose milk is not received in such handler's fluid milk plant. Any such person who is not included on such a list, submitted on or before the 7th day after the end of the delivery period, shall not be deemed to be a producer for such delivery period; and

(x) The milk diverted by a cooperative association under the conditions set forth in section 1 (a) (6), as follows: (a) the amount of such milk, (b) the date or dates upon which such milk was diverted during the delivery period, (c) the plant to which such milk was shipped, (d) the utilization of such milk, and (e) such other information with respect thereto as the market administrator may request.

(2) On or before the day such handler receives emergency milk, his intention to receive such milk.

(3) Within 10 days after the market administrator's request with respect to each producer for whom such information is not in the files of the market administrator, and with respect to a period or periods of time designated by the market administrator, (i) the name and address, (ii) the pounds of milk handled with its butterfat content, and (iii) the number of days upon which such milk was handled.

(4) On or before the 22d day after the end of each delivery period, his producer pay roll for such delivery period, which shall show for each producer (i) the total pounds of delivered base and excess milk with average butterfat content and (ii) the net amount of such handler's payment to such producer with the prices, deductions, and charges involved.

(5) Each handler who handles no milk of producers shall report to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may request.

(6) Each handler who handles milk of producers shall report, at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may request, the payment plan in effect for each producer at his fluid milk plant on July 1, 1942.

(b) Verification of reports. (1) Each handler shall make available to the market administrator or his agent, or to such other person as the Secretary may designate, (1) all records and facilities necessary for the verification of the information contained in the reports submitted and for the accounting of the usage of all milk, skim milk, and cream handled in accordance with the classification of milk as set forth in section 3, and (2) those facilities which are necessary for weighing, sampling, and testing of the milk of each producer.

(2) If, in the verification of the reports of any handler made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, it is necessary for the market administrator to examine the records of milk, skim milk, and cream handled by the handler but not required to be classified in accordance with section 3 (a), such handler shall make such records available to the market administrator. If, in the verification of the reports of any handler made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, the market administrator finds that, subsequent to the delivery period for which the verification is being made, any milk, skim milk, or cream handled during such delivery period was used in a class other than that in which it was first reported, such milk, skim milk, or cream shall be reclassified accordingly and the adjustments necessary to reflect the reclassified value of such milk, skim milk, or cream shall be made.

SEC. 6. Application of provisions—(a) Handlers who are also producers. (1) Except as set forth in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the provisions of sections 4, 7, 8, 9, and 10 shall not apply to a handler who handles no milk of producers other than milk of his own production.

(2) In computing the value of milk for any handler pursuant hereto, the market administrator shall consider any milk received in bulk by such handler from a handler who is also a producer and who purchases or receives no milk from other producer: as being received from a producer.

SEC. 7. Determination of uniform prices to producers—(a) Computation of the value of milk. (1) For each delivery period, the market administrator shall compute, subject to the provisions of section 6, for each handler who handled milk of producers, the value of milk handled by each such handler by (i) multiplying the quantity of such milk in each class computed pursuant to section 3 (d) (5) by the applicable class prices, and (ii) combining into one total the resulting class values: Provided, That if any handler who handled milk of producers received fluid milk, fluid skim milk, or fluid cream which has been classified as Class I milk pursuant to section 3 (c) (2), there shall be added, with respect to such Class I milk, the difference between the Class II and the Class I prices each of such prices being adjusted by its respective butterfat differential on the basis of the test of such milk, skim milk, or cream.

(2) In the event any handler who handled no milk of producers individually disposed of fluid milk, fluid skim milk, or fluid cream, other than emergency milk, in the marketing area during the delivery period, the market administrator shall compute the value of such milk, skim milk, or cream by multiplying the amount thereof by the difference between the Class II and the Class I prices, each price being adjusted by its respective differential on the basis of the test of such milk, skim milk, or cream.

(b) Computation and announcement of uniform prices prior to January 1, 1943. For each delivery period prior to January 1, 1943, the market administrator shall compute and announce the uniform price per hundredweight of milk of producers in the following manner:

(1) Combine into one total the respective values computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, for each handler who made the reports and payments required by sections 5 (a) and 8 (e);

(2) Subtract, if the average butterfat content of all milk of producers is greater than 4 percent, or add, if such average butterfat content is less than 4 percent, the total value of such butterfat variance, from 4 percent computed pursuant to section 8 (h);

(3) Add the cash balance in the producer-settlement fund;

(4) Divide by the total hundredweight of milk of producers which is represented in these computations;

(5) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight of milk for the purpose of retaining in the producer-settlement fund a cash balance to provide against errors in reports and payments by handlers. This result shall be known as the uniform price for milk containing 4 percent of butterfat; and

(6) On or before the 11th day after the end of each delivery period mail to all handlers and publicly announce: (i) such of these computations as do not disclose confidential information (ii) the Class II price (iii) the butterfat differentials, and (iv) the uniform price.

(c) Computation and announcement of uniform prices subsequent to December 31, 1942. For each delivery period subsequent to December 31, 1942, the market administrator shall compute and announce the uniform price per hundredweight of milk of producers in the following manner:

(1) Combine into one total the respective values computed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section for each handler who made the reports and payments required by sections 5 (a) and 8 (c);

(2) Subtract, if the average butterfat content of all milk of producers is greater than 4 percent, or add, if such average butterfat content is less than 4 percent, the total value of such butterfat variance from 4 percent computed pursuant to section 8 (h);

(3) Subtract the amount to be paid to producers pursuant to section 8 (c) (2);

(4) Add the cash balance in the producer-settlement fund;

(5) Divide by the total hundredweight of delivered base milk of producers and which is represented in these computations;

(6) Subtract not less than 4 cents nor more than 5 cents per hundredweight of milk for the purpose of retaining in the producer-settlement fund a cash balance to provide against errors in reports and payments by handlers. This result shall be known as the delivery period uniform price to be paid producers for base milk containing 4 percent butterfat; and

(7) On or before the 11th day after the end of such delivery period, mail to all handlers and publicly announce: (i) such of these computations as do not disclose confidential information, (ii) the Class II price, (iii) the butterfat differentials, (iv) the price to be paid for base milk, and (v) the price to be paid for excess milk.

SEC. 8. Payments for milk—(a) Half-delivery period payment. On or before the last day of each delivery period, each handler shall pay each producer the approximate value of the milk of such producer which was handled by such handler during the first 15 days of such delivery period.

(b) Final payment for delivery periods prior to January 1, 1943. On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay his producers a total amount of money equal to the uniform price subject to the butterfat differential provided by paragraph (h) of this section times the amount of milk delivered to him by such producers less the payment made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section in accordance with his customary plan of payment to producers as of July 1, 1942: Provided, That any change may be made in that plan if such change is made uniformly to all producers delivering to that handler.

(c) Final payment for delivery period subsequent to December 31, 1942. On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, subsequent to December 31, 1942, each handler shall pay producers, subject to the butterfat differential provided by paragraph (h) of this section and less the payment made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, as follows:

(1) To each producer at the uniform price per hundredweight computed pursuant to section 7 (c) (6), for that quantity of milk of such producer not in excess of his delivered base; and

(2) To each producer at the Class II price, for that quantity of milk of such producer in excess of his delivered base.

(d) Producer-settlement fund. The market administrator shall establish and maintain a separate fund known as the "producer-settlement fund" into which he shall deposit all payments made by handlers pursuant to paragraphs (e) and (g) of this section, and out of which he shall make all payments to handlers pursuant to paragraphs (f) and (g) of this section.

(e) Payments to the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 13th day after the end of each delivery period, each handler shall pay to the market administrator, for payment to producers through the producer-settlement fund, the amount by which the total utilization value of the milk of producers handled by such handler during the delivery period is greater than the sum obtained by multiplying the pounds of such milk of producers by the appropriate price or prices required to be paid producers by handlers pursuant to paragraph (b) or (c) of this section and adding together the resulting amounts: Provided, That if any handler who handled milk of producers has received fluid milk, fluid skim milk, or fluid cream, which was classified as Class I milk pursuant to section 3 (c) (2), such handler shall pay to the market administrator, for payment to producers through the producer-settlement fund, the amount which is computed pursuant to the proviso of section 7 (a) (1): And provided further, That in the event any other handler who handled no milk of producers individually, disposed of fluid milk, fluid skim milk, or fluid cream other than emergency milk, in the marketing area during the delivery period, such handler shall pay to the market administrator, for payment to producers through the producer-settlement fund, an amount per hundredweight which is computed pursuant to section 7 (a) (2).

(f) Payments out of the producer-settlement fund. On or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, the market administrator shall pay to each handler for payment to producers, the amount, if any, by which the total utilization value of the milk of producers handled by such handler during the delivery period is less than the sum obtained by multiplying the hundredweight of such milk of producers by the appropriate price or prices required to be paid producers by handlers pursuant to paragraphs (b) or (c) of this section, and adding together the resulting amounts. If, at such time, the balance in the producer-settlement fund is insufficient to make all payments pursuant to this paragraph, the market administrator shall reduce uniformly such payments and shall complete such payments as soon as the necessary funds are available. No handler who, on the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, has not received the balance of such reduced payment due him from the market administrator shall be deemed to be in violation of paragraphs (b) or (c) of this section if he reduces his payments to producers by not more than the amount of the reduction in payment from the producer-settlement fund.

(g) Adjustments of errors in payments. Whenever verification by the market administrator of reports or payments of any handler discloses errors under which money would accrue to the producer-settlement fund pursuant to paragraphs (e) or (f) of this section, the market administrator shall promptly bill such handler for any unpaid amount and such handler, within 5 days, shall make payment to the market administrator of the amount so billed. Whenever verification discloses that payment is due from the market administrator to any handler pursuant to paragraph (f) of this section, the market administrator, within 5 days, shall make such payment to such handler. Whenever verification by the market administrator of the payment by a handler to any producer for milk received by such handler discloses payment of less than is required by this section, the handler shall make up such payment not later than the time of making payment to producers next following such disclosure.

(h) Butterfat differential. In making payments to each producer, pursuant to paragraphs (b) or (c) of this section, each handler shall add to the price per hundredweight not less than, or subtract from the price per hundredweight not more than, as the case may be, for each one-tenth of 1 percent of butterfat content which is above or below 4 percent in milk of such producer, the amount as shown in the schedule below for the butter-price range in which falls the average wholesale price of 92-score butter in the Chicago market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received:

Butter-price range (cents per pound)	Butterfat differential (cents per one-tenth of 1 percent)
22.50–27.499	3.0
27.50–32.499	3.5
32.50–37.499	4.0
37.50–42.499	4.5
42.50–47.499	5.0
47.50–52.499	5.5
52.50–57.499	6.0
57.50–62.499	6.5

(i) Determination of base. For each delivery period the base of each producer shall be a quantity of milk calculated by the market administrator in the following manner: (1) Multiply the applicable figure computed pursuant to the following subdivisions of this subparagraph by the number of days during such delivery period on which the milk of such producer was handled;

(i) Effective for each calendar year subsequent to December 31, 1942, the daily base of each producer who began delivery to a handler before the month of September preceding such calendar year shall be determined by the market administrator from reports filed by handlers pursuant to section 5 (a) or from the best information available, in the following manner:

(a) Determine for each producer the average daily deliveries of his milk to a handler for the number of days on which this order is in effect during the months of September, October, and November, of the year immediately preceding: Provided, That if a producer is prevented by the applicable health authority, through quarantine or degrading, from delivering milk, and such producer furnishes to the market administrator, a statement to that effect written by such applicable health authority, the market administrator shall deduct from the figure representing the number of days in the base forming period the number of days (but not more than 30 days in any one base forming period) involved by such ruling of the applicable health authority: And provided further, That if a producer, as the result of official testing for tuberculosis or Bang's disease, testing for mastitis by a recognized veterinarian, or for any reason which the market administrator determines was not under the control of the producer loses 20 percent or more of the cows in his herd and furnishes the market administrator, within 5 days, with satisfactory documentary evidence of such loss, such producer shall be permitted 3 months in which to replace such cows lost through such testing and the market administrator shall credit such producer with the delivery of his established base in the determination of such producer's daily base;

(b) Add together in one sum all the daily average amounts computed according to (a) of this subdivision;

(c) Determine, from reports filed by handlers pursuant to section 5 (a), the average daily Class I milk for such months of September, October, and November of handlers who handled milk of producers;

(d) Divide the amount determined pursuant to (c) of this subdivision by the sum determined pursuant to (b) of this subdivision; and

(e) Multiply the daily average amount for each producer determined in (a) of this subdivision by the percentage figure computed pursuant to (d) of this subdivision. This result shall be known as the producer's daily base for the current calendar year;

(ii) In the event of allotment of a daily base to a producer who did not regularly sell milk to a handler on September 1 of the preceding calendar year, or to a producer who for other reasons does not have a base computed under subdivision (i) of this subparagraph, the market administrator shall determine the daily average deliveries of milk by such producer for the first two full calendar months immediately following the first regular delivery of such producer, or, in the case of a producer previously holding a base, the first two full calendar months immediately following the first regular delivery following the date of termination of such base. Such daily average deliveries of milk shall be multiplied by the percentage that total reported base deliveries were to reported total deliveries of milk to the market by all daily base holding producers during such two calendar months;

(iii) If a handler who distributes within the marketing area milk of his own production disposes of all or a part of his delivery routes to a handler who handles milk of producers and thereafter delivers milk to a handler as a producer, a daily base shall be computed by the market administrator in the following manner: determine the average daily Class I milk produced and disposed of on such delivery routes of such handler during the three months next preceding the date of the disposal of such delivery routes which the purchasing and selling handlers jointly report as involved in the deal, subject to verification by the market administrator. This figure shall be known as the producer's daily base and shall be effective from the date of the first delivery of milk of his own production in bulk to a handler by such producer through the remaining calendar year and thereafter shall be superseded by a daily base determined pursuant to subdivision (i) of this subparagraph.

(2) The following rules shall be observed by the market administrator in the allotment and administration of bases:

(i) Any producer who ceases to deliver milk to a handler for a period of more than 30 consecutive days shall forfeit his base. In the event such producer thereafter commences to deliver milk to a handler, he shall receive a daily base computed in the manner provided in subparagraph (1) (ii) of this section;

(ii) In case a producer sells or delivers to a handler milk not of his own production as being milk of his own production, the base of such producer shall be forfeited at the beginning of the delivery period during which such milk was delivered and all milk sold or delivered to a handler by such producer during such delivery period shall be excess milk. Thereafter, such producer shall receive a daily base computed in the manner provided in subparagraph (1) (ii) of this section;

(iii) If, on or before the 5th day after the transfer of a farm from which base milk is delivered, there is submitted to the market administrator an affidavit stating that such farm has been transferred, and specifying the date of such transfer, signed jointly before a notary public by the transferee and the transferor of such farm, and if, within 10 days after such affidavit is submitted to the market administrator, no written protest containing information that such transfer was contrary to the terms of this subdivision is filed with the market administrator, the base of such producer may be transferred but only as one unit to the purchaser of such farm. If, upon investigation, the market administrator finds the terms of this subdivision have been violated, the base of such producer shall be forfeited; and

(iv) A producer may retain his base when moving his entire herd of cows from one farm to another farm, and the farm from which he moves shall retain no base.

SEC. 9. Marketing services—(a) Deductions for marketing services. Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler shall deduct 5 cents per hundred pounds from the payments made to each producer pursuant to section 8, with respect to all milk of producers handled by such handler during each delivery period, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of such delivery period. Such money shall be expended by the market administrator for verification of weights, sampling, and testing of milk of producers during the delivery period and to provide such producers with market information, such services to be performed in whole or in part by the market administrator.

(b) Producers' cooperative association. In the case of producers for whom a cooperative association, which the Secretary determines to be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act," is actually performing, as determined by the Secretary, the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deductions specified in paragraph (a) of this section, such deductions from the payments to be made directly to such producers pursuant to section 8, as are authorized by such producers, and, on or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, pay over such deductions to the association rendering such services.

SEC. 10. Expense of administration—(a) Payments by handlers. As his prorata share of the expense of the administration hereof, each handler, on or before the 15th day after the end of each delivery period, shall pay to the market administrator, with respect to all milk of producers handled by him and milk produced by him during such delivery period, an amount not exceeding 4 cents per hundredweight, the exact amount to be determined by the market administrator. Each cooperative association which is a handler shall pay such prorata share of expense on only that milk of producers caused to be delivered by it to the plants from which no milk is disposed of in the marketing area.

SEC. 11. Effective time, suspension, and termination—(a) Effective time. The provisions hereof, or any amendment hereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated, pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Suspension and termination. Any or all provisions hereof, or any amendment hereto, shall be suspended or terminated as to any or all handlers after such reasonable notice as the Secretary may give, and shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

(c) Continuing power and duty. (1) If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, there are any obligations arising hereunder the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any handlers, by the market administrator, or by any other person, the power and duty to perform such further acts shall continue notwithstanding such suspension or termination: Provided, That any such acts required to be performed by the market administrator shall be performed, if the Secretary so directs, by such other person, persons, or agency as the Secretary may designate.

(2) The market administrator, or such other person as the Secretary may designate, shall (i) continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary, (ii) from time to time account for all receipts and disbursements, (iii) when so directed by the Secretary, deliver all funds or property on hand, together with the books and records of the market administrator, or such person, to such person as the Secretary shall direct, and (iv) if so directed by the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title to all funds, property, and claims vested in the market administrator or such person pursuant hereto.

(d) Liquidation after suspension or termination. Upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions hereof, the market administrator, or such other person as the Secretary may designate, if so directed by the Secretary, shall liquidate the business of the market administrator's office and dispose of all funds and property then in his possession or under his control, together with claims for any funds which are unpaid and owing at the time of such suspension or termination. Any funds collected pursuant to the provisions hereof, over and above the amounts necessary to meet outstanding obligations and the expenses necessarily incurred by the market administrator or such person in liquidating and distributing such funds, shall be distributed to the contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

SEC. 12. Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States, or name any bureau or division in the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions hereof.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION.

FILING OF JOINT FREIGHT FORWARDER-MOTOR COMMON CARRIER RATES

AUGUST 3, 1942.

The Commission, at a general session held in its offices in Washington, D. C., on July 30, 1942, held that the only initial joint freight forwarder-motor common carrier rates which may be filed under section 409 of the act are those which actually fall within the terms of subsections (1), (2) and (3) of section 409 (a). No such joint rates may now be filed except those (1) which were contained in tariffs and supplements offered for filing with the Commission prior to May 16, 1942, and which were rejected, and (2) those under which freight forwarders and motor common carriers were actually operating on July 1, 1941. The Commission recognizing that this ruling will make it difficult for certain freight forwarders to establish such joint rates, by order dated today postponed the taking effect of subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) of section 409 (a) until July 16, 1942. As a result of this order, such joint rates and charges contained in tariffs previously filed but not rejected become effective as of July 16, 1942, unless notice is filed with this Commission within 30 days after July 16, 1942, canceling same. Also, joint rates and charges contained in tariffs offered for filing prior to May 16, 1942, but rejected and tariffs containing joint rates which were actually in effect on July 1, 1941, may be filed on or before August 15, 1942, and when so filed become effective July 16, 1942.

After joint forwarder-motor rates or charges filed in accordance with the above requirements become effective, changes in and additions to such joint rates or charges may be established on 30 days' notice; or, if permission is obtained in advance from the Commission, on less than 30 days' notice.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VII—Agricultural Adjustment Agency

PART 728—WHEAT

NATIONAL MARKETING QUOTA FOR THE MARKETING YEAR 1943–44

Whereas the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, provides:

SEC. 335. (a) Whenever it shall appear that the total supply of wheat as of the beginning of any marketing year will exceed a normal year's domestic consumption and exports by more than 35 per centum, the Secretary [of Agriculture] shall, not later than the May 15 prior to the beginning of such marketing year, proclaim such fact and, during the marketing year beginning July 1 and continuing throughout such marketing year, a national marketing quota shall be in effect with respect to the marketing of wheat. • • • Marketing quotas for any marketing year shall be in effect with respect to wheat harvested in the calendar year in which such marketing year begins notwithstanding that the wheat is marketed prior to the beginning of such marketing year. • • •

Whereas said act contains, in section 301 (b), the following definitions of terms here pertinent:

"Carry-over" of wheat, for any marketing year shall be the quantity of wheat on hand in the United States at the beginning of such marketing year, not including any wheat which was produced in the United States during the calendar year then current, and not including any wheat held by the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation under Title V.

"Marketing year" means, in the case of the following commodities, the period beginning on the first and ending with the second date specified below:

• • • • •

Wheat, July 1–June 30.

"Normal year's domestic consumption", in the case of • • • wheat, shall be the yearly average quantity of the commodity, wherever produced, that was cosumed [consumed] in the United States during the ten marketing years immediately preceding the marketing year in which such consumption is determined, adjusted for current trends in such consumption.

"Normal year's exports" in the case of • • • wheat shall be the yearly average quantity of the commodity produced in the United States that was exported from the United States during the ten marketing years • • • immediately preceding the marketing year in which such exports are determined, adjusted for current trends in such exports.

"Total supply" of • • • wheat for any marketing year shall be the carry-over of the commodity for such marketing year plus the estimated production of the commodity in the United States during the calendar year in which such marketing year begins.

And whereas said act provides, in section 301 (c), that—

The latest available statistics of the Federal Government shall be used by the Secretary [of Agriculture] in making the determinations required to be made by the Secretary under this Act.

Now, therefore, be it known that I, Claude R. Wickard, Secretary of Agriculture of the United States of America, acting under and pursuant to, and by virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, upon the basis of the latest available statistics of the Federal Government, do hereby find, determine, and proclaim under section 335 (a) of said Act that:

§ 728.405 National marketing quota for wheat for the 1943–44 marketing year. (a) The total supply of wheat for the marketing year beginning July 1, 1943 is 1,508 million bushels.

(b) A normal year's domestic consumption and exports of wheat is 722 million bushels.

(c) The total supply of wheat for the marketing year beginning July 1, 1943, will exceed a normal year's domestic consumption and exports by more than 35 per centum.

(d) A national marketing quota shall be in effect with respect to the marketing of wheat during the marketing year beginning July 1, 1943, and continuing throughout such marketing year. The marketing quota shall be in effect with respect to wheat harvested in the calendar year 1943 notwithstanding that the wheat is marketed prior to July 1, 1943. (Sec. 335 (a), 301 (c), 52 Stat. 54, 43; 7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 1335, 1301)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 5th day of August 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Secretary of Agriculture.

GENERAL

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

§ 81.101 Publication of procurement regulations. During the past few years it has been the practice of the War Department to publish procurement regulations in several different publications, viz: Army Regulations, War Department Procurement Circulars, etc. It has also been the practice to include in such regulations precise details of how purchases were to be effected. For reasons too obvious to mention, neither practice can be justifiably continued in view of the present war emergency. Accordingly, a new numbered series of procurement regulations has been prepared to replace all other procurement regulations outstanding as of this date. As changes in or additions to this new series of regulations become necessary, the same will be effected by the publication of corrected or supplemental sheets to the appropriate regulation.

§ 81.102 Rescission of Army Regulations. Effective July 1, 1942, the following Army Regulations are hereby rescinded:

AR 5–5	AR 5–240
AR 5–50	AR 5–260

§ 81.106 Distribution; responsibility for. Chiefs of supply services are responsible for distributing these regulations and all current changes and supplements thereto to their respective purchasing officials.

§ 81.107 Applicability as to various procurement agencies. (a) The regulations in this part to the extent, and only to the extent, that they actually confer authority upon the chiefs of the supply services and other officers or civilian officials of the War Department to exercise power to enter into contracts and into amendments or modifications of contracts heretofore or hereafter made, and to make advance, progress and other payments thereon, shall constitute a delegation by the Under Secretary of War of the authority vested in him by memorandum of the Secretary of War, dated December 30, 1941 (Subject: Delegation of Authority Under Executive Order No. 9001). The Chiefs of the supply services severally shall have power to redelegate the powers conferred upon them respectively by the preceding sentence to such officer or officers or civilian official or officials of the War Department as they severally may direct. The exercise, prior to the date of these regulations, of any such authority by any such officer or officers or civilian official or officials is hereby ratified and confirmed in all respects.

(b) Since the regulations are generally declaratory of policy only, it will be necessary for the chief of each supply service to publish appropriate instructions on procedure.

§ 81.108 Applicability as to various activities. (a) War Department Procurement Regulations are applicable to all procurement activities of the War Department. Such activities include, but are not necessarily limited to, the following:

(1) Purchase of supplies, materials, equipment and non-personal services.

(2) The procurement of construction work, including that on rivers and harbors.

(b) The regulations are applicable to the expenditure of all appropriated funds by War Department personnel, including funds allocated to, as distinguished from appropriated to, the War Department for use in making purchases.

(c) The regulations are not applicable to the expenditure of organizational, unit and similar funds.

§ 81.109 Sales, loans, or gifts of supplies to manufacturers—(a) General. Sales, loans, or gifts of drawings, manufacturing or other information, and samples of supplies and equipment will be made only to those manufacturers who are or may likely be manufacturers or suppliers of the War Department under contract. Such sales, loans or gifts will be in conformity with AR 380–5 where applicable.

(b) Gifts. Gifts may be made if the standard list price thereof does not exceed $25, and if specific authorization in each case is given by the chief of the supply service concerned. A certificate by the officer accountable for the supplies given, indicating disposition under this authority, will be accepted by auditing officers as a proper voucher for dropping those supplies.

(c) Loans. Loans of supplies will be made to contractors as directed in paragraph 10, AR 35–6520[1]. Such loans may be made to manufacturers who are likely to be contractors in the same manner only if the standard list price thereof does not exceed $500, and provided that specific authorization in each case is given by the chief of the supply service concerned.

(d) Sales. Sales may be made only as specifically authorized in each case by the chief of the supply service concerned, and then only at the standard list price and in cases where such price does not exceed $500.

(e) Authority of the Under Secretary of War. Any gift exceeding $25, standard list price, any loan to other than contractors exceeding $500, standard list price, and any sale at a price other than standard list price or exceeding $500, standard list price, will be made only with the prior approval of the Under Secretary of War or his duly authorized representative.

§ 81.110 Prohibition against voluntary service. No department or officer of the Government may accept voluntary service for the Government except in cases of sudden emergency involving the loss of human life or the destruction of property. "Voluntary service" means that the service is rendered under an agreement whereby a claim for payment may subsequently be made against the Government. Voluntary service may be accepted if a written statement is obtained that the service rendered will not be made a basis for future claim against the Government for compensation.

§ 81.111 Prohibition against use of troop labor and transportation. (a) Except in cases of manifest necessity or when authorized by the Secretary of War, the labor of troops or Government employees or Government means of transportation will not be used to enable contractors to fulfill contracts.

(b) Whenever troop labor or Government transportation has been used:

(1) Authority therefor will be given in writing.

(2) A report enumerating in detail the service rendered will be forwarded to the Commanding General, Services of Supply.

(3) Full deduction will be made for the value of the service rendered.

§ 81.112 Prohibition against purchases from officers or employees of the Government. (a) No officer or employee of the War Department may act as an agent of the United States in advising, recommending, making or approving the purchase of supplies or other property, or in contracting therefor, if he would be admitted to share or receive directly or indirectly any pecuniary profit or benefit from such purchase or contract.

(b) No officer or agent of any corporation, joint stock company, or association, and no member or agent of any firm, or person directly or indirectly interested in the pecuniary profits or contracts of such corporation, joint stock company, association, or firm, shall be employed or shall act as an officer or agent of the United States for the transaction of business with such corporation, joint stock company, association or firm.

NEGOTIATED PURCHASES

§ 81.201 Rescission of regulations. Army Regulations 5–140, May 22, 1940, as amended; Army Regulations 5–160, October 24, 1941, as amended; Army Regulations 5–240, February 11, 1936, as amended; and all other prior directives and instructions of whatsoever nature, including §§ 81.10–81.13 and 81.32–81.33, relating to negotiated purchases, open-market purchases, procurement without advertising, and other purchasing methods are hereby rescinded.

§ 81.202 Definition. The term "negotiated purchases" as used in Procurement Regulations includes all purchases which are not made as a result of formal advertising in accordance with section 3709 Revised Statutes. Negotiated purchases may be made by securing informal written bids from a large or small number of suppliers, or by securing telephone quotations. However, where such bids or quotations are requested, the request therefor should clearly indicate that the supply service is proceeding under the negotiating power of Public No. 354, First War Powers Act, 1941.

§ 81.203 Authority. Authority for making negotiated purchases is contained in the act of December 18, 1941 (Public No. 354—77th Congress; 55 Stat. 838; 5 U. S. C. Sup 601–622), which may be referred to as the "First War Powers Act, 1941", and Executive Order No. 9001, December 27, 1941. Hereafter, all negotiated purchases will be made under the authority of the above statute.

§ 81.204 General policy. (a) Except as indicated in paragraph (b) of this section, all contracts will be placed by negotiation. The methods of negotiation to be followed will be determined by the chief of the supply service concerned. Any method which will result in the most efficient award of contracts and will, in the judgment of the chief of the supply service concerned, protect the interests of the Government, is hereby authorized.

(b) When authorized by the Director of Purchases of the War Production Board or his designated representative, contracts may be placed by formal advertising instead of by negotiation if deemed necessary in the interests of the Government. Requests for such authority will be submitted to the Purchases Branch, Procurement and Distribution Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, by the chief of the supply service concerned.

§ 81.205 Special instructions—(a) Field agencies. The chiefs of the supply services will decentralize to their field agencies the actual work of negotiating contracts to the greatest extent consistent with efficiency and proper safeguarding of the public interest.

(b) Qualified suppliers. Where consistent with the speed of war procurement, negotiations will be carried on with as many qualified suppliers as is practicable. A qualified supplier is one who:

(1) Qualifies as such under the laws and lawful regulations governing the purchase of the supplies in question.

(2) Can comply with all the terms and conditions governing the purchase.

(3) Is a manufacturer of or a regular dealer in the supplies to be purchased.

(4) Has not been adjudged an irresponsible supplier by the chief of the supply service concerned.

(c) In negotiating contracts, particular regard will be paid to the following considerations:

(1) Primary emphasis shall be upon securing delivery in the time required by the war program.

(2) In so far as it will effectuate the policy set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, contracts shall be placed so as to conserve for the more difficult war production problems the facilities of concerns best able, by reason of engineering, managerial, and physical resources, to handle them. Accordingly, contracts for standard or other items which involve relatively simple production problems shall be placed with concerns, normally the smaller ones, which are less able to handle the more difficult war production problems.

(3) Subject to the considerations stated in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, contracts shall be placed with concerns needing to acquire the least amounts of additional critical materials, machinery and equipment for performance of the contracts. Accordingly, as an essential part of each negotiation, procurement officials shall secure from prospective contractors statements listing all additional critical materials, machinery and equipment which will be needed for the performance of the contract.

(4) In giving effect to the provisions of subparagraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this paragraph, it is recognized that it may be necessary to purchase at other than the lowest price offered.

(d) Authority to make awards. (1) Awards of contracts or changes therein amounting to less than $5,000,000 (or when the estimated amount in the case of cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts, or changes therein, is less than $5,000,000) may be made by such contracting and other officers as the chief of the supply service concerned may designate.

(2) Awards of contracts or changes therein amounting to $5,000,000 or more must be submitted to the Chief of the Purchases Branch, Procurement and Distribution Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, for approval.

(3) Awards of architect, engineer, management or similar contracts will be submitted for approval in accordance with subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, when the project which they cover amounts to $5,000,000 or more.

(e) Applicable laws. The Walsh-Healey Public Contracts Act, the Davis-Bacon Act, as amended, the Copeland "Kick-back" Act, as amended, and the Eight Hour Law, as amended, are applicable to contracts made and performed under the authority of Executive Order No. 9001 to the same extent as if said contracts had been made and performed under the provisions of section 3709, Revised Statutes.

(f) Prospective contractors will be apprised by general or special instructions of the terms and conditions which will be incorporated in their contracts.

(g) Commanders in theaters of operations. Nothing contained in these regulations will be construed to abridge the powers of commanders in theaters of operations to make necessary purchases in such manner as is deemed advisable.

§ 81.206 Purchase reports—(a) Statistics and Progress Branch. Under General Orders No. 14, Headquarters, Services of Supply, dated June 12, 1942, the Statistics and Progress Branch, Control Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, was established. This branch is responsible for preparation and submission of all procurement reports required by law to be submitted to the President and to The Congress, as well as to other Federal agencies authorized to receive such reports. Effective July 1, 1942, it will be the responsibility of every contracting officer, except those in Theaters of Operations, to make reports of purchase actions as outlined below. The reports will cover all purchases, supply contracts (include contracts for engineering services, maintenance of real estate and procurement of abstracts of title) and contracts for the acquisition and leasing of real estate. The reports will be submitted in duplicate through the usual channels from the contracting officer within three days after the purchase action being reported or after the end of the month, whichever is applicable, to the Commanding General, Services of Supply, attention Control Division, Statistics and Progress Branch. One additional copy will be attached for Chiefs of Supply Services, Services of Supply, and for the Material Command of the Army Air Forces by contracting officers reporting thereto. Chiefs of Supply Services, Services of Supply and the Material Command of the Army Air Forces will be responsible for complete, accurate, and proper submission of reports from contracting officers under their respective jurisdiction. All other initial reports of purchase actions are abolished, effective July 1, 1942. Informal contracts such as a letter of intent, letter contract, or letter purchase order will not be reported until the transaction becomes a formal one.

(b) Monthly summary of purchase actions. A summary of purchase actions will be rendered for each calendar month as of the last day thereof and submitted on 8" x 10½" sheets in the following form:

MODIFICATION OF CONTRACTS

§ 81.315 Supplemental agreements—(a) Authority. Chiefs of the supply services are authorized to modify or amend existing contracts upon adequate legal consideration by supplemental agreement whenever, in their judgment, the prosecution of the War effort is thereby facilitated, and upon an express finding to that effect. Amendments and modifications of contracts may be utilized to accomplish the same purposes as might have been accomplished by original contracts. This authority shall not be construed as conferring upon the chiefs of the supply services authority to enter into amendments or modifications of contracts without adequate legal consideration, or to enter into agreements with contractors or obligors modifying or releasing accrued obligations of any sort, including accrued liquidated damages or liability under any surety or other bond. In cases where such settlement, adjustment, modification, or release is deemed desirable by the chiefs of the supply services, a recommendation therefor, accompanied by a full statement of the circumstances and the necessity thereof, should be transmitted to the Chief of the Purchases Branch, Procurement and Distribution Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply.

(b) Form. Supplemental agreements entered into pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section should be reduced to writing and signed by the contracting parties.

§ 81.316 Change orders—(a) Authority. Pursuant to contractual provision therefor, change orders may be made as authorized by the chiefs of the supply services.

(b) Form. Change orders will be in the form of letters addressed to the contractor, and will specify the number of the contract concerned, the changes to be made, the increase or decrease in price and time for performance, and such other terms as may be necessary. Change orders will bear the same complete identification as the contract which they modify, and will be lettered in the order issued for each contract. Signed numbers and copies of change orders will be distributed in the same manner as prescribed for the contracts to which they pertain, and the contracting officer will note on his retained copy of the change order the date on which the contractor's number was mailed to him.

§ 81.317 Modifications in excess of $5,000,000. Supplemental agreements and change orders will be submitted to the Chief of the Purchases Branch, Procurement and Distribution Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, for approval in all cases where there is an increase in the contract price (or in the estimated cost if a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract) amounting to $5,000,000 or more. If it is deemed necessary to amend or modify the contract without adequate legal consideration in order to facilitate the prosecution of the war effort, the proposed amendment or modification will be submitted to the Chief of the Purchases branch, Procurement and Distribution Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, for approval.

§ 81.318 Adherence to standard forms. The authority of this Section will not be used for the purpose of authorizing a deviation from standard forms of War Department contracts, unless such deviation is authorized by these regulations nor will it be used for the purpose of making material changes in the character or terms of an award or contract previously approved by the Under Secretary of War or the Chief of the Purchases Branch, Procurement and Distribution Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply. The same requirements and restrictions with respect, to standard forms are applicable to supplemental agreements and change orders as are applicable to original contracts.

§ 81.319 Consent of sureties. If payment or performance under the contract is guaranteed by a surety, the consent of such surety should be obtained to any supplemental agreement modifying or amending the contract, or to any change order in excess of $25,000. As to change orders not in excess of $25,000, the consent of the surety is not required but the surety should be furnished copies thereof.

MISCELLANEOUS

§ 81.320 Assignment—(a) Transfers restricted. No contract or order, or any interest therein, shall be transferred to any other party by the party to whom such contract or order is given, and any such transfer shall cause the annulment of the contract or order transferred, so far as the United States is concerned, except as follows:

(2) Where made pursuant to the Assignment of Claims Act of 1940.

(b) Assignment of claims. Every contract, except those which have been classified, entered into subsequent to October 9, 1940, will permit the assignment of moneys due or to become due thereunder to a bank, trust company, or other financing institution, including any Federal lending agenc , provided the payments under the contract aggregate $1,000 or more. All contracts which thus permit the assignment of claims thereunder will contain provisions as follows:

(1) "Any assignment shall cover all amounts payable under this contract and not already paid, and shall not be made to more than one party, except when any such assignment may be made to one party as agent or trustee for two or more parties participating in such financing."

(2) "Any claim under this contract which may be assigned may be subject to further assignment to a bank, trust company, or other financing institution, including any Federal lending agency, and to similar further assignment; provided that any such assignee shall file written notice of the further assignment together with a true copy of the instrument of further assignment with the contractor and also as provided in proviso 4 of section 1 of the Assignment of Claims Act of 1940 (Public No. 811—76th Congress) in respect of the original assignment."

(3) "No assignee shall divulge any information concerning the contract except to those persons concerned with the transaction."

(4) "Payment to an assignee of any claim arising under this contract shall not be subject to reduction or set-off for any indebtedness of the assignor to the United States arising independently of this contract."

(c) Classified contracts. Secret, confidential and restricted contracts shall contain a provision to the effect that "no claim under this contract shall be assigned" unless the omission of such provision is authorized by the chief of the supply service concerned, in which event the instructions contained herein relating to the assignment of claims will govern and the contract shall contain the following additional provisions:

(1) "In no event shall copies of any plans, specifications, or other similar documents marked 'secret' or 'confidential' and annexed or attached to this contract be furnished to any assignee of any claim arising under this contract or to any other person not entitled to receive the same."

(2) "The contractor agrees that he will obtain from the assignee an agreement signed by such assignee similar to that required by paragraph 50, AR 380–5. In such agreement the assignee shall also agree that, in case of further assignment, it will obtain a similar agreement from such assignee."

(d) Written notice. In case of an assignment, the party to whom the contract was assigned shall file written notice and a true copy of the assignment with the

(1) General Accounting Office.

(1) Upon the request of the contractor, contracting officers will furnish proposed assignees information regarding the status of the contract at the time of the assignment. In so doing, the contracting officer will advise the assignee that the information is so furnished only for confidential use in connection with the assignment.

(2) Indication of the assignment of claim and of any further assignment thereof and the name of the assignee will be made on all vouchers or invoices certified by the contractor.

§ 81.321 Advance payments—(a) General policy. Advance payments will be made to contractors upon their request in all cases where such action will facilitate the prosecution of the war, and provided that the Government will be adequately protected.

(b) Procedure. (1) Chiefs of supply services are authorized to approve the making of advance payments on contracts pertaining to their respective services when the amount of the contract (or the estimated amount in the case of a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract) is less than $5,000,000 and the amount of the advance payment is less than 50 per cent of the estimated amount of the contract. The chief of each supply service in his discretion is authorized to delegate all or part of this authority to contracting officers under his jurisdiction.

(2) Advance payments will be limited to 30 per cent of the contract price, except where:

(i) Special circumstances justify a larger advance, or

(3) Any advance authorized in excess of 30 per cent upon a contract entered into prior to December 27, 1941, will be under a supplemental agreement which contains provisions therefor made on or after said date.

(4) No advance payment will be made without there having been incorporated in the prime contract an approved advance payment contract provision or the execution of an advance payment supplemental agreement in an approved form. Deviation from the language of the approved articles or supplemental agreement forms is authorized when approved by the chief of the supply service concerned, if such deviation will expedite the prosecution of the war. However, a report of each major deviation will be furnished the Advance Payments and Loan Section, Fiscal Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply.

(5) Where a performance bond of a principal contract has been required and advance payments are provided for by supplemental agreement, or where an advance payment bond is furnished as additional security, the official authorized to approve the advance payments may use his discretion as to whether the actual making of such payments should be withheld pending the approval by The Judge Advocate General of a consent of surety on a pre-existing bond or his approval of the applicable advance payment bond.

(6) Advance payments in connection with letter contracts will be provided for by an approved supplemental agreement. There should be included in such agreement a clause relieving a subsequent performance surety of the fidelity risk involved in making advance payments in any case where it is contemplated that a performance bond will be required in connection with the more formal contract and where no advance payment bond has been required.

(7) Advance payments may be made under agreements of all kinds (whether contracts, letter contracts, letter purchase orders, or otherwise).

(8) Requests for advance payments in excess of 50 per cent of the contract price of any contract, and for advance payments on all contracts amounting to $5,000,000 or more, will be submitted by the chief of the supply service concerned to the Purchases Branch, Procurement and Distribution Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, for approval. The following information will be presented with each such request, together with the recommendation of the chief of the supply service concerned:

(3) War Department Contract Form No. 21 will be used in executing a supplemental agreement for advance payments with interest on cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts.

(4) War Department Contract Form No. 22 will be used in executing a supplemental agreement for advance payments with interest on a letter purchase order.

(5) The contract clause contained in § 81.348 will be used in providing for advance payments without interest on fixed-price contracts.

(6) War Department Contract Form No. 23 will be used for executing a supplemental agreement for advance payments without interest on fixed-price contracts.

(7) War Department Contract Form No. 24 will be used for executing a supplemental agreement for advance payments without interest on cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts.

(8) War Department Contract Form No. 25 will be used for executing a supplemental agreement for advance payments without interest on letter purchase orders.

(9) The contract clause contained in § 81.349 will be used in providing for advance payments on fixed-price contracts for critical machine tools.

(10) War Department Contract Form No. 26 will be used for executing a supplemental agreement for advance payments on fixed-price contracts for critical machine tools.

(d) Interest. (1) Except as set forth below, whenever an advance payment is made to a contractor by the War Department, a charge shall be made for the use of the Government money so furnished. The charge shall be in the nature of an interest charge computed, at convenient accounting periods, at the rate of two and one-half per cent per annum on the unliquidated balance of advance payments outstanding from time to time. In the case of a fixed-price contract, the amount of the charge shall be deducted from payments under the contract. In the case of a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract, the charge shall be deducted from the amount of the fee otherwise payable to the contractor, and shall not be an item of reimbursible cost under the contract.

(2) This charge shall not apply to:

(i) Contracts which provide that the work thereunder shall be performed at cost without profit or fee to the contractor.

(ii) Contracts entered into or contracts the terms of which had been agreed upon prior to April 11, 1942, to the extent that such application would be inconsistent with the terms of such contracts.

(iii) Advance payments up to 30 per cent of the contract price made to suppliers of critical machine tools.

(e) Advance payments to suppliers of critical machine tools. War Department contracts for critical machine tools will, if requested by the contractor, provide for advance payments of 30 per cent of the contract price, either in the terms of the contract or by supplemental agreement provided that the interest of the Government will be adequately protected. Supplemental agreements providing for similar advance payments on existing contracts for critical machine tools may be executed and approved upon proper request being made therefor.

(f) Reports. A quarterly report should be rendered by January 14, April 14, July 14, and October 14, of each year, setting forth the status of all contracts on which there are outstanding advance payments. A special statement should be included in the report as to any contracts with respect to which the completion of the contract and liquidation of the advance payment appears to be doubtful, together with the steps being taken to protect that advance payment. If at any time between such quarterly reports it appears doubtful that a contractor to whom an advance payment has been made will complete the contract, a report should be rendered to the Advance Payment and Loan Section, Fiscal Division, Headquarters, Services of Supply, immediately, including the facts in the case and the steps being taken to protect the advance payment.

MANDATORY AND OPTIONAL CONTRACT PROVISIONS

§ 81.322 Officials not to benefit clause. Every contract, regardless of subject matter or amount, will contain the following clause without deviation:

Officials not to benefit. Covenant against contingent fees. The Contractor warrants that he has not employed any person to solicit or secure his contract upon any agreement for a commission, percentage, brokerage, or contingent fee. This warranty shall not apply to commissions, payable by contractors upon contracts or sales secured or made through bona fide established commercial or selling agencies maintained by the Contractor for the purpose of securing business.

§ 81.324 Termination for convenience of the Government. (a) Every lump-sum supply contract, regardless of subject matter or amount, will contain the following clause:

Termination for convenience of the Government. (a) Should conditions arise which, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, make it desirable that this contract be terminated, the Government may, at any time, terminate this contract in whole or in part by a notice in writing from the Contracting Officer to the Contractor that the contract is terminated under this Article. Such termination shall be effective in the manner and upon the date specified in said notice and shall be without prejudice to any claims which the Government may have against the Contractor, or any claims which the Contractor may have against the Government. Upon receipt of such notice the Contractor shall (1) unless the Contracting Officer directs otherwise, discontinue all work and the placing of all orders for materials and facilities in conection with performance of this contract, cancel all existing orders chargeable to this contract, and terminate all subcontracts chargeable to this contract; (2) transfer to the Government, by delivery f. o. b. ---------- ----------, or by such other means as the Contracting Officer may direct, title to all completed supplies (including spare parts, drawings, information, and other things) called for herein, not previously delivered, and partially completed supplies, work in process, materials, fabricated parts, plans, drawings, and information acquired or produced by the Contractor for the performance of this contract; and (3) take such action as may be necessary to secure to the Government the benefits of any rights remaining in the Contractor under orders or subcontracts wholly or partially chargeable to this contract to the extent that such orders or subcontracts are so chargeable.

(b) The Government shall, upon such termination of this contract, pay to the contractor the contract price of all supplies (including spare parts, drawings, information, and other things) called for herein which have been completed in accordance with the provisions of this contract and to which title has been received by the Government under the provisions of paragraph (a) (2) of this article and for which payment has not previously been made.

(c) The Government shall also, in the above events, compensate the Contractor for the uncompleted portion of the Contract as follows:

(1) By reimbursing the Contractor for all actual expenditures certified by the Contracting Officer as having been made with respect to the uncompleted portion of the contract;

(2) By reimbursing the Contractor for all expenditures made with the prior written approval of the Contracting Officer in settling or discharging that portion of the outstanding obligations or commitments of the Contractor which had been incurred or entered into with respect to the uncompleted portion of the contract; and

(3) By paying the Contractor, as a profit on the uncompleted portion of the contract, in so far as a profit is realized hereunder, a sum to be computed by the Contracting Officer in the following manner:

(A) The Contracting Officer shall estimate the profit which would have been realized on the uncompleted portion of the contract if the contract had been completed and labor and material costs prevailing at the date of termination had remained in effect.

(B) Estimate, from a consideration of all relevant factors, the percentage of completion of the uncompleted portion of the contract.

(C) Multiply the anticipated profit determined under (A) by the percentage determined under (B). The result is the amount to be paid to the Contractor as a proportionate share of profit, if any, as above provided.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, no compensation shall be paid under this Paragraph (c) by way of reimbursement for expenditure, including expenditures made in settling or discharging obligations or commitments, or by way of profit on account of supplies and other things which are undeliverable because of destruction or damage, whether or not because of the fault of the contractor.

(d) Subject to the approval of the Contracting Officer, the Government shall reimburse the Contractor for expenditures made and cost incurred after the date of termination for the protection of Government property and for such other expenditures and costs as may be necessary in connection with the settlement of this contract.

(e) The obligation of the Government to make any of the payments required by this Article shall be subject to any unsettled claim for labor or material and to any claim which the Government may have against the Contractor under or in connection with this contract, and payments under this Article shall be subject to reasonable deductions by the Contracting Officer on account of defects in the materials or workmanship of completed or partially completed supplies delivered hereunder.

(f) The sum of all amounts payable under this Article, plus the sum of all amounts previously paid under this contract, shall not exceed the total contract price, adjusted in the event that this contract contains an article providing for price adjustment, on the basis of the estimate of the Contracting Officer, to the extent which would have been required by such article if this contract had been completed and labor and materials costs prevailing at the date of termination had remained in effect.

(g) Should the above provisions of this Article not result in payment to the Contractor of at least $100, then that amount shall be paid to the Contractor in lieu of any and all payments hereinbefore provided for in this Article.

(h) Any disputes arising out of termination under this Article shall be decided in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Article 12 of this contract.

(i) Upon the making of the payments called for by this Article, all obligations of the Government to make further payments or to carry out other undertakings hereunder shall cease forthwith and forever, except that all rights and obligations of the respective parties under the Articles, if any, of this contract applicable to patent infringements and reproduction rights shall remain in full force and effect.

(b) Every lump-sum construction contract, regardless of subject matter or amount, will contain the following clause without deviation:

ARTICLE * * * Termination for convenience of the Government. (a) The Government may terminate this contract in whole or in part at any time by a notice in writing from the Contracting Officer to the Contractor, specifying the date upon which such termination shall become effective and the extent to which the performance of such contract shall be terminated. Termination shall be effective upon the date and to the extent specified in said notice.

(b) Upon receipt of the notice of termination the Contractor shall except insofar as the notice directs otherwise with respect to this contract, or, in the event of partial termination, with respect to the part thereof covered by the notice:

(1) Discontinue all work and the placing of all orders for materials and facilities otherwise required for the performance thereof;

(2) Cancel all existing orders and subcontracts to the extent such orders and subcontracts are chargeable to the performance thereof;

(3) Transfer to the Government, in accordance with the directions of the Contracting Officer, all materials, supplies, work in process, facilities, equipment, machinery or tools acquired by the Contractor in connection with the performance thereof, and all plans, drawings, working drawings, sketches, specifications and information for use in connection therewith: Provided, That the Contractor may retain any such equipment, machinery and tools if he so elects and will forego reimbursement thereon.

(4) Take such action as may be necessary to secure to the Government the benefits of any rights remaining in the Contractor under orders or subcontracts chargeable thereto to the extent that such orders or subcontracts are so chargeable;

(5) Take such action as the Contracting Officer may prescribe for the protection and preservation of all property in the possession or control of the Contractor, title to which is transferable to the Government under the provisions of this article. Should the notice of termination cover only a portion of this contract the Contractor will proceed to completion of such portions as are not terminated.

(c) Upon compliance by the Contractor with the above provisions of this Article and subject to deductions for payments previously made, the Government shall compensate the Contractor as follows:

(1) By reimbursing the Contractor for all actual expenditures certified by the Contracting Officer as having been made with respect to this contract, including expenditures made in connection with any portions of the contract which may have been completed prior to termination, as well as expenditures made after termination in completing those portions of the contract which the Contractor may have been required by the notice of termination to complete.

(2) By reimbursing the Contractor for all expenditures made with the prior written approval of the Contracting Officer in settling or discharging any outstanding contractual obligations or commitments incurred or entered into by the Contractor with respect to this contract;

(3) By paying the Contractor, as a profit on this contract, insofar as a profit is realized hereunder, an amount to be computed by the Contracting Officer in the following manner:

(A) Estimate the profit which would have been realized on this contract if the contract had been completed and labor and material costs prevailing at the date of terminations had remained in effect.

(B) Estimate, from a consideration of all relevant factors, the percentage of completion of the contract including any work performed after termination. In estimating the percentage of completion, the Contracting Officer shall estimate the percentage of the total work required by the contract which the work actually accomplished represents.

(C) Multiply the profit determined under (A) by the percentage determined under (B) The product is the amount to be paid the Contractor as profit.

(d) Subject to the approval of the Contracting Officer, the Government shall reimburse the Contractor for expenditures made and costs incurred after the date of termination for the protection of Government property and for such other expenditures and costs as may be necessary in connection with the settlement of this contract.

(e) The obligation of the Government to make any of the payments required by this Article shall be subject to any unsettled claim for labor or material and to any claim which the Government may have against the Contractor under or in connection with this contract, and payments under this Article shall be subject to reasonable deductions by the Contracting Officer on account of defects in materials or workmanship.

(f) The sum of all amounts payable under this Article, plus the sum of all amounts previously paid under this contract, shall not exceed the total contract price, adjusted in the event that this contract contains an article providing for price adjustment, on the basis of the estimate of the Contracting Officer, to the extent which would have been required by such article if this contract had been completed and labor and materials costs prevailing at the date of termination had remained in effect.

(g) Should the above provisions of this Article not result in payment to the Contractor of at least $100, then that amount shall be paid to the contractor in lieu of any and all payments hereinbefore provided for in this Article.

(h) Any disputes arising out of termination under this Article shall be decided in accordance with the procedure prescribed in Article ------ of this contract.

(i) Upon the making of the payments called for by this Article, all obligations of the Government to make further payments or to carry out other undertakings hereunder shall cease forthwith and forever, except that all rights and obligations of the respective parties under the Articles, if any, of this contract applicable to patent infringements and reproduction rights shall remain in full force and effect.

For the purpose of this article, a subcontract is defined as any contract entered into by the contractor with any individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate, or trust, or other business enterprise or other legal entity, for a specific part of the work to be performed in connection with the supplies furnished under this contract: Provided, however, That a contract for the furnishing of standard or commercial articles or raw material shall not be considered as a sub-contract.

The provisions of this article shall not apply with respect to articles, materials, or supplies for use outside the United States, or if articles, materials, or supplies of the class or kind to be used, or the articles, materials, or supplies from which they are manufactured are not mined, produced, or manufactured, as the case may be, in the United States in sufficient and reasonably available commercial quantities and of a satisfactory quality.

When authorized by the purchasing and contracting officer, such notice may be sent by air mail, in lieu of telegraph or teletype, where secrecy is essential and where the use of air mail is practicable. This provision is not to be substituted for any other requirement, such as mailing bills of lading.

§ 81.329 Variation in quantities. In those cases where it is desired to accept over or under deliveries due to manufacturing processes, etc., contracts may contain the following clause:

Variation in quantities. Unless otherwise specified, any variation in the quantities herein called for, not exceeding 10 percent, will be accepted as a compliance with the contract, when caused by conditions of loading, shipping, packing, or allowances in manufacturing processes, and payments shall be adjusted accordingly.

§ 81.330 Partial payments in an amount not to exceed 75% of cost to the contractor. In those cases where it is contemplated that partial payments in an amount not to exceed 75 per cent of the cost to the contractor of the property will be made, the contract will contain the following clause:

Partial payments. Partial payments, which are hereby defined as payments prior to delivery, on work in progress for the Government under this contract, may be made upon the following terms and conditions.

(a) The Contracting Officer may, from time to time, authorize partial payment to the Contractor upon property acquired or produced by it for the performance of this contract: Provided, That such partial payments shall not exceed 75 per cent of the cost to the Contractor of the property upon which payment is made, which cost shall be determined from evidence submitted by the Contractor and which must be such as is satisfactory to the Contracting Officer: Provided further, That in no event shall the total of unliquidated partial payments (see (c) below) and of unliquidated advance payments, if any, made under this contract, exceed 80 per cent of the total contract price of supplies still to be delivered.

(b) The title to all property upon which any partial payment is made prior to the completion of this contract shall vest in the Government in its then condition forthwith upon the making of any such partial payment or payments: Provided, That nothing herein shall deprive the Contractor of any further partial or final payments due or to become due hereunder; nor relieve the Contractor or the Government of any of their respective rights or obligations under this contract.

(c) In making payment for the supplies furnished hereunder, there shall be deducted from the contract price therefor a proportionate amount of the partial payments theretofore made to the Contractor, under the authority herein contained.

§ 81.331 Partial payments in an amount not to exceed 90 per cent of direct labor and material cost to the contractor. In those cases where it is contemplated that partial payments in an amount not to exceed 90 per cent of the direct labor and material cost to the contractor will be made, the contract will contain the following clause:

Partial payments. Partial payments, which are hereby defined as payments prior to delivery, on work in progress for the Government under this contract, may be made upon the following terms and conditions:

(b) The title to all property upon which any partial payment is made prior to the completion of this contract shall vest in the Government in its then condition forthwith upon the making of any such partial payment or payments: Provided, That nothing herein shall deprive the Contractor of any further partial or final payments due or to become due hereunder; nor relieve the Contractor or the Government of any of their respective rights or obligations under this contract.

(c) In making payment for the supplies furnished hereunder, there shall be deducted from the contract price therefor a proportionate amount of the partial payments theretofore made to the Contractor, under the authority herein contained.

§ 81.332 Government-owned facilities clause. In those cases where the contractor is to procure necessary facilities for the account of the Government for use in connection with the work under the contract, and in those cases where the Government furnishes the contractor new facilities which the Government has acquired or will acquire directly, the contract will contain the following clause:

Government-owned facilities. (a) In connection with its work under this contract, the Contractor shall acquire or manufacture for the Government's account the facilities listed in Schedule "A", attached hereto. Upon the inspection and approval of the Contracting Officer and upon the Contractor's furnishing of satisfactory evidence of payment therefor by him, the Government shall reimburse the Contractor for the cost of such facilities, which are presently estimated at the amounts stated therefor in said Schedule "A", or such larger amounts as the Contracting Officer may approve in writing in the event the actual costs exceed such estimated costs. *(The Government shall furnish to the Contractor, for his use at his plant at ----------, the facilities listed in Schedule "B", attached hereto, and not later than the dates shown therein. The cost of installation of such facilities shall be borne by the Contractor.)

(b) As each items of the facilities listed in Schedule "A" is delivered to, or manufactured by, the Contractor, for the Government's account, it shall become and remain the property of the Government, and title thereto shall vest in the Government. *(All of the facilities listed in Schedule "B" are the property of the Government, and title to them is, and shall remain, in the Government.) The Government hereby grants to the Contractor the right to use, without the payment of rental therefor, such facilities in connection with the work herein contracted for and, subject to the written approval of the Contracting Officer, for any additional work for which the Government may contract. The Contractor agrees at its own expense to keep such facilities in good operating condition and repair and to make all necessary repairs and replacements thereof.

(c) Each item of such facilities shall be suitably marked with an identifying mark or symbol, indicating that such item is the property of the Government. Upon the completion of the installation of all such facilities, the Contractor shall submit to the Contracting Officer a detailed inventory list of such facilities, including a description of the identifying mark or symbol on each item thereof.

(d) The Government shall not be responsible for damages to property of the Contractor or for personal injuries to the Contractor's officers, agents, servants or employees, or other persons on the premises as invitees or licensees of the Contractor, arising from or incident to the use of the facilities, and the Contractor shall save the Government harmless from any and all such claims: Provided, That nothing in this paragraph shall be deemed to affect any liability of the Government to its own employees.

(e) The ---------- or his
duly authorized representative shall, at all times, have access to the Contractor's building or buildings, wherein any of the facilities are situated, for the purpose of inspecting or inventorying such facilities or of removing them upon the completion or termination of this contract, subject to the provisions of paragraphs (g) and (h) hereof.

Violation of the provisions of this paragraph or of paragraph (b) shall entitle the Government forthwith to enter upon the premises of the Contractor and remove the facilities therefrom.

(g) Within one year after the completion or termination of this contract or any other contract entered into between the Government and the Contractor for the performance of which such facilities will be used, the Government may serve on the Contractor a written notice of its intention to remove such facilities from the Contractor's plant. Within ninety (90) days after receipt of such notice the Contractor shall dismantle and prepare the facilities for shipment at its own expense, and thereupon the Government shall remove the facilities from the Contractor's plant at the Government's expense.

(h) During the period prior to the receipt of such notice or the expiration of one year after the completion or termination of this contract, whichever happens first, the Contractor shall retain such facilities in its plant, and when directed by the Contracting Officer, and subject to the availability of appropriate funds, place and maintain all such facilities in stand-by condition. Upon the presentation of duly certified invoices or vouchers therefor, and after approval of such invoices or vouchers by the Contracting Officer, the Government shall pay to the Contractor all expenses incurred by it as a result of placing and maintaining such special equipment in such stand-by condition, but such expense shall not exclude any charge for storage. In the event that the Contracting Officer does not, within said one-year period, direct the return of said facilities, the Contractor shall have the right to require the Government promptly to remove said facilities in a neat and workmanlike manner.

NOTE 1: An option to the contractor to purchase the facilities upon the completion or termination of the contract or succeeding contracts may be included as an additional paragraph (i) of the clause if, in the opinion of the chief of supply service concerned, such inclusion is desirable in the interests o the Government.

NOTE 2: In those cases where it is determined that a rental should be charged, the next to the last sentence of paragraph (b) of the clause should be deleted and the following inserted in lieu thereof: "The contractor agrees to pay the Government rental as follows:

§ 81.338 Plant protection clauses. In those cases where the Contracting Officer deems it necessary to retain some control as to the plant protective devices in a particular plant, the contract will contain one of the following clauses:

Plant protection. The Contractor shall maintain in and about his plant adequate plant protective devices and shall employ such watchmen, guards and other personnel as the Contracting Officer may deem necessary to prevent espionage, sabotage, and other malicious destruction or damage.

Plant protection. (a) The Contractor shall at his own expense at all times during the term of this contract continue all such precautions, for the guarding and protection of its plant, property, and the work in process, as have immediately prior to the date of this contract been taken by it, and shall make available such information with respect thereto as the Contracting Officer may request.

(b) At any time during the term of this contract the Contracting Officer may require the Contractor to install and maintain in and about its plant additional protective equipment and personnel; and the Contractor shall promptly submit to said Contracting Officer detailed inventories, showing each item and the cost thereof, of any protective equipment so required and installed, and detailed statements of the cost of maintaining any personnel so required and maintained. Title to said protective equipment shall be in the Contractor. The Contractor shall at its own expense during the term of this contract maintain and keep in good condition and repair (for use in the performance of this contract) any protective equipment so required and installed, and, to the extent that, during said term, any of said protective equipment shall be lost, damaged, broken, worn out or destroyed, and/or otherwise require replacement, shall at its own expense make such replacement. The said Contracting Officer and authorized plant inspection personnel of the War Department shall at all times during the term of this contract have access to the Contractor's plant and the right to inspect and inventory said protective equipment. The contract price will be adjusted by an amount equal to the reasonable cost (as determined by the said Contracting Officer) of any additional protective equipment or personnel so required to be installed or maintained, less the value (as determined by the said Contracting Officer) of said additional protective equipment at the completion or termination of this contract.

(c) The Contractor agrees to insert in each subcontract made in connection with the performance of this contract an article identical with the foregoing paragraphs (a) and (b), except that in place of the words "Contracting Officer" in paragraph (a), shall appear the words "United States Government, acting through the Contracting Officer in Contract No. _____".

(d) This contract shall be modified in writing to increase the amount due the Contractor hereunder to the extent of any payments made by the Contractor to the Subcontractor under any subcontractual provision inserted pursuant to paragraph (c) hereof.

(e) For the purpose of this article, a subcontract is defined as any contract or agreement entered into between the Contractor and any other party, for the performance of all or any part of the work called for under this contract.

§ 81.339 Price adjustment for increase in freight rates. In appropriate cases, contracts may contain the following clause:

Price adjustment for increase in freight rates. If after the date of the bid, or in the case of a contract not entered into pursuant to a bid after the date of the award, the Interstate Commerce Commission shall authorize an increase in freight rates upon the materials set out below, which are used in the production of the supplies covered by this contract, and if the contractor is required to pay increased freight rates on such materials (either by payment to the carrier or because the increased freight charges are added to the price paid by the contractor for the materials) in order to perform the contract, the prices named herein will be increased accordingly, and the amount due the contractor as a result of such increase will be charged to the Government and entered on vouchers (or invoices) as a separate item: Provided, That the contractor shall not be entitled to receive payment for any such increase unless he submits such evidence as may be required by the contracting officer with respect to the increased freight charges borne by the contractor.

§ 81.340 Clauses for rental of gas cylinders. Every contract for the purchase of gas to be delivered in cylinders will contain one of the following clauses:

Rental of gas cylinders (individual basis). Cylinders shall remain the property of the contractor and will be loaned, without charge, to the Government for a period of 30 days after the date of shipment of cylinders from the contractor's plant. Beginning with the first day after the expiration of the 30-day free loan period to and including the day the cylinders are released to the transportation company for return to the contractor, there will be charged and the United States agrees to pay the contractor a rental at the rate of $_____ per cylinder per day for the use of cylinders not returned to the contractor.

Rental of gas cylinders (quantity basis). Cylinders shall remain the property of the contractor and will be loaned, without charge, to the Government for a period of 30 days after the date of shipment of cylinders from the contractor's plant. Beginning with the first day after the expiration of the 30-day free loan period to and including the day the cylinders are released to the transportation company for return to the contractor, there will be charged and the United States agrees to pay the contractor a rental at the rate of $_____ per cylinder per day, computed on a quantity basis, as indicated below, for the use of cylinders not returned to the contractor. This rental charge will be computed separately for oxygen and acetylene cylinders and for each point of delivery named in the contract. A credit of 30 cylinder days will accrue for each cylinder shipped. A debit of one cylinder day will accrue for each cylinder for each day held beginning with the day after date of shipment from contractor's plant to and including the day the cylinder is released to the transportation company for return to the contractor. At the end of the contract period, in the event the total number of debits exceeds the total number of credits, rental will be charged for the difference. If the total number of credits equals or exceeds the total number of debits, no charge will be made for the use of the cylinders.

All cylinders not returned to the contractor on or before the expiration of a 90-day rental period or lost or damaged beyond repair while in the possession of the United States Government shall be paid for by the United States to the contractor at a replacement value of $_____ for each oxygen cylinder of 100 to 110 cubic feet capacity, $_____ for each oxygen cylinder of 200 to 220 cubic feet capacity, $_____ for each acetylene cylinder of 100 to 150 cubic feet capacity, and $_____ for each acetylene cylinder of 250 to 300 cubic feet capacity.

Cylinders retained or lost and so paid for shall be considered the property of the United States. But if and when located they may, at the option of the Government, be returned to the contractor, and, in such event, credit shall be allowed to the Government at the replacement value paid, less rental at the rate of $_____ per day beginning at the expiration of the 30-day loan period as aforesaid to the date upon which cylinders are turned over to carrier for return to contractor's plant.

§ 81.341 Redetermination of price clause. The following price redetermination clause will be used in those cases where it is desired to provide for an automatic redetermination of the price:

Redetermination of price. The parties hereto recognize that, because of circumstances beyond their control, accurate estimates of the cost of performing this contract cannot be made within a reasonable time. Accordingly, they agree that the price stated in Article 1 shall be redetermined as provided below, upon the basis of the actual experience of the Contractor in performing part of his contract. Such redetermination of the price shall be made as follows:

(a) The estimated cost of performing this contract, upon which the price stated in Article 1, is based, is $_____, itemized as follows:*

A. Factory Cost:
1. Direct materials.
2. Direct productive labor.
3. Direct engineering labor.
4. Miscellaneous direct factory charges.
5. Indirect factory expenses (State basis of allocation). Total Factory Cost.
B. Other manufacturing cost.
C. Miscellaneous direct expenses.
D. Indirect engineering expenses.
E. Expenses of distribution, servicing and administration.
F. Guarantee expenses.

(b) It is agreed that the cost of production of the first _____ % of items called for hereunder, hereafter referred to as the "preliminary run" will not necessarily be typical for the remainder of the contract. The cost of production of the next _____ %, hereafter referred to as the "test run" shall be used as the general basis for redetermination. Within _____ days after the completion of the production of the "test run", the Contractor shall submit to the Contracting Officer separate statements of the actual cost of the production of the "preliminary run" and the "test run", itemized in the same way as the estimated cost states above. Such statement shall be based upon the cost accounting system regularly utilized by the Contractor and certified as correct by an independent public accountant or by two officers of the Contractor. The Contractor shall submit his books and accounts to such examination and audit as shall be requested by the Contracting Officer.

(c) If the actual cost of production of the preliminary run plus the cost of the production of the remainder of the items called for by the contract, as indicated by the actual cost of production of the "test run", is less than the total estimated cost stated in paragraph (a), the total price to be paid pursuant to Article 1 shall be reduced in the same ratio.

(d) Pending the redetermination of the price hereunder, all items delivered shall be paid for at the price set forth in Article 1. Upon the redetermination of such price hereunder, an amount equal to the difference between the price paid on all items theretofore delivered and such redetermined price for such items shall be applied by the contractor as a credit against payment for subsequent deliveries, or shall be applied or returned to the Government as directed by the Contracting Officer.

(e) If this contract contains an escalator clause (Price Adjustment) notwithstanding any provisions of such escalator clause which may be inconsistent herewith, that clause shall be understood to relate only to that portion of the production under the contract which is not covered by the statements of actual cost required by paragraph (b) of this article. The blanks in the escalator clause will be filled in at the time of redetermination hereunder, and the month in which the redetermination is made shall be taken as the base month for such escalator clause and the estimated labor costs and the estimated material costs shall include only such costs as are not reflected in the actual cost statements. For this reason the blanks in the escalator clause were not filled in at the time of the execution of this contract.

§ 81.342 Renegotiation of price clause. The following price renegotiation clause will be used in those cases where it is desired or necessary to renegotiate the price in good faith:

Renegotiation of price. (a) The Contractor represents that the contract price provided in Article _____ is based upon a total estimated cost of $_____ itemized as follows:*

A. Factory Cost:
1. Direct materials.
2. Direct productive labor.
3. Direct engineering labor.
4. Miscellaneous direct factory charge.
5. Indirect factory expenses (State basis of allocation). Total Factory Cost.
B. Other manufacturing cost.
C. Miscellaneous direct expenses.
D. Indirect engineering expenses.
E. Expenses of distribution, servicing and administration.
F. Guarantee expenses.

(b) Within _____ days after the completion of the production of _____% of the items called for under this contract, the Contractor shall submit to the Contracting Officer a statement of the actual cost of the production of said percentage, itemized in the same way as the estimated cost stated above. Such statement shall be based upon the cost accounting system regularly utilized by the Contractor and certified as correct by an independent public accountant or by two officers of the Contractor. The Contractor shall submit his books and accounts to such examination and audit as shall be requested by the Contracting Officer.

(c) Upon the written request of either party, which request shall be made within _____ days after the filing of the statement required by paragraph (b) hereof, the Contracting Officer and the Contractor will enter into negotiations and will attempt to agree upon a modification of the contract.

(d) Pending the renegotiation of the price hereunder, all items delivered shall be paid for at the price set forth in Article 1. Upon the renegotiation of the price hereunder, an amount equal to the difference between the price paid on all items theretofore delivered and such renegotiated price for such items, if in the Government's favor, shall be applied by the Contractor as a credit against payment for subsequent deliveries, or shall be applied or returned to the Government as directed by the Contracting Officer; if in the Contractor's favor, it shall be paid by the Government on a separate invoice or voucher.

(e) If this contract contains an escalator clause (Price Adjustment) the figures set forth therein and the terms thereof shall be controlling in the absence of a modification of the contract under this article. In the event of such a modification, the escalator clause shall be so modified as to relate only to that portion of the production under the contract which is not covered by the statement of actual cost required by paragraph (b) of this article. In modifying the provisions of the escalator clause, the month in which the renegotiation occurs shall be taken as the base month, and the estimated labor costs and the estimated material costs shall include only such costs as are not reflected in the actual cost statement submitted under paragraph (b) hereof.

§ 81.343 Rate of wages clause. All contracts subject to the Davis-Bacon Act will contain the following clause without deviation:

Rate of wages. (In accordance with the act of August 30, 1935, 49 Stat. 1011, as amended by the act of June 15, 1940, 54 Stat. 399 (U. S. Code, 1934, ed., title 40, secs. 276a and 276a–1), this article shall apply if the contract is in excess of $2,000 in amount and is for the construction, alteration, and/or repair, including painting and decorating, of a public building or public work within the geographical limits of the States of the Union, the Territory of Alaska, the Territory of Hawaii, or the District of Columbia.)

(a) The contractor or his subcontractor shall pay all mechanics and laborers employed directly upon the site of the work, unconditionally and not less often than once a week, and without subsequent deduction or rebate on any account, the full amounts accrued at time of payment, computed at wage rates not less than those stated in the specifications, regardless of any contractual relationship which may be alleged to exist between the contractor or subcontractor and such laborers and mechanics; and the scale of wages to be paid shall be posted by the contractor in a prominent and easily accessible place at the site of the work. The contracting officer shall have the right to withhold from the contractor so much of accrued payments as may be considered necessary by the contracting officer to pay to laborers and mechanics employed by the contractor or any subcontractor on the work the difference between the rates of wages required by the contract to be paid laborers and mechanics on the work and the rates of wages received by such laborers and mechanics and not refunded to the contractor, subcontractors, or their agents.

(b) In the event it is found by the contracting officer that any laborer or mechanic employed by the contractor or any subcontractor directly on the site of the work covered by the contract has been or is being paid a rate of wages less than the rate of wages required by the contract to be paid as aforesaid, the Government may, by written notice to the contractor, terminate his right to proceed with the work or such part of the work as to which there has been a failure to pay said required wages and prosecute the work to completion by contract or otherwise, and the contractor and his sureties shall be liable to the Government for any excess costs occasioned the Government thereby.

(c) The regulations of the Secretary of Labor, referred to in article 19 hereof, allow certain "permissible deductions" from the wages required by this article to be paid.

§ 81.344 Nonrebate of wages clause. All contracts subject to the Copeland "Kick-back" Act will contain the following clause without deviation:

Nonrebate of wages. The contractor shall comply with the regulations of the Secretary of Labor pursuant to the Act of June 13, 1934, 48 Stat. 948 (U. S. Code, title 40, secs. 276b and 276c), and any amendments or modifications thereof, shall cause appropriate provisions to be inserted in subcontracts to insure compliance therewith by all subcontractors subject thereto, and shall be responsible for the submission of affidavits required of subcontractors thereunder, except as the Secretary of Labor may specifically provide for reasonable limitations, variations, tolerances, and exemptions from the requirements thereof.

§ 81.345 Convict labor. All contracts subject to the prohibitions against use or employment of convict labor will contain the following clause without deviation:

Convict labor. The contractor shall not employ any person undergoing sentence of imprisonment at hard labor, nor knowingly use any materials manufactured or produced in a penal or correctional institution.

*This breakdown may be altered to suit particular circumstances.

State separately the estimated amount of each of the following items included: (a) Normal depreciation, (b) Special amortization.

§ 81.346 Eight-hour law. All contracts subject to the provisions of the Eight-Hour Law of 1912 will contain the following clause without deviation:

Eight-hour law. No laborer or mechanic doing any part of the work contemplated by this contract, in the employ of the contractor or any subcontractor contracting for any part of said work contemplated, shall be required or permitted to work more than 8 hours in any one calendar day upon such work at the site thereof, except upon the condition that compensation is paid to such laborer or mechanic in accordance with the provisions of this article. The wages of every laborer and mechanic employed by the contractor or any subcontractor engaged in the performance of this contract shall be computed on a basic day rate of 8 hours per day and work in excess of 8 hours per day is permitted only upon the condition that every such laborer and mechanic shall be compensated for all hours worked in excess of 8 hours per day at not less than one and one-half times the basic rate of pay. For each violation of the requirements of this article a penalty of $5 shall be imposed upon the contractor for each laborer or mechanic for every calendar day in which such employee is required or permitted to labor more than 8 hours upon said work without receiving compensation computed in accordance with this article, and all penalties thus imposed shall be withheld for the use and benefit of the Government: Provided, That this stipulation shall be subject in all respects to the exceptions and provisions of U. S. Code, title 40, sections 321, 324, 325, and 326, relating to hours of labor, as in part modified by the provisions of section 5 (b) of Public Act No. 671, 75th Congress, approved June 28, 1940, and Section 303 of Public Act No. 781, 76th Congress, approved September 9, 1940, relating to compensation for overtime.

§ 81.347 Advance payments with interest. The following clause will be included in fixed-price contracts when it is contemplated that advance payments with interest will be made thereon:

Advance payments. (a) At any time and from time to time, after the approval of this contract, at the request of the Contractor and subject to the approval of the ---------- (Chief of supply
-------- or his duly authorized representative)
tive, or of the person to whom authority has been delegated to make advance payments, as to the present need therefor, the Government shall advance to the Contractor sums not to exceed ---------- or (Insert amount of advance payment)
-------- per centum (------%) of the contract price, as it may be amended, whichever shall be the smaller. On the unliquidated balance of the advance payments outstanding, the Contractor agrees to pay interest at the rate of two and one-half per cent per annum to be computed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (f).

(b) As a condition precedent to the making of any advance payment or payments as hereinbefore provided, the Contractor shall furnish the Government with such adequate security as the Under Secretary of War or the person to whom authority has been delegated to make advance payments shall prescribe: Provided, That, if other security is not prescribed, the terms of this contract shall be considered adequate security for such advance payments: Provided further That, if at any time the Under Secretary of War deems the security furnished by the Contractor inadequate, the Contractor shall furnish such additional security as shall be satisfactory to the Under Secretary of War.

(c) Until all advance payments hereunder are liquidated, all funds received as advance payments under this contract together with
---------- Per cent (----------%) (Insert per cent to be deposited which shall be not less than 75% of all other cash payments under this contract, shall be deposited in a special bank account or accounts at a member bank or banks of the Federal Reserve System separate from the Contractor's general or other funds. Such special bank account or accounts shall be so designated as to indicate clearly to the bank their special character and purpose, and the balances in such account or accounts shall be used by the Contractor exclusively as a revolving fund for carrying out the purposes of this contract (including reimbursement to the Contractor for any reasonable amounts expended by him for such purposes), and any amendments thereto, and not for the other business of the Contractor: Provided, That for the purpose of determining proper disposition of funds hereunder such of the Contractor's costs as may not be directly allocable to this contract, as it may be amended, may be charged against funds deposited in the special account in that proportion which the amount of work being done under this contract, as it may be amended, approximately bears to the total amount of work being performed by the Contractor, out of which such costs also arise, but within the period to which such costs relate. When required by the
---------- or his duly authorized
representative, or any other person to whom authority to make advance payments has been delegated, withdrawals from special account or accounts shall be made subject to the prior written approval of the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative. Any balances from time to time in such special account or accounts shall secure the repayment of the advances in connection with which the special account or accounts are opened, and the Government shall have a lien upon such balances to secure the repayment of such advances which lien shall be superior to any lien of the bank or any other person upon such account or accounts by virtue of assignment to it of such contract or otherwise: Provided, That the bank shall be under no liability to any party hereto for the withdrawal of any funds from said special account upon checks, properly endorsed and signed by the Contractor, except that after the receipt by the bank of written directions from the ---------- or his duly authorized representative, the bank shall act thereon and be under no liability to any party hereto for any action taken in accordance with the said written directions. Any instructions or written directions received by the bank through the Contracting Officer upon War Department stationery and purporting to be signed by, or by the direction of, the ---------- or his duly authorized representative shall, insofar as the rights, duties, and liabilities of the bank are concerned, be conclusively deemed to have been properly issued and filed with the bank by the ---------- or his duly authorized representative.
(Chief of supply service)
(Chief of supply service)

(d) If, upon the completion of the contract, or upon its termination for other than the fault of the contractor, the advance payments made to the contractor have not been fully liquidated in the manner herein provided, the unliquidated balance of such advance payments shall be deducted from any payments otherwise due the contractor, and if the sum or sums due the contractor be insufficient to cover such balance, the deficiency shall be paid by the contractor in cash forthwith after demand and final audit by the Government of all accounts hereunder. In the event of cancellation or termination of this contract because of the fault of the contractor, the contractor agrees to return to the Government, upon demand, without set-off of any sums alleged to be due the contractor, the unliquidated balance of any advanced payment. Furthermore, if in the opinion of the ----------
(Chief of supply service)
or his duly authorized representative, the unobligated balance of the advance payments made by the Government under paragraph (a) hereof exceeds the amount necessary for the current needs of the contractor, as determined by the---------- (Chief of supply service)
or his duly authorized representative the amount of such excess shall, upon demand made by the ---------- or his duly authorized representative be promptly returned to the Government and will be credited against the balance due the Government on advances previously made. If the demand made in any event set forth in this subparagraph is not met upon receipt of such demand by the contractor, the amount demanded will bear interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) rather than two and one-half per cent (2½%) per annum from the date of the receipt of the demand until payment is made: Provided, however, That such additional interest over and above the regular two and one-half per cent is hereby waived as to any sum paid by the contractor within 15 days after the amount becomes due hereunder.

(e) Except as otherwise provided herein, liquidation of the principal of any advance payment or advance payments made to the contractor hereunder shall be made by means of direct repayment by the contractor from his own free funds or from the special account or by deductions of -------- per cent
(Per cent of advance authorized)
from any and all payments made by the Government under this contract: Provided, That if at any time, as a result of amendments to the contract or otherwise, the unliquidated balance of the principal of advance payments made exceeds -------- per cent of the contract price of units still to be delivered under the contract, the amount of such excess shall upon demand of the
(Per cent of advance authorized)
---------- or his duly authorized
representative be promptly returned to the Government by withdrawal from the special account or otherwise, or if not so returned, shall be deducted from any and all payments to be made by the Government under the contract: Provided further, That, if and when the contractor has, by means of deductions or otherwise, reimbursed the Government in full for payments made, any money remaining in the special bank account or accounts shall be free and clear of any lien hereunder and the bank or banks concerned shall have authority to pay same to the contractor and shall thereupon be relieved of any further obligation to the Government on account thereof.

(f) On the unliquidated balance of the advance payments outstanding, the contractor agrees to pay interest at the rate of two and one-half per cent per annum. Such interest shall be computed at the end of each calendar month on the average daily balance of the principal of the unliquidated advance payments outstanding. In determining such balance, charges on account of the advance payments to the contractor hereunder shall be made as of the dates of the checks therefor; credits arising from deductions from payments to the contractor under this contract shall be made as of the dates the checks for such payments are drawn; and credits arising from cash repayments to the Government by the contractor shall be made as of the dates the checks therefor are received by the disbursing officer. As soon as such monthly computations shall have been made, the interest so determined shall be deducted from the payments otherwise due the contractor under this contract: Provided, however, That in no event shall deductions on account of interest exceed five per cent (5%) of the gross payment due the contractor prior to any deduction under this paragraph or paragraph (e) or any other provisions of this contract. In the event the accrued interest exceeds such five per cent, the excess of such interest shall be carried forward and deducted from subsequent payments. The interest shall not be compounded, and shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph (d) hereof, cease to accrue upon the termination of the contract for other than the fault of the contractor, or upon the date found by the Contracting Officer to be the date upon which the contractor completed his performance under the contract.

(g) The contractor shall, at all times, afford to the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative, proper facilities for the inspection and audit of the contractor's accounts, and the contractor hereby agrees that the Contracting Officer, or his duly authorized representative, shall have the right, so far as the contractor's rights are concerned, during business hours, to inspect and make copies of any entries in the books and records of the bank relating to the said special account.

(h) Subject to the approval of the Contracting Officer or his duly authorized representative the contractor may make payments to subcontractors and materialmen in advance out of the special account, for labor or services, or to pay for material in advance of delivery at the site of the work or at an approved storage site. Such subadvances shall not exceed -------- per cent of the subcontract price and the subcontractor or materialmen to whom such advances are made shall furnish adequate security therefor. Unless other security is furnished, covenants in subcontracts, expressly made for the benefit of the Government, providing for a sub-special account with Government lien thereon and for a Government lien on property, tangible or intangible, purchased from the special account, and imposing upon the subcontractor substantially the same duties and giving the Government substantially the same rights as are provided herein between the Government and the contractor, have been prescribed by the Under Secretary of War as minimum adequate security for such subadvances.

(i) If no surety bond is furnished as part of the security under subparagraph (b) hereof, then, upon receipt of items or materials paid for from such special account or accounts, such items or materials shall be segregated and the Government shall have a lien on such items or materials until the advance payment or payments have been fully liquidated, or until the item or items and/or materials concerned have become the property of the Government as the result of partial payments, or otherwise: Provided, That if segregation in any instance be impracticable and the items or materials concerned are consequently intermingled with other property of the Contractor, then and in that event the lien above provided for in favor of the Government shall extend to the intermingled mass to the amount represented by the value of the items or materials involved; and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such lien shall continue as follows: (a) in case the contract covers construction, until such items or materials are incorporated into the building, and thereafter on the building in the construction of which the items or materials are incorporated; (b) in the case of items or materials comprising facilities, on such facilities both before and after their installation in the plant; and (c) in the case of articles contracted for, until the items or materials so paid for are fabricated into such articles, and thereafter on the articles until accepted by the Government [; and the Government shall hereby likewise have an effective assignment of a security interest in all intangible property purchased, or otherwise acquired, with funds from said special account].* If at any time during the progress of the work under this contract it becomes necessary to deliver any item or items and/or materials upon which the Government has a lien as aforesaid to a third person, the contractor shall notify such third person of the lien herein provided and shall obtain from such third person a receipt, in duplicate, acknowledging, inter alia, the existence of such lien. A copy of each receipt shall be delivered by the contractor to the contracting officer.

(j) Any assignment of moneys due or to become due under this contract shall be subordinate to the rights or claims of the Government arising under this contract or any amendment thereto by virtue of any advance payments authorized herein or otherwise: Provided, That, if at any time any claim arising under this contract is assigned or purportedly assigned in any manner inconsistent with the said rights of the Government, the representative shall have the right to suspend further advance payments without notice.

§ 81.348 Advance payments without interest. The following clause will be included in fixed-price contracts when it is contemplated that advance payments without interest will be made thereon:

Any instructions or written directions received by the bank through the Contracting Officer upon War Department stationery and purporting to be signed by, or by the direction of, the ---------- or his duly authorized representative, and in so far as the rights, duties, and liabilities of the bank are concerned, be conclusively deemed to have been properly issued and filed with the bank by the ---------- or his duly authorized

Such subadvances shall not exceed _____ per cent of the subcontract price and the subcontractor or materialmen to whom such advances are made shall furnish adequate security therefor. Unless other security is furnished, covenants in subcontracts, expressly made for the benefit of the Government, providing for a subspecial account with Government lien thereon and for a Government lien on property, tangible or intangible, purchased from the special account, and imposing upon the subcontractor substantially the same duties and giving the Government substantially the same rights as are provided herein between the Government and the Contractor, have been prescribed by the Under Secretary of War as minimum adequate security for such subadvances.

A copy of each receipt shall be delivered by the Contractor to the Contracting Officer.

§ 81.350 Termination clause. The following clause will be incorporated in all cost-plus-a-fixed-fee construction contracts:

Termination for Convenience of the Government

1. The Government may terminate this contract at any time by a notice in writing from the Contracting Officer to the Contractor. Such termination shall be effective in the manner and upon the date specified in said notice and shall be without prejudice to any claims which the Government may have against the Contractor. Upon receipt of such notice, the Contractor shall, unless the notice directs otherwise, immediately discontinue all work and the placing of all orders for materials, facilities, and supplies in connection with performance of this contract and shall proceed to cancel promptly all existing orders and terminate all subcontracts insofar as such orders and/or subcontracts are chargeable to this contract.

2. If this contract is terminated for the fault of the Contractor, the Contracting Officer may enter upon the premises and take possession, for the purpose of completing the work contemplated by this contract of any or all materials, tools, machinery, equipment, and appliances which may be owned by or in the possession of the Contractor and all options, privileges, and rights, and may complete or employ any other person or persons to complete said work. Following such termination, rental shall be paid to the Contractor for such construction plant or parts thereof as he may own, and which the Government may retain at rates prescribed in Article _____.

3. Upon the termination of this contract, full and complete settlement of all claims of the Contractor arising out of this contract shall be made as follows:

a. The Government shall assume and become liable for all obligations, commitments, and claims that the Contractor may have theretofore in good faith undertaken or incurred in connection with said work, the cost of which would be reimbursable in accordance with the provisions of this contract; and the Contractor shall, as a condition of receiving the payments mentioned in this article, execute and deliver all such papers and take all such steps as the Contracting Officer may require for the purpose of fully vesting in the Government, the rights and benefits of the Contractor under such obligations or commitments.

b. The Government shall reimburse the Contractor for all expenditures made in accordance with Article _____ and not previously reimbursed.

c. The Government shall reimburse the Contractor for such further expenditures after the date of termination for the protection of Government property and for accounting services in connection with the settlement of this contract as are required or approved by the Contracting Officer.

d. The Government shall pay to the Contractor any unpaid balance for the rental of the Contractor's equipment in accordance with Article _____ to date of termination.

e. If the contract is terminated for the convenience of the Government, the Contractor will be paid that proportion of the prescribed fee which the work actually completed bears to the entire work under this contract, less fee payments previously made. If the contract is terminated due to fault of the Contractor, no additional payments on account of the fee will be made.

f. The obligation of the Government to make any of the payments required by this Article, or by Article _____ of this contract, shall be subject to any unsettled claims in connection with this contract which the Government may have against the Contractor.

4. Prior to final settlement the Contractor shall furnish a release as required in Article _____ hereof.

§ 81.351 Price adjustments clause. The following clause will be used in those cases where the use of the standard escalator clause is required. In no case will any deviations from this clause provide for price adjustment on the basis of changes in the actual cost of labor and materials to the contractor, or in the contractor's plant.

Price adjustments. The total contract price stated in Article _____ is subject to adjustment for increases or decreases in direct labor and direct material costs in accordance with the following method:

(a) Labor. (1) Upon the basis of labor costs prevailing in _____, 194__, (hereinafter called the base month) the direct labor cost is estimated to be $_____. It is also estimated that the indirect labor cost attributable to this contract is _____% of such estimated direct labor cost. Direct labor, as used herein, refers only to the labor of employees of the Contractor performed directly on, and properly chargeable to, the supplies manufactured hereunder, excluding, but without limitation, all executive, managerial, supervisory, technical, professional, office, clerical and sales employees, but including working foremen, gang-bosses and strawbosses. The Contractor represents that the above estimated cost is based upon a schedule, approved by the Contracting Officer, of the kinds or classes of jobs or occupations to be charged as direct labor under this contract, and that the estimate includes only such jobs or occupations. In computing the actual direct labor cost for the purposes of paragraphs (a) (2) and (a) (3) hereof, the cost of kinds or classes of jobs or occupations not listed in this schedule, a copy of which is attached hereto, shall not be included.

(2) After deliveries under this contract have been completed, the estimated direct labor cost set forth above shall be apportioned into direct labor cost quotas for the consecutive three-month periods (hereinafter called "quota periods") beginning on the first day of _____, 194__,[1] and on the first day of each third month thereafter. This apportionment shall be made by dividing the actual direct labor cost properly charged to this contract during each quota period by the total actual direct labor cost under the contract, and by multiplying the percentage thus obtained for each quota period by the total estimated direct labor cost. The result shall be the direct labor cost quota for that period.

(3) Upon the basis of the average hourly earnings in the durable goods manufacturing industries compiled by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, the Government will determine the average hourly earnings for each quota period by adding the average hourly earnings for each month of such quota period and dividing their sum by three, and calculations will be made of the percentage of change of such average hourly earnings for each quota period in comparison with the average hourly earnings for the same month. The labor cost quota for each quota period will then be multiplied by the percentage of change for such quota period, and the result will be applied as an increase or decrease in the contract price: Provided, That the total of such increases in the contract price shall not exceed the amount by which the total actual direct labor cost exceeds the total estimated direct labor cost, and that the total of such decreases in the contract price shall not exceed the amount by which the total actual direct labor cost is less than the total estimated direct labor cost.

(4) The total increase or decrease to be paid or deducted under paragraph (a) (3) shall be multiplied by _____%* and the result shall be applied as a further increase or decrease in the contract price, as an adjustment for the indirect labor cost under this contract.

(b) Materials. (1) Upon the basis of materials costs prevailing in the base month, the cost of direct materials which the Contractor will purchase for the performance of this contract, excluding materials to be used which the Contractor has on hand or for which firm price commitments have been obtained by him, (hereinafter called "direct materials to be purchased hereunder") is estimated to be $_____ (hereinafter called "estimated adjustable materials cost"). It is also estimated that the indirect materials cost attributable to this contract is _____% of such estimated direct materials cost. Direct materials as used herein refers only to those materials which go into and become a component part of the Contractor's finished product and which, under the cost accounting system regularly employed in the Contractor's plant, are accounted for by direct charges to the particular contract. The Contractor represents that the above estimate is based upon a schedule, approved by the Contracting Officer, of the kinds and classes of "direct materials to be purchased hereunder." In computing the actual cost of "direct materials to be purchases hereunder" for the purposes of paragraphs (b) (2) and (b) (3) hereof, the cost of kinds or classes of materials not listed in this schedule, a copy of which is attached hereto, shall not be included.

(2) After deliveries under this contract have been completed, the "estimated adjustable materials cost" shall be apportioned into materials cost quotas for the quota periods as defined in paragraph (a) (2) above. This apportionment shall be made by dividing the total actual cost of "direct materials to be purchased hereunder" into the portion of such cost properly charged to the contract during each quota period, and by multiplying the percentage thus obtained for each quota period, by the total "estimated adjustable materials cost." The result shall be the materials cost quota for that period. Direct materials shall be charged to the contract for the quota period during which the price therefor is determined as between the Contractor and the materials supplier: Provided, That where commitments are obtained by the Contractor for future deliveries at a firm price in excess of the market price prevailing at the time such commitments were obtained, such materials shall be charged to the contract for the quota period during which delivery is to be received by the Contractor: And, Provided, further, That with respect to materials which are not identifiable with the purchase commitments under which they are acquired, determinations as to (1) whether the materials employed in the performance of this contract were on hand at the time the contract was executed, and (2) the quota period to which the materials are to be charged and the amount of such charge shall, with the approval of the Contracting Officer, be made on the basis of the accounting system regularly employed in the Contractor's plant.

[1] The month during which the contract is executed or performance is commenced, whichever is earlier.

(3) The Government will average for each quota period the index numbers of wholesale prices for --------[2] compiled by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, for the three months included within such quota period, and calculations will be made of the percentage of change of such average index numbers for each quota period in comparison with the index numbers for the base month. The materials cost quota for each quota period shall then be multiplied by the percentage of change for such quota period, and the result will be applied as an increase or decrease in the contract price: Provided, That the total of such increases in the contract price shall not exceed the amount by which the actual cost of "direct materials to be purchased hereunder" exceeds the total "estimated adjustable materials cost," and that the total of such decreases in the contract price shall not exceed the amount by which said total actual cost of "direct materials to be purchased hereunder" is less than the total "estimated adjustable materials cost."

(4) The total increase or decrease to be paid or deducted under Paragraph (b) (3) shall be multiplied by --------% [] and the result shall be applied as a further increase or decrease in the contract price, as an adjustment for the indirect materials cost under this contract.

(c) General. (1) For the purpose of determining increases or decreases in contract prices, rates of change in average hourly earnings and rates of change in the materials index number will be calculated to the nearest one-tenth of one per cent, and there shall be used the latest figures which shall have been issued by the Bureau of Labor Statistics up to the close of the fourth month following the last quota period under this contract.

(2) Payments for increases, or deduction for decreases in the contract price, resulting from the operation of this article, will be made after the completion of the calculations of price adjustments in accordance herewith: Provided, That the Government may, from time to time during the life of the contract, make partial payments on account of such increases, subject to such requirements as a condition precedent to such payments as the Contracting Officer may provide: Provided, further, That in the event such partial payments shall exceed the amount due to the Contractor by the operation of this article, the Government shall deduct the amount of such excess from any further payments due under this contract.

(3) Should the Contractor, during the performance of this contract, on account of subcontracting, or otherwise, depart from the production method upon which the estimates and schedules of direct labor and direct materials costs were based to such an extent that the use of such estimates or schedules will operate to produce an unfair adjustment of the contract price, a corresponding correction in such estimates or schedules may be made by mutual agreement between the Contractor and the Contracting Officer. In the event of disagreement with respect to the need for or extent of such correction, the procedure of Article -------- (Disputes) shall apply.

(4) If this contract is terminated pursuant to any provision thereof the contract price shall be adjusted as provided above, except that for the purposes of paragraphs (a) (2), (a) (3), (b) (2), and (b) (3), the terms "estimated direct labor cost" and "estimated adjustable materials cost" shall be understood to refer to that part of such costs which corresponds to that proportion of the supplies contracted for which is completed and delivered by the Contractor, and the terms "actual direct labor cost" and "actual cost of direct materials to be purchased hereunder", shall refer only to that part of such costs which is properly chargeable to the supplies completed and delivered.

(5) The Contractor shall file with the Contracting Officer, not later than sixty days after the completion of the performance of the work under this contract or after its termination, a statement of the actual direct labor costs and the actual costs of "direct materials to be purchased hereunder," certified as correct by an independent public accountant approved by the Contracting Officer, showing the amounts of such costs properly chargeable during each quota period and, in case of termination, the amounts properly chargeable to the supplies completed and delivered. In determining the total actual direct labor cost and the total actual "direct materials to be purchased hereunder," and in determining the amounts thereof to be charged in each quota period, the Contractor may, subject to the approval of the Contracting Officer and to the limitations of paragraph (b) (2), employ the accounting system regularly employed in the Contractor's plant. Such statement shall be deemed prima facie correct. The Government reserves the right to audit the books and records of the Contractor, to determine the accuracy of such determinations and certification, and to obtain any information in connection with the operation of this Article. All information obtained from the Contractor's records shall be treated as confidential. The Contractor shall preserve all the books, papers, and other accounting records pertaining thereto: Provided, That if the Contractor at any time after the lapse of three years following the completion or cessation of work under the contract, desires to dispose of said books, papers, and accounting records, he shall so notify the Secretary of War, or his duly authorized representative, who shall either authorize their destruction or notify the Contractor to turn them over to the Government for disposition.

(6) If after the date on which the prices herein were quoted, the Congress or any state legislature, shall impose, remove, increase or decrease any payroll tax required to be borne by the Contractor and directly applicable to or measured by the payrolls of the Contractor hereunder, then the rate of such newly imposed tax, or the net increase or net decrease in the rate of a previously imposed tax, shall be multiplied by that portion of the actual direct labor cost which is subject to such increases or decreases in the tax or taxes, and the result shall be paid the Contractor under this paragraph.

[2] The index for the commodities group which includes the items making up the major portion of the "direct materials to be purchased hereunder."

[] The percentage of indirect materials cost stated in Paragraph (b) (1).

Bonds

§ 81.403 Examination of bonds. All fidelity and surety bonds (bid bonds excepted) required by the several bureaus of the War Department will be forwarded to The Judge Advocate General for examination as to whether they are legally sufficient and are in proper form and duly executed; in the case of corporate sureties, to ascertain whether those who purported to execute them on behalf of such surety companies had authority to do so; in the case of individual sureties, to ascertain whether the affidavit of justification and the certificate of sufficiency of the sureties are in accordance with regulations; and in case of payment bonds required by the act of August 24, 1935 (49 Stat. 793), to ascertain whether the penal sum thereof is in the requisite amount.

§ 81.404 Filing of bonds. All bonds provided for in these regulations will be executed in duplicate. The original, except those bonds required to be approved or filed elsewhere than at the War Department, will be forwarded through The Judge Advocate General to the General Accounting Office for file, and the duplicate will be filed in the office to which it pertains or which authorized its acceptance. § 81.405 Options in lieu of surety or sureties on bonds—(a) United States bonds or notes—(1) Authority. Any person required to furnish a bond executed by himself as principal has the option of depositing United States Liberty Bonds or other United States bonds or notes (except as provided in subparagraph (2) (iv) of this paragraph) in a sum equal at their par value to the penal amount of the bond in lieu of furnishing sureties on his bond. Sec. 1029, Act June 2, 1924 (43 Stat. 349), as amended by sec. 1126, Act February 26, 1926 (44 Stat. 122); and sec. 7, Act February 4, 1935 (49 Stat. 22); 6 U.S.C. 15.

(2) Procedure. (i) The procedure for carrying out the afore-cited authority is contained in Treasury Department Circular No. 154, dated February 6, 1935.

(ii) The contracting officer is the "bond approving officer" who will turn over the securities deposited with him to the local disbursing officer for safekeeping, and the disbursing officer will receipt therefor in duplicate on Form B, Treasury Department Circular No. 154.

(iii) Instead of keeping securities turned over to him the disbursing officer may deposit them with the Treasurer of the United States, a Federal Reserve bank, branch Federal Reserve bank having the requisite facilities, or other depository duly designated for that purpose by the Secretary of the Treasury, under procedure prescribed in Treasury Department Circular No. 154.

(iv) United States Savings Bonds may only be pledged in lieu of sureties when the bond approving officer is the Secretary of the Treasury, thus precluding the acceptance by War Department contracting officers of United States Savings Bonds in lieu of sureties. Treasury certificates of indebtedness are not acceptable.

(b) Certified checks, money orders or currency—(1) Authority. Any person required to furnish a bond executed by himself as principal has the option of depositing a certified check, a Post Office money order, or currency, in lieu of furnishing sureties on his bond, provided the penal sum of said bond is not in excess of $50,000.

(ii) Certified checks, Post Office money orders and currency accepted by the contracting officer in lieu of a bond will be promptly turned over to the local disbursing officer and deposited by him in a special deposit account. A certificate as to this action will be executed by the disbursing officer and attached to each copy of the contract.

(iii) The amount of the security deposited will be refunded to the contractor upon the completion of the terms of the agreement for which the security is deposited.

§ 81.406 Corporate sureties—(a) Formal requirements. In order to be acceptable to the War Department a corporate surety, except as hereinafter provided, must have obtained from the Secretary of the Treasury authority to do business under the act of August 13, 1894 (28 Stat. 279), as amended by the act of March 23, 1910 (36 Stat. 241; 6 U.S.C. 8; M.L. 1939, sec. 534). A list of the corporations approved by the Secretary of the Treasury is published semiannually by the Treasury Department as Form No. 356 (Section of Surety Bonds), copies of which may be procured from the chief of the supply service concerned, who will make requisition for his requirements to The Judge Advocate General semiannually on March 15 and September 15. These corporations are acceptable as sureties upon bonds required by the War Department within the limitation of such approval: Provided, however, That any corporation authorized under the laws of the Philippine Islands to act as surety on bonds may be accepted as surety on bonds executed in the Philippine Islands in an amount of penalty not exceeding 10 per cent of the paid-up capital and surplus of such corporation, although it has not qualified before the Treasury Department as hereinbefore provided.

(b) Qualifications of agents. Surety companies must furnish promptly to the War Department, for file in the office of The Judge Advocate General:

On bonds covering supply contracts where the amount is greater than the underwriting limitation of a surety company, the latter may reinsure with a company on the acceptable list of surety companies having the required underwriting limitation.

(2) Construction and public work contracts. One or more companies may be accepted as surety upon any recognizance, stipulation, bond, or undertaking in connection with contracts for the construction of any building or the prosecution or completion of any public work or for the repair of any public building or public work under the War Department, but in all cases of more than one surety, the sureties must execute such obligation jointly and severally. In the event of two or more corporate sureties, where it is desired to limit the obligation and liability of each surety, the limit of liability of each surety shall be set forth in the bond as a definite and specified sum, such amount to be in all cases within the limitation of its qualified power.

Reinsurance agreements will not be accepted on contracts for the construction, alteration, or repair of any public buildings or public work of the United States.

§ 81.407 Individual sureties—(a) Number of. If individual sureties are furnished, there shall be at least two responsible individuals.

(b) Measure of liability. The liability of each surety shall extend to the entire penal amount of the bond, except that when more than two sureties are furnished, the Secretary of War may authorize special provisions in respect of liability.

(c) Justification. (1) Individual sureties will each justify in a sum not less than the penal amount of the bond.

(2) In special cases two or more bonds may be accepted to cover one contract provided there are two different individual sureties on each bond.

(2) Sureties on bonds executed in foreign countries, the Canal Zone, the Philippine Islands, Puerto Rico, Hawaii, Alaska, or any possession of the United States, for the performance of contracts entered into in these places, need not be citizens of the United States, but sureties other than citizens of the United States must be domiciled in the place where the contract is to be performed.

(e) Firm or corporation as principal obligor. (1) A firm as such will not be accepted as a surety, nor a partner for copartners or for a firm of which he is a member.

(2) When a corporation executes a bond as principal, any stockholder of the corporation is a competent surety on the bond, provided he is worth the amount for which he justified, over and above the value of his holdings in the corporation, and provided further that that fact is expressly stated in his affidavit of justification.

§ 81.408 Bid bonds. (a) The extent to which bid bonds will be required, and the penalties of such bonds, will be determined by the chief of the supply service concerned except that in the case of advertised contracts bid bonds will be required in all cases where the invitations to bidders specify that the contracts are to be supported by performance and/or payment bonds.

(b) Standard Form No. 24 (Standard Government Form of Bid Bond (construction or supply)) is the approved bid bond form. In the preparation of the form, contracting officers are authorized, when deemed by them to be in the best interests of the Government, to insert in the blank space on page one, following the words "in the penal sum of" and before the word "dollars", the following clause:

• • • an amount equal to ------ per cent of the accompanying bid of said principal, but in no event shall said penalty exceed the sum of • • •

There should be inserted in the first blank space of the above clause the percentage deemed appropriate by the contracting officer, having regard to existing instructions of the chief of the supply service concerned, and in the second blank space the amount of the maximum penalty in dollars.

§ 81.409 Annual bid bond—(a) When authorized. (1) Bidders may file an annual bid bond to cover all bids submitted to any particular purchasing officer during the fiscal year.

(3) When authorized by the chief representative of the supply service concerned in an oversea department, a bidder may file an annual bid bond to cover all bids submitted to purchasing officers of that supply service within that department during the fiscal year.

(b) Form used. Standard Form No. 34 (Standard Government Form of Annual Bid Bond (supplies)) will be utilized and all instructions thereon will be complied with.

§ 81.410 Performance bonds. (a) The requirement of performance bonds to secure the performance of contracts is discretionary with the chief of the supply service concerned. However, the requirement of performance bonds will be the exception rather than the rule.

(b) Sureties on a bid bond are acceptable as sureties on a performance bond by the same person, provided they are able to justify as required.

(c) The use of the following performance bond forms is authorized:

(1) Standard Form No. 25 (Standard Government Form of Performance Bond (construction or supply)) when the bond is to be executed by individual sureties or one corporate surety.

(2) Standard Form No. 25–B (Standard Government Form of Performance Bond (construction or supply)) when the bond is to be executed by two or more corporate sureties and it is desired to limit the liability of several corporate sureties. For cases involving more than six sureties, continuation sheets to sheets 1 and 3 of the form are provided, bearing the form designations Standard Form No. 25–B1 and No. 25–B3.

(d) The amount of the penalty will be fixed in accordance with instructions of the chief of the supply service concerned. The penalty of the bond should be fixed in the lowest amount which, in the exercise of sound judgment, is deemed adequate for the protection of the United States.

§ 81.411 Annual performance bond—(a) When authorized. Contractors may file an annual performance bond:

(1) To cover all contracts entered into with any particular contracting officer during the fiscal year.

(2) When authorized by the chief of the supply service concerned to cover all contracts entered into with contracting officers of that supply service within the continental limits of the United States during the fiscal year.

(b) Form used. Standard Form No. 35 (Standard Government Form of Annual Performance Bond (supplies)) will be utilized, and all instructions thereon will be complied with.

(c) Record of obligations. The officer having custody of the retained copy of such a bond will record all obligations against the bond and will require the contractor to post additional bonds when the obligations exceed the amount of the bond.

§ 81.412 Payment bonds. (a) The requirement of payment bonds to secure the payment of labor and materialmen is discretionary with the chief of the supply service concerned except that in the case of construction contracts where performance bonds are required, payment bonds will also be required. The requirement of payment bonds will otherwise be the exception rather than the rule.

(b) Sureties on bid bonds and performance bonds are acceptable on payment bonds by the same person, provided they are able to justify as required.

(c) The use of the following payment bond forms is authorized:

(1) Standard Form No. 25–A (Standard Government Form of Payment Bond (construction)) when the bond is to be executed by the individual sureties or one corporate surety.

(2) Standard Form No. 25–C (Standard Government Form of Payment Bond (construction)) when the bond is to be executed by two or more corporate sureties and it is desired to limit the liability of several corporate sureties. For cases involving more than six sureties, continuation sheets to sheets 1 and 3 of the form are provided, bearing the form designations Standard Form No. 25–C1 and 25–C3.

(d) The amount of the penalty will be fixed in accordance with instructions of the chief of the supply service concerned. The penalty of the bond should be fixed in the lowest amount which, in the exercise of sound judgment, is deemed adequate for the protection of the United States as representative of labor and materialmen.

§ 81.413 Patent infringement bonds. When a contractor is required to furnish a patent infringement bond, such bond will be in the form prescribed in advance by the chief of the supply service concerned, and in an amount which the contracting officer considers sufficient for the protection of the Government. The form of "Affidavit by Individual Surety" will conform to that in Standard Form No. 25 (Revised), approved by the Secretary of the Treasury (1935).

§ 81.414 Advance payment bonds—(a) Requirement. The requirement of advance payment bonds to secure the performance of advance payment agreements is discretionary with the chief of the supply service concerned. Advance payment bonds will be required in only the most exceptional circumstances.

(b) Form used. Standard Form No. 25 (Standard Government Form of Performance Bond (construction or supply)) may be used as advance payment bond form by making the following changes in the standard form:

(1) Where provisions for advance payments are contained in the basic contract. Delete "Performance bond" from the heading and substitute "Advance payment bond" therefor. After completing the clause beginning "The condition of this obligation is such," so as to identify the basic contract, add the following clause:

And whereas such contract authorizes advance payments to the contractor in the sums not to exceed $------, or ------ per centum of the contract price, as it may be amended, whichever shall be the smaller.

In the defeasance clause (the clause beginning "Now, Therefore,") insert the words "relating to advance payments" in line 2 between the word "contract" and the word "during" and also after the word "contract" in line 6 of such clause.

(2) Where provisions for advance payments are contained in a supplemental agreement. Delete "Performance bond" from the heading and substitute "Advance payment bond" therefor. After completing the clause beginning "the condition of this obligation is such," so as to identify the principal contract, add the following:

• • • and whereas the Government has entered into a contract supplemental to the aforesaid principal contract, such supplemental contract being dated ---------- and authorizing advance payments to the contractor of sums not to exceed $------ or ----- per centum of the contract price, as it may be amended, whichever shall be the smaller. Delete the word "contract" from line 2 (both places) and line 6 of the defeasance clause and substitute therefor at each place the words "supplemental contract relating to advance payments.

(c) Amount of penalty. The amount of the penalty will be fixed in accordance with instructions of the chief of the supply service concerned. The penalty of the bond should be fixed in the lowest amount which, in the exercise of sound judgment, is deemed adequate for the protection of the United States.

§ 81.415 Bonds executed by receivers, trustees, administrators, or executors. (a) Receivers, trustees, administrators, and executors are officers of the court appointing them and their powers as such are limited. When a bond executed by a receiver, trustee, administrator, or executor is submitted, in addition to the court order showing his authority for the execution of the bond, the following method of preparing and executing the bond will be followed. The obligation should read:

I (we) John Doe (and ----------) as [(executor(s)) (administrator(s)) of the estate of ---------- deceased] (trustee(s) of ----------) (receiver(s) of ----------).

The execution should be prepared and signed by the representative in the blank spaces for individual principals in the following form:

John Doe (and ----------) as [(executor(s)) (administrator(s)) of the estate of ---------- deceased] (trustee(s) of ----------) (receiver(s) of ----------).

In the case of a bond executed by the receiver of a corporation, the corporate seal should not be affixed as the bond is not the bond of the corporation but the bond of the individual as receiver of the corporation.

(b) Bonds executed by a receiver or trustee, which may extend beyond the term of his appointment, and bonds executed by administrators or executors, will in general not be accepted except when the court has by specific decree authorized the execution of the kind of bond submitted by the receiver, trustee, administrator, or executor, or has granted authority to execute such a bond by name in the court order appointing such officer, in the event of which a duly authenticated copy of such order must be attached to the bond.

§ 81.416 Substitution or replacement of surety. (a) In case of financial embarrassment, failure, or other disqualifying cause on the part of the surety under a bond, the Commanding General, Services of Supply, will require the bond to be substituted or replaced to his satisfaction, upon notification to the principal.

(b) The Secretary of the Treasury is empowered to require the principal of any corporate surety to give additional bond at any time when he determines any such corporate surety to be no longer sufficient security. See sec. 4, act August 13, 1894 (28 Stat. 279), as amended by act March 23, 1910 (36 Stat. 241; 6 U.S.C. 9.)

§ 81.417 Reports. The chief of each supply service will transmit to the Insurance Section, Procurement and Distribution Division, Services of Supply, a data sheet in connection with each contract in support of which a bond is required. The information which will be supplied on the data sheet will be the contract number, name of the contractor, name of the project or the type of the supplies, amount of contract, penalty of the bond, type of bond, name of surety, bond number, effective date of bond, premium charged, and rate of premium per $1000 of bond penalty.

INSURANCE

§ 81.418 Regulations. Pending the publication of a manual governing insurance and insurance procedure, the following regulations will apply.

§ 81.419 General policy. Insurance coverages will not be required nor authorized except in those cases where the procurement of certain types of insurance is desirable or necessary in the prosecution of the war.

§ 81.420 Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts. The following will specifically govern the procurement of insurance:

(a) Fire and allied insurance coverages. These forms of insurance will not be authorized without the prior approval of the Insurance Section, Procurement and Distribution Division, Services of Supply.

(b) Casualty insurance coverages. Contractors will be required to procure and maintain the following insurance which will cover the operations of the prime contractor and all cost-plus-a-fixed-fee subcontractors thereunder:

(1) Workmen's Compensation insurance (statutory limits) including occupational diseases coverage ($50/100,000 limits). In jurisdictions where no compensation law is applicable, Employers' Liability insurance ($50/100,000 limits).

(2) General Public Liability insurance ($50/100,000 limits) for personal injury liability to be written on comprehensive policy form.

(3) Automobile Liability for Personal Injury ($50/100,000 limits) and Property Damage insurance ($5,000 limit) to be written on comprehensive policy form.

(c) Marine insurance. Where the operation of floating equipment is involved, a report stating the nature of the work, a description of the equipment and terms under which it is being used will be made to the Insurance Section, Procurement and Distribution Division, Services of Supply. Arrangements, to be announced later, are in process whereby all such equipment will be insured through the Maritime Commission.

(d) Miscellaneous insurance. Certain other forms of insurance and bonds such as pay roll robbery, interior holdup, safe burglary, fidelity bonds, license and permit bonds, forgery bonds and public property damage may be authorized by the chiefs of the supply services or their authorized representatives if the circumstances warrant. The authorization of such additional coverages will be the exception rather than the rule.

(e) Methods of purchase. The coverages required by paragraph (b) of this section will be purchased and written under the War Department Insurance Rating Plan. The only exception to this requirement will be when insurance carriers are prohibited by state insurance officials from writing policies on this basis. All such cases will be directed to the attention of the Insurance Section, Procurement and Distribution Division, Services of Supply. In those cases where the War Department Insurance Rating Plan is inapplicable, insurance may be purchased on the customary basis.

(f) Lump sum subcontractors. Such subcontractors will be required to provide the prime contractor and the contracting officer with certificates of insurance showing that insurance as required by paragraph (b) of this section is in force. Limits of insurance should be at least equal to those specified for the prime contractor. The only exception to this requirement is where the lump sum subcontractor is a self insurer and his ability to respond in damages can be shown to the satisfaction of the chiefs of the supply services or their authorized representatives.

§ 81.421 Architect-engineer-management contracts. In order to obtain the most suitable and efficient arrangements with respect to insurance, hospital and medical, loss paying and safety engineering facilities, the chief of the supply service concerned or his duly authorized representative may require the Architect-Engineer-Manager contractor to provide, through one insurance company, coverage for all contractors on the project. The requirements established in § 81.420 (b) will apply, and insurance covering lump sum contractors will be provided under the policies issued to the A-E-M contractor (written under the War Department Insurance Rating Plan). Lump sum contracts in such cases will not include any estimated cost for the insurance so provided.

§ 81.422 Lump sum prime contracts (construction). No insurance requirements will be imposed on the contractor unless, in the opinion of the chief of the supply service concerned or his authorized representative, the imposition of certain insurance requirements will serve to safeguard the contractor's ability to complete the contract. If performance and payment bonds support the contract, the requirement of any insurance should be unnecessary.

§ 81.423 Contracts with United States Contractors for work outside the United States. Contracts of this kind are generally on a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee basis, and involve a determination of the applicable laws and local conditions which will probably be encountered. The insurance arrangements and types of insurance to be employed, if any, will be subject to the approval of the Insurance Section, Procurement and Distribution Division, Services of Supply. Notification of the negotiation of such contracts to the Insurance Section, Procurement and Distribution Division, Services of Supply, will enable that section to complete negotiations of the insurance arrangements simultaneously with the preparation of the contract.

§ 81.424 Boiler inspections. (a) Boiler inspection services may be arranged for by the contracting officer or the contractor with the approval of the contracting officer in connection with facilities which are owned by the Government (except where statutory inspections by the Department of Commerce are required) and in the case of contractor-owned facilities operated under cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts exclusively for the War Department.

(b) The Boiler inspection contract approved April 9, 1942, will be executed by the contracting officer and the insurance company concerned in those cases where contracting officers desire to utilize the insurance company inspection facilities.

§ 81.425 Claims and litigation. Each contracting officer or other War Department representative in charge of the project or activities involved will immediately teletype, radio, or telegraph to the Litigation Section, Office of The Judge Advocate General, Washington, D. C., notification of any suit involving the interests of the United States. Such notification will give all pertinent facts concerning the suit, the names of the parties thereto, the date of service of process, statement of the alleged cause of action, the amount sued for, the date on which answer to the suit must be filed, statement of the principal defense to the suit which the defendant may raise and a statement as to whether the amount sued for is fully covered by insurance and if so, whether or not the insurance carrier will accept full responsibility for the defense of this suit.

§ 81.426 War risk lump sum contracts. The chiefs of the supply services or their authorized representatives may execute the War Risk Indemnity Contract approved by the Under Secretary of War, January 2, 1942, with any reliable insurance carrier subject to the following conditions:

(a) The contracts will be executed on the War Risk Indemnity Contract form, approved by the Under Secretary of War, January 2, 1942.

(b) The contractor whose workmen's compensation insurance is involved must be a lump sum prime contractor or lump sum subcontractor.

(c) The lump sum prime contract or lump sum subcontract must be for work outside of the several states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(d) The lump sum prime contractor or subcontractor shall have been unable or be unable to have his existing workmen's compensation insurance continued or to obtain workmen's compensation insurance from another insurance carrier on account of war risk hazards.

(e) The workmen's compensation insurance contract, made a part of the War Risk Indemnity Contract, must be issued to apply solely to the contract of the lump sum contractor involved and cover employees engaged in the performance of the work at the locations described therein. Such insurance contract may be issued on the form customarily used.

§ 81.427 Reports. Copies of all policies, certificates of insurance, reports of insurance companies and insurance advisors, War Risk Indemnity Contracts, Boiler Inspection Contracts, and all other data pertaining thereto will be forwarded to the Insurance Section, Procurement and Distribution Division, Services of Supply.

§ 81.803 Authority for Federal taxes. Chapter 29 of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. 3400–3453) as amended, imposes Federal taxes upon certain specified articles sold in the United States by the manufacturer or producer, or imported into the United States, to be paid by the manufacturer, producer, or importer, but provides that no tax under this chapter shall be imposed with respect to the sale of any article for the exclusive use of the United States, and that a credit against the tax or a refund may be allowed or made with respect to the sale of any article if such article was resold for the exclusive use of the United States and the manufacturer, producer, or importer has such evidence as the regulations of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue may prescribe.

§ 81.804 Tax exempt sales. Under the regulations of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue (T. D. 5114, approved January 27, 1942) the following sales are exempt from the taxes imposed by Chapter 29 of the Internal Revenue Code: (a) sales of articles to the United States; (b) sales of articles to Government contractors or subcontractors when such articles are incorporated in an article sold to the United States; (c) sales of articles which are incorporated in the building or work constructed, altered, improved or repaired pursuant to a Government contract. Such sales are tax exempt only where the price paid by the Government does not include the tax.

§ 81.805 Cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts. Under rulings of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue articles sold to contractors engaged on a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee basis are exempt from the application of the Federal excise taxes since such articles are furnished for the exclusive use of the United States. As a condition to such exemption title to the article purchased by the fixed-fee contractor must ultimately vest in the United States.

§ 81.806 Tax on firearms. Chapter 25 of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. 2700–2733), as amended, imposes Federal taxes upon the sale, lease, or transfer of firearms, but provides that no tax under such Chapter shall be imposed in connection with the sale or transfer of firearms for the use of the United States.

§ 81.807 Jewelry, furs, and toilet preparations. Chapter 19 of the Internal Revenue Code (26 U.S.C. 2400–2411), as amended, imposes a retailers' excise tax upon the sale of jewelry, furs, and toilet preparations, but provides that no tax shall be imposed with respect to the sale of any article for the exclusive use of the United States.

§ 81.808 Items on which taxes are imposed. Information concerning items on which Federal taxes are imposed and the applicable rates thereon will be published from time to time in this Regulation. Full information in regard thereto may be found in regulations of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. Regulations 44 and 46 of the Bureau of Internal Revenue are applicable to taxes imposed by Chapter 29, and Regulations 51 of the Bureau of Internal Revenue are applicable to the taxes imposed by Chapter 19.

§ 81.809 Exclusion of Federal excise taxes. In order to reduce the amount of administrative work, thereby facilitating the prosecution of the war, contractors should be required to exclude from the price quoted the amount of Federal excise taxes imposed upon the supplies, work or undertaking concerned. Wherever practicable, contractors should be required to exclude the tax imposed upon any articles to be incorporated in the supplies to be purchased (or to be incorporated into the building or work to be constructed, altered, improved or repaired).

STATE AND LOCAL TAXES

§ 81.810 Application of State and local taxes. While the various state and local tax laws are not uniform in their application, as a general rule Government purchases are exempt from such taxes. Neither are such laws uniform in their application to purchases by Government contractors. Information will be published from time to time as to the procedure to be followed with regard to state and local taxes.

(Contracting Officer)

(Title)

*To be shown by Contracting Officer if known.

§ 81.812 Preparation and execution of tax exemption certificates. In the preparation of tax exemption certificates the typewriter will be used when practicable; otherwise ink or indelible pencil will be used. The use of ordinary lead pencil is prohibited. All blank spaces must be properly filled in or lined out, and no such exemption certificate will be delivered to a contractor, unless fully and properly executed, except that, if at the time of entering into a contract for supplies to be sold for the exclusive use of the Government, Federal tax excluded, it is impossible to determine the amount of such taxes as in the case of an indefinite quantity contract, it is permissible for the Contracting Officer to issue a blanket tax exemption certificate to cover all sales under the contract. The certificate should be issued by the Contracting Officer who executed such contract and should cover all articles purchased under such contract, including delivery orders placed thereunder by other officers. A separate certificate for each kind of tax (Federal, State, local, etc.) involved will be prepared. In the issuance of these certificates care should be exercised by the Contracting Officer to fill in the blank spaces provided for showing on each certificate the separate amounts of the taxes involved, so that the certificate may be used only for the intended purpose. Where the supplies or work covered by the contract are not taxable as such and the certificate is to be used for the purpose of obtaining exemption on the articles to be incorporated in the supplies or work covered by the contract, the amount of tax to be shown on the certificate should be stated as "None." No tax should be shown on the certificate except the tax imposed directly upon the supplies of work covered by the contract. The following statement will be written or stamped upon the face of each certificate pertaining to Federal taxes (except where a cost-plus-fixed-fee contract is involved): "W.D. Tax Form No. 1 attached." Tax Exemption Certificate Form No. 1094 may be modified insofar as necessary with respect to contracts for construction, alterations, improvements and repairs. The Contracting Officer will, in addition to his signature and title, insert on the lines provided therefor, his identification-card number.

§ 81.813 Use of tax exemption certificates. (a) Under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, articles are exempt from the taxes imposed by Chapter 29 of the Internal Revenue Code when such articles are sold on a tax-free basis for the exclusive use of the United States. The tax is imposed upon the manufacturer, producer or importer. Where the article is sold on a tax-free basis for the exclusive use of the United States by a person other than the manufacturer, producer or importer a credit for or a refund of the tax may be obtained. With the exception of tires, inner tubes and automobile radios, articles are exempt from taxes imposed by Chapter 29 where such articles are used by the purchaser as material in the manufacture or production of or as a component part of an article which is taxable under such chapter. Under regulations of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, tax exemption certificates are used for the purpose of establishing rights to exemptions, credits and refunds.

(b) An article is deemed to be sold for the exclusive use of the United States when it is sold (i) to the United States to be utilized by the United States or to be disposed of by the United States to a foreign government, or (ii) to a Government contractor or subcontractor (including a supplier) when the article is incorporated in an article sold to the United States or in the building or work constructed, altered, improved or repaired pursuant to a contract with the United States, or (iii) to a Government contractor under a cost-plus-fixed-fee contract or subcontractor under a cost-plus-fixed-fee subcontract where the article is used as equipment, materials or supplies by the contractor or subcontractor in performing a Government prime contract and payment for the article is made by the United States, whether directly or by reimbursement of the contractor or subcontractor for the cost thereof. The term "incorporated in" as used above refers to any process whereby an article enters into building, work or supplies or a component thereof so as to become a part thereof and is not merely consumed in such production.

(c) The Contracting Officer should execute and deliver to the contractor a tax exemption certificate (Form 1094 or any other form acceptable to the Bureau of Internal Revenue) covering Federal taxes in the following cases:

(1) Where the supplies purchased under the contract are taxable under Chapter 29 and are purchased by the Government at a price which is exclusive of such tax. In such a case, the word "None" should be inserted in the space headed "List of Articles" on the attached W.D. Tax Form No. 1, except where the supplies have had (or will have) incorporated therein tires, inner tubes or automobile radios, and the price paid by the Government is exclusive of the tax thereon.

(2) Where the supplies purchased under the contract are not taxable under Chapter 29 but have had (or will have) incorporated therein one or more articles which are taxable under such chapter, and the price paid by the Government is exclusive of the tax on one or more of such articles. In such a case, the amount of tax shown on the tax exemption certificate should be stated as "None" and the articles incorporated (or to be incorporated) into the supplies purchased by the Government which are sold exclusive of the tax thereon should be listed upon W.D. Tax Form No. 1 attached to the certificate. Upon receipt of the tax exemption certificate, the contractor and/or his subcontractors (including suppliers) are then authorized to issue tax exemption certificates in the form prescribed by Section 470.3 (b) of Treasury Decision 5114, approved January 27, 1942 (7 F.R. 579, January 29, 1942) as to the articles listed on W.D. Tax Form No. 1 attached to the Form No. 1094.

(3) Where the contract covers construction, alterations, improvements or repairs, and the physical project to be constructed, altered, improved or repaired will have incorporated therein one or more articles which are taxable under Chapter 29 and the price paid by the Government for the construction, alterations, improvements or repairs, is exclusive of the tax on one or more of such articles to be incorporated into the physical project. In such a case, the amount of tax shown on the tax exemption certificate should be stated as "None", and the articles to be incorporated into the physical project to be constructed, altered, improved or repaired on which no such tax is included in the contract price should be listed upon W.D. Tax Form No. 1 attached to the certificate. Upon receipt of the tax exemption certificate the contractor and/or his subcontractors (suppliers) are then authorized to issue tax exemption certificates in the form prescribed by § 470.3 (b) of Treasury Decision 5114, approved January 27, 1942 (7 F.R. 579, January 29, 1942) as to the articles listed on W.D. Tax Form No. 1 attached to the certificate.

(4) Under a cost-plus-fixed-fee contract (except one covering the sale of articles taxable under Chapter 29, where (1) above is applicable) when one or more articles taxable under Chapter 29 are used by the contractor as equipment, material or supplies in performing the contract, and such articles are purchased at a price which is exclusive of the tax thereon and payment for same is made by the United States, directly or by reimbursement of the contractor. In such a case, the amount of tax shown on Form 1094 should be stated as "None" and there should be attached to or written on Form 1094 the following statement:

The contractor is authorized to issue tax exemption certificates in the form prescribed by § 470.3 (b) of Treasury Decision 5114, approved January 27, 1942 (7 F.R. 579, January 29, 1942) as to all articles sold on a Federal tax exclusive basis and for which payment is made by the United States, directly or by reimbursement of the contractor, and which are used by the contractor as equipment, material or supplies in performing the contract to which this (the attached) certificate pertains.

(d) The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has ruled that tax exemption certificates issued by contractors and subcontractors in the form prescribed by T. D. 5114 relates to tax-free sales only and cannot be used to obtain a refund or credit of tax paid by manufacturers on articles sold or delivered to contractors or subcontractors performing work for the Federal Government on specified contracts.

(e) Tax exemption certificates are also used for establishing exemptions from state and local taxes. In such cases certificates should be prepared in accordance with the requirements of the particular state or local tax officials concerned. No tax exemption certificate should be issued with respect to a state or local tax unless the contract shows that the price paid by the Government is exclusive of the tax to which the certificate pertains or unless the contractor consents to the deduction of such tax from the contract price and the acceptance of the tax exemption certificate in lieu thereof.

COLLECTION AND PAYMENT OF TAXES BY GOVERNMENT

§ 81.814 Federal Taxes; collection and payment. (a) The amount of the Federal tax will be collected from the purchaser when articles subject to tax under Chapter 29 of the Internal Revenue Code purchased free of tax are sold to individuals or used for other than the exclusive use of the United States. Funds so collected will be deposited with the local disbursing officer together with information of the name of the contractor from whom the articles were purchased and the number of the contract under which purchase was made. In cases where the name and amount of the contract involved are not known to the sales officer, he will ascertain this information from the shipping or contracting officer or from the chief of the supply service, if necessary.

(b) Funds received by a disbursing officer as payment for taxes imposed by Chapter 29 of the Internal Revenue Code will be placed in a special deposit account and remitted to the contractor monthly, or at the time the officer closes his accounts when he ceases to disburse, in order that return may be made therefor to the appropriate Collector of Internal Revenue. A copy of the report of such remittance will be forwarded to the Bureau of Internal Revenue. However, if it is impossible for the disbursing officer to determine the contractor from whom the articles subject to tax under Chapter 29 were purchased, he may remit the amount of the tax to the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which the disbursing officer is located with a statement that the name of the contractor is unknown.

§ 81.815 State and local taxes; collection and payment. (a) When impossible for any reason to effect purchases, excluding the amount of any state or local tax which is deemed to be legally inapplicable to Government purchases, a tax exemption certificate will be executed and delivered to the disbursing officer to whose accounts the vouchers in the transaction pertain, together with a written statement to the effect that the vendor refused the tax exemption certificate. Exemption certificates executed and delivered as prescribed in this subparagraph are for use of the Finance Department in securing a refund of the amount of the taxes involved. The serial number of the certificate will be shown on the payment voucher.

(b) When Standard Form No. 1094, executed under the conditions stated above, is received in the administrative office (Finance Department), there will be noted on the form the bureau or office number of the payment voucher, and the administrative office (Finance Department) will bill the State or local taxing agency for refund of the taxes paid. The amount(s) collected will be transmitted to the disbursing officer for credit to the appropriation(s) from which the vouchers were paid, or to miscellaneous receipts account "4326—Refund, State and Local Taxes," if the appropriation cannot be readily identified. In the event the administrative office (Finance Department) fails to secure refund of the amount of taxes paid, it will transmit promptly to the General Accounting Office the said tax-exemption certificates, if available, together with all correspondence with the taxing agency relating thereto, and information as to the disbursing officer's voucher number on which payment for the merchandise was made, for use by the General Accounting Office in effecting collection thereof as required by section 236, Revised Statutes, as amended by the Budget and Accounting Act, 1921.

§ 81.816 Items subject to Federal excise taxes. The items subject to manufacturers' excise taxes imposed by Chapter 29 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, are listed below. The tax imposed in each case is equivalent to the indicated percentum of the price for which sold by the manufacturer, producer or importer, and is effective October 1, 1941. The Revenue Act further provides that, for the purposes of the tax, the lease of an article (including any renewal or extension of a lease or any substitute lease of such article) by the manufacturer, producer or importer shall be considered a taxable sale of such article (sec. 3440, as amended).

(b) Each weekly affidavit shall be delivered by the contractor or subcontractor within seven (7) days after the regular payment date of the pay roll period, to a representative of a Federal or State agency in charge at the site of the building or work, or, if there is no representative of a Federal or State agency at the site of the building or work, the affidavit shall be mailed by the contractor or subcontractor, within such time, to a Federal or State agency contracting for or financing the building or work. After such examination and check as may be made, such affidavit, or a copy thereof, together with a report of any violation, shall be transmitted to the United States Department of Labor, Washington, D. C., unless otherwise arranged with the Department of Labor.

(c) Each contractor or subcontractor shall, within seven (7) days after the making of any subcontract with another person concerning work which is subject to the basic law, deliver to the local or national Government representative in charge at the site of the building or work, or, if there is no Government representative, shall mail within such time to the Federal agency contracting for or financing the building or work, an affidavit setting forth the name and address of his subcontractor and a summary statement of the precise work subcontracted.

§ 81.909 Authorized pay roll deductions. The following pay roll deductions are authorized:

(a) Deductions for the following purposes are permissible:

(1) Where required by Federal, State or local statutes or ordinances to be made by the employer from the wages earned by the employee;

(2) Bona fide prepayment of wages without discount or interest;

(3) Deductions required by court process provided that the contractor or subcontractor will not be permitted to make such a deduction in favor of the contractor, subcontractor, or any affiliated person or where collusion or collaboration exists.

(b) Any deduction is also permissible which in fact meets the following standards and with respect to which the contractor or subcontractor shall have made written application by registered mail to the Secretary of Labor, a copy of which application shall be sent to the contracting agency by the contractor or subcontractor, setting forth all the pertinent facts indicating that such deductions will meet the following standards:

(1) That such deduction is not prohibited by other law; and

(2) That such deduction is: (i) voluntarily consented to by the employee in writing and in advance of the period in which the work was done, and that consent to the deduction is not a condition either for the obtaining of or for the continuance of employment; or (ii) that such deduction is for the benefit of the employees or their labor organization through which they are represented and is provided for in a bona fide collective bargaining agreement; and

(3) That from such deduction no payment is made to, nor profit or benefit is obtained directly or indirectly by the contractor or subcontractor or any affiliated person, and that no portion of the funds, whether in the form of a commission or otherwise, will be returned to the contractor or subcontractor or to any affiliated person; and

(4) That the convenience and interest of the employees are served thereby, and that such or similar deductions have been customary in this or comparable situations.

(c) After application in good faith, the deduction may be made in accordance with the foregoing standards: Provided, however, That if the Secretary of Labor, on his own motion, or on the application of any person or agency affected by the granting of the application, shall conclude at any time, after written notice to the applicant and an opportunity for him to present his views in support of the deduction, that the deduction has not met the foregoing standards, such deductions shall cease to be "permissible" seven days after the applicant and the federal agency concerned have been notified of the Secretary's decision.

(d) Upon application to and prior written permission from the Secretary of Labor, and subject to the standards set forth in paragraph (b) (1) (2) and (4) of this section, deductions may be made by a contractor or subcontractor or any affiliated person, for membership fees in group benefit or retirement associations; for board and lodging, or for other purposes where the Secretary of Labor concludes the deduction is required by compelling circumstances: Provided, however, The contractor, subcontractor, or any affiliated person does not make a profit or benefit directly or indirectly from the deduction. A copy of the Secretary's decision shall be sent to the applicant and the federal agency concerned.

(e) In accordance with and subject to the standards set forth in paragraph (b) (1) to (4), inclusive, of this section, general permission is hereby granted to make pay roll deductions for:

(1) The payment of the purchase price of United States Defense Stamps and Bonds and United States Tax Savings Notes;

(2) The repayment of loans to or the purchase of shares in credit unions organized and operated in accordance with District of Columbia, Federal, or State credit union statutes;

(3) Contributions to a federal government or quasi-governmental agency.

(f) In any case in which the employee does not have full and actual freedom of disposition of his wage payment, whether made in cash or by check, any restricted payment made to the employee is considered a deduction under the regulations in this section.

(g) Nothing herein shall be construed to permit any deduction which the contractor or subcontractor knew, or in the exercise of good faith should have known, did not meet the foregoing standards. In order to insure compliance with this section, the Secretary of Labor may notify the contractor or subcontractor that the deduction will be permitted only if certain conditions with respect thereto are observed. The contractor or subcontractor or any affiliated person shall also comply with such general rules and regulations concerning the deductions as the Secretary of Labor shall make from time to time, notice of which shall have been given to the contractor or subcontractor or any affiliated person making the deduction and to the federal agency concerned either directly or through publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(iii) Registers may be equipped to retain one or more copies of the transaction in a lock compartment and to issue the remaining copies. Registers may be supplied with a cash drawer, which is opened only by an operation which delivers a serially numbered form into a locked compartment.

(2) Credit registers may be further described as a cabinet or device for retaining in orderly arrangement sales tickets representing charge and other transactions.

(i) Such credit registers usually contain a set of vertical-hinged leaves, each leaf containing several numbered springs, the numbers corresponding with customers' names written on an index.

(ii) Such registers usually contain a storage and cash drawer and are sometimes supplied in combination with adding machines.

(b) Continuous form stationery, which is described as multiple sets of "business forms" with or without carbons, attached and/or folded, for use in billing machines, typewriters, and other office equipment. For example, continuous form stationery may be rolled or "fan folded" and may provide any number of copies up to the limit which will take a carbon impression. This type of stationery is usually printed according to specifications. They may be coated with carbon on the back or interleaved with carbon sheets.

(c) Sales and manifold books, which are described as bound books of multiple sets of forms for making original, handwritten records of sales and/or other transactions. For example, sales books are bound books of sales checks or tickets arranged in sets, usually either carbon coated on the back or arranged to fold or lay one or more carbon sheets between each two copies of a set. Translucent sheets are occasionally combined with carbon paper coated on both sides to reduce the number of carbon sheets. Covers may be arranged to fold in for the purpose of providing a better writing surface and may be ruled for tabulating sales. Sales books may or may not be printed.

PLANT FACILITIES EXPANSIONS

POLICY

§ 81.1001 General policy in regard to new facilities. The conservation of critical material and the fullest possible utilization of existing facilities, whether structures, machinery, or equipment, requires that preference in placing contracts should be given first to contractors who have existing buildings or machinery available, and, second, to contractors who need to acquire the least amount of additional facilities for performance of the contract. Where it has been determined that new facilities are essential, preference should be given to contractors who will themselves finance such facilities. So far as practicable, direct payment or direct reimbursement by the Government for the cost of new facilities should be confined to facilities which themselves form a separate unit (on land covered by the facilities contract or controlled by a long-term lease) or which are readily removable or separable from the contractor's existing plant without unreasonable expense or loss of value. Thus, so far as practicable, buildings should not be erected at the Government's expense on land owned by the contractor unless the Government is given an option to lease on an appropriate basis for a substantial term (e. g. ten years) after the emergency, or an option to buy land at a reasonable price, now or later determined by negotiation.

In connection with new construction projects, the following measures will be observed in order to conserve critical materials:

(a) The site will be selected with a view to minimizing the requirements for additional utilities, transportation, and housing facilities. An effort will also be made to avoid the necessity of multiple-storied structures.

(b) Whenever possible, structures should be of a temporary nature and should be of the simplest construction consistent with the proposed use of the structure and the applicable building codes.

(c) Air conditioning will be employed in only those structures or portions of structures where the manufacturing process makes such use essential. Air conditioning will not be employed for the comfort or for increasing the efficiency of personnel.

(d) Construction of new facilities will, insofar as possible, be of materials the use of which is not prohibited by applicable orders of the Army-Navy Munitions Board or the War Production Board.

§ 81.1002 Rental or allowance for the use of Government-financed facilities. In cases where competition in a price sense will or may exist between the contractor receiving Government-financed facilities and other manufacturers (not using comparable Government facilities on a no-rental basis), appropriate steps will be taken to equalize insofar as possible the competitive situation. To this end, a reasonable rental not less than normal depreciation during the period of use will ordinarily be charged in such cases. Where there is direct Government construction or installation of Government-owned machinery or equipment (not including construction or installation under a Defense Plant Corporation Lease), in lieu of the rental charge, cognizance may be taken of the difference in the ownership or rental status of the facilities, as between the several manufacturers, and this factor taken into account in placing the contract.

Where Government-financed facilities are employed for the performance of contracts other than those directly with the Government, a rental will usually be charged for the facilities so employed. However, where the facilities are furnished as a part of an integrated production program under which a reduction commensurate with the facilities furnished is obtained in the cost of the supplies to the Government, and the furnishing of the facilities without rental does not create an unfair competitive advantage, the rental charge need not be made. Rental may also be waived with respect to production for a foreign Government for cause deemed adequate by the chief of the supply service.

§ 81.1003 Reconversion and storage costs. Where, pursuant to the policy stated in § 81.1001, the Government undertakes to finance the conversion of plants to war production (including required new machinery, equipment, and building installations), the cost of such conversion may include the cost of removing existing commercial machinery, equipment, and installations, and the cost of incidental building rehabilitation and alteration. In such cases, provision may be made for payment, on termination of production for the Government, of the costs of removal of Government-financed machinery and equipment, including preparation for shipment and storage. No provision may be made, however, for the Government's bearing, either directly or indirectly, any part of the cost of reconverting the contractor's plant to commercial production (including reinstallation of privately-owned machinery and equipment), nor will the Government bear the cost of storing such machinery and equipment during the period between conversion and reconversion. This policy is equally applicable to all types of contracts, whether facilities contracts, cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contracts, or fixed-price contracts.

§ 81.1004 Tax amortization. Under the provisions of section 124 of the Internal Revenue Code, the cost of facilities which are acquired by corporations may be amortized over a period of sixty months (or, under certain circumstances, a shorter period) for the purpose of computing taxable income. The amortization provisions do not apply when the facilities expansion is financed under a plan of the type described in Plans III, IV, or V, in § 81.1006 (c), (d), or (e). In order to secure the benefits of such amortization, the corporation must obtain from the War Department or the Navy Department a Necessity Certificate which certifies to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue that the facilities therein described are necessary in the interest of National Defense. The duties of the Services of Supply with respect to processing applications for such certificates are set forth below in §§ 81.1014 to 81.1017.

METHODS FOR PROVIDING NEW FACILITIES AND PROTECTION OF THE GOVERNMENT'S INTEREST IN GOVERNMENT-FINANCED FACILITIES

§ 81.1005 Protection of the Government's interest. The duty of protecting the Government's interest in facilities for which the Government has paid in whole or in part rests upon the Contracting Officer. Where the new facilities are paid for by the contractor, and the cost thereof is not to be borne by the Government directly or indirectly, there is no problem of protecting the interest of the Government in the facilities. (See Plan I, § 81.1006 (a)). Where the new facilities are to be financed by the Government, protection of the Government's interest therein will ordinarily be accomplished by the use of Plan II, III, IV, or V, as outlined in § 81.1006 (b), (c), (d) or (e). In exceptional cases, such protection may be accomplished by the use of Special Facilities Contracts or Lease Agreements or through the use of the procedure outlined in § 81.1007.

§ 81.1006 Methods for providing new facilities. The following methods are typical of those which may be used for providing new facilities:

(a) Plan I: Private ownership, with no Government interest—(1) Purpose. For cases in which the contractor is not to be paid by the Government directly or indirectly for the cost of the facilities except to the extent of normal depreciation included in the price of articles sold to the Government.

(2) Financing. Financed by the contractor.

(3) Title. Vested in the contractor.

(b) Plan II: Private ownership, with Government interest (Emergency Plant Facilities Contract)—(1) Purpose. For cases in which the contractor is to be reimbursed by the Government and desires to retain a future interest in the facilities.

(2) Financing. By the contractor until repaid by the Government.

(3) Title. Vested in the contractor with option to purchase such interest as the Government may have acquired by having repaid the contractor partially or wholly for facilities.

(c) Plan III: Government ownership, War Department construction contract—(1) Purpose. For cases in which the contractor is constructing facilities for the Government and at Government expense.

(2) Financing. By the Government.

(3) Title. Vested in the Government. When the facilities will constitute an addition to or an extension of an existing plant of the contractor, the contractor may be given an option to purchase the facilities.

(d) Plan IV: Government Ownership, Defense Plant Corporation Lease—(1) Purpose. For cases in which the Defense Plant Corporation pays for the facilities.

(2) Financing. Defense plant Corporation, upon recommendation by the War Department, enters into an Agreement of Lease with the contractor which, as agent for and in the name of Defense Plant Corporation, constructs the buildings and purchases the machinery and then leases the facilities from Defense Plant Corporation at an agreed rental. In most cases where the rental agreed upon is insufficient to reimburse Defense Plant Corporation in full over the term of the lease, part of the financing is borne by the War Department under an agreement with Defense Plant Corporation.

(3) Title. Vested in Defense Plant Corporation, with option in contractor to buy at the end of the lease.

(e) Plan V: Government Ownership, Supply Contract—(1) Purpose. For cases in which the contractor will acquire facilities (other than real estate and buildings) for the account of and to be paid for by the Government; facilities to be used by contractor to manufacture supplies under War Department Supply Contract; contractor to pay cost of maintenance and replacement during life of contract. This type of Governmental financing is provided for by the article entitled "Government-Owned Facilities," § 81.332.

(2) Financing. Government Funds.

(3) Title. Vested in the Government, with option in contractor, in certain cases, to buy at cost less depreciation.

§ 81.1007 Other methods of protecting the Government's interest in Government-financed facilities. Where, because of special circumstances (such as the inseparability of the new facilities from existing privately owned facilities), the adoption of none of the methods set forth in § 81.1006 is practicable and the Government bears, as a part of the contract price, all or a portion of the cost of the facilities to the contractor, the Contracting Officer will include in the contract which provides for such payment by the Government for the facilities suitable provisions for the protection of the Government's interest in the facilities and will state in the contract the amount of such payment. Ordinarily in such cases the provisions hereinafter set forth should all be included. However, in exceptional circumstances one or more of such provisions, with the approval of the Chief of the Purchases Branch, Procurement and Distribution Division, Services of Supply, may be omitted from the contract with or without substitution of modified provisions directed to the same end:

(a) Requirement that the contractor maintain the facilities, or an appropriate portion thereof, in good condition at its own expense for a period provided for in the contract extending beyond the period of existing supply contract, unless upon request the Contracting Officer releases it from such obligation;

(b) Requirement that the contractor retain title to the facilities, or an appropriate portion thereof, during said period free of encumbrances not consented to in writing by the Contracting Officer;

(c) Requirement that the contractor makes no material alteration in the nature of the facilities, or an appropriate portion thereof, without the written consent of the Contracting Officer;

(d) Requirement that the contractor give priority to Government orders during said period;

(e) Requirement that the contractor shall not include in any price in any supply contract with the Government any sum for depreciation or amortization of the facilities, or an appropriate portion thereof, during said period;

(f) Provision that the contractor may at any time be released from the above requirements upon payment to the Government of a sum agreed upon between the contractor and the Contracting Officer as constituting fair and just return to the Government for its payment for the facilities.

Where reference is made in the above to "an appropriate portion" of the facilities, that portion for which payment is made by the Government is intended.

§ 81.1014 Information to be submitted in application. Applications for Necessity Certificates should contain the information and be executed in the manner indicated in the following publications:

(a) Form of application for Necessity Certificate, with instruction sheet, issued jointly by the War and Navy Departments, dated October 27, 1941, as the same may from time to time be thereafter amended.

(b) Regulations prescribed by the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy, with the approval of the President, governing the issuance of Necessity Certificates under section 124 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Copies of the foregoing publications may be obtained from the Tax Amortization Section, Headquarters, Services of Supply. Taxpayers may be advised that copies are thus obtainable.

§ 81.1015 Place of filing application. The application for Necessity Certificate should ordinarily be filed with the Tax Amortization Section, Headquarters, Services of Supply, Washington, D. C. In some instances, taxpayers, unfamiliar with the procedure, may file applications with officers of the supply services. An original and one copy of applications thus filed, will be promptly forwarded by the officer, through the chief of the supply service concerned to the Tax Amortization Section, Headquarters, Services of Supply. The third copy will be retained in order to enable the officer to make investigation and report pursuant to § 81.1016 (e).

§ 81.1016 Procedure for processing applications. The following procedure will govern the processing of applications:

(a) The Tax Amortization Section, Headquarters, Services of Supply, will, in cases which concern a supply service, send one copy of the application to the chief of such supply service with a request for report.

(b) The chief of the supply service concerned will transmit this copy to the officer most appropriately qualified, for investigation and report.

(c) The reporting officer, referred to in paragraph (b) of this section, will retain the application and transmit his report thereon to the chief of the supply service concerned, in duplicate, not later than fifteen days after the receipt of the application by him, except in cases in which he is unable to complete his report within such time, in which event he will send an original and a copy of a statement giving his reasons for his inability so to report within the prescribed time and stating when the report will be filed.

(d) The chief of the supply service will retain one copy of the report and forward the original to the Tax Amortization Section, Headquarters, Services of Supply.

(e) The report will, with the exception noted below, be limited to advice as to whether the construction, reconstruction, erection, installation or acquisition of a facility is necessary in the interest of National Defense during the emergency period, within the meaning of section 124 of the Internal Revenue Code as interpreted by Article 3 of the Regulations. This will involve advice on the following points:

(1) Is the "supply to be produced with the facility sought to be certified" "required" within the meaning of Article 3–a of the Regulations?

(2) Is the facility sought to be certified appropriate for the production of the supply?

(3) Is there "an existing or prospective shortage of facilities for the production of the supply" within the meaning of Article 3–b of the Regulations and what facts form the basis of the reporting officer's conclusions with regard to this point?

(4) In the light of information on hand or readily available, do the statements made in the application bearing upon determination of necessity (particularly those relative to replacements and the applicant's attempts to subcontract) appear to be correct?

In the event that a supply service has sponsored the supply to be produced with the facilities sought to be certified for defense rating under Priorities Regulation No. 1, a statement to this effect will be made by the reporting officer in connection with his answer to the first of the above questions. In the event that a supply service has sponsored the facility for a project rating, a statement to this effect will be made by the reporting officer in connection with his answer to the second and third of the above questions. In exceptional cases where the officer has special knowledge of otner facts relating to the application, such as data in regard to the time of filing, which are not known to or readily ascertainable by the Tax Amortization Section, Headquarters, Services of Supply, he shall mention these facts in his report.

§ 81.1017 Certificates of Non-Reimbursement and Government Protection discontinued. In view of the repeal by Congress, as of the date of its original enactment, of subsection (i) of section 124 of the Internal Revenue Code, the issuance of Certificates of Non-Reimbursement and Certificates of Government Protection has been discontinued, and all copies of executed applications for such certificates should be forwarded to the Tax Amortization Section, Headquarters, Services of Supply.

MISCELLANEOUS PURCHASE INSTRUCTIONS

§ 81.1101 Discounts in purchasing. (a) All purchases regardless of the method used (after advertising or by negotiation) will be made on a firm price basis without regard to seller's offer of prompt payment or cash discount provisions.

(b) For all purchases hereafter initiated, all prompt payment or cash discount provisions in invitations for bids, requests for quotations or estimates, or other purchase instruments will be deleted. All requests for bids, formal or informal, will contain a clause reading substantially as follows:

"No offers of prompt payment or cash discounts will be rendered to or considered by the Government."

(c) Nothing in this section will be construed to apply to:

(1) Purchases made without competition,

(2) Purchases made under a contract executed by another Federal department or agency, or

(3) A cash discount offered after acceptance of an offer and making of award.

§ 81.1102 Contracts with foreign nationals. (a) By virtue of Executive Order No. 8389, April 10, 1940, as amended, and Treasury Department regulations issued pursuant thereto, the award of contracts in which certain foreign countries or nationals thereof have any interest is prohibited.

(b) The above prohibition does not apply to contracts with individuals, partnerships, associations, corporations, or other organizations which have been granted a general or special license by the Secretary of the Treasury.

(c) Whenever a contracting officer has reason to believe that any prospective contractor is subject to the above prohibition he should inquire of the chief of the supply service concerned or the nearest Federal Reserve Bank as to the eligibility of the prospective contractor.

§ 81.1103 Contracts with blocked nationals. (a) The Secretary of State from time to time publishes lists of persons and organizations deemed to be acting directly or indirectly for the benefit of the enemy. Copies of these lists will be made available to the chiefs of the supply services.

(b) No contract will be knowingly awarded to any person or organization so listed.

§ 81.1104 Redetermination or renegotiation of price. (a) In those cases where contracts are executed on the basis of speculative cost estimates the contracts should contain a clause providing for the redetermination or renegotiation of the price.

(b) See §§ 81.341 and 81.342 for approved clauses. The clause providing for redetermination of price sets up objective standards for redetermining the price downward only. The clause providing for renegotiation imposes no legal obligation beyond the obligation upon the contractor to furnish a statement of actual costs and the obligation upon the contractor and the Government to renegotiate on the basis thereof. It is contemplated that such renegotiation will lead to a revision of the price in the event that actual costs are materially different from estimated costs. If neither party to the contract requests renegotiation upon the filing of the statement of costs, or if such renegotiation fails to result in a modification of the contract, the contract will be carried out in accordance with its original terms.

§ 81.1105 Limitation on purchase of arms, ammunition and implements of war. (a) No purchase of arms, ammunition, or implements of war shall be made on behalf of the United States by any officer, executive department, or independent establishment of the Government from any person who shall have failed to register under the provisions of section 12 of Public Resolution of November 4, 1939 (Pub. Res. No. 54—76th Cong.).

(b) Articles which are considered arms, ammunition and implements of war will be proclaimed from time to time by the President. Chiefs of the supply services concerned will publish such information to the contracting officers concerned and secure compliance with the above limitation.

§ 81.1106 Maximum prices. (a) No contract will be awarded for the purchase of supplies at a price in excess of the maximum price, if any, established by the Office of Price Administration, or any other agency of the Government authorized to establish maximum prices.

(b) Chiefs of supply services are responsible for distributing maximum price schedules to contracting officers concerned.

PART 1090—AGAVE FIBER

[General Preference Order M-84, as amended August 5, 1942]

Section 1090.1 General Preference Order M-84 is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1090.1 General Preference Order M-84[1]—(a) Additional definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Agave Fiber" means agave fiber of the species of agave sisalana, agave fourcroydes, and agave cantala, of all grades and qualities including tow, waste, and fiber under 20" in length, commonly known in the trade as sisal, henequen, cantala and maguey, and sometimes preceded by an adjective designating the country or district of origin.

(2) "Agave Cordage" means cables and ropes $\frac{3}{16}$" in diameter and larger, in which agave fiber either alone or in combination with other materials is used.

(3) "Processor" means any person who spins, twists, weaves or otherwise uses agave fiber in the production of cordage, twine or any other product.

(4) "Processing" means any use of agave fiber for the manufacture of any article or commodity into which agave fiber goes or of which it becomes a part.

(5) "Dealer" means any person who procures agave cordage or agave twine for storage or for sale, and includes selling agents and other commercially recognized agents acting for their own account or for others, whether or not acquiring title to such agave cordage or agave twine, but shall not include any person who imports agave cordage and/or agave twine.

(6) "Wrapping twine" means twine, including lath yarns (ply and yarn goods) as included in National Bureau of Standards Simplified Practice Recommendation R 92-38, and any other twine suitable for the same purposes for which those twines described in said Simplified Practice Recommendation R 92-38 are used, which contains agave fiber, but shall not include binder twine.

(7) "Binder twine" or "Binding twine" means a single yarn twine, manufactured of agave fiber of the type customarily heretofore manufactured and sold in lengths measuring 500 feet, 550 feet, 600 feet or 650 feet to the pound, with a plus or minus tolerance of 5 per centum, containing a lubricant of not less than 10 per centum of the total weight of the twine and an insect repellent, and which is put up in balls of approximately 5 or 8 pounds each, is suitable for use with a harvesting machine, and is used in the harvesting of agricultural products.

(8) "Inventory" with respect to any person shall include all of any agave product held or controlled by such person at all warehouses, plants or places of storage, but shall not include any of such product while actually in transit or actually in use.

(9) "Supply" means the average monthly amount of any agave product withdrawn from inventory which has been resold or put into actual use:

(i) In the three calendar months preceding the calendar month for which supply is being calculated; or,

(ii) In the three calendar months of the previous year which immediately followed the calendar month of that year corresponding to the said calendar month for which supply is being calculated.

whichever of the two shall be the higher.

(10) "Basic monthly poundage" with respect to any cordage processor for any month shall be the average number of pounds per month of both Manila and agave cordage sold by such processor during the period from January 1, 1939, to December 31, 1941, minus 37% of such person's Manila fiber basic monthly poundage calculated as required by General Preference Order M-36:[2] Provided, That any cordage processor keeping his books on a weekly basis may calculate his basic monthly poundage from the fifty-two week period of the 1939 calendar year and adjust any other calculations or quotas under this order.

(b) Restrictions on sales and deliveries of agave fibers. No person shall sell, or deliver, or make or accept delivery of agave fiber of any grade or quality; except that purchases, sales and deliveries of agave fiber may be made:

(1) By and to Defense Supplies Corporation.

(2) By and to persons importing or otherwise handling agave fiber in accordance with written instructions from Defense Supplies Corporation, provided, that such agave fiber is to be delivered, either processed or unprocessed, directly or through one or more other persons to Defense Supplies Corporation.

(3) By and to importers, dealers, jobbers, or processors, pursuant to contracts entered into on or before February 20, 1942, but only of agave fiber in the amounts specified in such contracts on or before the said date, or by any amendments or supplements thereto on or before August 5, 1942: Provided, however, That purchases, sales and deliveries under general requirements contracts or contracts to take all, or a specified percentage of a production may continue to be made until December 31, 1942.

(4) By and to importers, dealers, jobbers, or processors of agave fiber which has been rejected by Defense Supplies Corporation as unfit for its use.

(5) By and to importers, dealers, jobbers or processors of tow, waste, bagasse flume or fiber less than 20 inches in length, provided that such fiber was on hand in the United States on February 20, 1942, or was, or is thereafter imported into the United States pursuant to this paragraph (b).

(6) By processors to processors whether directly or through one or more other persons of agave fiber which was on hand in the United States on or before August 5, 1942, or which is thereafter imported into the United States pursuant to this paragraph (b).

(c) Restrictions on the processing of agave fibers. (1) Except as provided in paragraphs (c) (2), (3) and (4), no person shall process any agave fiber in the manufacture of any product except the products specified below, and then only from the fibers and in the amounts expressly permitted below. The quotas hereinbelow established shall include processing for delivery to or for physical incorporation into material or equipment to be delivered to, or for the account of, the Army of the United States, the United States Navy, the United States Maritime Commission, or the War Shipping Administration, or their general or operating agents.

(i) Wrapping twine. Processors may use agave fiber for the manufacture of wrapping twine in an amount in any month not in excess of the percentage, for such month, of his average monthly sales for the calendar year 1941 described below:

Year 1942:	Percentage
February	100
March	70
April	65
May	65
June	57½
July	50
August, and each month thereafter	40

Provided, however, That no person shall put into process after April 13, 1942, any Java agave sisalana for the manufacture of wrapping twine, or after August 5, 1942, any Java agave cantala.

(ii) Binder twine. Processors may use agave fiber, in an amount not in excess of:

(a) During the eleven months ending June 30, 1942, an amount which, when added to binder twine in his stocks on November 1, 1941, equals 120% of that processor's total sales of binder twine in the United States during the twelve months ending October 31, 1941;

(b) During the four months commencing July 1, 1942, and ending October 31, 1942, an amount which equals 40% of that processor's total sales of binder twine in the United States during the twelve months ending October 31, 1941:

Provided, however, That no person shall put into process binder twine containing any Java agave sisalana after April 13, 1942, or any Java agave cantala after August 5, 1942; And provided further, That the Director General for Operations may increase pro rata the amount of agave fiber which processors may be allowed to process into binder twine, if, in the Director's opinion, additional amounts of binder twine are needed to provide for the growing or harvesting of agricultural food products or sewing up bags containing such products.

(iii) Carpet yarns. Processors may use agave fiber for manufacturing carpet yarns, if such fibers had actually been put into process for such purpose on or before February 20, 1942.

(iv) Padding or stuffing. Processors manufacturing padding or stuffing may use for that purpose only bagasse waste except on orders to be delivered to, or for the account of, or to be physically incorporated into material or equipment to be delivered to, or for the account of, the Army of the United States, the United States Navy, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration, or their general or operating agents, in which case tow, waste, and fibers less than 20" in length may be used.

(v) Reinforced paper, tape and plastics. Processors manufacturing reinforced paper, tape and plastics may use any agave fibers except Java sisalana and Java cantala, but only in an amount not in excess of 50% of the fiber content of their average monthly sales of such products for the twelve months ended June 30, 1942.

(vi) Agave cordage. Processors manufacturing agave cordage shall not put into process in any of the periods listed below an amount of agave fiber in excess of the amounts hereinafter specified for such period:

Periods	Amounts of Agave fiber
July 1, 1942, through December 31, 1942	12.2 times basic monthly poundage.
Each calendar quarterly period in 1943	5.3 times basic monthly poundage.

Provided, That the amount of agave fiber which may be put into process by any cordage processor in any such period shall be:

(a) Diminished by the amount of any additional Manila fiber which may be put into process by such cordage processor during such period pursuant to any exceptions or additional authorizations issued by the Director General for Operations pursuant to General Preference Order No. M-36;

(b) Increased by the difference, if any, between the amount of Manila fiber permitted to be put into process by such cordage processor pursuant to General Preference Order M-36, and any lesser amount of Manila fiber actually put into process by such cordage processor during such period, and

(c) Increased by any or all of the said processor's permitted amount of agave fiber for use in the manufacture of wrapping twine as provided in paragraph (c) (1) (i).

(2) A person may process agave fiber in the manufacture of a product not specified in paragraph (c) (1), for delivery to, or for the account of, or for physical incorporation into material or equipment to be delivered to, or for the account of, the Army of the United States, the United States Navy, the United States Maritime Commission or the War Shipping Administration, or their general or operating agents.

(3) The prohibitions of paragraph (c) (1) shall not apply to the manufacture of wrapping twine, binder twine, agave cordage, reinforced paper, tape, or plastics from tow, waste, or fiber under 20" in length.

(4) Any processor who, by reason of the foregoing limitations is unable to meet his required deliveries under contracts existing on August 5, 1942, of agave cordage to be delivered to, or for the account of, the Army of the United States, the United States Navy, the United States Maritime Commission, the War Shipping Administration, or their general or operating agents, or any processor of agave cordage who, by reason of meeting the requirements of any such contracts, is required to reduce his operations during the period July 1, 1942, through December 31, 1942, to such an extent that it will cause serious labor displacement, may apply to the War Production Board for permission to process such additional amounts of agave fiber as may be necessary to enable him to meet his said required deliveries. Each application must be filed on or before August 19, 1942, and must state:

(i) Each contract held by the said processor of the type mentioned above,

(ii) The deliveries per month required thereunder,

(iii) The total deliveries per month required under all such contracts,

(iv) The amount of agave fiber processed by such person in May, 1942.

(v) The amount of agave fiber permitted to be processed during the period July 1, 1942, through December 31, 1942, by such processor under the foregoing limitations, and

(vi) The exact amount of relief desired during the said period.

(5) The Director General for Operations may, whenever supplies of agave fiber on hand in the United States and available for future purchase by the United States warrant, increase pro rata the amounts of agave fiber which may be entered into process for the manufacture of agave cordage or for such other products as in the judgment of the Director General for Operations may be necessary to promote the national defense and in the public interest.

(d) Restrictions on purchases, sales and deliveries of agave cordage and wrapping twine. (1) No dealer shall order, purchase or accept deliveries of any wrapping twine or agave cordage which will result in such dealer having in inventory an amount thereof in excess of a two months' supply.

(2) No person (other than a dealer, the Army of the United States, the United States Navy, or the United States Maritime Commission, and the War Shipping Administration, and its general or operating agents) shall order or accept delivery of any wrapping twine or agave cordage which will result in such person having in inventory an amount thereof in excess of one and one-half months' supply; and no such person shall have outstanding at any one time orders for future deliveries of wrapping twine or agave cordage in excess of one month's supply for such person.

(3) No importer shall sell or deliver in any month agave cordage in excess of his average monthly sales of Manila and agave cordage in the calendar years 1939-1941, or wrapping twine, imported or domestic, in excess of the following percentages of his average monthly sales thereof during the said calendar years:

65 percent—July.
40 percent—August, and each month thereafter.

(4) Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the orderly advance accumulation of a supply of wrapping twine to meet an expected seasonal demand for agricultural purposes, provided that the total amount so accumulated shall not be in excess of the amount estimated to be necessary for use for such purpose based on the most recently available crop forecasts of the Department of Agriculture.

(e) Restrictions on purchases, sales and use of binder twine. No person shall hereafter sell, purchase, deliver, accept delivery of or use any binder twine except for the growing or harvesting of agricultural products or for sewing up bags containing such products, and any person purchasing any binder twine shall endorse on, or attach to his purchase order or delivery receipt therefor, a statement signed by such person, or on his behalf by a duly authorized individual, a certificate in substantially the following form:

The undersigned hereby represents that the binder twine covered by this certificate will be either resold or used by the undersigned, during the next twelve months, for and only for one or more of the uses specified in paragraph (e) of General Preference Order No. M-84 (for 1942 growing, harvesting or bagging requirements).

(f) Control of stocks of agave fiber. Control is hereby taken of the distribution and use of agave fiber. Any agave fiber at any time hereafter in the inventory of any person shall be sold and delivered by such person if, and as, specifically directed in any order of the Director General for Operations which may be issued whenever the Director General for Operations shall determine that a shortage of any particular grade of agave fiber for defense, or for private account and for export, renders it necessary or appropriate so to allocate such agave fiber in the public interest, or to promote the national defense by so directing its sale and delivery by such person. Any such sale shall be made at the established prices and terms of sale and payment therefor. No person shall dispose of or use agave fiber in any manner inconsistent with any such order.

(g) Reports. Each person affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as may be required by said Board from time to time.

(h) Records. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(i) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of agave fiber conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board by letter or telegram, Reference M–84, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(j) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Textile, Clothing and Leather Branch, Washington, D. C. Reference: M–84.

(k) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using, material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(l) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Laws 89 and 507, 77th Cong.)

PART 1106—PRINTING AND PUBLISHING

[General Conservation Order M–99]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of copper, tin and zinc for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following Order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1106.1 Conservation Order M–99—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order. (1) "Plate" means any kind or shape of metal printing or marking plate or other metal form, used in the printing process, except such as are composed only of lead, tin and antimony.

(i) Newspaper printing: 1 year;

(ii) Magazine and periodical printing: 1 year;

(iii) Book printing: 4 years;

(iv) Container printing: 1 year;

(v) All other categories of printing: 2½ years.

(4) The re-graining or other preparation of a planographic or intaglio plate for re-use shall be deemed a "use" of such plate within the meaning of subparagraph (3) of this paragraph (a).

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (3) of this paragraph (a), a plate shall not be deemed to be obsolete at any time when there is an assured future use for the same.

PART 1010—SUSPENSION ORDERS

MIDDLESEX NAVAL UNIFORM CO.

Rubin Pizer of Malden, Massachusetts, doing business as Middlesex Naval Uniform Company, is engaged in the manufacture of clothing. In the latter part of February and in March, 1942, for the purpose of manufacturing sailors' uniforms, he ordered woolen cloth from his suppliers, extending with his orders the A–10 priority rating assigned by Conservation Order M–73[1] to orders for woolen cloth for the manufacture of officers' uniforms. By the use of the foregoing rating he obtained deliveries of over 4,000 yards of said cloth, which he could not have otherwise done. He subsequently used the cloth for the manufacture of sailors' uniforms. By such use of the cloth so obtained, he violated § 944.11[2] of Priorities Regulation No. 1, and by obtaining delivery of said cloth by wilful misstatements contained in the A–10 rating which he extended with his orders aforesaid, he violated § 944.18[3] of said regulation.

These wilful violations of Priorities Regulation No. 1 have impeded the war effort of the United States by diverting woolen cloth to uses unauthorized by the War Production Board. In view of the foregoing

It is hereby ordered:

§ 1010.73 Suspension Order S–73. (a) Deliveries of material to Rubin Pizer individually or doing business as Middlesex Naval Uniform Company, his successors and assigns, shall not be accorded priority over deliveries under any other contract or order and no preference ratings shall be assigned or applied to such deliveries to Rubin Pizer individually or doing business as Middlesex Naval Uniform Company by means of Preference Rating Certificates, Preference Rating Orders, General Preference Orders or any other orders or regulations of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations.

(b) No allocation shall be made to Rubin Pizer individually or doing business as Middlesex Naval Uniform Company, its successors and assigns, of any material the supply or distribution of which is governed by any order of the Director of Industry Operations or the Director General for Operations except as specifically authorized by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Rubin Pizer individually or doing business as Middlesex Naval Uniform Company, his successors or assigns, shall not produce, put into process or deliver cloth made of any wool other than noils, waste, reprocessed or reused wool except as specifically authorized in writing by the Regional Compliance Chief of the Boston Regional Office, War Production Board.

(d) Nothing contained in this order shall be deemed to relieve said Rubin Pizer individually or doing business as Middlesex Naval Uniform Company, from any restriction, prohibition, or provision contained in any other order or regulation of the Director of Industry Operations or Director General for Operations, except in so far as the same may be inconsistent with the provisions hereof.

(e) This order shall take effect on August 7, 1942, and shall expire on February 7, 1943, at which time the restrictions contained in this order shall be of no further effect. (P.D. PART 3013—SOLUBLE NITROCELLULOSE

[General Preference Order M-196]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of soluble nitrocellulose for defense, for private account, and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3013.1 General Preference Order M-196—(a) Definitions. (1) "Soluble nitrocellulose" means the product made by nitrating any form of cellulose (including linters, woodpulp and cellophane scrap) having a nitrogen content of 12.5% or less, and whether in the form of base solution or in the dehydrated or water wet condition. The term includes smokeless powder scrap and dissolved film scrap, but does not include undissolved film scrap.

(2) "Smokeless powder scrap" means any rejected smokeless powder unsuited for military purposes and made available for protective coatings and industrial uses.

(3) "Film scrap" means discarded nitrate film whether motion picture or still.

(4) "Undissolved film scrap" means film scrap which has not been dissolved or put in solution, whether washed or unwashed.

(5) "Base solution" means soluble nitrocellulose in solution form, and includes dissolved film scrap.

(6) "Consumer" means a manufacturer using soluble nitrocellulose as one of his raw materials.

(7) "Producer" means any person producing soluble nitrocellulose and any person procuring and dissolving soluble nitrocellulose for sale as base solution.

(8) "Distributor" means any person who buys soluble nitrocellulose for purpose of resale as such.

(9) "Washer" means any person who removes the silver emulsion from the film base.

(10) "Type of soluble nitrocellulose" means one of the following four types of soluble nitrocellulose: lacquer type, coated textile type, film type, and plastics type.

(b) Directions with respect to production. The Director General for Operations may from time to time issue directions to a producer or producers with respect to the type of soluble nitrocellulose to be produced, or with respect to the division of production among types of soluble nitrocellulose. He may also issue directions with respect to the formula or formulae to be used by producers in dissolving film scrap.

(c) Restrictions on deliveries of soluble nitrocellulose. On and after September 1, 1942, no producer or distributor, except as provided in this paragraph (c), shall make delivery of soluble nitrocellulose to any person, and no person may accept delivery thereof from any producer or distributor.

(1) Deliveries in excess of 1000 lbs. Where the amount of soluble nitrocellulose of which any person may seek delivery in any month (whether from one, or more than one, producer or distributor) shall exceed 1000 lbs., dry weight, delivery may be made by a producer or distributor only with the express authorization or direction of the Director General for Operations. Prior to the commencement of each calendar month beginning with September, 1942, the Director General for Operations will directly or indirectly issue to each producer or distributor (normally but not necessarily on Form PD-610, theretofore filed with the War Production Board by such producer or distributor) authorizations or directions covering deliveries of soluble nitrocellulose which may or must be made by him during such month to any person whose total orders for soluble nitrocellulose in such month exceed 1000 lbs., and he may also during any month, including July and August, 1942, issue such other authorizations or directions as he may deem appropriate or necessary, either with respect to deliveries to be made or with respect to use or uses to which material to be delivered is to be put or not to be put. Each producer or distributor, upon being informed by the Director General for Operations of the deliveries which such director has authorized or directed, shall forthwith notify each customer affected thereby.

(2) Deliveries exceeding 232 lbs. but not more than 1000 lbs. Where the amount of soluble nitrocellulose of which any person may seek delivery in any month (whether from one, or from more than one, producer or distributor) exceeds 232 lbs., dry weight, but is not more than 1000 lbs., dry weight, a producer or distributor may without the express authority of the Director General for Operations make delivery of soluble nitrocellulose to such person in such month in a quantity not exceeding the sum of the following amounts, provided such producer or distributor shall have received from such person, the certificate referred to in paragraph (f) (2) hereof within the time specified in said paragraph:

(i) The amount of soluble nitrocellulose ordered by such person required by such person for the filling of defense orders;

(ii) An amount equal to a percentage of such person's average monthly use or consumption of soluble nitrocellulose in the calendar year 1941. Unless and until the Director General for Operations shall fix a different percentage, such percentage shall be 50%.

(3) Unrestricted deliveries. No restrictions of any sort are imposed with respect to the following:

(i) Delivery to or acceptance of delivery by any person in any month of soluble nitrocellulose in a quantity not exceeding 232 lbs., dry weight.

(ii) Delivery of smokeless powder scrap to any producer by the Ordnance Department of the United States Army or by the Bureau of Ordnance of the United States Navy.

(d) Restrictions on deliveries of undissolved film scrap. On and after September 1, 1942, no person shall make delivery of undissolved film scrap, whatever the quantity, without the express authorization or direction of the Director General for Operations, and no person may accept delivery thereof except as so provided. The Director General for Operations will from time to time on proper showing to him by letter issue authorizations or directions covering deliveries of undissolved film scrap.

(e) Separation of functions. Each producer who consumes all or part of his production of soluble nitrocellulose shall treat the production and consumption parts of his operations as separate divisions within the meaning of paragraph (h) (2) hereof, and in his separate capacities as a consumer of soluble nitrocellulose and as a producer of soluble nitrocellulose shall file all applications and reports required of him in his separate capacities. Any authorization or direction to any person under paragraph (d) hereof to accept delivery of undissolved film scrap shall not unless the contrary is expressly indicated constitute authority to use or consume the dissolved film scrap.

(f) Applications and reports. (1) Each person who seeks delivery in any calendar month of more than 1,000 lbs., dry weight, of soluble nitrocellulose, whether for his own consumption or resale, shall, on or before the 15th day of the month preceding the month in which such delivery is sought, submit the original and two copies of Form PD-609 to the War Production Board, Chemicals Branch, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M-196, and one copy to his supplier.

(2) Each person who seeks delivery in any calendar month of soluble nitrocellulose in a quantity in excess of 232 lbs., dry weight, but not more than 1000 lbs., dry weight, whether for his own consumption or resale, shall submit to his supplier with his order not less than 10 nor more than 30 days prior to the requested delivery date, a certificate in the following form, duly executed by him:

The undersigned purchaser hereby certifies (1) that the _____ lbs. of soluble nitrocellulose hereby ordered for delivery in _____, with any other soluble nitrocellulose ordered for delivery during such month, whether from the person to whom this certificate is presented or any other person, will not exceed 1,000 lbs., dry weight; (2) that _____ lbs. of the amount hereby ordered is necessary to fill defense orders placed with the undersigned; (3) that _____ lbs. of the amount hereby ordered (together with the amount of non-defense orders placed with any other person) represents _____% of the undersigned's average monthly 1941 consumption of soluble nitrocellulose, his 1941 consumption amounting to _____ lbs.; (4) that his inventory as of the date for which delivery is requested will not exceed a 30-day supply in terms of General Preference Order M-196, with terms of which he is familiar.

Such certificate may be inscribed on or accompany as a separate instrument the order for soluble nitrocellulose to which it pertains.

(3) Each producer or distributor shall on or before the 20th day of each month commencing with August 1942, submit to the War Production Board an original and two copies of Form PD-610, properly executed by him.

(4) All producers, distributors and other persons affected by this order shall make such reports or furnish such information at such times in such form and in respect to such matters as the Director General for Operations may from time to time prescribe.

(g) Inventory restrictions. No distributor or consumer shall accept delivery of soluble nitrocellulose, and no person shall make delivery of soluble nitrocellulose to any distributor or consumer, if the inventory of such consumer or distributor accepting delivery is, excluding the amount of which delivery is being made, in excess of a 30-day supply in terms, in case of the consumer, of orders received by such consumer for his finished products on the basis of his method of operation during the previous 90 days, or, in case of a distributor, in terms of his orders for soluble nitrocellulose, but this paragraph shall not be construed to prevent a person's accepting delivery thereof in the smallest practicable delivery unit as evidenced by his past experience.

(h) Miscellaneous provisions—(1) Notification of customers. Producers and distributors shall, as soon as practicable, notify each of their regular customers of the requirements of this order, but failure to give such notice shall not excuse any person from the obligation of complying with the terms of this order.

(2) Intra-company transactions. The prohibitions or restrictions contained in this order with respect to acceptance of orders and deliveries in the absence of a contrary direction apply not only to acceptances of orders from and deliveries to other persons, including affiliates and subsidiaries, but also to acceptances of orders from and deliveries to one branch, division or section of a single enterprise by or from another branch, division or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

(3) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Chemicals Branch, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M-196.

(4) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of soluble nitrocellulose conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from non-defense to defense work, may appeal to the Director General for Operations by addressing a letter to the War Production Board, Chemicals Branch, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M-196, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(5) Violations or false statements.—Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this order or who in connection with this order wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States, is guilty of a crime, and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance. TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service

HAVASU LAKE NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, ARIZONA AND CALIFORNIA

Pursuant to the provisions of section 10 of the Migratory Bird Conservation Act of February 18, 1929 (45 Stat. 1222–16 U.S.C. 715i) as amended, the administration of which was transferred to the Secretary of the Interior on July 1, 1939, in accordance with Reorganization Plan No. II (53 Stat. 1431), the following is hereby ordered:

§ 23.409a Havasu Lake National Wildlife Refuge, Arizona and California; public use areas. In accordance with the provisions of §§ 12.1 to 12.16, inclusive,[1] for the administration of national wildlife refuges under the jurisdiction of the Fish and Wildlife Service, the Director of the Fish and Wildlife Service may permit municipalities or other governing bodies, organizations, and individuals to operate public use areas and facilities including but not limited to boathouses, boats, canoes, cabins, stores, docks, and wharfs upon such terms and at such rates of charge, if any, as may be determined by the director to be commensurate with the value of the privilege granted. Any permittee operating on the refuge as hereinabove provided shall be required, prior to construction, to submit for the approval of the director an over-all plot plan for the orderly development of the public use areas. No building, structure, or other improvement or facility shall be constructed in the public use areas until the plans, specifications, and location have been approved by the director, and no fee or rental shall be charged in excess of the tariff or schedule of rates approved by the director.

§ 23.409b Havasu Lake National Wildlife Refuge, Arizona and California; boating. In accordance with the provisions of §§ 12.1 to 12.16, inclusive, for the administration of national wildlife refuges under the jurisdiction of the Fish and Wildlife Service, boating is permitted in the Havasu Lake National Wildlife Refuge, Arizona and California, subject to the following conditions and restrictions:

(a) Permits required for the operation of privately-owned boats. Any person desiring to keep or operate a boat for more than three days during a fiscal year on the Havasu Lake National Wildlife Refuge will be required first to obtain a permit to do so from the refuge manager of the area. For the issuance of such a permit there will be charged per fiscal year or part thereof the sum of $2 for each powerboat or sailboat, $1 for each rowboat or canoe, and $5 for each houseboat: Provided, That such boats shall not be used for hire or for carriage of persons or property for compensation or as an adjunct to any business for which a charge is made or compensation received directly or indirectly. Permits will continue in force until the end of the fiscal year in which issued, unless sooner revoked by the refuge manager. Number plates corresponding to the number of the permit must be provided by each permittee and shall be displayed by him in a conspicuous place on each outer side of the boat near the bow, and the permittee shall keep in his possession and available for inspection the permit granted to him. A permit may not be transferred from one boat to another, but the permit for a particular boat may be transferred from the permittee to another person during the fiscal year for which it is issued upon application to and approval by the refuge manager and the payment of a fee of 50¢.

(b) Wharves, dock, and boathouses. As an accompaniment to a boat permit, general landing and anchorage privileges are granted to the permittee subject to the instructions and supervision of the refuge manager. Where desired in connection with a boat permit and if deemed by the refuge manager not detrimental to the interests of the United States, there may be granted a permit to install and anchor at the shore for the private use of the permittee a floating dock, wharf, and/or boathouse of size and design approved by the officer in charge to accommodate the boat for which the permit has been issued. A charge of $1.50 per fiscal year or any part thereof will be made for the permit for such a dock, wharf, and/or boathouse used in connection with any type of boat. The permit shall not be transferred or the use of the dock, wharf, and/or boathouse granted or sublet by the permittee to another person without application to and approval by the refuge manager and the payment of a fee of 50¢. Permits will continue in force until the end of the fiscal year in which issued unless sooner terminated or revoked. All such facilities shall be well constructed and maintained in a manner satisfactory to the refuge manager, and their location shall be approved by him. Number plates corresponding to the permit will be provided by the permittee and shall be displayed in conspicuous places on each dock or wharf.

(c) Equipment required for boats. The minimum requirements for the equipment of all passenger-carrying boats operating on the refuge shall be those of the United States Coast Guard together with the following additional ones:

(1) Each boat shall be provided with two or more oars, with trustworthy life preservers equal in number to the maximum number of persons to be carried, with an anchor of sufficient size and a rope, chain, or cable of sufficient length and strength to hold the boat in case of accident, and with a water pump or bailing bucket, and other necessary tools.

(2) From sunset to sunrise powerboats or sailboats under way shall carry signal lights and during such time no other lights that may be mistaken for such signal lights shall be exhibited on such boats within the refuge. Each boat shall carry a white light aft to show all around the horizon, and a combination lantern or lanterns in the fore part of the boat to show green to the right and red to the left and both colors to the front. In addition, a white light may be used in the center of the boat near the bow but the aft light shall be higher than such light and so placed as to form a range therewith, and shall be clear of house, awnings, and/or other obstructions.

(3) Each rowboat or canoe, when in use at any time between sunset and sunrise shall carry a lantern or other suitable light to be exhibited whenever in the vicinity of other boats on the water.

(4) A boat at anchor while in use between sunset and sunrise shall carry forward, where it can best be seen, at a height not exceeding 20 feet above the hull, a white light visible all around the horizon.

(5) Each boat shall be provided with a whistle or other sound-producing mechanical appliance capable of producing a blast of two seconds or more in duration. A mouth whistle that can be heard for at least half a mile will be held to comply with this rule.

(d) Navigation rules. Boats operating on the refuge shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Coast Guard as well as with the following additional regulations:

(1) When two boats are approaching each other head-on or so nearly as to be in danger of collision, it shall be the duty of each to turn to the right and to pass on the port, or left side of the other.

(2) When two powerboats approach within 250 yards of each other from opposite directions, either boat shall give, as a signal of her intention, one short and distinct blast of her whistle, which the other boat shall answer promptly by a similar blast of her whistle, and thereupon each boat shall pass on the port, or left, side of the other.

(3) If the courses of the approaching boats are so far to the starboard, or right, side of each other as not to be in danger of collision, either boat shall give two short and distinct blasts of her whistle as an indication of her intention to continue on her course, which the other boat shall answer promptly by two similar blasts of her whistle, and thereupon each boat shall pass on the starboard, or right, side of the other.

(4) When two boats are proceeding on courses that cross each other and such crossing may involve risk of collision, the boat on the starboard, or right, side shall have the right-of-way, and the boat on the port, or left, side shall keep out of the way of the other until the crossing has been safely effected.

(5) A boat overtaking any other boat shall keep out of the way of the overtaken boat, passing on the left side of it if that side is in the clear.

(6) Powerboats when moving under power shall keep clear of rowboats with occupants, approaching them not nearer than 100 feet and should reduce speed during the interval of passing.

(7) Motorboats propelled by gas, oil, gasoline, or alcohol engines, both outboard and inboard, shall not be operated without effective mufflers, except for occasional periods not exceeding 5 minutes at a time.

(8) No boat shall approach, pass, or be located within three hundred (300) feet of the outlets in Parker Dam, or of the Municipal Water District Inlets.

(e) Responsibility of owners of boats. Passenger-carrying boats shall comply with the requirements of the United States Coast Guard and, in addition thereto, boats that, in the opinion of the refuge manager, whose decision shall be final and conclusive, are not properly constructed, operated, or maintained shall not be permitted to be placed in or remain on the waters of the reservoir. Each boat when not in use and each dock, wharf, or boathouse shall be securely anchored or moored in locations designated or approved by the refuge manager and in such a manner as not to endanger other boats on the reservoir or property along the shore. Boats, docks, wharves, or boathouses found floating loose on the reservoir will be taken up, and the permittee shall reimburse the United States for any expense incurred in making the boat, dock, wharf, or boathouse secure. Owners of boats shall not permit the use or operation thereof by any person not competent to operate same or to handle the machinery thereof. The United States assumes no responsibility for loss of or damage to life or properly by theft, storm, accident, or otherwise in connection with or growing out of the exercising of any privilege conferred by a permit issued in accordance with these regulations.

(f) Disorderly conduct. No intoxicated person shall be permitted on land belonging to the United States, or on docks, wharves, or boathouses constructed thereon, or in or on boats on the waters of the reservoir. The person in charge of each boat, dock, or wharf, or boathouse shall preserve order therein or thereon and shall extend courteous treatment to passengers and persons therein or thereon.

HIGH FREQUENCY BROADCAST STATIONS

ADOPTION OF LICENSING POLICY

The Commission on August 4, 1942, effective immediately, adopted the following policy for licensing high frequency (FM) and ST broadcast stations:

Because war conditions have caused great shortages in materials, equipment and skilled personnel necessary to radio broadcasting, the Federal Communications Commission has announced that holders of construction permits for new frequency modulation (FM) radio stations may obtain licenses during the war to operate presently existing facilities, provided construction has reached a point where the transmitter is presently capable of being operated to render a substantial public service. FM broadcasters securing licenses under this policy will have to show that additional construction is not possible at this time and must assure the Commission that construction will be completed according to Rules, Regulations and Standards of the FCC as soon as the required materials and engineering personnel have become available.

According to FCC records there are 5 licensed FM stations now in operation. Twenty-three stations are operating under special temporary authorization pending completion of construction in accordance with the construction permits. Upon appropriate application these would receive licenses to replace the special temporary authorizations. An additional 7 stations are now conducting program tests and have filed applications for an operating license. The new policy under which the FCC will consider applications for operating licenses on the basis of partial construction probably will affect also 21 other holders of FM construction permits. Six permittees now building studio transmitter links (ST), which connect with station transmitters, would come under the policy. Applicants for new facilities, however, are barred, except under special circumstances, by an earlier "freeze" policy announced in the Memorandum Opinion of April 27, 1942, which recognized the necessity for conserving critical materials and banned new grants for FM as well as most other types of broadcast radio.

The Commission observes that the Communications Act does not contemplate extensions of time within which to complete construction unless it appears that construction can be completed within a reasonable length of time. Nor is it desirable to continue the issuance of special temporary authorizations upon a short term basis. However, it is desirable to encourage such service as is now possible to listeners having FM receivers. Accordingly, the Commission will give consideration to applications for licenses to cover partial construction of FM and ST stations where such construction has proceeded to the point where it is possible to provide a limited but satisfactory FM service. The Commission will also consider applications where construction has been completed and the permittee has been unable to secure equipment and technical personnel to make measurements, required as a prerequisite to issuance of a license. Such licenses will be granted on the definite understanding that immediately the required materials and personnel are available, steps will be taken to comply fully with the original construction permit.

To secure a grant of such an application for license, it will be necessary for each applicant to show (1) diligence in proceeding with construction and the reasons for failure to complete construction; (2) the actual status of construction which the applicant believes sufficient to provide an acceptable FM service; (3) the materials and technical personnel needed to complete construction and make proof of performance (Section 6, Form 320); and, (4) the applicant's determination to proceed to final completion in accordance with the Rules, Regulations and Standards of the Commission when materials for further construction and needed technical personnel become available.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK—1942

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Any loss of human life, any interference with production, any loss of critical materials hinders and impedes our war effort.

Uncontrolled fire, even in normal times, is a national menace. It kills or disables thousands of our people and destroys a significant portion of our national wealth each year. Today, when every machine is being taxed to its fullest productive capacity, when new hands are working with unfamiliar tools, and when agents of our enemies are seeking to hinder us by every possible means, it is essential that destructive fire be brought under stricter control in order that victory may be achieved at the earliest date.

Nothing less than the united vigilance and effort of all the people will suffice to break the grip of this menace. Fire hazards everywhere must be detected at once and eliminated. Loss of life and property from blaze and smoke must be reduced in every State of the Union. Prevention of all uncontrolled fires must be our goal.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate the week beginning October 4, 1942, as Fire Prevention Week; and I earnestly request the people of the country to give special heed to the importance of taking active measures during that week, and throughout the year, to conserve our human and material resources from the destructive toll of fire; and I direct the Office of Civilian Defense and other appropriate Federal agencies to initiate programs for emphasizing the importance of attaining these objectives. I also desire to enlist the cooperation of State and local governments, of educators and civic groups, and of the press, the radio, and the motion-picture industry, with a view to promoting widespread realization of the dangers of fire and knowledge of the methods of controlling it.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed, DONE at the City of Washington this 6th day of August in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and [SEAL] forty-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-seventh.

FRANKLIN D ROOSEVELT

CORDELL HULL,
Secretary of State.

Chapter VII—Agricultural Adjustment Agency

[ACP-1941-17]

SUBPART C—1941

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under sections 7 to 17, inclusive, of the Soil Conservation and Domestic Allotment Act, as amended, the 1941 Agricultural Conservation Program, as amended, is further amended as follows:

1. Section 701.201 (c) (8) is amended to read as follows:

§ 701.201 Allotments, yields, productivity indexes, payments, and deductions. • • •

(c) Peanuts. • • •

(8) Deduction. $30.00 per ton of the normal yield for the farm for each acre of peanuts for market in excess of its peanut acreage allotment less the acreage, if any, by which the farm cotton acreage allotment (or an erroneously issued cotton allotment when such allotment is used for determining performance in accordance with § 701.210 (g)) exceeds the acreage planted to cotton on the farm, but not to exceed the maximum peanut payment computed for the farm unless the producer (i) fails to show the disposition of any peanuts grown on the farm, or (ii) fails to pay the penalty due upon any excess peanuts under the marketing quota program: Provided, That nothing in this subparagraph shall be construed as reducing the acreage of excess peanuts upon which deduction is computed even though the amount of the deduction is reduced to the maximum computed peanut payment: Provided further, That no deduction will be made if the acreage of peanuts for market on the farm is one acre or less.

2. Section 701.201 (k) (8) is amended to read as follows:

(k) Miscellaneous. • • •

(8) Minimum acreage of non-depleting land uses. In counties, groups of counties, or States, upon recommendation of the State committee and approval of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, a deduction of $5.00 shall be made for each acre by which the acreage of cropland on the farm not devoted to any soil-depleting crop plus the acreage of special crops with respect to which deductions are computed under paragraphs (a) to (h), inclusive, of this section, is less than the sum of 20 percent of the total acreage of cropland on the farm and the acreage of soil-depleting crops grown on noncropland on the farm: Provided, That the deduction shall be applicable only to that acreage of soil-depleting crops grown on the farm in excess of 30 acres Such deductions shall be made only in the case of farms for which a special soil-depleting allotment (other than commercial vegetable allotment) is determined: Provided further, That the provisions contained in this subparagraph are not applicable in counties designated by the regional director on recommendation of the State committee as counties in which the production of feed for livestock has been seriously reduced by drought.

3. Section 701.210 (g) is amended by changing the heading, adding the following subparagraphs (1) and (2) and by renumbering the present paragraph to be subparagraph (3).

§ 701.210 General provisions relating to payments. • • •

(g) Deductions in case of an erroneous notice of performance or an erroneous notice of acreage allotment. (1) In any case where, through error of an employee of the county association, a producer is officially notified in writing that the measured acreage of cotton, peanuts, potatoes, rice, tobacco, or wheat, is within the respective farm allotment or permitted acreage, or that such acreage is a given amount in excess of the farm allotment or permitted acreage (but not by more than 3 acres or 3 percent of the allotment, whichever is the larger in the case of wheat or rice) and the producer disposes of such excess in the required manner and within the time allowed, when, in fact, the actual acreage of the crop (after disposal of any excess acreage indicated by the official notice) exceeds the acreage allotment or permitted acreage therefor, (but the acreage before any was disposed of was not in excess of the allotment by more than 3 acres or 3 percent, whichever is the larger in the case of wheat or rice), and the producer was not notified as to the correct extent of performance with respect to the acreage allotment or permitted acreage in sufficient time to permit him to remove the excess acreage, and the county and State committees find that, in harvesting an acreage of the crop in excess of the allotment or permitted acreage, the producer acted in the belief that the information contained in such official notice was correct, the acreage of the crop set forth in such erroneous notification shall be the official acreage for all purposes except in determining the cropland for the farm.

(2) In any case where, through error by an employee of the county association, a producer was officially notified in writing that the extent of the conservation measures carried out on the farm is such as to meet the minimum performance required under § 701.201 (k) (5), (6), (7), or (8), when, in fact, the extent of the conservation measures carried out on the farm was less than the required minimum of such conservation measures, and the producer was not notified as to the correct extent of performance with respect to the minimum conservation requirement in sufficient time to permit him to carry out additional conservation measures for the purpose of meeting the minimum conservation requirement, and the county and State committees find that in failing to meet the minimum conservation requirement, the producer acted in the belief that the information contained in such official notice was correct, the extent of the conservation measures set forth in such erroneous notification shall be the official extent for all purposes except in determining the cropland for the farm or the payment for carrying out approved soil-building practices.

Aug.-Sept.-Oct.	210	(total for three months)

Provided, however, That the foregoing limitation shall not affect the requirements of § 944.2 of Priorities Regulation No. 1 for compulsory filling and acceptance of defense orders and other orders bearing preference ratings. Any person with whom such orders are placed shall accept and fill the same regardless of the foregoing limitation but shall not after receiving such orders put in process in the periods covered by this order any raw goatskins, raw kidskins and raw cabrettas for orders other than defense orders, if his total for all orders exceeds said limitation.

(2) No person shall process beyond the blue chrome state, except for military glove or garment use, or for other military orders, any goatskin now or hereafter in process up to that state, which in the judgment of his most qualified expert by further processing from the blue chrome state could be made suitable for military requirements, and no person shall hereafter sell or deliver such suitable skins to any other person, except upon defense orders.

(d) Prohibitions against sales or deliveries. No person shall hereafter sell or deliver any raw goatskins, raw kidskins, or raw cabretta skins if he knows or has reason to believe such material is to be processed or delivered in violation of this order.

(e) Fair distribution of products. In making sales or deliveries of semi-processed or finished goatskins, kidskins, or cabrettas, no tanner shall make discriminatory cuts in amounts or quantities in acceptance of orders or deliveries between former customers who meet such tanner's regularly established prices, terms and credit requirements. Reduction in sales or deliveries proportionate with any curtailment of input established in paragraph (c) hereof shall not constitute a discriminatory cut.

(f) Appeal. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, or that it would result in a degree of unemployment which would be unreasonably disproportionate compared with the amount of goatskins, kidskins or cabrettas conserved, or that compliance with this order would disrupt or impair a program of conversion from nondefense to defense work, may appeal to the War Production Board, Reference M-114, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(g) Reports. Any person who puts in process goatskins, kidskins or cabrettas shall file with the War Production Board, monthly, beginning April 30, 1942, one copy of report form PD–373; and shall file any additional reports and forms prescribed by the War Production Board, from time to time.

(h) Records. Any person who puts in process goatskins, kidskins or cabrettas shall preserve such records for not less than two years as will clearly and adequately indicate his compliance with this order.

(i) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order, shall unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: "War Production Board, Textile, Leather and Clothing Branch, Washington, D. C., Ref.: M–114".

(j) Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order, or who by any act or omission falsifies records to be kept or information to be furnished pursuant to this order, may be prohibited from receiving further deliveries of any material subject to allocation, and such further action may be taken as is deemed appropriate, including a recommendation for prosecution under section 35 (a) of the Criminal Code (18 U.S.C. 80). PART 3011—TURBO-BLOWERS

[General Limitation Order L–163]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the production of turbo-blowers for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 3011.1 General Limitation Order L–163—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Manufacturer" means any person who constructs or manufactures critical turbo-blowers, to the extent that he is engaged in such construction or manufacture, and shall include sales and distribution outlets controlled by said manufacturer.

(3) "Dealer" means any wholesaler, retailer, or other distributor of critical turbo-blowers, other than sales and distribution outlets controlled by a manufacturer.

(4) "Critical turbo-blower" means any new, reconditioned or used centrifugal or rotary type blower or exhauster having a capacity of 10,000 cubic feet per minute or more, at a total pressure of 2 pounds or more; except any such equipment to be delivered to the United States Navy or Maritime Commission for shipboard use, or to any privately owned shipyard or plant for installation in ships built, or repaired, for the United States Navy or Maritime Commission.

(b) Restrictions upon placing of orders. No person shall place an order for a critical turbo-blower unless such order is accompanied by the authorization of the Director General for Operations on Form PD–616A. Orders so authorized shall be placed only with the supplier specified on the Form PD–616A. Any person desiring an authorization on Form PD–616A to enable him to purchase critical turbo-blowers shall file an application therefor with the Director General for Operations on Form PD–616 in duplicate.

(c) Restrictions on acceptance or delivery of orders. (1) No person shall accept any order for a critical turbo-blower unless such order is accompanied by an authorization of the Director General for Operations on Form PD–616A permitting the placing of such order with such person.

(2) Regardless of the terms of any preference rating certificate or blanket preference rating order, or of any rule or regulation applicable thereto, any manufacturer or dealer with whom an order is placed as authorized by the Director General for Operations on Form PD–616A must accept the same, unless the person seeking to place the order is unwilling or unable to meet regularly established prices and terms of sale or payment. No manufacturer or dealer shall discriminate against such orders in establishing such prices or terms.

(3) After 15 days following the date of issuance of this order, regardless of the terms of any contract of sale or purchase or other commitment, or of any preference rating certificate or blanket preference rating order, no manufacturer or dealer shall deliver or otherwise transfer any critical turbo-blower, unless authorized by the Director General for Operations to make such delivery or transfer, as provided in paragraph (d) hereof.

(d) Filing by manufacturers and dealers of delivery schedules: authorization for deliveries. (1) On or before 15 days following the date of issuance of this order, every manufacturer and dealer shall file a statement, in quadruplicate, showing:

(i) All orders for critical turbo-blowers on hand on the date of this order, together with a brief description (including dollar value, use and extent of completion) of the critical turbo-blowers covered by each order, and the proposed date of delivery of each such turbo-blower.

(iii) Preference rating certificate number and the rating assigned to each such order.

The delivery of all critical turbo-blowers listed on such statement as scheduled for delivery on or before August 31, 1942, shall be deemed to be authorized upon receipt of such statement by the War Production Board, unless the Director General for Operations shall direct otherwise. The Director General for Operations may, at any time, revoke such delivery authorization as to any or all critical turbo-blowers so listed, direct or change the schedule of deliveries, allocate any order so listed to any other manufacturer or dealer, or direct the delivery of any such turbo-blower to any other person, at the established price and terms. No manufacturer or dealer shall change the schedule of deliveries as shown on such statement or as directed or changed by the Director General for Operations, without specific authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(2) On or before August 25, 1942 and on or before the 25th day of each succeeding calendar month, every manufacturer or dealer shall file, in quadruplicate, a report on Form PD–616B showing his delivery schedule for critical turbo-blowers for the calendar month immediately following such filing. The delivery of all critical turbo-blowers shown on such schedule as proposed to be made in the calendar month following the date of filing shall be deemed to be authorized by the Director General for Operations upon the receipt of such Form PD–616B by the War Production Board, unless the Director General for Operations shall otherwise direct. The Director General for Operations may, at any time, revoke such authorization as to any or all critical turbo-blowers so listed for delivery, direct or change the schedule of deliveries, allocate any order listed on said form to any other manufacturer or dealer, or direct the delivery of any critical turbo-blower to any other person, at the established price and terms. No manufacturer or dealer shall change the schedule of deliveries as listed on said form, or as directed or changed by the Director General for Operations, without specific authorization of the Director General for Operations.

(e) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the War Production Board setting forth the pertinent facts and the reason he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(f) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder, and all communications concerning this order, shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Branch, Washington, D. C. Ref.: L–163.

In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director General for Operations.

(h) Records and reports. All manufacturers or dealers affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning production, deliveries and orders for critical turbo-blowers.

All manufacturers or dealers affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board, such reports and questionnaires as the War Production Board shall from time to time request. [Supplementary Order 11]

LICENSING DISTRIBUTORS OF CHEMICALS AND DRUGS

A statement of the reasons for this Supplementary Order No. 11 has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Pursuant to the authority of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, including section 205 (f) (1) thereof, it is hereby ordered:

§ 1305.15 Provisions licensing distributors of chemicals and drugs—(a) License required. Effective August 11, 1942, a license as a condition of selling is required of every distributor now or hereafter selling any chemicals or drugs for which maximum prices are established by Price Regulations Nos. 21, 31, 34, 36, 37, 38, 42, 78, 79, 80, 98, 99, 101, 103, 104, 179, 191, 192,[1] respectively, as amended or supplemented, or by any other price regulation now or hereafter issued, amended or supplemented by the Office of Price Administration making applicable by reference the provisions of this Supplementary Order No. 11.

(b) License granted. Effective August 11, 1942, every distributor now or hereafter selling to any person any chemicals or drugs for which maximum prices are established by Price Regulations Nos. 21, 31, 34, 36, 37, 38, 42, 78, 79, 80, 98, 99, 101, 103, 104, 179, 191, 192, respectively, as amended or supplemented, or by any other price regulation, now or hereafter issued, amended or supplemented by the Office of Price Administration making applicable by reference the provisions of this Supplementary Order No. 11, is hereby granted a license as a condition of selling such chemicals or drugs. The provisions of every price regulation of the Office of Price Administration to which this order now is or may hereafter become applicable shall be deemed to be incorporated in the license hereby granted, and any violation of any provision so incorporated shall be a violation of the provisions of said license. The license granted by this order shall become effective August 11, 1942, or when any person becomes a distributor subject to the provisions of this order, and shall, unless suspended as provided in the Act, continue in force so long as and to the extent that any such regulation or any applicable part, amendment or supplement remains in effect.

(c) Exclusions. This Supplementary Order No. 11 shall not be applicable to laboratories operated by a nonprofit educational institution, nor to sales by persons selling at retail.

(d) Licensing section of General Maximum Price Regulation superseded. This Supplementary Order No. 11 supersedes the provisions of § 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation insofar as said § 1499.16 may be applicable to distributors of chemicals or drugs who are licensed hereby.

(e) Registration of licensees. Every distributor hereby licensed shall register with the Office of Price Administration at such time and in such manner as the Administrator may hereafter by regulation prescribe, on forms which will be made available by the Office of Price Administration.

(f) License not transferable. The license hereby granted is not transferable.

(h) Definitions. When used in this Supplementary Order No. 11, the term:

(1) "Distributor" means any person who receives delivery of any chemicals or drugs subject to a price regulation specified in paragraph (b) and resells it (whether as jobber, agent, dealer, broker, or any similar person or as an importer or exporter) without substantially changing its form. Repackaging, relabeling, diluting, blending or mixing, without more, shall not be deemed to constitute a substantial change of form. [Maximum prices authorized under § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation [1]—Order 51]

FARM TRACTORS AND FARM EQUIPMENT

For reasons set forth in an opinion issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register,* and pursuant to and under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation, it is hereby ordered:

§ 1499.265 Authorization to manufacturers of farm tractors and manufacturers of other farm equipment. (a) Specific authorization is hereby given to any manufacturer to determine the maximum price of any farm tractor or other item of farm equipment in which some substantial change in design or equipment has been made since March 31, 1942, by the following formula:

(1) The revised maximum price applicable to sales to the class of purchasers commanding the lowest net price or highest rate of discount shall be calculated by adding to or subtracting from the maximum price, for the same class of purchasers for the item as originally equipped, the net increase or decrease in factory cost attributable to the change in design or equipment, calculated in accordance with subparagraph (3).

(2) The revised maximum prices applicable to sales to other classes of purchasers, if any, shall be calculated by applying to the maximum net price calculated in accordance with paragraph (a) (1), the same percentage price differentials as were in effect on March 31, 1942, for such other classes of purchasers. Likewise, the revised maximum list price, if any, shall be calculated by applying to the maximum net price, calculated in accordance with subparagraph (1), the same percentage differential as was in effect on March 31, 1942, between the lowest net price and the list price.

(3) The net increase or decrease in factory cost attributable to the change in design or equipment shall be calculated by the use of: material prices actually being paid not to exceed maximum prices established by the Office of Price Administration for such materials; direct labor cost based on labor rates in effect on March 31, 1942; factory overhead allocable to such direct labor cost charged at the actual average rate in effect during the quarter ended March 31, 1942, or at the standard rate consistently used in the company, whichever is lower. No charge for profit or for overhead, other than such factory overhead, shall be included in the net increase or decrease in factory cost attributable to the change.

(b) Within ten days after each such maximum price has been determined under § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation a manufacturer shall under oath or affirmation report to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., the following:

(1) The proposed maximum prices as computed in accordance with paragraph (a)

(2) His new suggested list price, f. o. b. factory, and the resulting net prices to him; and

(3) A statement showing all the details of the computation of the costs of the old and the new models and of the proposed maximum prices.

Each proposed maximum price so reported shall become the maximum price if the Office of Price Administration either approves such price in writing or fails to disapprove it within thirty days after receipt of the report. Within five days prior to the filing of such report and during such thirty-day period, the manufacturer may quote, contract, sell or deliver at the price reported, but the final settlement shall be made in accordance with the action of the Office of Price Administration on such report and, if required by the Office of Price Administration, refunds shall be made.

(c) This Order No. 51 may be revoked or amended by the Office of Price Administration at any time.

(d) This Order No. 51 shall become effective August 7, 1942. (Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.)

(a) Population. Twenty-seven and one-half per cent of available funds in the ratio which the population of each State bears to the population of the United States as shown by the Census Bureau 1940 population census;

(b) Special health problems. Forty-five per cent of available funds on the basis of:

(1) The ratio which the mean annual number of deaths in each State from pneumonia, cancer, and other infectious and parasitic diseases, except influenza and syphilis, bears to the total mortality from these causes in the United States as shown by the Bureau of Census "mortality statistics" for the five years 1936–1940;

(2) Prevalence of malaria, hookworm disease, trachoma, typhus fever, and similar geographically limited diseases, special industrial hazards, and other conditions that result in an inequality of exposure to these hazards among the States;

(4) The need for regional training centers;

(5) The health needs occasioned by war activities, including the environments of military posts, cantonments, maneuver areas, and war industries;

(c) Financial needs. Twenty-seven and one-half per cent of available funds on the basis of the financial needs of the States, which is determined to be the ability of the State to raise revenue expressed indirectly in terms of differences in per capita five-year mean income as computed by the United States Department of Commerce for the years 1936–1940;

Excess expenditures or appropriations in any year would be applied against the requirement of any succeeding year or years.

5. The declarations or applications contain a statement to the effect that the management of Dallas Railway is considering recommending to the Board of Directors of Dallas Railway the declaration and payment of all of the accumulated unpaid dividends on 3,843 shares of 7% Preferred Stock in the hands of the public, after the surrender by Electric of the 11,000 shares of such preferred stock which it owns and the waiver by Electric of the accumulated unpaid dividends on such shares.

It appearing to the Commission that it is appropriate in the public interest and the interests of investors and consumers that the hearing herein be reconvened for the purpose of considering the matters contained in said amendment;

It is ordered, That the hearing herein be reconvened for the purpose of considering such matters under the applicable provisions of said Act and Rules of the Commission thereunder on August 26, 1942, at 10.00 A. M., E. W. T. at the office of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On such day the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will advise as to the room where such reconvened hearing will be held. Notice is hereby given of said reconvened hearing to Electric and to Dallas Railway, said notice to be given to said declarants or applicants by registered mail and to all other interested persons by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

It is further ordered, That Richard Townsend or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose shall preside at the reconvened hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such reconvened hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of said Act and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That without limiting the scope of the issues presented by said amendment, otherwise to be considered in this proceeding, particular attention will be directed at the reconvened hearings to the following matters and questions:

(1) Whether the proposed capital contribution by Electric to Dallas Railway of the securities of Northern Texas Company and of shares of Dallas Railway's preferred stock is in the public interest and the interest of investors and consumers.

(2) Whether the acquisition by Electric of 1,816 additional shares of the common stock of Dallas Railway will unduly complicate the capital structure of Electric's holding company system or will be detrimental to the proper functioning of such holding company system, and whether the consideration proposed to be paid by Electric for such stock is reasonable.

(3) Whether the execution of the proposed Supplemental Indenture by Dallas Railway is in conformance with the standards of the Act.

(4) Whether in all other respects the plan is consonant with the standards of the Act, is fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby, and is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 of the Act.

(5) Whether it is necessary or appropriate to impose any terms or conditions with respect to the paid-in surplus to be created as a result of the proposed capital contribution.

(6) The propriety of the proposed accounting treatment of the transactions on the books of Dallas Railway and on the books of Electric.

(7) Whether in any other respect the terms and conditions of the proposed transactions are detrimental to the public interest or the interest of investors or consumers, or will tend to circumvent the provisions of the Act, or the rules, regulations, or orders thereunder; and the extent to which terms and conditions should be imposed to insure adequate protection of such interests in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Act.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

Chapter III—Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine

[B.E.P.Q. 485, Tenth Revision]

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

WHITE-FRINGED BEETLE REGULATIONS MODIFIED

§ 301.72a Administrative instructions; removal of certification requirements for specified articles. (a) Pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine by the second proviso of § 301.72, Chapter III, Title 7, Code of Federal Regulations [Notice of Quarantine No. 72, on account of the white-fringed beetle], all certification requirements for the interstate movement from the regulated areas are hereby waived effective August 3, 1942, through January 31, 1943, for the following articles and materials enumerated in § 301.72–3:

(1) Soil, sand, and gravel, as indicated below. (i) Soil, when taken from a depth of at least 2 feet below the existing surface, and when entirely free from any surface soil to a depth of 2 feet.

(ii) Sand and gravel when washed, processed, or otherwise treated to the satisfaction of the inspector.

(2) Articles other than soil. When free from soil and when sanitation practices as prescribed by the inspector are maintained to his satisfaction, the following articles are exempt from certification during the period specified above:

(i) Potatoes.

(ii) Lily bulbs, except that freshly harvested or uncured bulbs are not exempt.

(iii) Forest products such as cordwood, stump wood, logs, lumber, timbers, posts, poles, and cross ties.

(iv) Hay, other than peanut hay; roughage of all kinds, straw, leaves, and leafmold.

(v) Peanuts in shells, and peanut shells.

(vi) Baled cotton lint, and linters.

(vii) Brick, tile, stone, cinders, concrete slabs, and building blocks.

The intensity of infestations has been greatly reduced by drastic suppressive measures applied throughout the infested areas. This factor, as well as the conditions of growth, production, or maintenance of the restricted articles, has so reduced the danger of dissemination of white-fringed beetles that certification of the exempted articles is no longer necessary.

(b) Except as specified above the following articles and materials shall remain under the restrictions of § 301.72–3:

(1) All soil, earth, sand, clay, peat, muck, compost, and manure, whether moved independent of, or in connection with, or attached to nursery stock, plants, products, articles, or things.

(2) Nursery stock.

(3) Grass sod.

(4) Lily bulbs when freshly harvested and uncured.

(5) Peanut hay.

(6) Seed cotton and cottonseed.

(7) Used implements, machinery, containers, scrap metal, and junk.

This revision supersedes Circular B.E.P.Q. 485, ninth revision, which became effective May 11, 1942. (7 CFR, § 301.72; sec. 8, 39 Stat. 1165, 44 Stat. 250; 7 U.S.C. 161)

Chief.

Section 404.72 (e) [2] of said regulations is amended to read as follows:

§ 404.72 Settlement under the certificate of indemnity. • • •

The county committee shall certify to the designated agency the amount of refund due and upon collection of the amount due shall transmit the check in payment thereof to the designated agency.

(b) Through or to a buyer other than a designated agency. If any peanuts which are in fact excess peanuts are marketed and identified in accordance with these regulations as quota peanuts, when delivered to or marketed through a buyer other than a designated agency, the producer(s) on the farm, upon establishing to the satisfaction of the county committee the type, grade, class, price received, and date of marketing of such peanuts may, in lieu of paying the penalty of 3 cents per pound, pay to the Treasurer of the United States through the office of the county committee or the office of the State committee, with respect to such peanuts, an amount equivalent to that by which the price received for such peanuts exceeds the price for excess peanuts for oil determined by the Secretary or his authorized representative, in effect on the date such peanuts were so delivered and marketed, had such peanuts been delivered to or marketed through a designated agency as excess peanuts.
